2009 MEDIA GUIDE

THE STORY OF THE AFL

When Lamar Hunt founded the American Football League in '59, the established National Football League was a 12-team confederation with all but two of its franchises residing east of the Mississippi. Had it not been for Hunt's audacious challenge and the most convulsive decade in pro football history, we may never have witnessed the worldwide sports phenomenon that is today's 32-team NFL. As we commemorate the 50th anniversary of the AFL in 2009, we proudly salute Hunt and the rest of "The Foolish Club," whose impossible quest became a reality beyond even their wildest dreams.

On December 28, 1958, the 26-year-old Hunt sat in a Houston hotel watching the stirring finish of the '58 NFL Championship Game as the Baltimore Colts beat the N.Y. Giants in sudden-death overtime. After spending the previous two years trying to buy an NFL team, Hunt's mind was made up.

The Foolish Club

After a fruitless attempt to purchase the Chicago Cardinals in February of '59, Hunt returned by plane to Dallas. On the flight, he recalled later, "It was as if a light bulb came on." Unable to buy an existing franchise, and repeatedly rebuffed in his efforts to persuade the NFL to expand, Hunt decided to explore the possibility of forming his own football league. Borrowing airline stationery, he sketched out a rough outline of a prospective new pro gridiron circuit.

Later in the spring, he met with Houston oilman Bud Adams, who joined the enterprise, as well as other investors in Minneapolis, Denver, Los Angeles and New York. On August 14th, less than two weeks after his 27th birthday, Hunt called to order a meeting in Chicago, and the American Football League was officially born. It was on the strength of resilient owners, innovative coaches and an unlikely collection of talented players that the foundations of the AFL were built.

Within two weeks of the AFL's formation, the NFL announced that it would put an expansion franchise in Dallas to compete with Hunt's flagship team. Two months later, the AFL's Minneapolis franchise defected to the elder league. As the NFL moved aggressively to smother the AFL's challenge, many observers thought that the new league was doomed. Instead, Hunt and the other owners persevered as the AFL's eight charter franchises took the field in '60.

The league's style of play was wide open and TV friendly with a two-point conversion option after touchdowns and names on the backs of players' jerseys. The AFL was also buoyed by an innovative television contract, the first of its kind in professional sports. The five-year, $8.5 million agreement with ABC paid each of the AFL's clubs $170,000 per season. The NFL wouldn't introduce its own league-wide TV rights deal until a year later. "Lamar was the first one who had the idea of equal sharing of all television revenue," longtime Chiefs executive Jack Steadman recalled. "Pete Rozelle gets credit for that, but basically he was copying what the American Football League had already done."

Despite the AFL's high-flying style, attendance was disappointing in most cities, with the Chargers moving from Los Angeles to San Diego after their initial campaign. Reflecting on the widespread monetary losses by the teams, Oakland owner Wayne Valley said they should call themselves "The Foolish Club."

"Lamar really held the league together during the early years," Steadman remembered. "Every year people would say this would be the last (AFL Owners) meeting. Owners who had come to the meeting thinking they had had enough, 'I've spent enough money, I've lost enough money,' they'd leave all enthused about losing another million dollars."

In the spring of '63, Hunt made the difficult decision to move his Texans franchise from his hometown. Despite outdrawing the NFL's expansion Cowboys at the box office for three seasons and boasting a clearly superior product on the field, it was clear that the city could not sustain two competing franchises at the Cotton Bowl. In Hunt's altruistic world, the integrity of the AFL as a whole was far more important than engaging in a prolonged battle for the Dallas market.

The Texans rode out of town on top with a double-OT win in the '62 AFL Championship Game vs. Houston. By May of '63, Kansas City Mayor H. Roe Bartle had fully consummated his courtship with Hunt, whose franchise was officially rechristened as the Chiefs. The New York franchise was purchased by Sonny Werblin, who renamed his squad the Jets. With several franchises now stabilized or relocated, the AFL signed a new five-year, $36 million deal with NBC. After hearing news of the league's new TV deal, Steelers owner Art Rooney commented, "They don't have to call us Mister anymore."

The success of players like QB Joe Namath helped the AFL continue to pick up steam. This led to escalating competition for players as both leagues began "babysitting" college players days before the draft. Hunt and head coach Hank Stram helped hasten the further integration of professional football by taking a radical step at the time and recruiting from the nation's traditional black colleges. Lloyd Wells and the Chiefs scouting staff scoured this largely untapped pool of talent to find a trio of future Hall of Famers – DT Buck Buchanan (Grambling), LB Willie Lanier (Morgan State) and CB Emmitt Thomas (Bishop College). "If you observed Lamar, you observed someone who treated people fairly," Lanier later observed. "Everybody, black, white, rich, poor, it didn't matter."

THE STORY OF THE AFL

On April 8, 1966, Cowboys President and General Manager Tex Schramm met Hunt under the statue of the Texas Ranger in the airport terminal at Love Field in Dallas. Over the next two months, the two men represented their respective leagues during ongoing secret negotiations that culminated in the June 8, 1966 announcement that the NFL and AFL would merge fully by '70.

"I think he saw that every team had to survive," Norma Hunt said of her husband's role in the merger agreement. "That meant that you couldn't always be selfish about the interests of your own team. You truly had to look at the broad picture. Lamar unfailingly stood up for that principle."

With the merger, the two leagues announced the first "AFL-NFL World Championship Game" to be held following the '66 regular season, as well as a common draft beginning in '67. In a July memo to Pete Rozelle, who would remain as commissioner, Hunt suggested the game could be called the "Super Bowl," an idea that Rozelle later admitted he found "corny" at the time.

On January 15, 1967, Stram's Chiefs met Vince Lombardi's Packers in what would later become known as Super Bowl I. After seven seasons of competing against each other at a distance, the game marked the first time an AFL team had faced an NFL squad. The AFL accounted for itself very well, trailing 14-10 at halftime, before falling to the Packers by a 35-10 margin. The game was watched by more than 65 million people, the largest audience ever to watch a sporting event in America at the time.

Pete Rozelle with Lamar Hunt

After being beaten soundly in the first two Super Bowls, the AFL pulled off an upset for the ages on January 12, 1969, as the N.Y. Jets shocked the Baltimore Colts in Super Bowl III. Afterward, a still-stunned Rozelle confided to one aide, "Don't worry, this may be the best thing that ever happened to the game."

A decade after he conceived the upstart league, Hunt watched his Chiefs defeat the Minnesota Vikings by a 23-7 count in Super Bowl IV, the final game in AFL history. The Chiefs wore patches on their jerseys to commemorate the AFL's 10-year existence. But the legacy of the AFL would long live on. At Hunt's urging, the AFL's teams became today's AFC whose bold block "A" logo bears more than passing resemblance to the winged "A" of the AFL. The same four franchises that were in the AFL West in '60 remain together in the AFC West. No four teams in pro football have remained in the same division grouping for as long.

In '86, the AFC championship trophy was renamed the Lamar Hunt Trophy, providing one final tribute to the man who original Patriots owner Billy Sullivan called, "the architect and designer, the builder of the sports version of the impossible dream," when Hunt became the initial AFL figure inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in '72.

"Lamar had a dream, and the thing is, we had dreams, too," Hall of Fame QB Len Dawson fondly recalled. "Can you just imagine the number of people Lamar has touched because he said, 'I'm going after this dream?'"

That dream continues to live on in 2009, as a series of year-long events will proudly commemorate the AFL's 50th anniversary. Thanks to Hunt and "The Foolish Club," the AFL provided the perfect venue for countless players and coaches who may never have been given an opportunity in the NFL. Not only did the AFL forever change the face of professional football, it truly put cities like Kansas City, Denver and Buffalo on the nation's big-league map.

Through the struggles of those very tenuous formative years, through the sometime tense and acrimonious times that eventual led to merger talks, through it all as Sullivan said on the steps of Canton in '72, there was "our great founding father, our guiding light, our pleasant leader – the indomitable Texan – Lamar Hunt." Thanks to paternal persistence and patience of pro football league, the tale of the American American success story.

Hunt, 50 years after his conception of a second Football League still ranks as a truly great

LAMAR HUNT FOUNDER

Born: August 2, 1932
Died: December 13, 2006

The National Football League and the American sports community lost a true treasure on December 13, 2006 when Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt passed away in Dallas, Texas at the age of 74.

Hunt was originally diagnosed with prostate cancer in '98 and quietly underwent many treatments and surgeries over the next eight years. He maintained his active schedule until entering the hospital for the final time on November 22, 2006. He is survived by his wife, Norma and their four children, Lamar, Jr., Sharron Munson, Clark and Daniel. He was also the proud grandfather of 14 grandchildren.

Hunt celebrates the first of three AFL titles.

Hunt is universally recognized as one of the greatest sportsmen in American history. No one would have savored the 50th anniversary celebrations for the American Football League and the Chiefs franchise in 2009 more than the Hunt, the individual who served as the guiding force behind the formation of both of those football entities.

Hunt served as a positive influence on the game for 47 years dating back to his conception of the American Football League in '59. He was the first AFL figure to be enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in '72, a remarkable feat considering he became involved in the game just 13 years earlier.

Hunt served as the catalyst who brought together the whimsically-named "Foolish Club" comprised of the eight original AFL owners. His "impossible dream" became a reality when his fledgling league took foot on the field for the '60 season. On June 8, 1966, the AFL-NFL merger was announced by NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle and on January 15, 1967, Hunt's Kansas City Chiefs were participating in the inaugural Super Bowl.

"Before there was a player, coach or a general manager in the league there was Lamar Hunt," late Patriots owner William Sullivan remarked at Hunt's Hall of Fame induction ceremony. "Hunt was the cornerstone, the integrity of the league. Without him, there would have been no AFL."

Despite his many accomplishments, Hunt's humility was one of his most unwavering and most endearing traits. While he modestly declined to take credit for his efforts, he truly played an important role in the design, ongoing development and direction of the modern-day National Football League.

Whether it was serving as the driving force behind the formation of the AFL, playing a key player in the AFL-NFL merger talks in the '60s, or overseeing many crucial issues concerning pro football and the Chiefs franchise over five decades, few individuals helped change the face of America's favorite game for the better as much as this quiet Texan.

In addition to being a principal negotiator in the merger of the AFL and NFL in the late '60s, he was a contributor to the design of the NFL playoff format. He is also credited with accidentally putting the name "Super Bowl" on the NFL's championship game — the name coming from his children's toy "Super Ball."

For many years, he was a persistent advocate of the two-point conversion option for pro football — an old college and AFL rule that was finally adopted by the NFL in '94. Hunt had also lobbied for many years that an additional Thanksgiving game be added to the NFL schedule. In 2006, those efforts were rewarded when the Chiefs hosted the first-ever Thanksgiving contest at Arrowhead Stadium.

Perhaps Hunt's biggest influence on the league over the years was his quiet, yet persuasive voice of reason. Hunt's name is rightfully mentioned alongside other legendary family surnames in pro football history such as Halas, Mara and Rooney for his commitment to putting the betterment of the league ahead of any potential individual gain.

As the founder of the American Football League, he helped pave the way for much of the modern growth of pro football. Possibly the greatest tribute to his contributions to the sport was the naming by the league of the Lamar Hunt Trophy, which is presented annually to the champion of the American Football Conference.

The early days of the AFL were problem-filled and often tenuous, but Hunt saw his Dallas Texans achieve on-field success. In '62, the Texans won the AFL Championship with a double-overtime victory over the Houston Oilers, the first of three titles won by the Texans/Chiefs during the league's 10-year existence.

After three years in Dallas, Hunt moved his team to Kansas City in '63, where the organization was renamed the Chiefs. Hunt truly helped put Kansas City on the "big-league" map, thanks to a star-studded football team that was the winningest in the 10-year history of the American Football League.

Hunt's team repeated as AFL champions in both '66 and '69. Three years later, the Chiefs claimed Kansas City's first major sports championship by defeating the Minnesota Vikings in Super Bowl IV.

In the late '60s, Hunt was closely involved in the original development plans for Arrowhead Stadium, a facility which provided the Chiefs and their fans with one of the most decided homefield advantages in all of sports. While other venues of a similar vintage have long since been demolished, Arrowhead continues to serve as a point of pride for Kansas City.

Thanks in large part to the vision and lobbying efforts of Hunt, Jackson County Missouri voters approved a 3/8 cent sales tax in April of 2006. That measure is expected to raise $425 million for the Truman Sports Complex, of which $325 million has been earmarked for renovation efforts at Arrowhead that began in 2007. Hunt's longtime dream of hosting a Super Bowl in Kansas City appeared to become a reality when NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue announced on November 16, 2005 that NFL owners had passed a proposal to bring the NFL's championship game to Kansas City in February of 2015.

Unfortunately, a provision in the April 2006 election that would have resurrected the "rolling roof" concept for Arrowhead Stadium did not pass. The "rolling roof" was part of Hunt's initial vision for Arrowhead Stadium in the '60s. In its 21st century incarnation, the "rolling roof" would have provided a climate-controlled facility suitable for hosting the Super Bowl, the Final Four and other events.

While Hunt did not see an NFL title game played in Kansas City, he worked diligently to bring other prominent sporting contests to Arrowhead over the years. The "Home of the Chiefs" served as host of the Dr Pepper Big 12 Conference Championship Game for the fifth time in 2008. In addition to numerous college football games, Arrowhead hosted several international soccer matches thanks to Hunt.

During the decade of the '90s, Hunt took great pride in his franchise's on-field resurgence as Kansas City compiled a stellar 102-58 (.638) regular season record from '90-99. Under Hunt's stewardship, the Chiefs developed an intensely-loyal fan following, not just in Mid-America, but across the country and around the globe.

Hunt took great satisfaction when the Chiefs boasted season-ticket holders from 48 states (all but Maine and Vermont), as well as the District of Columbia and Canada. He was also honored to have Kansas City represent the NFL in four American Bowl contests — Berlin, Germany ('90), Tokyo, Japan ('94, '98) and Monterrey, Mexico ('96).

While the Chiefs always remained Hunt's most prized sporting entity, his passion for athletics encompassed more than just football. Appropriately nicknamed "Games" during his childhood, Hunt's love of sports was his true lifeblood, an enthusiasm which led to his involvement in six different professional sports leagues and seven sports franchises.

In addition to his formative role in the creation of the AFL, Hunt was involved in the development of both the North American Soccer League and a tennis promotion company, World Championship Tennis.

Hunt's involvement in those ventures resulted years later in his induction into the respective Halls of Fame of both United States Soccer (located in Oneonta, New York) in '82 and International Tennis

(located in Newport, Rhode Island) in '93. He was also inducted into the state Sports Halls of Fame of both Missouri ('95) and Texas ('84). In total, Hunt has been selected to nine "Halls of Fame," including the Texas Business Hall of Fame ('97) and the Kansas City Business Hall of Fame (2004). In February of 2008 Hunt's bust was added to the "Hall of Famous Missourians" at the state capitol in Jefferson City.

In '81, Hunt was inducted into the NFL Alumni Association's prestigious Order of the Leather Helmet and in February of '93, he received the Francis J. "Reds" Bagnell Award from the Maxwell Football Club of Philadelphia.

Truly a sportsman for all seasons, Soccer America Magazine named Hunt one of its "25 Most Influential People" in '99 after the 94-year-old U.S. Open Cup was renamed the "Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup." That same year he also received the U.S. Soccer Federation Hall of Fame Medal of Honor, joining former U.S. Soccer President Alan Rothenberg as the only other individual to earn that prestigious distinction. In 2005, the U.S. Soccer Foundation honored Hunt with its Lifetime Achievement Award.

The Hunt Family served as the Investor/Operators of the Kansas City Wizards franchise of Major League Soccer from '95-06 and revealed as the Wizards claimed the 2000 MLS Cup. The Hunt Family still oversees the operations of two MLS franchises, F.C. Dallas and the Columbus Crew, who won the 2008 MLS Cup. The Hunt Sports Group has been at the forefront of stadium development in the United States, beginning with America's first soccer-specific stadium, 22,555-seat Crew Stadium which opened in '99. In 2005, Pizza Hut Park was completed in Frisco, Texas, giving the Dallas area one of the world's most unique and futuristic soccer facilities.

Hunt was also one of the founding investors in the six-time World Champion Chicago Bulls of the National Basketball Association. In total, the Hunt Family is the owner of 14 distinctive championship rings from five different professional sports associations (AFL/NFL, MLS, NBA, NASL and the U.S. Soccer "Open Cup"). His football championship litany included a Super Bowl IV ring from the '69 Chiefs, as well as AFL title rings from the '62 Texans and '66 Chiefs.

A highly-successful businessman outside of sports, one of Hunt's most notable innovations was SubTropolis, the world's largest underground business complex, located just north of Arrowhead Stadium. Hunt also envisioned and developed Worlds of Fun, a 165-acre family entertainment complex which opened in '73, as well as the 60-acre family water recreation park, Oceans of Fun which was completed in '82. While both of those entities were sold in '95, Hunt Midwest Enterprises, Inc. continues to oversee a diverse range of business interests.

Hunt was born on August 2, 1932 in El Dorado, Arkansas and graduated from SMU with a B.S. in Geology in '56. While at SMU, he was a three-year reserve end on the Varsity Football Team. Hunt was an avid supporter of his alma mater and was an annual fixture at the Cotton Bowl. In May of 2008, he was inducted as one of the four inaugural members of the SMU Athletics Hall of Fame.

Hunt and his wife Norma were also involved in numerous philanthropic and civic efforts in Dallas, across the state of Texas and in Kansas City.

CLARK HUNT CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD

Chairman of the Board: 2005-09
Vice Chairman of the Board: 2002-04

Clark Hunt enters his fifth season as Chairman of the Board in 2009. He represents the interests of the Hunt Family in the Kansas City Chiefs franchise.

Hunt is overseeing one of the most dramatic periods of change in the 50-year history of the Chiefs. From ushering in a new era of leadership for the franchise to guiding the team through several major construction projects, Hunt's steady and decisive influence continues to provide a clear direction for the Chiefs.

The 44-year-old Hunt shares his father Lamar's deep passion for sports and has embraced the opportunity to lead the Chiefs franchise. Hunt's proven business acumen, coupled with two decades of experience working side-by-side with one of America's sports pioneers, has provided him with a distinct understanding of Kansas City's devoutly loyal fans.

Hunt possesses the humility and vision long associated with his surname, which has established him as a respected voice at the league level. He recognizes the challenges the Chiefs and other small-market clubs must overcome to remain competitive. Like his father, he supports league policies that promote competition across all National Football League markets.

A staunch proponent of developing strategies to further enhance the fan experience, Hunt is currently directing the expansion and renovation of Arrowhead Stadium, an extensive modernization project which will keep Kansas City "The Home of the Chiefs" for decades to come.

In addition to the multi-year construction project that will bring Arrowhead up to today's NFL standards, Hunt was closely involved in the design and development of the Chiefs new practice facility at the Truman Sports Complex. The Hunts have made a combined personal financial investment of $125 million in both the development of the New Arrowhead and the club's new practice facility, another demonstration of the family's commitment to bringing the Lamar Hunt Trophy home to the fans of Kansas City.

In 2006, Hunt was asked to serve on the eight-member Commissioner Search Committee which recommended a successor to Paul Tagliabue. In 2007, Commissioner Roger Goodell appointed Hunt to the NFL's Digital Media and International Committees, as well as the Executive Committee of the NFL Management Council. Hunt is also a trustee for the Board of Trustees of the Bert Bell/Pete Rozelle NFL Player Retirement Plan.

The Dallas, Texas native is also a founding investor-operator in Major League Soccer. Hunt serves as Chairman of Hunt Sports Group, the parent company that oversees the operations of both the F.C. Dallas and Columbus Crew MLS franchises. Hunt Sports Group has been at the forefront of stadium development in the United States, constructing America's first soccer-specific stadium, Crew Stadium which opened in '99.

In 2005, Hunt Sports Group opened Pizza Hut Park in Frisco, Texas. Pizza Hut Park serves as the crown jewel of a 117-acre soccer complex which features 17 adjacent championship-quality fields. Through the innovation and vision of the Hunt family, Pizza Hut Park has become the model for soccer-specific stadiums in North America and is widely regarded as one of the world's most unique soccer facilities.

As stadium construction, new investment, player development and a broadening fan base continue to shape the soccer marketplace in North America,

Hunt is intimately involved in the development and direction of MLS. Chairman of the Competition Committee since its inception, a former co-chairman of the Technical Committee and a former member of the Audit and Finance Committee, Hunt currently serves as one of four members of the Board of Governors appointed to Commissioner Don Garber's Executive Committee. Hunt is also a member of the league's Labor and Philanthropy Committees.

Hunt graduated first in his class at Southern Methodist University in '87, earning a degree in Business Administration with a concentration in Finance. He was a two-time recipient of the university's highest academic honor, the Provost Award for Outstanding Scholar.

During his career he was a four-year letterman on the Mustangs nationally-ranked soccer squad, earning first-team Academic All-America honors as a junior and senior and serving as a Tri-Captain his final season. He was named the SMU Cox School of Business Outstanding Young Alumni in 2004 and in 2005 he was appointed to the Cox School Executive Board of Trustees. In 2008, Hunt was elected to the SMU Board of Trustees.

Hunt and his wife, the former Tavia Shackles of Kansas City, are involved in numerous philanthropic efforts. In recent years, the Hunts have served as Honorary Chairs for the Chiefs Charity Game, an annual event that has raised six million dollars since its inception. Through the Chiefs Children's Fund, the game has made a positive impact in the lives of area youths who are served by various agencies such as Operation Breakthrough, the Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Kansas City and the Children's Center for the Visually Impaired.

In 2004, the Hunts were part of the grass roots effort behind the formation of Lift Up America, an organization that facilitates widespread compassion and giving through strategic partnerships between corporations and sports teams. Since that time, more than 30 sports teams have joined the Chiefs and corporations such as Tyson Foods, Cinemark Theatres and Interstate Batteries to help Lift Up America distribute millions of pounds of food and numerous other services to people in need around the world.

The Hunts are also involved with the Heart of a Champion Foundation, a character development curriculum that stresses personal values such as honesty, perseverance and integrity.

Clark Knobel Hunt was born on February 19, 1965 and graduated from the St. Mark's School of Texas in '83. The Hunts have three children – Gracelyn, Knobel and Ava.

HALL OF FAMOUS MISSOURIANS

SCOTT PIOLI GENERAL MANAGER

18th NFL Season
1st with Chiefs

Scott Pioli was named the fifth General Manager in Kansas City Chiefs history by Chairman Clark Hunt on January 13th. Regarded as one of the league's brightest player personnel evaluators, Pioli has justifiably earned a reputation as one of the NFL's top executives. He joined the Chiefs after serving as the Vice President of Player Personnel for the New England Patriots.

During his nine-year tenure in New England (2000-08), the Patriots compiled an NFL-best 102-42 (.708) regular season record, won Super Bowls XXXVI, XXXVIII and XXXIX, claimed the Lamar Hunt Trophy four times as the AFC Champion and won six AFC East titles. A four-time winner of NFL Executive of the Year honors from national media outlets, Pioli has final authority over all football operations in Kansas City and reports directly to Hunt.

"With his proven track record of success, Scott is the finest player personnel executive in the NFL," Hunt said. "We look forward to his leadership in building a championship organization."

Over the past 17 NFL seasons, teams that Pioli has been associated with have won seven division titles and have made eight playoff appearances, participating in a total of 21 postseason games.

During his nine-year run with New England, the Patriots became widely recognized as one of the NFL's model franchises. Working in close concert with head coach Bill Belichick, that duo rapidly developed the Patriots into a consistent championship contender. Partnering with head coach Todd Haley in Kansas City, Pioli has embraced the challenge of developing a comprehensive plan to return the Chiefs to pro football prominence.

Clark Hunt (right) names Pioli as the Chiefs fifth GM.

"The mission of this football team, and the direction is to build a football team," Pioli stated. "My job is not to collect talent, it's to build a team. Individuals make Pro Bowls, teams win championships. That's our goal here. Win championships, win football games — to build this team with the right kind of people, with the right kind of players, to consistently compete for championships.

"We're going to build a big, strong, smart, fast, tough, disciplined football team and we're going to do that by going out and finding big, strong, smart, fast, tough, disciplined football players. It sounds very simple and hopefully in certain ways, it will be."

Pioli and Belichick's collaborative efforts over nine seasons in New England resulted in 14 playoff victories, tying the Pittsburgh and Dallas squads of the '70s for the most playoff wins by a franchise in a single decade. New England accumulated 11 playoff victories from 2003-07, the highest total by any team over a five-year span in NFL history.

Pioli and Belichick became the first personnel director/head coach tandem in league annals to win three Super Bowls during a four-year span (2001-04). They also helped the Patriots register nine or more victories each of the last eight seasons, including the NFL's first 16-0 regular season in 2007.

Thanks to his numerous astute player personnel acquisitions that fit within the Patriots team concept, Pioli has regularly received national recognition for his talents. He was named the George Young NFL Executive of the Year by The Sporting News following the 2003 and 2004 seasons, an award voted on by NFL executives. The youngest individual ever to win that accolade, Pioli joined Bobby Beathard (Washington '82-83) and Bill Polian (Carolina '95-96) as just the third person to ever win that honor in consecutive seasons.

Pioli was named NFL Executive of the Year by the Dallas Morning News in 2001 and also received

NFL Executive of the Year honors from Pro Football Weekly and Sports Illustrated in 2003. In 2004, Pioli's accolades included the NFLPA's Award for Executive Achievement in addition to NFL Executive of the Year awards from USA Today, the San Francisco Chronicle and SI.com. In 2007, Pioli again earned NFL Executive of the Year honors from Pro Football Weekly, the Dallas Morning News and the San Francisco Chronicle.

The depth and versatility of New England's roster compiled by Pioli were key components to the Patriots success in recent seasons. In 2005, the Patriots set a post-merger league record for a division champion by utilizing 45 different starters. In 2003, the Patriots won Super Bowl XXXVIII despite using 42 different starters, the most in league history by a Super Bowl champion. In 2004, the Patriots employed 40 different starters as they won their second consecutive Super Bowl. In 2006, New England won its fourth straight AFC East title while using 39 different starters.

Under Pioli's direction, the Patriots used an effective combination of draft picks, free agent signings, trades and waiver claims to continually upgrade their roster. Since his arrival in Kansas City, he has already upgraded the Chiefs roster using similar methodology.

On February 28th, he pulled the trigger on a trade with the Patriots that brought QB Matt Cassel and LB Mike Vrabel to Kansas City in exchange for a second-round draft pick. In addition to re-signing several key players, Pioli has acquired a number of proven performers for the Chiefs via unrestricted free agency such as LB Monty Beisel, WR Bobby Engram, C Eric Gholston, G Mike Goff and LB Zach Thomas. He also added eight players to Kansas City's talent pool via the draft and has made a number of other off-season free agent acquisitions.

Eight New England draft choices acquired during Pioli's nine seasons with the Patriots have gone on to earn a combined 16 Pro Bowl berths. That list is headlined by four-time Pro Bowl QB Tom Brady (D6b-00), who has twice earned Super Bowl Most Valuable Player honors and was named the NFL's Most Valuable Player in 2007.

Other Pro Bowl draft picks during the Pioli era in New England included five-time selection DE Richard Seymour (D1-02) and two-time Pro Bowl T Matt Light (D2-01). Players drafted by Pioli in New England with at least one Pro Bowl to their credit include: C Dan Koppen (D5-03), G Logan Mankins (D1-05), CB Asante Samuel (D4-03), DT Vince Wilfork (D1a-04) and K Stephen Gostkowski (D4b-06). Pioli's most recent first-round pick, LB Jerod Mayo (D1-08), was named the 2008 AP Defensive Rookie of the Year after leading the Patriots with 137 tackles.

Notable Patriots free agent signings during the Pioli era included S Rodney Harrison (FA-03), LB Mike Vrabel (UFA-01) and three-time Pro Bowl

special teamer LB Larry Izzo (UFA-01). Meanwhile, New England also acquired several key performers via trades. WR Randy Moss (T-07) was acquired from Oakland and set an NFL single-season record with 23 TD catches in 2007. WR Wes Welker (T-07) was acquired from Miami in 2007 and led New England with 112 receptions in his debut campaign with the Patriots. Welker earned his initial Pro Bowl berth in 2008 after producing a team-high 111 catches. RB Corey Dillon (T-04) joined the Patriots from Cincinnati and set the franchise's single-season rushing record with 1,635 yards in 2004.

The Washingtonville, N.Y. native enters his 18th NFL campaign in 2008. Prior to his seven-year stint as New England's Vice President of Player Personnel (2002-08), he held the titles of Director of Player Personnel (2001) and Assistant Director of Player Personnel (2000) for the Patriots.

Pioli began his NFL career when Belichick hired him as a Scouting Assistant for the Browns in '92. He then served as Pro Personnel Assistant from '93-'95, where he was responsible for the evaluation of both college prospects and veteran free agents, as well as negotiating various player contracts. He was promoted to Pro Personnel Coordinator after the franchise moved to Baltimore in '96. He spent one season with the Ravens, where he oversaw all aspects of pro personnel and negotiated the contracts of free agents and several draft choices.

In '97, he was hired by the N.Y. Jets as Director of Pro Personnel. He was credited with the signing of a number of veteran free agents who played critical roles in the Jets rebuilding process. In just two seasons working with head coach Bill Parcells, the Jets completed a worst-to-first turnaround, rebounding from 1-15 in '96 to 12-4 in '98. Those 12 wins in '98 were the most in franchise history and gave the Jets their first division title since '68.

Pioli played defensive tackle at Central Connecticut State ('83-87), where he was a three-time Division II All-New England selection. In '88, after graduating with a degree in communications, he accepted a two-year graduate assistant position at Syracuse University, where he also earned a master's degree from the S.I. Newhouse School of Public Communications.

He accepted a full-time coaching opportunity at Murray State, where he spent one season as the offensive line coach ('90) and one season as the defensive line coach ('91). He left the coaching ranks to join the Browns personnel department in '92.

Pioli was born on March 31, 1965 in Washingtonville, N.Y. He currently serves on the board of directors for various non-profit foundations and serves on the board of directors for the College for Every Student Foundation, a national non-profit organization that partners with public schools in high-need communities to raise student aspirations and performance. He remains actively involved in fundraising for several organizations in his hometown (Washingtonville, N.Y.) and at his alma mater of Central Connecticut State, where he was enshrined in that school's Hall of Fame in 2005.

He established the Rose Pioli Scholarship in the name of his grandmother to benefit children of educators, professional firefighters, police and other emergency medical service providers. Pioli and his wife, Dallas, have a daughter, Mia Costa Pioli.

IN MEMORIAM

FRANK GANSZ 1938-09

The Chiefs lost a longtime friend when Frank Gansz passed away in Dallas, Texas on April 27, 2009 following complications after knee replacement surgery. A Celebration of the Life of Gansz took place on June 5th at Alumni Hall on the grounds of the U.S. Naval Academy in Annapolis, MD. The event was attended by numerous dignitaries from around the NFL and a who's who of Gansz's friends and peers from across the football coaching fraternity.

"On behalf of my family and the entire Kansas City Chiefs organization, we are deeply saddened by the loss of Frank Gansz," Chiefs Chairman Clark Hunt said at the time of Gansz's passing. "In his over 30 years in football, Frank was a tremendous coach, a beloved teacher and an outstanding person. He will be missed."

The fifth head coach in the franchise's history, Gansz served two seasons in that capacity from '87-88. He spent two stints as an assistant with Kansas City, originally serving as the tight ends and special teams coach from '81-82. He rejoined the Chiefs as the special teams coach in '86. Gansz spent 24 seasons as an NFL coach and 38 seasons overall as a coach on the collegiate and NFL levels.

Regarded as one of the individuals who changed the face of special teams in the National Football League, Gansz will always be remembered for his boundless energy and enthusiasm. Above all else, his players simply loved to play for him, which is perhaps the highest compliment any coach could ever wish to receive.

The Altoona, Pennsylvania native most recently served as the special teams coach for head coach June Jones at SMU in 2008. Gansz concluded his NFL coaching career with a two-year stint as Jacksonville's Jaguars special teams coordinator (2000-01). He joined the Jaguars after spending three seasons as Dick Vermeil's special teams coach with St. Louis, where he was part of the Rams team that posted a victory in Super Bowl XXXIV. Gansz also served as the special teams coordinator with Atlanta ('94-96) and Detroit ('89-93). In between his stints with Kansas City, he coached with the Philadelphia Eagles ('83-85). He also spent time with Cincinnati ('79-80) and San Francisco ('78).

Prior to entering the NFL coaching ranks, Gansz had a successful 13-year career on the collegiate level. He enjoyed stops at UCLA ('76-77), Oklahoma State ('73, '75), Army ('74), Navy ('69-72) and Colgate ('68). He began his coaching career with the Air Force Academy ('64-66).

Gansz served as a pilot in the U.S. Air Force for seven years before entering the coaching ranks. He was inducted into the Western Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame in '99. He played center and linebacker for the Naval Academy from '57-60. Gansz's son, Frank, Jr. followed in his father's footsteps and served as Kansas City's special teams coach from 2001-05.

K Nick Lowery was one of many players who thrived under Gansz's tutelage in Kansas City.

A SPECIAL PERFORMANCE

Owning a 9-6 record, the Chiefs playoff hopes hinged on the '86 regular season finale at Pittsburgh (12/21/86). Despite being outgained in total yardage by a 515-to-171 margin, Kansas City registered a 24-19 victory as its special teams under the direction of Frank Gansz accounted for all of the club's points, sending the club to the playoffs for the first time in 15 seasons. With the Chiefs holding a 17-6 lead thanks to a TD following the recovery of a blocked punt by S Deron Cherry, a 97-yard kickoff return TD by RB Boyce Green and a 47-yard FG by K Nick Lowery, the coup de grace was a 78-yard TD return of a blocked FG by S Lloyd Burruss (left) with 0:44 remaining in the first half to give the Chiefs a commanding 24-6 lead en route to the victory.

TODD HALEY HEAD COACH

15th NFL Season • 1st with Chiefs
13th Year NFL Coach • 1st with Chiefs

Chiefs Chairman Clark Hunt named Todd Haley head coach of the Kansas City Chiefs on February 6, 2009. The second-youngest head coach in franchise history at 42 years old, Haley brings an energetic and passionate approach to his initial head coaching assignment.

"Todd is an outstanding football coach with a proven track record of success at every stop in his career, and we look forward to his leadership," Hunt said upon hiring Haley.

Haley enters his 15th season in the NFL in 2009. He is entering his 13th season as a coach in the league after beginning his pro career as a scouting assistant with the N.Y. Jets in '95.

He joins the Chiefs after a two-year stint as offensive coordinator of the Arizona Cardinals (2007-08). During his tenure with the Cardinals, he helped revitalize a franchise that hadn't reached the NFL title game since '47. In just his second season in Arizona, the Cardinals enjoyed a remarkable renaissance, winning the club's first division title since '75. Arizona enjoyed a sensational postseason run, reaching Super Bowl XLIII thanks in large part to Haley's explosive offensive unit.

Haley was named head coach on February 6, 2009.

Haley pairs with General Manager Scott Pioli to give the Chiefs organization a highly-motivated, like-minded leadership tandem vividly focused on building Kansas City into a franchise that can compete for championships on a consistent basis.

"It was also important for our head coach to have an understanding of the player personnel side of the operation and be able to effectively communicate his vision for the football team to the personnel department," Hunt added.

Clearly, Haley and Pioli are a duo familiar with returning organizations to pro football prominence. Haley served on the coaching staff, while Pioli was the Director of Pro Personnel for a N.Y. Jets franchise that reached the '98 AFC Championship Game after finishing 1-15 in '96.

1995-00	N.Y. Jets	Scouting Assistant ('95-96) Offensive Assistant/ Quality Control ('97-98) Wide Receivers ('99-00)
2001-03	Chicago Bears	Wide Receivers
2004-06	Dallas Cowboys	Passing Game Coord./ Wide Receivers
2007-08	Arizona Cardinals	Offensive Coordinator
2009	Kansas City Chiefs	Head Coach

"One of Todd's unique qualifications is the fact that he's served with a number of different organizations, four in particular that have turned their franchises around," Pioli observed. "We have a shared vision of what it takes to build a successful franchise in the National Football League. He will bring passion, dedication and energy to Kansas City, and I am confident that this is the beginning of a partnership that will serve the Chiefs well."

In addition to his tenure with the Cardinals, Haley enjoyed previous NFL coaching experience with Dallas (2004-06), Chicago (2001-03) and the N.Y. Jets ('97-00), earning playoff berths with each of those franchises.

Under Haley's guidance, the Cardinals offense in 2008 was one of the league's most innovative and explosive units. Arizona tied for third in the league in scoring, registering a franchise-record 427 points (26.7 ppg). The Cardinals were fourth in total offense, averaging 365.8 yards per game. Arizona was second in the league in passing offense (292.1 ypg) and ranked sixth in the NFL with 20.5 first downs per game.

Haley's offensive unit in Arizona featured a trio of Pro Bowl performers in 2008. QB Kurt Warner led all NFC passers and established single-season franchise records with a 96.9 rating and 30 TD passes. Warner threw for 377 yards and three TDs in Super Bowl XLIII.

Meanwhile, WRs Larry Fitzgerald and Anquan Boldin formed the league's most potent receiving tandem. Fitzgerald led all NFC receivers with 96 catches for 1,431 yards with 12 TDs. He enjoyed a seven-catch, 127-yard, two-TD performance in Super Bowl XLIII and set NFL postseason records for receptions (30), receiving yards (546), TD receptions (seven) and 100-yard games (four) during the 2008 playoffs. Boldin had 89 receptions for 1,038 yards with 11 TDs during the regular season, while WR Steve Breaston had 77 receptions for 1,006 yards, making the Cardinals just the fifth team in NFL history to boast three 1,000-yard receivers in a single season.

Arizona's offensive resurgence began when Haley joined the Cardinals as offensive coordinator in 2007. That season the Cardinals ranked fifth in the league in passing (254.1 ypg) and set a single-season franchise record with 32 TD passes. Arizona was also second in the NFL with a 94.0 Red Zone scoring percentage. The Cardinals ranked seventh in the league in scoring by averaging 25.3 ppg after ranking 19th in that category in 2006 (19.6 ppg). The Cardinals also rose to 12th in total offense (344.1 ypg) in 2007, an improvement of 31.6 ypg after ranking 18th in that category one year earlier.

 Reached Super Bowl XLIII

He joined Ken Whisenhunt's staff in Arizona after serving a three-year stint as passing game coordinator/wide receivers coach for Dallas (2004-06). In 2006, the Cowboys offense ranked fourth in the NFL in passing (239.8 ypg) as QB Tony Romo became a Pro Bowl performer in his first year as a starter and Dallas qualified for the postseason.

Haley's passing attack helped the Cowboys finish fourth in the league in scoring (26.6 ppg) and second in third-down efficiency at 48.8%. Dallas boasted a pair of 1,000-yard pass catchers in WRs Terrell Owens and Terry Glenn. In 2005, Glenn averaged 18.3 yards per catch to tie for the NFL lead and posted 1,136 receiving yards, the first 1,000-yard campaign by a member of the Cowboys since '99. In his debut with the Cowboys in 2004, WR Keyshawn Johnson recorded 70 catches for 981 yards and six TDs with Haley serving as his position coach.

Haley joined the Cowboys after a three-year tour of duty as wide receivers coach for Chicago (2001-03) under head coach Dick Jauron. In 2001, the Bears went 13-3 and won the NFC Central for the first time since '90 as WR Marty Booker set a single-season franchise record with 100 catches. Under Haley's tutelage in 2002 Booker became just the second player in franchise annals to post back-to-back 1,000-yard campaigns, becoming Chicago's first Pro Bowl wide receiver since '71.

His initial NFL experience came as a member of the N.Y. Jets ('95-00), where he served as that club's wide receivers coach from '99-00. In his initial season in that capacity, he helped WR Keyshawn Johnson earn his second straight Pro Bowl berth as he accumulated 89 receptions for 1,170 yards and caught eight TDs in '99. Haley also worked as an offensive assistant/quality control coach for the Jets ('97-98), working closely with offensive coordinator Charlie Weis, who currently serves as the head coach at Notre Dame. He began his NFL tenure as an assistant in the Jets scouting department in '95, where he scouted regionally and assisted in player evaluations.

Born on February 28, 1967 in Atlanta, Georgia, Haley attended Upper St. Clair High School in Pittsburgh, where he was a multi-sport standout. He was a member of the golf squads at the University of Florida and the University of Miami and participated in the NCAA golf tournament during his time with the Gators. He earned a degree in Communications from the University of North Florida in '91, where he was also a member of the golf squad.

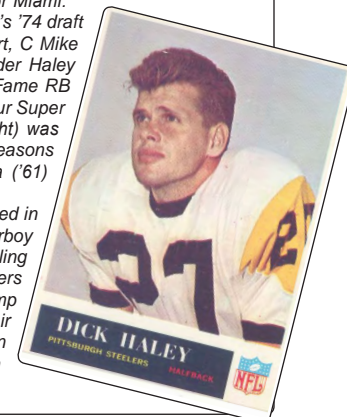

Haley and his wife, Chrissy, have four daughters: Taylor, Peyton, Kady, and Ella and one son, Richard Todd, Jr.

THE HALEYS – A FOOTBALL FAMILY

Owning a distinguished football pedigree, Chiefs head coach Todd Haley is the son of Dick Haley, who enters his 44th season in the NFL in 2009. After enjoying stints as the Director of Player Personnel for Pittsburgh ('71-90) and the N.Y. Jets ('91-02), the elder Haley served as a Personnel Consultant for the Jets (2003-07) and currently serves as a Player Personnel Analyst for Miami.

One of the architects of the great Steelers teams of the '70s, Haley's '74 draft class with Pittsburgh featured four Hall of Famers – LB Jack Lambert, C Mike Webster, as well as WRs Lynn Swann and John Stallworth. The elder Haley also selected Hall of Fame LB Jack Ham in '71 and tabbed Hall of Fame RB Franco Harris in '72, forming the nucleus of a team that would claim four Super Bowl crowns over a six-year span from '74-79. The elder Haley (right) was a standout halfback at the University of Pittsburgh and spent six seasons playing cornerback in the NFL with Washington ('59-60), Minnesota ('61) and Pittsburgh ('61-64).

The younger Haley spent his formative years in Pittsburgh, immersed in football with his father and the Steelers organization. A former waterboy and ballboy for the Steelers, his most dreaded gameday task was hauling film canisters to the film crew's "crow's nest" atop of Three Rivers Stadium. Haley spent many summers as a youth at training camp with the club and frequently watched film alongside his father in their Pittsburgh home. In attendance for many of the greatest games in Steelers history, he later served as a member of the Steelers chain gain on game days during his teenage years.

MAURICE CARTHON

HEAD COACH

16th Year NFL Coach

Maurice Carthon enters his 16th season as an NFL assistant coach and his first as Kansas City's assistant head coach. Carthon will perform a number of duties for head coach Todd Haley and will work closely with the club's running backs.

Possessing five seasons of experience as an NFL offensive coordinator, Carthon also owns 11 years of pro experience as a running back. He coached Arizona's running backs in 2007-08 and was part of a staff along with Haley that helped guide the Cardinals to a berth in Super Bowl XLIII.

Carthon has been a member of four Super Bowl squads as either a player or a coach, including wins in Super Bowls XXI and XXV as a member of the N.Y. Giants. In his 26 previous seasons in pro football, Carthon has either blocked for or coached running backs who enjoyed a 1,000-yard season on 17 different occasions.

In 2008, Carthon was instrumental in the rapid development of Cardinals RB Tim Hightower, who set a franchise rookie record with 10 rushing TDs. In 2007, Carthon helped RB Edgerrin James record the seventh 1,000-yard campaign of his career.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Carthon served as the offensive coordinator in Cleveland (2005-06). Under his direction in 2006, TE Kellen Winslow led all NFL tight ends with 89 receptions. In 2005, RB Reuben Droughns recorded 1,232 rushing yards, becoming the first Browns rusher to top the 1,000-yard plateau since '85.

Carthon spent two seasons with Dallas (2003-04), where he served as offensive coordinator/running backs coach on Bill Parcells' staff. In 2003, Carthon was part of a staff that guided the Cowboys to a 10-6 record and a postseason berth after inheriting a squad that finished 5-11 a year earlier.

He spent two seasons in Detroit (2001-02), serving as offensive coordinator in 2002 when RB James Stewart registered a 1,021-yard campaign. Prior to his time with the Lions, Carthon served four seasons as running backs coach with the N.Y.

Carthon won two Super Bowls with the N.Y. Giants.

Jets ('97-00). He also served as assistant head coach in 2000. RB Curtis Martin produced three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons, including a 1,464-yard performance in '99.

The Arkansas State product began his NFL career on Parcells' staff in New England ('94-96). In '95, Martin was the lone NFL rookie to earn a Pro Bowl berth after accumulating 1,487 rushing yards and 14 TDs working with Carthon. In '96, Carthon helped the Patriots earn their first division crown in a decade as New England advanced to Super Bowl XXXI.

A veteran of eight NFL seasons as a player with the N.Y. Giants ('85-91) and Indianapolis ('92), Carthon played in 123 games, rushing 300 times for 950 yards with two TDs and catching 90 passes for 745 yards with a TD. He was part of Parcells' squads that won Super Bowls XXI and XXV.

An eighth-round selection of the USFL's New Jersey Generals in '83, Carthon compiled 2,102 rushing yards in that league, including 1,042 yards and 11 TDs in '84. He also paved the way for RB Herschel Walker, who gained 5,562 rushing yards during his three-year USFL career. Walker followed Carthon's lead to amass 2,411 yards in '85, the highest single-season total in pro football history.

Carthon was a two-time All-Southland Conference selection at Arkansas State and was inducted into that school's Ring of Honor in 2002. He was a prep standout at Osceola High School in Osceola, Arkansas.

CHAN GAILEY

OFFENSIVE

2nd with Chiefs

Chan Gailey enters his second season as Kansas City's offensive coordinator, marking his 16th season in the NFL coaching ranks. Gailey has also enjoyed stints as an NFL offensive coordinator with Denver ('89-90), Pittsburgh ('96-97) and Miami (2000-01). He owns two seasons of head coaching experience with Dallas ('98-99). He led the Cowboys to the playoffs both of those campaigns, compiling an 18-14 regular season record.

A 35-year coaching veteran, Gailey is respected across the coaching ranks for his innovative and resourceful approach to the game, always taking full advantage of the talent available to him. Despite working with three different starting quarterbacks during the first three weeks of 2008, Gailey eventually devised a spread scheme that accentuated the athleticism of QB Tyler Thigpen.

The second-year signal caller adapted quickly, and by season's end the Chiefs had a pair of 1,000-yard receivers — TE Tony Gonzalez and WR Dwayne Bowe — for just the third time in team history. In 2009, the veteran coach is expected to work in close conjunction with Kansas City's signal callers once again and will have another talented passer at his disposal in QB Matt Cassel.

Gailey led Dallas to two playoff berths as a head coach.

Gailey rejoined the NFL ranks after serving a six-year stint as the head coach at Georgia Tech (2002-07). He compiled a 44-33 record and helped the Yellow Jackets earn six consecutive bowl bids.

Owning an extensive resume of offensive success at both the pro and collegiate level, Gailey has spent nine of his previous 15 NFL seasons as either a head coach or offensive coordinator. During his nine seasons in those capacities, his squads made the playoffs seven times and boasted a 1,000-yard rusher on seven different occasions.

In total, Gailey's squads have made the playoffs 11 times during his 15 seasons in the league, including eight of his last nine NFL campaigns.

2008-09	Kansas City Chiefs	Offensive Coordinator

His extensive coaching resume includes four Super Bowl berths, reaching the NFL title game with Pittsburgh (XXX) and Denver (XXI, XXII and XXIV).

His coaching pedigree includes stints coaching defense and special teams, in addition to his extensive work on the offensive side of the ball. In fact, he owns the distinction of serving as both a head coach and defensive coordinator on the collegiate level, as well as enjoying stints as a head coach and offensive coordinator in the NFL ranks.

Gailey began his NFL career as an assistant under head coach Dan Reeves with the Denver Broncos from '85-90. The Americus, Georgia native served as offensive coordinator/wide receivers coach ('89-90), quarterbacks/wide receivers coach ('88) and tight ends/special teams coach ('86-87) after serving as a defensive assistant/special teams coach ('85).

During Gailey's six-year stay in Denver, the Broncos offense was centered around their strong-armed Hall of Fame signal caller, QB John Elway. Combined with the receiving trio of "Three Amigos" — WRs Vance Johnson, Mark Jackson and Ricky Nattiel — Denver evolved into one of the league's most potent passing attacks. With Gailey serving as the club's offensive coordinator/receivers coach in '89, the Broncos advanced to Super Bowl XXIV.

Gailey spent four seasons working under Bill Cowher in Pittsburgh, serving as the Steelers wide receivers coach ('94-95) and offensive coordinator ('96-97). During that four-year run, the Steelers won four straight AFC Central crowns, appeared in three AFC Championship Games and earned a berth in Super Bowl XXX following the '95 campaign.

During his tenure in Pittsburgh, he was credited with implementing the "Slash" offense that featured the skills of multi-talented QB Kordell Stewart. With Gailey serving as offensive coordinator in '96, Pittsburgh ranked second in the NFL in rushing, averaging 143.7 ypg. The following season the Steelers led the league in rushing, pounding out 154.9 ypg on the ground. During the '97 campaign, Pittsburgh ranked sixth in the NFL in total offense (346.4 ypg) and was seventh in scoring (23.3 ppg).

RB Jerome Bettis enjoyed the two most productive seasons of his career with Gailey serving as the Steelers offensive coordinator. Bettis totaled 1,431 ground yards in '96 and followed up that performance with a career-high 1,665 rushing yards in '97.

Gailey also served as offensive coordinator on Dave Wannstedt's staff with Miami (2000-01). The Dolphins posted back-to-back 11-5 records and qualified for the playoffs in both of his seasons orchestrating that franchise's offense.

The Dolphins averaged 118.4 rushing ypg in 2000, the club's best rushing output since '84. Miami ranked fifth in the NFL with a +15 turnover differential that season and tied for second in the league with just nine fumbles lost. In addition, his offensive unit tied for fifth in the NFL by only allowing 28.0 sacks.

In total, Gailey owns seven seasons of head coaching experience. He compiled an 18-14 record as head coach with Dallas and guided the Cowboys to two straight playoff appearances. His '98 Dallas squad won the NFC East with a 10-6 record and ranked in the NFL's top 10 in total offense (eighth - 340.6 ypg), rushing (eighth - 125.9 ypg), scoring (ninth - 23.8 ppg) and passing (ninth - 214.8 ypg).

Dallas committed a league-low 15 turnovers in '98 and tied for third in the NFL with a +11 turnover differential. The Cowboys were fifth in the NFL with a +10 turnover mark the following season. Dallas also scored 37 rushing TDs from '98-99, the fourth-highest total in the NFL over that timeframe.

His most recent experience as a head coach came at the collegiate level where he guided Georgia Tech to its 11th consecutive bowl appearance in 2007. His club led the Atlantic Coast Conference in rushing by averaging 199.3 ypg in 2007 and ranked third in the conference in total offense (384.9 ypg).

Gailey led Georgia Tech to nine victories and a berth in the ACC Championship Game in 2006, the most wins by the Yellow Jackets since 2000. Georgia Tech boasted the 2006 Biletnikoff Award winner and number two overall pick in the 2007 NFL Draft in WR Calvin Johnson (Detroit). The ACC Player of the Year caught 78 passes for a single-season school-record 1,202 yards with 15 TD receptions, tying for second in the country. His 15 TDs tied as the best single-season mark in school history while his 78 receptions ranked second.

In 2003, Gailey's team featured a true freshman starting at quarterback in Reggie Ball. The Yellow Jackets had both a 1,000-yard rusher (RB P.J. Daniels) and a 1,000-yard receiver (WR Jonathan Smith) for the first time in school history.

Gailey spent two seasons as head coach in the World League of American Football, leading the Birmingham Fire to the playoffs in both '91 and '92. He also enjoyed a one-year stint as the head coach at Samford in '93. Prior to joining the NFL ranks, he served as the head coach for two seasons at Troy State ('83-84), where he led the Trojans to the NCAA Division II National Championship in '84.

A former collegiate quarterback at the University of Florida, Gailey was a three-year letterwinner for the Gators. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Florida ('74-75) before coaching the defensive backs at Troy State. Gailey spent four seasons on the defensive staff at Air Force ('79-82), serving as defensive coordinator his final two seasons with the Falcons. Gailey was an all-state quarterback at Americus High School in Americus, Georgia.

Education: University of Florida. Born: Gainesville, Georgia. Family: Wife - Laurie; Children - Tate and Andrew. The Gaileys also have two grandchildren.

He is one of only seven active NFL radio play-by-play announcers who own 16 or more years in their current role. Holthus is the longest tenured play-by-play announcer in Chiefs history, calling a franchise-record 230 regular and postseason contests for Kansas City. The Smith Center, Kansas native was inducted into the Kansas Association of Broadcasters Hall of Fame in 2008 and was honored for his achievement by his longtime partner in the broadcast booth, Hall of Fame QB Len Dawson, prior to a contest vs. Buffalo (11/23/08).

CLANCY PENDERGAST

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

1st with Chiefs

Clancy Pendergast enters his 15th NFL season and his first as Kansas City's defensive coordinator in 2009. In addition, this veteran coach will also work closely with Kansas City's defensive backs. He joins the Chiefs after spending five seasons as defensive coordinator with Arizona (2004-08).

With Pendergast serving as defensive coordinator and current Chiefs head coach Todd Haley working as the Cardinals offensive coordinator, that duo was responsible for helping the Cardinals orchestrate one of the most remarkable turnarounds in recent NFL history. In 2008, Arizona extinguished a nine-year postseason drought as the Cardinals won their first division crown since '75. The club made its initial NFL title game appearance since '47, won its first-ever NFC Championship Game and earned a trip to Super Bowl XLIII.

During Arizona's run to the Super Bowl, the Cardinals forced an NFL-best 13 turnovers and 10.0 sacks in the playoffs. Arizona also allowed just 72.5 rushing ypg in the 2008 postseason, while limiting opponents to a passer rating of 72.0.

During the 2008 regular season, Arizona led the league by recovering 17 opponents' fumbles and tied for fifth in the league with 30 total takeaways. In 2008, the Cardinals defense ranked third in the league with opponents facing an average of 8.16 yards to go on second down. Arizona also ranked sixth in the league, permitting 4.97 yards per play on first down. Over Pendergast's five seasons as defensive coordinator, the Cardinals racked up 148 total takeaways (77 INTs, 71 FRs) and 180.0 sacks (2.25 per game).

Known for getting the most out of his defensive backs, Pendergast helped Cardinals S Adrian Wilson earn Pro Bowl berths following the 2006 and 2008 campaigns. In 2007, the Cardinals set single-season franchise records with six INT returns for TDs and 551 INT return yards.

The Cardinals defensive unit ranked ninth in the NFL in run defense in 2007, allowing just 97.9 ypg. Arizona set a modern-day NFL record by allowing -18 rushing yards vs. Detroit (11/11/07). That season, Pendergast was also instrumental in the development of DT Darnell Dockett, who collected a team-high 9.0 sacks to become Arizona's first Pro Bowler at that position since DT Eric Swann ('96).

Pendergast's defensive unit forced 33 turnovers (16 INTs, 17 FRs) in 2006, the most by a Cardinals defense since '98. Wilson earned his initial Pro Bowl berth and became the first player since the AFL-NFL merger to record a pair of 99-yard TDs without the benefit of a kickoff return, scoring on an INT return and a fumble return. With 8.0 sacks in

2004-08	Arizona Cardinals	Defensive Coordinator
2009	Kansas City Chiefs	Defensive Coordinator

2005, Wilson set an NFL record for the most sacks in a season by a defensive back.

Despite a host of injuries on the defensive unit, the Cardinals ranked eighth in the NFL in total defense (295.6 ypg) in 2005. Arizona also ranked fourth in third-down efficiency (34.2%) and was seventh in first downs allowed (272).

During Pendergast's first season with Arizona in 2004 the Cardinals improved to 12th in scoring defense (20.1 ppg). That marked a 130-point reduction after ranking 32nd in that category a year earlier. Pendergast's 2004 defense was 12th in total defense after ranking 26th a year earlier. The Cardinals also ranked second in Red Zone TD percentage (45.0) and were fourth in third-down defense (31.6%).

Pendergast enjoyed a one-year stint as Cleveland's linebackers coach (2003) after a seven-year tour of duty with Dallas ('96-02). After originally joining the Cowboys as a defensive assistant/quality control coach in '96, he oversaw the club's nickel defense in 2000 before coaching the club's defensive backs (2001-02). In both 2000 and 2001, the Cowboys ranked third in the NFL in pass defense. In 2002, Pendergast tutored S Roy Williams, who led the team with five INTs and was a consensus all-rookie selection.

The Phoenix, Arizona native originally entered the NFL ranks as a defensive assistant/quality control coach on Jeff Fisher's staff in Houston ('95). Prior to entering the professional coaching ranks Pendergast spent time on the collegiate level at Oklahoma ('93-94), Southern California ('92) and Mississippi State ('91). A graduate of the University of Arizona, Pendergast prepped at Tolleson Union High School in Tolleson, Arizona.

Education: University of Arizona (B.A. '90).
Born: Phoenix, Arizona. Family: Single.

BOB BICKNELL TIGHT ENDS

3rd Year NFL Coach
3rd with Chiefs

Bob Bicknell enters his third season with the Chiefs and his first campaign coaching the club's tight ends. He was promoted to the position of offensive line coach in 2008 after originally joining Kansas City as an assistant offensive line coach in 2007.

Owning 16 years of coaching experience at the pro and collegiate levels, Bicknell was instrumental in helping G Brian Waters regain his Pro Bowl form a year ago. In addition, he aided in the rapid development of T Branden Albert, who started 15 games at left tackles as a rookie.

Prior to joining Kansas City, Bicknell served as the offensive line coach at Temple in 2006. He presided over a young blocking unit that featured sophomore C Alex Derenthal and redshirt freshman T Devin Tyler. Derenthal was named to the 2006 Eastern College Athletic Conference Division I-A Football All-Star Team in 2006 and became the first sophomore to be named Temple's Most Valuable Player. Tyler opened all 12 games at left tackle and was named honorable mention freshman All-America by The Sporting News.

Bicknell concluded a successful eight-year tenure in NFL Europe with a two-year stint as the offensive coordinator for the Cologne Centurions (2004-05). RB Kory Chapman ranked second in NFLLEL with 718 rushing yards and 1,103 yards from scrimmage under Bicknell's direction in 2005. In his first season with Cologne, Bicknell helped QB Ryan Van Dyke top the league passing charts with 2,003 yards.

Bicknell enters his third season in Kansas City.

Bicknell served as the offensive coordinator for the final three seasons of a four-year tour of duty with the Berlin Thunder (2000-03). The club recorded a league-high 3,704 yards from scrimmage and led NFLLEL with 2,667 passing yards in 2002. Berlin won its second consecutive

In his first season as offensive coordinator for Berlin, Bicknell oversaw a unit that paced the league with 2,189 passing yards, while ranking second with 3,243 yards from scrimmage. Berlin registered a 24-17 win vs. Barcelona in World Bowl IX. He originally joined the Thunder as offensive line coach as current Chiefs three-time G Brian Waters anchored the offensive line.

Bicknell began his NFL Europe coaching career as an offensive line coach with the Frankfurt Galaxy ('98-99). The Galaxy won the World Bowl in '99 and also made the championship game in '98.

Bicknell embarked on his collegiate coaching career at Boston University in '93. He coached safeties his first season with the Terriers under head coach Dan Allen. He coached the running backs in '94, tutoring RB Julian Dale, who was named the Yankee Conference Rookie of the Year. Bicknell coached linebackers under head coach Tom Masella from '95-97.

Bicknell was a three-year letterman as a tight end at Boston College. The Holliston, Massachusetts native comes from a football family. His father Jack served as the head coach of Boston College from '81-90 and spent 13 seasons as a head coach in NFL Europe before retiring in 2007 as the head coach of the Hamburg Sea Devils. Bicknell's brother Jack, Jr. is the assistant offensive line coach for the N.Y. Giants.

RONNIE BRADFORD DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT

7th Year NFL Coach

Ronnie Bradford enters his first season as a defensive assistant with Kansas City in 2009. He joins the Chiefs following a six-season tenure with Denver (2003-08), where he served in a variety of capacities both on defense and on special teams.

In 2008, Bradford coached Denver's defensive backs, mentoring a group that featured eight-time Pro Bowl CB Champ Bailey and two-time Pro Bowl selection Dre' Bly. He served as the Broncos assistant defensive backs coach in 2007 when Denver ranked seventh in pass defense, allowing 193.4 ypg.

Bradford served as Denver's special teams coach from 2004-06 and was the club's assistant special teams coach in 2003. Over that four-year span, the Broncos qualified for the postseason on three different occasions, including the 2005 campaign when Denver reached the AFC Championship Game. During that same four-year timeframe, K Jason Elam ranked third in the NFL in both made FGs (107) and points scored (479).

Under Bradford's tutelage in 2004, Broncos P Todd Sauerbrun became the first punter in franchise history to earn AFC Special Teams Player of the Month honors. RB Reuben Droughns also earned that same honor in 2004 for his kick return exploits. Bradford was also credited with the rapid development of P Paul Ernster, who ranked second in the NFL with a 25.3 touchback percentage in 2006.

A former NFL defensive back, Bradford enjoyed a 10-year NFL career with Denver (1993-95), Arizona (1996), Atlanta (1997-01) and Minnesota (2002). He was a member of a Falcons squad that claimed the '98 NFC Championship and registered an INT off QB John Elway in Super Bowl XXXIII. In total, Bradford saw duty in 133 regular season games (99 starts), accumulating 523 tackles (387 solo), 13 INTs for 65 yards with one TD, 2.0 sacks (-19.0 yards), 70 passes defended, four forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries.

A University of Colorado graduate, Bradford was a two-year starter at cornerback and a four-year letterman. He was named first-team All-Big 8 Conference as a senior. As a sophomore, he helped guide the Buffaloes to the National Championship Game vs. Notre Dame. He blocked a PAT attempt in the game's final minutes to preserve a 10-9 victory in the Orange Bowl.

JOE D'ALESSANDRIS
OFFENSIVE LINE
2nd Year NFL Coach
2nd with Chiefs

Owning over 30 years of coaching experience, Joe D'Alessandris (pronounced dal-uh-SAN-dris) embarks on his second season as Kansas City's assistant offensive line coach in 2009. The career of this veteran coach includes stints in three different professional leagues, as well as an expansive 26-year college coaching resume.

Prior to his arrival in Kansas City, D'Alessandris spent six seasons serving as the offensive line coach at Georgia Tech (2002-07) working under head coach Chan Gailey. At Georgia Tech, D'Alessandris' blockers helped pave the way for one of the ACC's top rushing attacks. In 2007 the Yellow Jackets compiled 2,591 rushing yards, for an average of 199.3 ypg. En route to an ACC Coastal Division Championship in 2006, the Georgia Tech offensive line cleared the way for RB Tashard Choice, the conference's leading rusher.

Under D'Alessandris' tutelage in 2005, the Georgia Tech line — which started one senior, three sophomores and a freshman — led the ACC in fewest sacks allowed with 10.0 and ranked third in the conference in rushing. In all, five linemen from his units spent time on an NFL roster including first-team All-ACC picks T Nat Dorsey and C Hugh Reilly, who earned first-team All-ACC honors. Reilly was also a finalist for the Dave Rimington Trophy as the nation's top center.

D'Alessandris begins his second year in Kansas City.

Before joining the Yellow Jackets, D'Alessandris coached the offensive line for five seasons at Duke ('97-01). During his tenure with the Blue Devils, five of his offensive linemen went on to spend time in the NFL. He arrived at Duke after one-year stints at the University of Pittsburgh ('96) and Texas A&M ('94). During his stint in College Station, the Aggies ended the season with a 10-0-1 record and averaged 172.0 yards per game on the ground.

D'ALESSANDRIS' FOOTBALL CAREER
1972-78	Western Carolina Guard ('72-76) Graduate Assistant ('77-78)
1979-83	Livingston Offensive Line ('79-82) Off. Coordinator/Off. Line ('83)
1984-85	Memphis Offensive Line
1986-89	UT-Chattanooga Off. Coord./OL ('86-87) Offensive Line ('88-89)
1990	Ottawa (CFL) Offensive Line
1991-92	Birmingham (WIAF) Offensive Line
1993	Samford Asst. Head Coach/Off. Line
1994	Texas A&M Offensive Line
1995	Memphis (CFL) Offensive Line
1996	Pittsburgh Offensive Line
1997-01	Duke Offensive Line
2002-07	Georgia Tech Offensive Line
2008-09	Kansas City Chiefs Asst. Offensive Line

In addition to his NFL tenure, D'Alessandris enjoyed one-year stints with the Ottawa Rough Riders ('90) and the Memphis Mad Dogs ('95) of the Canadian Football League. He also spent two seasons on head coach Chan Gailey's coaching staff of the Birmingham Fire of the World League of American Football ('91-92). That unit compiled a 12-9-1 record in the franchise's two years of existence. He began his long association with Gailey when the two spent one year together at Samford in '93 when D'Alessandris served as the club's assistant head coach/offensive line coach.

The Aliquippa, Pennsylvania native was a four-year letter winner and a three-year starting offensive guard at Western Carolina. A team captain during his senior season, D'Alessandris received the Catamounts Big Cat Award as the football team's most valuable player. He began his coaching career a year later as a graduate assistant at his alma mater ('77-78) before moving on to coaching the offensive lines at Livingston ('79-83), Memphis ('84-85) and UT-Chattanooga ('86-89). He also served as the offensive coordinator at Livingston ('83) and UT-Chattanooga ('86-87).

Education: Western Carolina (B.A. '77) (M.A. '79). Born: Aliquippa, Pennsylvania. Family: Wife - Toni; Children - Anna (husband - Allen Thomas), Kelly and Emily.

GARY GIBBS
LINEBACKERS
8th Year NFL Coach
1st with Chiefs

Gary Gibbs enters his first season as the Chiefs linebackers coach in 2009. He comes to Kansas City after spending the past three years as the defensive coordinator in New Orleans (2006-08).

Respected in both the NFL and college football ranks, Gibbs enters his eighth season in the pro game after a 22-year career on the collegiate level that featured six seasons as the head coach at the University of Oklahoma ('89-94).

Gibbs' arrival in New Orleans in 2006 paid immediate dividends as the franchise won its first-ever NFC title and reached the NFC Championship Game for the first time in team history. The Saints ranked 11th in total defense, allowing 307.3 ypg. After ranking 28th in the league in scoring defense in 2005, the Saints ranked 13th in that category under Gibbs in 2006, allowing 20.1 ppg. New Orleans also ranked third in the league in pass defense in 2006, permitting just 178.4 ypg.

During Gibbs' three-year tenure guiding the Saints defensive fortunes, New Orleans held 17 opponents to 17 points or less, posting a 15-2 record in those contests. He joined the Saints after spending four seasons as linebackers coach in Dallas (2002-05). During the 2004-05 seasons he was a member of Bill Parcells' staff that also included Chiefs head coach Todd Haley. Under his direction in 2005, Cowboys LB Dexter Coakley registered 173 tackles, the second-highest single-season total in team history.

Gibbs begins his tenure with the Chiefs in 2009.

Gibbs entered the NFL coaching fraternity after one-year stints as the defensive coordinator at LSU (2001) and Georgia (2000). During his lone season in Baton Rouge, Gibbs' defensive unit led the Southeastern Conference with 18 INTs. The Tigers won the SEC title and the Sugar Bowl, finishing the campaign ranked seventh in the country.

During his stay at Georgia, Gibbs tutored a defense that allowed a paltry 18.0 ppg and ranked ninth nationally in total defense. He coached a pair of first-round draft picks and future Pro Bowlers in DTs Richard Seymour and Marcus Stroud.

GIBBS' FOOTBALL CAREER
1972-94	Oklahoma Linebacker ('72-74) Graduate Assistant ('75-77) Linebackers ('78-80) Defensive Coordinator ('81-88) Head Coach ('89-94)
2000	Georgia Defensive Coordinator
2001	LSU Defensive Coordinator
2002-05	Dallas Cowboys Linebackers
2006-08	New Orleans Saints Def. Coordinator
2009	Kansas City Chiefs Linebackers

Gibbs began his football career at Oklahoma, spending 23 years at the school as either a player or a coach. Over that span, the Sooners appeared in 16 bowl games and won three national championships ('74, '75 and '85). In his six seasons as head coach, Gibbs guided the Sooners to three bowl games: '90 Gator Bowl, '93 John Hancock Bowl and '94 Copper Bowl. In total, he posted a 44-23-2 overall record and posted a winning record in Big 8 Conference play each season.

Facing numerous obstacles that began prior to his head coaching tenure, Gibbs was largely successful in cleaning up a program that was placed on probation by the NCAA in '88. Gibbs produced 25 NFL draftees during his head coaching stint despite probation stipulations that severely limited the school's scholarship allotment. His defense averaged 4.09 sacks per game during the '89 campaign, a mark that remains the highest single-season average in school annals.

Gibbs began his coaching career at Oklahoma as a graduate assistant in '75 before being promoted to linebackers coach in '78. He guided the Sooners linebackers for three seasons before taking over the club's defensive coordinator duties in '81.

Gibbs' eight-year tenure as Oklahoma's defensive coordinator produced some of the finest performances in the school's illustrious history. Oklahoma captured the '85 National Championship and led the nation in total defense three consecutive years ('85-87).

A linebacker at Oklahoma from '72-74, Gibbs helped the Sooners post a 32-1-1 overall mark during his playing tenure, including a national title in '74. Gibbs attended training camp with the New England Patriots as a rookie free agent in '75. He lettered in both football and baseball at Spring Branch High School in Houston, Texas.

Education: Oklahoma (B.B.A. '74; M.B.A. '76). Born: Beaumont, Texas. Family: Wife - Jeanne; Children - Whitley and Jordan.

STEVE HOFFMAN
SPECIAL TEAMS

1st with Chiefs

Steve Hoffman begins his first season with the Chiefs as the club's special teams coach in 2009. Entering his 20th season as an NFL coach, Hoffman owns three Super Bowl rings as an assistant coach with Dallas. This noted kicking specialist receives his initial opportunity to oversee the entire special teams unit in Kansas City.

Prior to joining the Chiefs, Hoffman spent two seasons with Miami (2007-08), serving as that club's assistant special teams coach. Last season, Hoffman was a key element in helping the Dolphins orchestrate one of the finest one-year turnarounds in NFL history. Miami captured the AFC East title with an 11-5 record and made its first playoff appearance since 2001.

Owning a well-deserved reputation for rapidly developing young specialists into top-tier performers, Hoffman's latest star pupil was Dolphins rookie K Dan Carpenter. Under Hoffman's guidance in 2008, Carpenter connected on 21 of 25 FG tries, including a streak of 14 straight makes, the longest string by a Miami rookie. In fact, eight of those FGs during that streak came from 40 yards or longer.

In 2007, K Jay Feely established a single-season Dolphins record by connecting on 91.3 percent (21 of 23) of his field goals. Hoffman also tutored rookie P Brandon Fields, who led all NFL rookies with a 43.2-yard gross average that season. Prior to joining the Dolphins, Hoffman served as assistant special teams coach with Atlanta (2006).

Hoffman enters his 20th season in the NFL ranks.

Hoffman enjoyed a 16-year tenure with Dallas ('89-04) as that club's kicking coach. In addition to his duties with the specialists, he spent seven seasons as the club's offensive/defensive quality control coach ('89-95). He coached the club's kickers and served as offensive quality control coach ('96-01), before finishing his tenure with Dallas as kicking coach/defensive quality control coach (2002-04).

During his tenure in Dallas, Hoffman successfully tutored a number of rookie or first-year specialists, including P John Jett ('93), K Chris Boniol ('94), K

Richie Cunningham ('97) and P Toby Gowin ('97). In total, Hoffman's specialists established 15 separate club records during his tenure in Dallas.

Special teams played a vital role in the Cowboys success during the '90s as Dallas claimed wins in Super Bowls XXVII, XXVIII and XXX. During the '92-93 and '95 seasons, Dallas kickers connected on 82.3% of their field goal attempts, while Cowboys punters posted a 41.6-yard net average as Dallas won three Super Bowl titles over a four-year span.

Before joining the NFL ranks, Hoffman instructed the kickers and punters for four seasons at the University of Miami ('85-88). Hoffman mentored P Jeff Feagles, who posted a 40.8-yard net punting average as a senior as the Hurricanes claimed the '97 National Championship. Feagles has punted more times (1,649) for more yards (68,607) than any player in NFL history. In 2008, he earned a Pro Bowl berth with the N.Y. Giants in his 21st NFL campaign.

During a one-year coaching hiatus in 2005, Hoffman spent time with his own kicking and punting tutorial business and performed consulting work for various NFL clubs. He has also served as an instructor at the highly-regarded Ray Pelfrey Kicking Camps.

The Camden, New Jersey native played quarterback, running back, wide receiver and handled both the kicking and punting duties at Dickinson College (PA). He spent one year punting for the USFL's Washington Federals ('83) and attended NFL training camps with Washington ('81, '83), Seattle ('84) and New Orleans ('85).

TIM KRUMRIE
DEFENSIVE LINE

4th with Chiefs

Entering his 27th year in the NFL as either a player or a coach, Tim Krumrie embarks on his fourth season coaching the Chiefs defensive line. The 15-year NFL coach joined Kansas City after a three-year stint in the same capacity with Buffalo (2003-05) and eight seasons on the Cincinnati coaching staff ('95-02). His fiery coaching style mixes a hands-on approach with high-intensity drills. He often participates in one of his trademark practice routines, which is a functional football drill to test the character of his players.

Former Chiefs DE Jared Allen developed into a Pro Bowl performer under Krumrie's tutelage, leading the NFL with 15.5 sacks in 2007 and receiving All-Pro honors. The Chiefs defense tied for fifth in the NFL with 37.0 sacks that season.

Under Krumrie's guidance, DE Tamba Hali registered a team-high 8.0 sacks and won the team's Mack Lee Hill Rookie of the Year Award as the club's top rookie in 2006. Hali was third in the NFL with six forced fumbles.

During his tenure with Buffalo, DE Aaron Schobel racked up 12.0 sacks in 2005. In addition, the Bills twice finished second in the NFL in total defense, allowing 269.6 yards per game in 2003 and 264.3 yards per game in 2004. Buffalo also registered a league-high 39 takeaways in 2004.

Krumrie was a two-time Pro Bowler with Cincinnati.

Prior to his work with the Bills, Krumrie spent 20 seasons in the Cincinnati organization as both a player and coach. He spent eight seasons ('95-02) as an assistant coach for the Bengals, including the final seven coaching the defensive line. Prior to that, he enjoyed a 12-year career ('83-94) as an All-Pro defensive tackle with Cincinnati. Krumrie had the opportunity to play for and work with one of the NFL's most respected defensive coaches in Dick LeBeau, who served as defensive coordinator during Krumrie's tenure as a player for Cincinnati and held the titles of defensive coordinator and head coach during Krumrie's stint as an assistant coach with the Bengals. Krumrie helped the Bengals establish a club record with 48.0 sacks in 2001. He was also credited for assisting in the rapid development of DE Justin Smith, who recorded 15.0 sacks in his first two NFL seasons under Krumrie's guidance in 2001-02.

A 10th-round pick by the Bengals in the '83 NFL Draft, Krumrie never missed a game in his 12-year career aside from the strike-shortened '87 campaign. The two-time Pro Bowler appeared in 193 career games (166 starts), including five postseason starts and was part of the Bengals Super Bowl XXIII squad. He represented the AFC in the Pro Bowl following the '87 and '88 campaigns.

Krumrie suffered a severe leg injury during Super Bowl XXIII following the '88 season, but returned to start the opening game of the '89 campaign. He went on to play six more seasons with a steel rod in that injured leg and led the team with 97 tackles in '92. Krumrie concluded his playing career following the '94 campaign after compiling 1,017 tackles (700 solo), 34.5 sacks (-238.0 yards), 13 fumble recoveries, 11 forced fumbles and 10 passes defended.

Enshrined in the University of Wisconsin Hall of Fame in '99, Krumrie was a three-time All-Big Ten defensive tackle for the Badgers. He still holds the school records for most career solo tackles with 276 and most career tackles by a defensive lineman with 444. He was also named defensive MVP of the Badgers '82 Independence Bowl win over Kansas State. A member of the Wisconsin wrestling team in '79 and '80, he finished fifth at the Big Ten Championships as a sophomore heavyweight.

Krumrie was raised on a dairy farm outside of Mondovi, Wisconsin, which is located just 40 miles east of the Chiefs training camp home in River Falls, Wisconsin.

Education: University of Wisconsin. Born: Menomonie, Wisconsin. Family: Wife - Cheryl; Children - Kelly and Dexter.

MUIR
OFFENSIVE LINE

1st with Chiefs

Owning 44 years of coaching expertise, Bill Muir enters his 32nd NFL season and will coach the Chiefs offensive line in 2009. This respected coach comes to Kansas City after spending seven seasons as offensive coordinator/offensive line coach with Tampa Bay (2002-08). Possessing NFL experience as both an offensive and defensive coordinator, as well as a background in the personnel arena, Muir will serve as a valuable resource to the Chiefs.

During his tenure in Tampa Bay, Muir was part of a staff that helped guide the Buccaneers to a victory in Super Bowl XXXVII in 2002. Thanks to his offensive units, the Buccaneers also claimed NFC South crowns in both 2005 and 2007. Despite boasting one of the league's youngest offensive fronts in 2007, QB Jeff Garcia earned a Pro Bowl berth and the Buccaneers scored 334 points, the fourth-highest seasonal total in team history.

Recognized for consistently developing some of the NFL's best offensive fronts, Muir's blocking unit paved the way for RB Cadillac Williams, who earned NFL Rookie of the Year honors in 2005. In 2003, the Buccaneers ranked 10th in the NFL in total offense as QB Brad Johnson set single-season franchise records with 354 completions and 26 TDs.

Muir spent seven seasons as the offensive line coach with the N.Y. Jets ('95-01), where he began his association with Chiefs General Manager Scott Pioli and head coach Todd Haley. Under his jurisdiction in 2000, the Jets allowed 20.0 sacks, tying for the lowest total in the NFL.

RB Curtis Martin posted four 1,000-yard seasons during Muir's tenure in New York, including a team-record 1,513 yards in 2001 as Martin earned his fourth Pro Bowl nod. The Jets were fourth in the NFL in rushing in 2001, averaging 128.4 rushing ypg, the club's best ranking since '91.

Muir spent three campaigns as the offensive line coach for Philadelphia ('92-94). Thanks to his offensive front, the Eagles ranked ninth in the NFL, averaging 110.1 rushing ypg in '94. He joined the Eagles after a three-year stint with Indianapolis ('89-91). He served two seasons as the Colts defensive coordinator before assuming the post of assistant head coach/offensive line coach in '91. Muir spent four seasons as the offensive line coach for Detroit ('85-88) after serving in the same capacity with New England ('82-84).

The Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania native began his first tour of duty in Tampa Bay as a member of the personnel department. He worked as a scout in '78 before serving as a pro scout from '79-81. The Buccaneers advanced to the postseason in '79 and

Prior to entering the NFL ranks, Muir spent two seasons coaching the offensive line at SMU ('76-77). He served in the same capacity with the World Football League's Houston/Shreveport Steamers ('74-75). Muir enjoyed a stint as defensive coordinator at Idaho State ('72-73), in addition to coaching the defensive line and working as defensive coordinator at Rhode Island ('70-71).

From '68-69, Muir was the offensive line coach of the Orlando Panthers of the fledgling Continental Football League that fielded teams from '65-69. Muir was part of an Orlando staff that won the '68 league title game. Muir's first two coaching assignments were coaching the offensive and defensive lines at Delaware Valley ('66-67) and Susquehanna ('65). A standout tackle at Susquehanna from '62-64, Muir was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame in '90 after being named to the school's "Top 100" players of all-time.

Education: Susquehanna University (B.A. '65). Born: Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. Family: Wife - Barbara; Children - Keelan and Brady. The Muirs have five grandchildren.

Pat Perles enters his first season with the Chiefs in 2009. He will serve as Kansas City's defensive quality control coach and will also work with the Chiefs linebackers. Perles comes to Kansas City after nine seasons in the collegiate ranks. Perles also owns six years of experience in the Canadian Football League after beginning his pro coaching career with the L.A. Rams.

Perles joins the Chiefs after spending the past six seasons at North Dakota State (2003-08). He served as offensive coordinator during his final four campaigns with the Bison. He originally joined the club as offensive line coach and run game coordinator. During his six-year tenure at the school, the Bison posted a 49-17 record.

In 2008, Perles oversaw a North Dakota State offensive unit that averaged 29.9 ppg and 384.3 ypg. Under Perles' direction QB Steve Walker finished his career with 7,033 passing yards and was named the Great West Offensive Player of the Year in 2007. Meanwhile, RB Tyler Roehl finished the 2007 campaign with 1,053 yards, including a school-record 263-yard performance at Minnesota.

Perles spent three seasons as the tight ends coach at Michigan State (2000-02) and also served as the club's co-special teams coach in 2000. He was instrumental in the development of TE Chris Baker, who established school career records for tight ends for receptions (133), receiving yards (1,705) and touchdowns (13).

Perles begins his first season with the Chiefs.

Prior to returning to his collegiate alma mater, Perles spent six seasons with a trio of Canadian Football League teams. He served as the offensive line coach for Hamilton ('98-99). Under his direction, the Tigercats allowed a CFL single-season record 7.0 sacks in '99. That season, Hamilton registered a 32-19 victory vs. Calgary in the Grey Cup after losing the CFL's title game to that club the previous season. He spent one season as the offensive line coach for Winnipeg ('97) after spending three years in the same capacity with Saskatchewan ('94-96).

The Detroit, Michigan native received his initial NFL coaching assignment as a member of Chuck Knox's staff with the L.A. Rams ('92-93). He began his coaching career as the defensive line coach for the University of Toledo ('89-91). He aided in the development of DT Dan Williams, who was a first-round pick of Denver and later played for the Chiefs.

Part of a distinguished football family tree, Perles is the son of George Perles, who served 12 seasons as head coach at Michigan State ('83-94). The younger Perles served as a linebacker for the Spartans. He was a member of Spartans teams that played in the '84 Cherry Bowl and the '85 Hall of Fame Bowl.

Perles was an all-state selection as a nose guard at Upper St. Clair High School in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, the same high school alma mater as Chiefs head coach Todd Haley. Perles and Haley both grew up around the great Steelers teams of the '70s and served as ballboys for the club. Perles' father was an assistant coach with the Steelers ('72-81), while Haley's father served as Pittsburgh's Director of Player Personnel ('71-90).

Nick Sirianni (pronounced SEER-ee-AHN-ee) begins his first season as an NFL assistant coach in 2009. He will serve as Kansas City's offensive quality control coach on head coach Todd Haley's staff. He joins the Chiefs after serving a three-year stint as the wide receivers coach at Indiana University - Pennsylvania.

In 2008, Sirianni helped senior WR Ken Witter produce 66 receptions for 773 yards with seven TDs at IUP. Under Sirianni's direction, Witter recorded two of the top three seasonal totals for receptions in school history. In addition to his 66 catches in 2008, Witter had 67 receptions the previous season.

Prior to joining the Crimson Hawks, Sirianni spent two seasons as the defensive backs coach at Mount Union College in Alliance, Ohio. He

40TH ANNIVERSARY OF SUPER BOWL IV

The 2009 season marks the 40th anniversary of the greatest campaign in Chiefs history as the '69 season culminated with a 23-7 victory vs. the heavily-favored Minnesota Vikings in Super Bowl IV. When the final seconds ticked off the clock at Tulane Stadium in New Orleans on January 11, 1970, the Chiefs were crowned champions of the football world. QB Len Dawson was named the game's Most Valuable Player, but Kansas City's vaunted defense made just as big of an impact. That unit boasted four future Hall of Famers - LBs

Bobby Bell and Willie Lanier, as well as DT Buck Buchanan and CB Emmitt Thomas. Lanier and Thomas both registered interceptions in the fourth quarter of that contest, along with S Johnny Robinson, who played the game with three broken ribs. A tickertape parade through downtown Kansas City followed the next day as Stram and company hoisted the Lombardi Trophy for Chiefs fans to behold. The Super Bowl IV team will be honored as part of the Chiefs Alumni Weekend ceremonies at halftime of the club's contest vs. Dallas (10/11).

Cedric Smith enters his third season as Kansas City's strength and conditioning coach after spending six years as an assistant strength coach with the Denver Broncos (2001-06). In Denver, Smith worked with longtime Broncos strength and conditioning coach Rich Tuten in implementing all aspects of the Broncos in-season and off-season training programs.

As Kansas City's strength and conditioning coach, Smith is responsible for overseeing the Chiefs year-round conditioning efforts. The former NFL fullback has implemented a vigorous off-season program that not only puts an emphasis on strength training and cardiovascular endurance, but also focuses on enhancing speed and flexibility. Smith supervises the club's personalized in-season training regiment, which is designed to maintain off-season gains and keep the squad in top physical condition over the course of the entire NFL campaign.

Prior to joining the Broncos, Smith was a fitness manager and consultant with Gold's Gym in Phoenix for two years ('99-00) after concluding a successful seven-year NFL playing career. During his professional playing tenure, Smith enjoyed stints with Arizona ('96-98), Washington ('94-95), New Orleans ('91) and Minnesota ('90). He finished his NFL career with 40 carries for 100 yards (2.5 avg.) with two touchdowns and 20 receptions for 141 yards (7.1 avg.) with two scores. He also had five kickoff returns for 83 yards (16.6 avg.). He originally entered the NFL as the second of Minnesota's two fifth-round selections (131st overall) in the '90 NFL Draft. Smith appeared in 15 games for the Vikings as a rookie, opening holes for RB Herschel Walker.

The Enterprise, Alabama native enjoyed his finest NFL campaign in '94 with Washington. He played in 14 games (eight starts), rushing 10 times for 48 yards (4.8 avg.) and catching 15 passes for 118 yards (7.9 avg.).

Prior to entering the NFL, Smith was a three-year starter at fullback at the University of Florida where he paved the way for RB Emmitt Smith, the NFL's all-time leading rusher. Serving as a fullback for the Gators, he finished his collegiate career with 20 starts, carrying the ball 102 times for 300 yards (2.9 avg.) with four TDs and catching 11 passes for 77 yards (7.0 avg.). He was a three-time Academic All-Southeastern Conference selection. Before enrolling at Florida, Smith was named All-Alabama as a fullback at Enterprise High School in Enterprise, Alabama. Smith graduated from the University of Florida with a degree in Health Sciences.

Dedric Ward (pronounced DEE-drick) enters his first season as Kansas City's wide receivers coach in 2009. Ward and Kansas City head coach Todd Haley are reunited with the Chiefs after spending the past two seasons together in Arizona. Ward served as the Cardinals offensive quality control coach, while Haley was the club's offensive coordinator. Haley also served as Ward's position coach when he played wide receiver for both the N.Y. Jets and the Dallas Cowboys.

In addition to his quality control duties with the Cardinals, Ward worked closely with the club's running backs in 2008 and was part of a staff that helped guide Arizona to a berth in Super Bowl XLIII. In 2007, Ward concentrated his on-field efforts working with the Cardinals wide receivers.

Entering his third season as an NFL assistant coach, Ward began his coaching career at Missouri State University in 2006. While at Missouri State, Ward coached wide receivers under the guidance of his former collegiate head coach Terry Allen.

An eight-year NFL playing veteran, Ward was a third-round selection (88th overall) by the N.Y. Jets in the '97 NFL Draft. Chiefs General Manager Scott Pioli served as Director of Pro Personnel for the Jets at the time, while Haley was a member of New York's coaching staff, including a two-year stint ('99-00) as Ward's position coach.

Ward is an eight-year NFL playing veteran.

During his professional playing tenure, Ward enjoyed stints with the N.Y. Jets ('97-00), Miami (2001-02), Baltimore (2003), New England (2003) and Dallas (2004). He appeared in 103 career contests (30 starts) and registered 167 receptions for 2,307 yards (13.8 avg.) and 12 TDs. He also rushed 12 times for 86 yards (7.2 avg.). A standout performer on special teams, Ward returned 123 career punts for 1,026 yards (8.3 avg.) and logged six kickoff returns for 90 yards (15.0 avg.). He also appeared in six postseason games with 12 receptions for 156 yards (13.0 avg.) and won a Super Bowl XXXVIII ring with New England in 2003.

The Cedar Rapids, Iowa native enjoyed his finest NFL campaign with the Jets in 2000. He started all 16 contests, catching 54 passes for 801 yards and three TDs. He also notched four rushes for 23 yards and returned 27 punts for 214 yards.

Prior to entering the NFL, Ward was a four-year letterwinner at Northern Iowa ('93-96). He finished his collegiate career with the Panthers as the school's all-time receiving leader with 4,539 yards and all-time scoring leader with 50 TDs (300 points). He also ranked second in school annals for all-purpose yards (5,987) and third in career receptions (208). He earned first-team All-Gateway Conference honors his final three seasons and was consensus NCAA Division I-AA All-America selection as a senior in '96 when he finished with 70 catches for 1,556 yards and 17 TDs.

Ward attended Washington High School in Cedar Rapids, Iowa where he lettered in football and basketball. He graduated from the University of Northern Iowa with a degree in Psychology.

JOEL COLLIER

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

19th NFL Season
1st with Chiefs

Entering his 19th NFL season in 2009, Joel Collier enters his first campaign as Assistant General Manager with the Chiefs. Collier will assist General Manager Scott Pioli with the day-to-day football operations of the club, working closely with the coaching and player personnel staffs.

Prior to he enjoyed a three-year stint with New England (2005-07). The Patriots enjoyed a stellar season with Collier leading the club's defensive backs in 2007. New England captured the NFL's first 16-0 regular season record and advanced to Super Bowl XLII. Thanks in part to Collier's secondary unit, the Patriots ranked fourth in the NFL in scoring defense, allowing just 17.1 ppg.

In 2006, Collier assisted in guiding a secondary that helped the Patriots rank second in the league in scoring defense as New England established a franchise record by allowing a mere 14.8 ppg. The Patriots defensive backfield surrendered a league-low 10 TD passes, while Pro Bowl CB Asante Samuel registered a league-high 10 INTs.

After losing six members of the defensive backfield to season-ending injuries in 2005, Collier was instrumental in mentoring a secondary that allowed just 188.0 passing ypg over the club's final seven contests. Over an eight-week midseason span the Patriots utilized six different starters at strong safety. In total, 13 different starters roamed New England's secondary that season.

Collier enters his 19th NFL campaign in 2009.

In between two separate coaching stints in New England, Collier served an 11-season tenure with Miami ('94-04). During a seven-year stretch as running backs coach ('98-04), the Dolphins produced a 1,000-yard rusher three times. Under Collier's guidance, RB Ricky Williams assembled the finest two rushing seasons in Dolphins history with a league-leading 1,853 yards in 2002 and a 1,372-yard effort in 2003. In 2002, Williams became the first Dolphins running back to earn a Pro Bowl berth since RB Delvin Williams in '78.

COLLIER'S FOOTBALL CAREER

1984-87	Northern Colorado	Linebacker
1988-89	Syracuse	Graduate Assistant
1990	Tampa Bay Buccaneers	Off. Assistant
1991-93	New England Patriots	Asst. RBs/ Wide Receivers ('91-92) Pro Scout ('93)
1994-04	Miami Dolphins	Defensive Asst. ('94-97) Running Backs ('98-04)
2005-07	New England Patriots	Asst. DBs ('05) Secondary ('06-07)
2009	Kansas City Chiefs	Assistant GM

Collier was also credited with developing FB Rob Konrad into one of the league's premier blocking fullbacks. In total, Collier helped three different Dolphins finish among the NFL's top five rookie rushers.

Before tutoring Miami's running backs, Collier spent four seasons as a defensive assistant ('94-97). In that role, he assisted with the club's linebacker unit and was credited with assisting in the rapid development of LB Derrick Rodgers, who took home Sports Illustrated's Defensive Rookie of the Year honors in '97.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Collier served his first tour of duty in New England. He spent two seasons as the Patriots assistant running backs/wide receivers coach ('91-92) and one season as a pro scout ('93).

Collier began his NFL coaching career as an offensive assistant in Tampa Bay ('90) following a two-year stay as a graduate assistant at Syracuse ('88-89), working on the same staff as current Chiefs General Manager Scott Pioli. Collier was a three-year starter at inside linebacker for Northern Colorado.

The Buffalo, New York native hails from a bloodline of NFL instruction. Collier's father, Joe Collier, served as Buffalo Bills head coach ('66-68) and spent the following 20 seasons as an assistant with Denver ('69-88). The elder Collier was the architect of the Broncos 3-4 defensive scheme of the late '70s that became known as the "Orange Crush." Denver would reach three Super Bowl while Collier's father served as defensive coordinator.

Education: University of Northern Colorado (B.A. '87). Born: Buffalo, New York. Family: Wife - Shirley Ann; Children - Jeremy Grayson and Evelyn.

DENNY
THUM
PRESIDENT

36th NFL Season
36th with Chiefs

DONOVAN
EXECUTIVE V.P./COO

11th NFL Season

Denny Thum was promoted to President of the Kansas City Chiefs on May 8th by Chiefs Chairman Clark Hunt. In his new role with the organization, Thum will oversee all aspects of the club's business operations and will report directly to Hunt.

"Denny has been an outstanding member of the Chiefs organization for almost four decades, and we are very fortunate to have a person with his level of experience and expertise running the business," Hunt said. "I know he will continue to do a tremendous job in his new role as President."

"I would like to thank Clark Hunt and the Hunt Family for this tremendous opportunity," Thum commented on the promotion. "As an organization, it will be our ongoing objective to build on the proud 50-year history of our franchise. It has been my privilege to serve the Chiefs for the past 35 years, and I am extremely honored to be named the fourth President of the club. We are committed to making the Chiefs fan experience the finest in the National Football League as we usher in a new era of Chiefs football."

Thum brings a combination of integrity, vision and leadership to his new role. In addition to being entrusted with additional responsibilities with the Chiefs, he will continue to represent the franchise at the league level and in the Kansas City community.

Regarded across the league as one of the NFL's most respected administrators, Thum enters his 36th season of service with the Chiefs organization in 2009. He is one of just three current members of the Chiefs organization who own the distinction of being continuously employed by the team during the tenure of every head coach in franchise history. Over those past 35 seasons, Thum has been an important player in helping the franchise evolve with a changing business and NFL climate, serving in a variety of roles.

Prior to his appointment as the franchise's interim President in December of 2008, Thum had served as the franchise's Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer since May of 2006. In that capacity, he oversaw the budgets for the business side of the Chiefs operation and worked in conjunction with team ownership in formulating short-term and long-term strategic plans to ensure the continued vitality of the Chiefs franchise in Kansas City.

Over the past 25 years, Thum had played a major role in the club's day-to-day football operation. With the advent of the salary cap in '94, he worked to formulate Kansas City's strategy relative to player compensation and the salary cap. He was also intimately involved in the negotiation of Kansas City's player contracts. In addition, he was responsible for assisting with the preparation of the entire football budget. He worked closely with the football staff and oversaw the coordination of the club's training camp operations and other team logistical issues.

Thum was promoted to the post of Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer in May of 2006. He had served the previous 10 seasons as the club's Executive Vice President/Assistant General Manager. Thum originally received the title of Assistant General Manager in '89 and added the responsibilities of Executive Vice President to his Assistant GM duties in '96.

The St. Louis, Missouri native began his longtime tenure with Kansas City's NFL franchise as a staff accountant in '74. He was named the club's Chief Accountant in '82 and was promoted to Director of Accounting in '83 before being elevated to the position of Assistant to the General Manager from '84-88. Thum was promoted to Assistant General Manager by Peterson shortly after Peterson's arrival in Kansas City in '89.

Thum is the fourth President of the Chiefs.

Thum is an alum of St. Louis University High School in St. Louis and is a '74 graduate of Rockhurst College in Kansas City. He was named to Rockhurst University's Board of Trustees in 2008 after previously serving on the Alumni Board of Directors. He was selected as the school's 2006 Alumnus of the Year for Outstanding Achievement and assisted with fundraising efforts for Rockhurst and its athletic program for many years.

Thum is on the Board of Directors for the St. Joseph Medical Center Foundation. He is also an active board member with SAFE (Surviving Spouse and Family Endowment Fund), which benefits families of fallen police, fire and emergency personnel in the Kansas City area. He and his wife Carmen also take a hands-on role with a number of other charitable causes in Kansas City, including the Medical Missions Foundation and the Children's Center for the Visually Impaired. The Thums reside in Kansas City, Missouri with their two daughters - Megan and Lindsay.

Mark Donovan was officially named Kansas City's Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer on May 21st. Entering his 11th season in the National Football League, Donovan will report to Chiefs President Denny Thum in directing the club's business operations.

"We are all excited to have Mark join our executive team," said Chairman Clark Hunt in making the announcement. "Mark's track record of success on the business side of the NFL has earned the respect and praise of the entire league."

Donovan comes to Kansas City after a six-year stint as Senior Vice President of Business Operations for the Philadelphia Eagles (2003-08). Recognized as one of the league's top business executives, Donovan led the Eagles efforts in sponsorship sales and services, television and radio production, retail operations, event acquisition and ticket sales, as well as new media strategy. He also directed premium sales and customer service.

"Mark will be a great asset to the Kansas City Chiefs as we make the transition to the New Arrowhead," Thum added. "We are very fortunate to add his business acumen and expertise to the Chiefs organization."

Prior to joining the Eagles, Donovan was the NFL's Senior Director of Sales and Marketing where he played an active role in developing new revenue for the league. Upon his arrival at the NFL office in September of '99, Donovan managed the relationships with the league's major corporate partners and oversaw numerous league-wide marketing initiatives. Donovan got his start in the sports business arena as Director of Sales and Marketing for the National Hockey League, where he served from '97-99 after a five-year stint in the private business sector.

Donovan's tenure with Philadelphia saw the franchise gain several prestigious awards. In 2007, Forbes magazine, in calculating the brand value of the 122 professional sports teams, named the Eagles as the "fastest growing brand" in the NFL. Under his direction, The Eagles Television Network won 32 Emmys and 53 Telly Awards, while the team earned 11 Philadelphia Addys, including Best Television Campaign for the club's "You Can't Script This Stuff" campaign. In addition, philadelphiaeagles.com was selected the best overall web site among NFL teams three times during Donovan's tenure.

Donovan enters his first season in Kansas City.

As the Chiefs make the transition into the New Arrowhead, Donovan's experience with Philadelphia should prove particularly valuable. Thanks to Donovan, Lincoln Financial Field developed a national reputation as a premier sports and entertainment venue, hosting major concerts, international soccer contests, as well as college football and NCAA championship events.

The Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania native graduated from Brown University with a double major in Political Science and Organizational Behavior and Management. He captained the Brown football squad as the club's quarterback and signed as a free agent with the N.Y. Giants upon graduation.

Donovan serves on the National Board of Directors of Pop Warner Football and was involved in a number of philanthropic and community organizations in Philadelphia. He and his wife Kathleen have two children - Luke and Maeve.

CHIEFS RADIO TEAM: (L to R): Kendall Gammon (Sideline Reporter), Len Dawson (Color Commentary), Mitch Holthus (Play-by-Play) and Dan Israel (Exec. Producer).

For the 20th consecutive year, all Chiefs games will be carried in Kansas City by KCFX Radio/101.1 FM. The Chiefs Fox Football Radio Network, with KCFX as its anchor, includes 55 affiliates throughout a seven-state region. KCFX will broadcast all Chiefs preseason, regular season and playoff games live. One of the Midwest's most recognizable radio and television personalities, Mitch Holthus handles the play-by-play duties for the 16th straight year, giving him more years of service than any other "Voice of the Chiefs" in team history. Holthus has called a franchise-record 238 regular and postseason contests for Kansas City. Only six active NFL play-by-play announcers have been in their current roles for more seasons than Holthus.

Holthus is a past president of the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association and is an eight-time winner of the Kansas Sportscaster of the Year Award. The Smith Center, Kansas native also served as the voice of Kansas State athletics for 14 years from '83-96. In addition to his Chiefs duties, he began his duties as the lead TV play-by-play broadcaster for FOX Sports coverage of the Missouri Valley Conference in '95. In 2008, Holthus added TV play-by-play coverage of Big 12 basketball to his resume and continued to broadcast select Missouri Valley basketball contests.

Adding the color analysis to the Chiefs Radio Network for the 25th consecutive year is QB Len Dawson, who was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in '87. Dawson was the MVP in Kansas City's Super Bowl IV triumph over Minnesota and guided the franchise to three AFL titles. Pro Bowl long snapper Kendall Gammon enters his second season providing in-game sideline updates. A 15-year NFL veteran, Gammon played in 106 games in a Chiefs uniform and was a member of Pittsburgh's Super Bowl XXX squad. Dan Israel serves as the Executive Producer of the Chiefs Radio Network. A member of the Chiefs Radio Network since '89, his talents have also been used by HBO, CBS, NBC and ABC. "Voice of the Missouri State Bears" Art Haines anchors the pre-game show, halftime and in-game reports, while Bill Grigsby continues to serve as a vibrant part of the Chiefs gameday broadcast.

Fifty years ago the American Football League was looking for communities to call its own. Kansas City would embrace Lamar Hunt's team, and the Chiefs embraced Kansas City. Countless hours and many millions of dollars later, the men and women of One Arrowhead Drive continue to show their caring for their community. The health and well-being of their neighbors continues to be a high priority for a team that found a caring community to call its own in Kansas City.

Norma Hunt

The Chiefs Rookie Club and Women's Organization allow new members of our family to understand that caring is a large part of the Kansas City Chiefs.

Clark Hunt with Greensburg, KS football team

Through the leadership of Chairman Clark Hunt, the Chiefs organization has earned a reputation as one of the NFL's most compassionate franchises.

The Hunt Family now has three generations involved in our tradition of caring as Lamar's spirit of concern for the community remains with us.

Tavia and Gracie Hunt

No team has had more individuals honored as NFL Man of the Year for their commitment to the community than the Kansas City Chiefs.

NFL Man of the Year winners QB Len Dawson, G Will Shields and LB Willie Lanier with Lamar Hunt

The Chiefs Corps was one of the franchise's most prominent forays in the community in the 1980s as the organization partnered with the Kansas City Missouri School District. Participating players included: (L to R) RB Theotis Brown, S Mark Robinson, S Kevin Ross, K Nick Lowery, LB Calvin Daniels, S Deron Cherry, CB Albert Lewis, LB Ken McAllister, QB Todd Blackledge and LB Jerry Blanton

ALUMNI WEEKEND

The Chiefs annually celebrate Alumni Weekend to honor the greats of the franchise's past. This year, the club's Super Bowl IV team and K Nick Lowery – the newest inductee into the Chiefs Hall of Fame – will be recognized at halftime of the club's contest vs. Dallas (10/11). G Ed Budde, T Dave Hill, Hank Stram and C/LB E.J. Holub are pictured here hoisting the Lombardi Trophy at a past Alumni Weekend celebration.

THE NEW ARROWHEAD

Work began in 2007 on an ambitious four-year, $375-million project that will conclude in 2010 with the completion of the New Arrowhead. Funded by a $250 million contribution from the taxpayers of Jackson County, Missouri via a 3/8-cent sales tax and a $125 million investment by the Hunt Family, the fully refurbished facility will offer Chiefs fans a host of modern amenities, while preserving the stadium's unique character and rich history.

All fans will benefit from concourses throughout the stadium that will be widened by 60 percent, while the number of restroom fixtures will increase by more than 120 percent. Enhanced scoreboards and ribbon boards will also add to the fan experience.

A heroic-sized statue of Lamar Hunt will greet fans as they enter the Founder's Plaza, an area honoring Hunt's vision as a sportsman, a business leader and an innovator. A 28,000-square-foot Hall of Honor inside the New Arrowhead will celebrate the franchise's history and accomplishments through interactive displays.

The club level will feature a spacious, fully-enclosed, climate-controlled concourse. A new club concourse and lounge will have varied seating options, upscale food and beverage offerings, and easy access to new escalators and elevators.

"We saw him at league meetings time after time when Plan A would help his team and Plan B would help professional football. And as sure as night would follow the day, you could always be sure that our honoree would vote for what was in the best interest of the game. And soon the youngest man among our owners gained the greatest respect of all."

- Patriots Owner Billy Sullivan at Hunt's Hall of Fame Induction.

"Hank was a tremendous teacher ... Hank has always said that you win with people. He has this unique ability, with all the different personalities and egos on a football team, to make each and every one of us feel like we were something very special."

- QB Len Dawson at Stram's Hall of Fame Induction.

No one would have appreciated the 50th anniversary of the American Football League and the Kansas City Chiefs more than Lamar Hunt. The inspiration and the driving force behind the formation of the AFL, Hunt's vision for the future of professional football is still going strong after he first conceived the notion of the AFL in '59. "Basically, I just consider myself a fan," Hunt said at his Hall of Fame induction. "I'm extremely grateful as I stand here before you. I know very clearly that the basic reason that I'm here is because the AFL achieved a degree of success. Pro football belongs to the fans and I want to acknowledge this honor in the name of all who contributed to the growth of the AFL and also in the name of the pro football fans of America. Thank you."

When Lamar Hunt offered him the Dallas Texans head coaching job in '59, Hank Stram had no experience coaching in pro football and had never been a head coach at any level. Over the next 15 seasons, "The Mentor" would shape the Chiefs in his precise, dapper image, and revolutionize the strategy and tactics of the pro game in the process. His "Tight I" formation and moving pocket anticipated the multiple offenses of the modern game. On defense his odd-man front and "stack defense" with linebackers lining up directly behind defensive linemen, as well as his widespread use of zone coverages, were innovations that were often criticized at the outset, but were widely imitated later. Even before he was immortalized in NFL Films' highlights of Super Bowl IV, Stram was an inimitable presence on the sidelines, pacing the field with his rolled up play sheet in one hand, barking out encouragement and pointed advice to players and officials alike. "We try to win with grace and class," he said. Under Stram, the Chiefs were the only team to win three American Football League titles.

AFL-NFL MERGER AGREEMENT

On June 8, 1966 NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle officially announced the merger agreement between the AFL and NFL which would fully unite the two rival leagues starting with the '70 season. Under the terms of the agreement, the two rival entities would form an expanded league with 24 teams to be expanded to 26 teams in '68 and to 28 teams following the full unification of the AFL and NFL as one league with two conferences in '70. However, it wouldn't be until the '76 campaign that the 27th and 28th NFL franchises (Seattle and Tampa Bay) would take the field. The two leagues agreed to play an annual AFL-NFL World Championship Game (later known as the Super Bowl, a term coined by Hunt) beginning in January of '67. A combined draft was also held later that same year. Hostilities between the two leagues had steadily escalated after the AFL signed a lucrative television contract with NBC in '65. The ensuing bidding war for players eventually led the NFL to the bargaining table. Talk of a potential merger formally began when Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt and Cowboys executive Tex Schramm held a clandestine meeting at the Texas Ranger statue in the parking lot of Love Field in Dallas on April 6, 1966. On May 31, 1966, Hunt and Schramm hammered out the final details for the merger which was announced by Rozelle a week later. While the Texas Ranger statue (left) has since moved inside the terminal at Love Field, the positive ramifications of that initial meeting between Hunt and Schramm are still felt today.

THAT LSU CHAMPIONSHIP FEELING

In 2007, 2008 and 2009, Kansas City has used a first-round draft pick on a player from Louisiana State University, marking the first time in the era of the common draft that a team has selected three first-round picks from the same school in successive years. The Chiefs selected WR Dwayne Bowe (left) with the 23rd overall choice in 2007 and followed that up by picking his former teammate, DT Glenn Dorsey (below) with the fifth overall selection the next year. In 2009, Kansas City completed the trifecta by selecting DE Tyson Jackson with the third overall pick. Besides all being products of LSU, those three first-round selections each won a National Championship with the Tigers. Bowe was a true freshman on the LSU squad that posted a 21-14 victory vs. Oklahoma in the 2003 BCS National Championship Game. He is pictured following LSU's 41-14 win vs. Notre Dame in the 2007 Sugar Bowl. Bowe led all NFL rookies with 70 catches and 995 yards in 2007 and was voted the club's Mack Lee Hill Award Winner as the team's top rookie or first-year player. In 2007, Dorsey was a key member of the Tigers squad that posted a 38-24 win vs. Ohio State in the BCS National Championship Game.

The Gonzales, Louisiana native posted five tackles, a sack and a forced fumble in his final collegiate contest. He was the most decorated player in LSU football history, collecting prestigious awards including the Outland Trophy, the Nagurski Award, the Lombardi Award and the Lott Award as a senior. Jackson joined Dorsey as a starter on the defensive line in the 2007 BCS National Championship Game vs. Ohio State. The New Orleans, Louisiana native compiled a sack and forced a fumble in the Tigers 38-24 victory. Kansas City C Rudy Niswanger was a also a member of the Tigers squad that claimed the 2003 BCS National Championship. He played in 13 games with four starts during his sophomore campaign at LSU. Chiefs teammate CB Travis Daniels was a member of the Tigers 2003 championship squad. He started 14 games, producing 58 tackles and two interceptions that season.

THOMAS' 7.0-SACK GAME

Chiefs LB Derrick Thomas registered the most prolific single-game sack performance in NFL history, racking up an NFL single-game record 7.0 sacks vs. Seattle (11/11/90). Fittingly, the game was played on Veterans Day weekend, a revered date on the calendar for Thomas, whose father, Air Force Captain Robert Thomas, was shot down returning from a mission in Vietnam entitled "Operation: Linebacker Two." Thomas registered third-down sacks to end Seattle's first two possessions. He stripped Seahawks QB Dave Krieg in the end zone on his third sack of the afternoon. DT Dan Saleaumua recovered the loose ball for a TD, giving the Chiefs a 16-10 lead at the end of the third quarter. He recorded his fourth sack on Seattle's initial drive of the fourth quarter before bagging his fifth, sixth and seventh sacks of the afternoon on Seattle's next-to-last possession. Still holding a 16-10 lead, the Chiefs were unable to run out the clock after taking possession at their own 41-yard line with 1:15 remaining. Thomas had an elusive eighth sack in his grasp on the game's final play, but Krieg was able to escape and launched a final desperate heave into the end zone. WR Paul Skansi hauled in the miraculous 66-yard TD, providing a bittersweet end to Thomas' record-setting day as K Norm Johnson's PAT gave Seattle a 17-16 victory. Thomas will officially be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on August 28th.

TRAINING CAMP INFORMATION

For the 19th consecutive season, the Chiefs will conduct training camp at the University of Wisconsin - River Falls in 2008. Kansas City has called River Falls, Wisconsin its summer home since '91. Located in the scenic St. Croix Valley region approximately 30 miles east of Minneapolis-St. Paul, MN, this bucolic burb of 12,500 citizens annually offers temperate training conditions and hospitality to the Chiefs and their fans. Thanks to a $2.4 million dollar funding package from the State of Wisconsin in 2005, the Chiefs enjoy a number of amenities at the Knowles Center and Hunt Arena, including state-of-the-art, climate-controlled locker room and training room facilities. In 2007, the Chiefs began use of the new $34 million University Center which was funded entirely by student fees. The facility houses the team's meeting and dining needs, in addition to serving as the club's media headquarters.

DIRECTIONS TO TRAINING CAMP FROM THE TWIN CITIES

Take I-494 East from airport and follow to I-94 East. Take I-94 across the St. Croix River to Wisconsin. Exit right on Hwy. 35 South (River Falls Exit). Follow Hwy. 35 six miles into River Falls. Exit right on Main Street. To reach the Chiefs Public Relations offices, go south on Main Street and turn left onto Cascade at your fifth stoplight. Go four blocks and turn right onto Sixth Street. Turn right on Wild Rose Avenue to reach the media parking lot. The Chiefs Public Relations offices are located in The Falls Room on the lower level of the University Center.

To reach the Chiefs practice fields, go South on Main Street through all five stoplights. After crossing Cascade, the Ramer Field practice facility will be approximately one-half mile on South Main on the left. Mileage from the Minneapolis-St. Paul Airport to River Falls is 27 miles. Travel time under normal traffic conditions is approximately 45 minutes.

AFL CHARTER MEMBER DALLAS TEXANS

After a fruitless attempt to purchase the Chicago Cardinals in February of '59, Lamar Hunt returned by plane to Dallas. Unable to buy an existing franchise, and repeatedly rebuffed in his efforts to persuade the NFL to expand, Hunt decided to explore the possibility of forming his own football league. The inspiration and the driving force behind the American Football League, Hunt would place the league's first franchise in his hometown of Dallas. The Texans and the NFL's Cowboys would both call the Cotton Bowl their home, but it was

Hunt's squad that boasted the superior product on the field. Under head coach Hank Stram, the Texans boasted a distinctive home-state flavor with QB Cotton Davidson (Baylor), RB Abner Haynes (North Texas State), LB Sherrill Headrick (TCU) and FB Jack Spikes (TCU). But it was in '62 when the club acquired NFL castoff QB Len Dawson that it all started to click. Thanks to Dawson, the AFL's Player of the Year, the Texans won the '62 AFL Championship Game in a double-overtime thriller vs. Houston (12/23/62). That contest featured the infamous decision by Haynes (above), who opted to "kick to the clock," when the Texans won the coin toss heading into the first overtime. While the franchise would move to Kansas City and become the Chiefs in '63, the Texans gave the fledgling league credibility by staring eye-to-eye with their cross-town NFL rivals for three seasons.

AFL CHARTER MEMBER HOUSTON OILERS

On August 3, 1959, Houston oil tycoon Bud Adams officially joined Lamar Hunt in the enterprise known as the American Football League when the duo held a press conference in Adam's subterranean office. Former NFL QB George Blanda (left) and '59 Heisman Trophy winner RB Billy Cannon formed a dynamic duo in the backfield and helped Adams' Oilers claim the AFL's inaugural two crowns by beating San Diego in the AFL Championship Game in both '60 and '61. Houston's Lou Rymkus was named the AFL's Coach of the Year in '60, while his replacement, Wally Lemm, earned those honors the following season. Under head coach Frank "Pop" Ivy, Houston lost the AFL's title tilt for a third straight year in '62, this time losing a double-OT thriller to Hunt's Dallas Texans at Jeppessen Stadium. A turbulent coaching situation ensued before Lemm guided the club back the playoffs in '67 and '69. Dubbed as the "Eighth Wonder of the World," the Astrodome became the Oilers revolutionary home in '68. However, Kansas City would own the distinction of winning the first regular season AFL game played indoors by a 26-21 count (9/9/68). In addition to Blanda, three other future Pro Football Hall of Fame enshrinees would wear an Oilers uniform during their AFL days, including DE Elvin Bethea, S Ken Houston and WR Charlie Joiner.

THE LAMAR HUNT AWARD FOR PROFESSIONAL FOOTBALL

The Lamar Hunt Award for Professional Football honors the life and legacy of Lamar Hunt, an individual who made an immeasurable impact on the game of professional football. The Lamar Hunt Award is presented annually at the 101 Banquet in Kansas City based on five key criteria that were emblematic of Hunt's approach to the game: Vision, Humble Leadership, Integrity, Fan Dedication and Innovation. If there were ever a coach who embodied the unassuming spirit of Hunt, Tony Dungy would unquestionably meet that criteria. Universally respected for his impeccable character and humility, Dungy's profoundly positive impact transcended the sports world as "Quiet Strength" became the first NFL-related book to ever top the prestigious New York Times bestseller list. Remarkably, Dungy's teams made the playoffs each of his final 10 seasons as an NFL head coach. Dungy and his wife, Lauren, are pictured at the 101 Banquet with Norma, Tavia and Clark Hunt.

THIRD AND LONG FOUNDATION

Founded by LB Derrick Thomas in '90, the "Third and Long Foundation" enters its 20th year of service in 2009. Through this inner-city reading and literacy program, Thomas sought to take his eternally optimistic attitude to the help kids he could identify with — those battling delinquency, drugs, violence, crime and unemployment — many of the same demons he faced growing up on the streets of Miami. Thomas would visit local libraries on Saturdays prior to home games to read to children. DE Neil Smith regularly helped his "little buddy" with the "Third and Long Foundation" is now the guiding force behind the organization.

AFL CHARTER MEMBER BOSTON PATRIOTS

Billy Sullivan's Boston Patriots epitomized the nomadic existence that marked the early days of the American Football League. Boston University Field, Fenway Park, Boston College Alumni Stadium and Harvard Stadium all served as home sites for the club during their first 10 seasons. The Patriots and Bills both finished 7-6-1 in '63, forcing the AFL's only Division Playoff Game. Boston prevailed by a 26-20 count to advance to the '63 AFL Championship Game under head coach Mike Holovak, where they would fall to San Diego. WR/K

Gino Capelletti (above) was selected to five AFL All-Star Games and was named the league's MVP in '64. One of only three players to not miss a game during the AFL's 10-year history, Capelletti boasted the top two single-season scoring marks in league history with 155 points in '64 and 147 points in '65. QB Babe Parilli was named the AFL's Comeback Player of the Year in '66, the same year that RB Jim Nance set an AFL single-season record with 1,458 rushing yards. New England's defense was led by Hall of Fame LB Nick Buoniconti, who appeared in five consecutive AFL All-Star Games from '63-67. Four-time AFL All-Star DE Bob Dee scored the first TD in AFL history in a preseason game vs. Buffalo (7/30/60).

REMEMBERING SUPER BOWL I

While the official title of the contest between Kansas City (AFL) and Green Bay (NFL) was known as "The AFL-NFL World Championship Game," it would later become known as Super Bowl I. Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt is credited with accidentally coining the term Super Bowl. His inspiration for the suggestion was the high-bouncing "Super Ball," a toy which had become a craze among the children in the Hunt household. While NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle originally thought the name was corny, the term Super Bowl has now become a permanent part of the sports landscape.

AFL CHARTER MEMBER N.Y. TITANS

If the American Football League were to succeed, it needed a beachhead in the nation's biggest market. However, the Titans were in serious financial trouble by '62 before Sonny Werblin headed a syndicate that purchased the club for $1 million in '63 and renamed the franchise the Jets. Weeb Ewbank, who guided the Colts to NFL titles in '58-59, was named head coach. The Jets moved from the Polo Grounds to Shea Stadium in '64 and enjoyed some of the league's biggest crowds. The club traded QB Jerry Rhome to Houston in exchange for the top pick in the '65 AFL Draft and subsequently won a bidding war with the St. Louis Cardinals, paying $427,000 to acquire the rights to University of Alabama QB Joe Namath (above). The Big Apple and the Jets were a perfect match for the flamboyant signal caller, whose legend was firmly secured in '68. The Jets finished atop the AFL East standings at 11-3 and dispatched Oakland in the AFL Championship Game to advance to Super Bowl III. Namath boldly "guaranteed" a Jets victory and the bravado of the Jets triggerman helped the club pull off a 16-7 upset of the Colts, shocking the NFL establishment and gaining instant credibility for the rival league.

HOOK 'EM CHIEFS

The Chiefs have stayed true to their roots in the Lone Star State over the years. Over the past 49 seasons, the Chiefs have boasted 20 players from the University of Texas on the club's all-time roster, the highest total from any single institution. In 2008, a trio of Texas Longhorns spent time in Kansas City uniforms: LB Derrick Johnson (#56), DT Derek Lokey (#69) and RB Jamaal Charles (#25). Johnson is the only Longhorn the team has ever selected in the first round.

Two-Time Pro Bowler (2005-06)

Pro Career: Ruggedly intense competitor has earned a reputation as one of the NFL's most powerful performers since joining the Chiefs as a first-round draft choice (27th overall) in 2003 ... Enters his seventh campaign in Kansas City in 2009 ... Punishing two-time Pro Bowler owns a Chiefs record with 30 career 100-yard rushing games ... Ranks second on the Chiefs all-time rushing yardage chart with 5,638 yards, needing just 433 more to bypass RB Priest Holmes (6,070) for the top spot in Kansas City annals ... Bounced back from an injury-shortened 2007 season to see duty in 12 contests a year ago, leading the club in carries (193), rushing yards (874) and rushing TDs (five) ... Possesses a genuine appreciation for some of the game's all-time great running backs and has been flattered by comparisons that have likened his running style to a mix of Jim Brown's power and Walter Payton's athleticism ... Owns three of the four most prolific single-game rushing performances in club history, including the top two outings with a franchise-record 211-yard performance at Houston (11/20/05) and a 201-yard effort vs. Cincinnati (1/1/06) ... Also boasted a season-high 198-yard effort vs. Denver (9/28/08), which ranked as the fourth-highest single-game rushing tally in team history ... Clearly established himself as one of the NFL's top ball carriers by combining for 3,539 rushing yards in 2005-06 ... After posting a Chiefs single-season record 1,750 rushing yards in just nine starts in 2005, opened all 16 games in 2006 en route to breaking his own franchise record with 1,789 rushing yards, trailing only San Diego RB LaDainian Tomlinson (1,815) in the chase for the NFL's rushing crown ... Posted an NFL single-season record 416 carries in 2006, breaking the previous mark established by Atlanta RB Jamal Anderson (410) in '98 ... Joined L.A. Rams RB Eric Dickerson ('83-84) and Denver RB Terrell Davis ('97-98) as only the third player in NFL history to produce 1,750 or more rushing yards in back-to-back seasons ... The Chiefs are 22-8 (.733) in contests when Johnson tops the 100-yard barrier ... Accumulated 1,958 rushing yards in his first 16 starts, the best total in NFL history by a RB since '70 ... A true workhorse, ranks third in team history with 1,382 attempts from scrimmage, trailing only Holmes (1,572) and RB Ed Podolak (1,445) ... Has shown an undeniable ability to find the end zone with 61 career TDs (55 rushing, six receiving), a tally that already ranks third in franchise history behind Holmes (83) and TE Tony Gonzalez (76) ... Meanwhile, only Holmes (76) has accumulated more career rushing TDs in a Kansas City uniform ... Ranks sixth on the club's career scoring chart with 366 points, needing just 34 more points to become the sixth member of the franchise's 400-point club ... Ranks third in Chiefs history with 1,243 career rushing attempts, needing just four more to overtake RB Christian Okoye (1,246) for second and 79 more to bypass Holmes (1,321) for the all-time lead ... Became one of just six players in franchise history to own a rushing TD, a TD reception and to have also thrown for a TD pass after he connected with Gonzalez on a four-yard TD pass vs. San Diego (12/14/08) ... NFL HISTORY 101

RB Larry Johnson has an appreciation for pro football history that is unlike many of today's NFL stars. He developed an admiration for some of the game's legends as a young boy by spending hours watching NFL Films highlight videos brought home by his father. A frequent visitor to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, Johnson toured the hallowed grounds in 2006 as part of a feature story for The Sporting News. Later that same year when a display was built to honor his NFL-record 416 carries, he admitted to being humbled to have his shoes displayed alongside memorabilia from players he deeply respects like RBs Earl Campbell, Dick "Night Train" Lane, Ollie Matson, Lenny Moore and Marion Motley. "MR. MUSIC" – TONY DIPARDO

The Chiefs honored Kansas City music icon Tony Dipardo and the TD Pack Band vs. Miami (12/21/08) for over 40 seasons of service. Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt called on Dipardo to lead the club's in-game pep band in '63. That musical unit had an immediate effect on the gameday pageantry at Municipal Stadium, so much so, that the trumpet-toting band leader was personally awarded a Super Bowl IV ring by head coach Hank Stram. DiPardo's daughter, Patti, led the TD Pack Band for the past 20 seasons and performed the National Anthem over 40 times at Arrowhead. To Tony, Patti and the TD Pack Band, the Chiefs say "thank you" for your longtime contributions to the franchise.

AFL CHARTER MEMBER OAKLAND RAIDERS

After Minneapolis defected to the rival National Football League, Oakland became the AFL's final member on January 30, 1960. Raiders owner Wayne Valley would later coin the term "The Foolish Club" when referencing he and the other seven original AFL owners. Several names were considered for the franchise, including Senors and Dons before the Raiders became a reality. The Raiders were a nomadic lot in their early days. They shared San Francisco's Kezar Stadium and Candlestick Park with the 49ers in '60 and '61. A year later, owned the distinction of playing at hastily-constructed Frank Youell Field, a complex named for a former Oakland city official who once served as an undertaker. Al Davis was named the Raiders head coach and General Manager in '63. After a brief tenure as AFL Commissioner in '66, he returned to the franchise and his name has been synonymous with the Raiders ever since. The Raiders would win their lone AFL title by defeating Houston in '67 before losing to Green Bay in Super Bowl II. Hall of Fame coach John Madden (above) would guide Oakland to the '69 AFL Championship Game where Kansas City won a 17-7 decision to earn a berth in Super Bowl IV.

AFL CHARTER MEMBER BUFFALO BILLS

Ralph Wilson became the seventh member of "The Foolish Club" when his Buffalo Bills joined the AFL. Under head coach Lou Saban, Buffalo won back-to-back AFL Championship Games in '64 and '65 against San Diego thanks to a stingy defense. Saban unexpectedly resigned after the '65 season and former assistant Joe Collier guided the Bills to their third straight AFL Championship Game in '66. However, Kansas City registered a 31-7 victory on a cold and muddy day in Buffalo to earn the right to advance to Super Bowl I. The Bills boasted one of the AFL's most exciting offenses. RB Cookie Gilchrist ran for 1,096 yards in '62 behind an offensive line that featured Hall of Fame G Billy Shaw, becoming the AFL's first 1,000-yard rusher. Meanwhile, QB Jack Kemp (left) was acquired after the Chargers tried to sneak Kemp through waivers. Before the late Kemp began his political career, he served as the steady force for the franchise through the '69 campaign. Another notable Bills alum was LB Marty Schottenheimer, who would coach Kansas City from '89-98. War Memorial Stadium, known affectionately known by the locals as simply "The Rockpile," served as the Bills home for all 10 years of their AFL existence.

THOMAS' RECORD-SETTING CAREER

Chiefs LB Derrick Thomas enjoyed one of the most storied careers of any linebacker in NFL history. He established an NFL single-game record with 7.0 sacks vs. Seattle (11/11/90) and his 126.5 career sacks are the most in Chiefs history. Thomas registered 27 multi-sack games and owns two of the top three single-game sack performances in NFL history. Additionally, he holds Kansas City franchise records with 45 forced fumbles and 19 fumble recoveries. He registered four fumble return TDs and three safeties during his 11-year career, totals only two other players in NFL history can top. A nine-time Pro Bowl performer, Thomas was a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame's NFL All-Decade Team of the 1990s, collecting a league-high 116.5 sacks during that decade. Thanks to Thomas, Kansas City boasted the league's best turnover differential (+128) and the most takeaways (365) during the '90s as the Chiefs posted a 102-58 (.638) regular season record. Additionally, he was named NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year in '89 and NFL Man of the Year in '93.

AFL CHARTER MEMBER DENVER BRONCOS

Perhaps more than any other AFL franchise, the Broncos helped transform their city from a minor league outpost to a major league metropolis. Bears Stadium (capacity 34,657 in '60), a minor league ballpark would eventually grow to become Mile High Stadium (capacity 76,082 in its final season in 2000). The club's early seasons were best known for losing records and the infamous "vertically striped socks" which were disposed of in a public burning ceremony in '62. Denver would post a 1-19 record against Kansas City during the 10-year existence of the AFL. In fact, the Broncos wouldn't post a winning record until going 7-5-2 in '73. Despite those early struggles, QB Frank Tripucka and WR Lionel Taylor (above) were one of the league's most prolific passing tandems as Taylor became the first player in pro football history to register a 100-catch season, doing it in '61. RB Floyd Little gave the Broncos another explosive performer, while S Goose Gosnolin and DE Rich Jackson provided a pair of defensive stalwarts. Denver did boast the distinction of registering a 13-7 preseason win vs. Detroit (8/5/67), marking the first win by an AFL club against an NFL team.

AFL 50TH FACT

QB Joe Namath signs a contract with the N.Y. Jets for a then-pro football record amount of $427,000 (1/2/65).

AFL 50TH FACT

The AFL awards its first expansion franchise to Joe Robbie and television star Danny Thomas for $7.5 million as the Miami Dolphins become the league's ninth team (8/16/65).

EMMITT THOMAS HOF RING CEREMONY

CB Emmitt Thomas received a rousing Arrowhead ovation when he officially received his Pro Football Hall of Fame ring during a halftime ceremony vs. Tennessee (10/19/08). A member of Kansas City's Super Bowl I and IV squads, Thomas' number 18 was also officially retired during those proceedings. A member of the Hall of Fame's Class of 2008, his name was already on the façade of Arrowhead as a member of the Chiefs Hall of Fame. Undrafted out of tiny Bishop College, this four-time Pro Bowler and one-time AFL All-Star spent 13 seasons in a Chiefs uniform from '66-78. One of the finest players of his era, Thomas holds a franchise record with 58 INTs, the fourth-highest tally in NFL history by a pure cornerback. He led the NFL with a club-record 12 INTs in '74, while his 938 career INT return yards are also a Chiefs record.

Four-Time Pro Bowler (2004-06, 08)

Pro Career: Four-time Pro Bowl left guard enters his 10th campaign in Kansas City ... Returned to Hawaii following the 2008 campaign after a one-year sabbatical ... A two-time first-team All-Pro selection by the Associated Press, also owns limited NFL experience at center ... Has seen more duty with the franchise than any other active Chiefs player, taking the field in 132 games (118 starts) ... Only 34 players in franchise annals have played in more games, while only 21 Chiefs have started more regular season games ... Also has two postseason starts to his credit ... Unquestionably benefitted greatly from the tutelage of former 12-time Pro Bowl G Will Shields both on and off the field ... Has also followed in Shields' philanthropic footsteps in the community ... Was one of the four finalists for the 2007 Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award, joining WR Hines Ward (Pittsburgh), TE Jason Witten (Dallas) and eventual winner DE Jason Taylor (Miami) ... Through his "Brian Waters 54 Foundation" has made a huge impact in his hometown of Waxahachie, Texas, in addition to impacting countless individuals in both Kansas City and Dallas ... A Community Service major at North Texas, rescued the Pee Wee Football program in Waxahachie from the brink of extinction and has served as national spokesman for the United Way ... Has helped pave the way for each of the top four individual single-season rushing performances in franchise history - RB Larry Johnson (1,789 yards in 2006 and 1,750 in 2005) and RB Priest Holmes (1,615 in 2002 and 1,555 in 2001) ... Is also a sturdy pass protector who helped QB Trent Green earn a pair of Pro Bowl berths during his tenure in the Red and Gold ... Became the first offensive lineman to ever be named AFC Offensive Player of the Week since that honor's inception in '84 after a dominating performance in a 56-10 win vs. Atlanta (10/24/04) in which the Chiefs registered an NFL-record eight rushing TDs. No guard in either conference had previously claimed that honor ... Was named

CHIEFS NEW ADMINISTRATIVE & PRACTICE FACILITY

The Chiefs moved into a new administrative and practice facility in 2008 on the grounds of the Truman Sports Complex. In addition to housing the club's coaching offices (left), the club's locker room, training room, weight room and an expanded 120-yard indoor field, the state-of-the-art training facility also houses the Chiefs administrative staff. The three-story, 70,000-square foot structure includes 91 offices and 53 work stations. The signature element of the building is a football-shaped atrium area that rises 100 feet above ground level at its highest point.

AFL CHARTER MEMBER L.A. CHARGERS

Hotel magnate Barron Hilton's club was christened the Chargers in part to promote his new Carte Blanche credit card. Sid Gillman was named head coach and quickly implemented a wide-open offensive style that became one of the AFL's calling cards. Hilton was lured to San Diego for the '61 season and set up shop at Balboa Stadium. After losing to Houston in the AFL Championship Game in both '60 and '61, the Chargers won their lone AFL crown with a decisive 51-10 victory vs. Boston in the '63 AFL title tilt as RB Keith Lincoln accounted for 349 yards of total offense. The Chargers were an offensive powerhouse, featuring other players such as QB Tobin Rote, RB Paul Lowe, as well as WR Lance "Bambi" Alworth, who would become the franchise's first player to be enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame. He would later be joined by T Ron Mix and Gillman. San Diego's defensive front of DEs Ron Nery, Earl Faison and DTs Bill Hudson and Ernie Ladd was also formidable. The Chargers would return to the AFL Championship Game in both '64 and '65 and would eventually take up residence at their present home (now known as Qualcomm Stadium) in '67.

Pro Football Hall of Fame - Class of 1983

"Bobby Bell is referred to as a football player. But Bobby Bell was not a football player. Bobby Bell was a man who played football. Football is what he did and not what he was. He was blessed with outstanding skill and ability and I think he was probably the most versatile player I have ever been associated with ... and without a doubt, the greatest outside linebacker that ever played the game."

- Hank Stram at Bell's
Hall of Fame Induction

"Nobody plays linebacker like Bobby Bell," said Chargers Hall of Fame head coach Sid Gillman. Supremely talented and extremely versatile, Bell excelled everywhere on the field. He played halfback and quarterback in high school, was an All-America defensive tackle in college at the University of Minnesota and played at defensive end during his first two years with the Chiefs. For good measure, he also served as the club's long snapper on punts and placements. But it was when head coach Hank Stram moved him to left outside linebacker in '65 that Bell found the position ideally suited for his immense talents. As fast as most running backs of his era, he was a potent pass rusher coming off the edge, an adept defender in pass coverage and a devastating open-field tackler. Bell went on to become a six-time All-Pro and played in the last six AFL All-Star Games, as well as the first three Pro Bowls. The first Chiefs player inducted in the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Bell was also a member of the All-Time AFL Team. DT Buck Buchanan said it best: "This guy is the best all-around football player I ever saw."

THE FOUNDER'S PLAZA

Looking North from just outside Arrowhead Stadium will sit the Founder's Plaza, a tribute to American Football League and Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt. The Plaza's many features will commemorate the AFL's beginning and its center will be a large AFL logo built into a decorative pavement flanked by fountains intended to reflect the league's eight original franchises. A nine-foot heroic sculpture of Hunt, designed by Bruce Wolfe, will greet visitors and fans as they make their way across the grounds that are to include bronze plaques highlighting the Founder's many innovations to pro football, soccer and tennis. Pro Football Hall of Fame head coach Hank Stram's famous "65 Toss Power Trap" play from Super Bowl IV will highlight the plaza's entrance to Arrowhead Stadium.

REMEMBERING SUPER BOWL IV

The Chiefs captured a 23-7 win in Super Bowl IV vs. Minnesota (1/11/70) as head coach Hank Stram's play call of "65 Toss Power Trap" was immortalized by NFL Films. In addition to Founder Lamar Hunt and Stram, six Chiefs players on field that day were eventually inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame: LBs Bobby Bell and Willie Lanier, QB Len Dawson, DT Buck Buchanan, K Jan Stenerud and CB Emmitt Thomas.

LB WILLIE LANIER

Pro Football Hall of Fame - Class of 1986

LB WILLIE LANIER

Pro Football Hall of Fame - Class of 1986

"He was to play his middle position as a forceful bear of a man whose strength and intensity and striking power set new standards for the game. In Kansas City, Willie Lanier played on one of the greatest defensive teams in pro football history. He was the immovable rock, who had to be avoided at all costs by the offense. In the frozen '69 playoff game in Shea Stadium, it was his tears and determination that helped stop the Jets on what was the all-time great goal-line stand in Kansas City Chiefs history."

- Lamar Hunt at Lanier's
Hall of Fame Induction

Though he'd been a small-college All-America selection at Morgan State, LB Willie Lanier was little known when the Chiefs drafted him in '67. He was nicknamed the "Honey Bear" because he looked and acted friendly, but was ravenous on the field. By his second pro campaign, Lanier earned a starting spot at middle linebacker, becoming the first African-American to play the position regularly in professional football history. In the process, he quickly became the heart and soul of a revamped Chiefs defense. Mobile and instinctive, Lanier was a three-time All-Pro selection and made eight appearances in either the AFL All-Star Game or the Pro Bowl. In '94, he was named to the NFL's 75th Anniversary Team. During his career, he demonstrated a penchant for thunderous hits, which eventually forced him to wear a modified helmet with extra padding on the crown to prevent repeated concussions. His teammates would point to Lanier's unusually vocal exhortations as being the inspiration for the Chiefs epic goal-line stand at the N.Y. Jets in the '69 AFL Playoffs. "There's no question in my mind that he was as good as or better than any middle linebacker who ever played the game," said teammate LB Jim Lynch. "He had the smarts, the finesse, plus he had tremendous power."

Patriots 17, Chiefs 10

September 7, 2008 • Gillette Stadium • 68,756

KANSAS CITY	0	3	0	7	—	10
NEW ENGLAND	0	7	7	3	—	17

It was a game where both starting quarterbacks suffered game-ending injuries, the defenses seemed in more control of the outcome than the offenses and where New England was able to score one more touchdown than the Chiefs. Ultimately, that was the difference as the Patriots grabbed a 17-10 victory at Gillette Stadium.

In the first quarter, the Chiefs defense was very active, forcing a pair of New England fumbles. The Patriots won the opening coin toss and QB Tom Brady drove them five plays before the Chiefs defense stopped them on a third down and New England was forced to punt. CB Brandon Flowers ran into P Chris Hanson and the five-yard penalty gave the Patriots a first down.

But three plays later, WR Wes Welker caught a pass and the ball was punched out by CB Patrick Surtain, recovered by S Jarrad Page and the Chiefs had possession at their own 40-yard line. On their next offensive series, the Patriots were moving the ball when Brady completed a pass to WR Randy Moss. The ball came loose and was recovered by CB Brandon Carr. New England suffered an even bigger loss as Brady was hit on the left knee by blitzing S Bernard Pollard.

When the Patriots offense came back on the field, they were directed by fourth-year QB Matt Cassel. Two runs by RB Sammy Morris produced a one-yard loss as the Chiefs had the Patriots backed up, but then on third down from their own one-yard line, Cassel hit Moss for a 51-yard gain to get New England out of a field position hole as the first quarter ended.

Later in that possession, on a third down-and-eight play at the Chiefs 10-yard line, Cassel found Moss at the back of the end zone as he caught his 125th career TD pass for a 7-0 lead. Late in the second quarter, the Chiefs got a drive going, as they converted a trio of third down plays. The big play in the possession was a 20-yard completion from QB Brodie Croyle to TE Tony Gonzalez. But the drive bogged down and K Nick Novak nailed a 40-yard FG for a 7-3 at halftime score.

Chiefs QB Brodie Croyle suffered a right shoulder injury on the first drive of the second half when he was sacked by LB Adalius Thomas and did not return to the game. The Patriots then took over at their own 20-yard line and marched 80 yards in 11 plays, using 6:14 of the third-quarter clock. A five-yard run by RB Sammy Morris gave New England a 14-3 lead.

The Chiefs offense came back on the field with QB Damon Huard under center and moved down the field in their best possession of the game, going 10 plays and 63 yards and finishing up with a Huard to WR Dwayne Bowe 13-yard TD pass to make the score 14-10.

A 37-yard FG by K Stephen Gostkowski capped a 10-play, 34-yard drive and gave the Patriots a seven-point lead with less than 2:30 to play. The Chiefs took over at their own 22-yard line and hit their biggest play of the game, as Huard connected with WR Devard Darling for 68 yards. Darling was tackled on the New England five-yard line. The Chiefs had four plays to score, but three Huard passes fell incomplete and a Johnson run went for no gain as the Patriots narrowly escaped with a 17-10 victory.

Raiders 23, Chiefs 8

September 14, 2008 • Arrowhead Stadium • 74,480

OAKLAND6	0	7	10	— 23
KANSAS CITY0	0	0	8	— 8

Too little offense, too late sunk the Chiefs in their rivalry battle with the Raiders, as they suffered a 23-8 loss at Arrowhead Stadium. The Chiefs offense struggled through the game's first three quarters and was unable to consistently stay on the field as the Oakland defense shut down the running game, allowing only 55 yards. Defensively, the Chiefs struggled to control the Raiders running game, giving up 300 yards on the ground.

The Chiefs offense had the ball first and put together 10 snaps in their opening possession, including a pair of first downs. On several plays in the possession, QB Damon Huard left the field and WR Marques Hagans took the direct snap at the quarterback position for a pair of running plays. Ultimately, the drive stalled and a P Dustin Colquitt punt set up the Raiders at their own 41-yard line.

In five plays Oakland had moved into Chiefs territory, but settled for a 56-yard FG by K Sebastian Janikowski for an early 3-0 lead. When the Chiefs got the ball back, a Huard pass was tipped and picked off by Oakland S Tyvon Branch who returned the interception 36 yards to the Chiefs nine-yard line, setting up a 25-yard Janikowski FG to push the Oakland lead to 6-0.

The second quarter was controlled by the defenses. Combined, the Chiefs and Raiders produced 85 yards in total offense on 26 plays over the first 15 minutes of play. The Chiefs made a change at quarterback on their last possession of the first quarter as QB Tyler Thigpen replaced Huard, who suffered a mild head trauma. The Raiders retained a 6-0 halftime advantage.

The game's first touchdown came on Oakland's second possession of the third quarter. Starting at its five-yard line, Oakland rode the strong legs of rookie RB Darren McFadden. He produced runs for 21 and 50 yards before going on a 19-yard TD jaunt. The scoring drive went seven plays for 95 yards and gave Oakland a 13-0 lead with just over eight minutes to play in the period. Midway through the fourth quarter, the Raiders added another Janikowski FG, this one from 40 yards and a 16-0 lead.

That's when the Chiefs put together their only scoring drive of the game. Starting at his own 20-yard line, Thigpen moved the team down the field, starting with a 30-yard completion to WR Dwayne Bowe on first down. The Chiefs then got a big third-down conversion on a 10-yard completion from Thigpen to WR Devard Darling.

The touchdown came on a third-and-goal play at the Raiders two-yard line as Thigpen found TE Tony Gonzalez in the end zone. On the two-point play, Thigpen ran a bootleg right and threw to FB Mike Cox to make the score 16-8 in favor of the Raiders, keeping hope alive for Kansas City.

The Chiefs defense came back and forced a turnover, as RB Michael Bush fumbled on a hit by S Jarrad Page and S Bernard Pollard recovered his second loose ball of the day. Thigpen moved the offense into Raiders territory, but threw an interception to LB Kirk Morrison that ended the Chiefs hopes of a comeback.

The Raiders added a late touchdown as Bush scored on a 32-yard run that ended a six-play, 58-yard drive. Janikowski's PAT kick gave Oakland its final 23-8 margin.

Falcons 38, Chiefs 14

September 21, 2008 • Georgia Dome • 62,434

KANSAS CITY0	7	7	0	— 14
ATLANTA14	10	7	7	— 38

It proved to be an unfruitful visit to the Georgia Dome for the Chiefs, as they suffered their third loss of the season by a 38-14 count to the Atlanta Falcons. The Chiefs fell behind early and eventually cut Atlanta's lead to 10 points in the second half, but could never close the gap to make it a one-score game.

The game began as a battle of punters, as Chiefs P Dustin Colquitt and P Michael Koenen of the Falcons were very busy, punting three times each as both offenses went three-and-out on their initial three possessions.

But the Falcons finally got things moving on offense. Backed up to their own eight-yard line, RB Michael Turner broke free over the left side for a 38-yard run. Two plays later, RB Jerious Norwood caught a pass from QB Matt Ryan and turned it into a 30-yard gain. Then two plays after that, Turner plowed into the center of the line from four yards out for the game's first touchdown to give Atlanta a 7-0 lead.

Ryan hit WR Roddy White for a 70-yard TD pass on the Falcons next possession, extending the Falcons lead to 14-0 as the first quarter ended.

After another KC punt, QB Tyler Thigpen overthrew TE Tony Gonzalez and Atlanta S Erik Coleman picked off the pass, setting up the Falcons at the Chiefs 18-yard line. The Kansas City defense limited Atlanta to a 27-yard FG by K Jason Elam.

On their next possession, the Chiefs moved the ball into Atlanta territory for the first time. But Thigpen threw his second INT of the quarter, to CB Brent Grimes, who returned the ball to the Chiefs 40-yard line. Turner's one-yard TD run capped the 10-play drive for a commanding 24-0 lead.

The Chiefs most productive possession of the first half came at the end of the second quarter when they moved 74 yards on 13 plays running out of the two-minute offense. They converted a trio of third down plays and reached the end zone on a 15-yard pass from Thigpen to WR Dwayne Bowe on a third-and-seven play with just three seconds left in the half. K Nick Novak's PAT kick made the score 24-7 at intermission.

The Chiefs offense came flying out of the locker room and moved right down the field on the broad shoulders of RB Larry Johnson, who got it all started with a 48-yard run on the first offensive play of the second half, his longest run since rattling off a 54-yard jaunt at Oakland (10/21/07). Johnson carried seven more times in the drive for 22 yards. A big third-down conversion came on a 12-yard pass from Thigpen to Charles that gave the Chiefs first-and-goal at the Falcons six-yard line. Two plays later, Johnson banged it in over the middle from the one and Novak's PAT kick cut the Falcons lead to 24-14.

The Falcons came right back with their own scoring drive. They started with a 36-yard kick return from Norwood that gave the offensive possession at the Atlanta 40-yard line. Eight plays and 60 yards later, Turner scored on a two-yard run, his third TD run of the game. Elam's PAT kick gave the Falcons a 31-14 lead. Atlanta added a late TD on a 10-yard interception return by CB Chris Houston to make the final score 38-14.

Chiefs 33, Broncos 19

September 28, 2008 • Arrowhead Stadium • 74,623

DENVER.....	0	10	3	6	—	19
KANSAS CITY.....	6	7	3	17	—	33

With strong running from RB Larry Johnson and a defensive effort that forced four turnovers, the Chiefs beat the Denver Broncos 33-19 at Arrowhead Stadium. The victory ended a 12-game losing streak that stretched back to November of 2007.

The Chiefs took the opening kickoff and moved down for a 23-yard FG from K Nick Novak that ended a nine-play, 84-yard drive. The key play was a career-long 65-yard run by Johnson on the second offensive snap of the game.

The Kansas City defense took the field and forced a fumble at the end of a pass play from Cutler to WR Eddie Royal. DE Turk McBride knocked the ball out and it was recovered by Carr, who returned the fumble 17 yards to the Broncos 26-yard line. KC settled for a 21-yard Novak field goal and the Chiefs lead was 6-0.

Early in the second quarter, the Broncos took over at their own 38-yard line. Cutler moved the team into scoring position and hit WR Brandon Marshall who made a leaping catch at the back of the end zone to give Denver a 7-6 second-quarter lead.

The defense got the Chiefs back on the scoreboard. The Broncos had Marshall come out of the backfield on a running play and LB Derrick Johnson came quickly in run support and ripped the ball from Marshall's hands. The fumble was recovered by CB Brandon Flowers who returned it 37 yards and was tackled just short of the end zone. Johnson plowed in from one yard out for his 52nd career rushing TD as the Chiefs took a 13-7 lead.

Denver drove right back down the field, hitting a handful of big plays before the Chiefs defense slowed their pace, forcing a field goal try, but K Matt Prater missed a 28-yard FG wide right. Prater got a chance to redeem himself just before the half came to an end, when he nailed a 56-yard FG with 0:11 remaining to cut the Chiefs lead to 13-10 at intermission.

The Broncos took the second-half kickoff and moved 32 yards, resulting in a 51-yard Prater field goal to tie the score at 13-13 with 12:13 remaining in the period.

After a nice 35-yard kickoff return from RB Jamaal Charles, the Chiefs started at their own 37-yard line and Johnson immediately ripped off a 17-yard run on first down. That run put Johnson over 100 yards for the game, marking the 29th time he passed the century mark in his career. However, the drive stalled after one more first down and Novak came in and kicked a 43-yard FG to give the Chiefs a 16-13 lead.

Near the end of the third quarter, the Chiefs put together a 10-play, 73-yard drive that found TE Tony Gonzalez open in the end zone for a 10-yard score that extended the Chiefs lead to 23-13. It was the 68th TD catch of Gonzalez's career.

Denver answered with a 22-yard Prater FG and the Broncos trailed 23-16. The Chiefs answered right back, thanks to a 51-yard kickoff return by RB Dantrell Savage to the Denver 49-yard line. Kansas City ran off more than four minutes before a 33-yard FG by Novak that pushed the difference back to 10 points at 26-16.

Denver added another Prater FG, but the Chiefs recovered the Broncos' outside kick attempt and drove down the field on the legs of Johnson. He cracked off a 34-yard run and finished it up with a 16-yard TD jaunt to secure the 33-19 victory.

Panthers 34, Chiefs 0

October 5, 2008 • Bank of America Stadium • 72,319

CAROLINA.....	7	14	10	3	—	34

The Kansas City offense managed just 127 total yards in a 34-0 loss at Carolina. Carolina RB DeAngelo Williams finished with 123 rushing yards, 25 receiving yards and a trio of touchdowns for a Panthers offense that ended the day with 441 total yards.

After both clubs exchanged punts, Carolina got the ball on the Chiefs 46-yard line and QB Jake Delhomme drove the offense in seven plays to a touchdown. Most of the damage was done on the ground with the duo of Williams and rookie RB Jonathan Stewart. Williams went 10 yards up the middle untouched for the Carolina TD, giving the Panthers a 7-0 lead with 5:10 to play in the first quarter.

When the Chiefs got the ball back, they were unable to manage a first down. But, on a third down-and-16 yards to go play, Huard hooked up with TE Tony Gonzalez for a six-yard gain. That play gave Gonzalez the NFL's career receiving yardage record for tight ends, surpassing TE Shannon Sharpe (10,060).

At the end of the first quarter the Panthers offense began a nice drive, reaching the Chiefs 15-yard line. But Stewart fumbled on a run over the right side when he was hit by DT Glenn Dorsey. The ball was recovered by DT Tank Tyler. However, KC's offense could not convert.

Carolina again went on a drive into Kansas City territory. The big play was a 38-yard catch and run from Delhomme to WR Steve Smith. Six plays later, Delhomme dropped a short pass to the right side to Williams, who was not covered by a blitzing Chiefs defense. He ran 25 yards for his second TD of the game.

After Kansas City's offense again couldn't sustain a drive, Delhomme marched his club down the field, chewing up 6:07 of the second-quarter clock on an 11-play drive. It ended with another Williams TD, this one a 32-yard run on a draw play, giving Carolina a 21-0 lead at halftime.

The Chiefs offense got the ball first in the third quarter, but turned the ball over on their first snap when Carolina DE Julius Peppers knocked the ball out of QB Damon Huard's hands at the Kansas City 28-yard line.

On a third-and-goal play from the Chiefs five-yard line, S Jarrad Page picked off a Delhomme pass intended for Smith. The officials on the field ruled that Page did not get both feet in bounds on the catch, but the Chiefs challenged and an instant replay review overturned the call and gave Kansas City possession.

However, the Chiefs were picked off on their very next play as Carolina LB Jon Beason stepped in front of a Huard pass. Kasay then kicked a 32-yard field goal to give the Panthers a 24-0 lead.

That lead grew by seven points thanks to another Kansas City turnover. CB Ken Lucas logged an interception and returned it 43 yards. Three plays later, Delhomme hit WR Muhsin Muhammad for a 47-yard TD pass that made the score 31-0 as the third quarter came to an end. Early in the fourth quarter, Kasay added a 43-yard FG to make the final score 34-0.

GAME NOTES

• TE Tony Gonzalez surpassed TE Shannon Sharpe (10,060) for the most receiving yards by a tight end in NFL history.

GAME 6

Titans 34, Chiefs 10

October 19, 2008 • Arrowhead Stadium • 74,200

TENNESSEE	10	7	3	14	—	34
KANSAS CITY	0	0	0	10	—	10

Unable to generate a consistent offensive attack, the Chiefs were beaten 34-10 by the Tennessee Titans at Arrowhead Stadium. Kansas City was unable to mount any consistent scoring threat under three different quarterbacks. QB Brodie Croyle started, but left early in the second quarter with a left knee injury. QB Damon Huard relieved into the fourth quarter after suffering a right thumb injury at the end of the first half. He was replaced by QB Tyler Thigpen, who finished out the game and led the team to a pair of scoring drives in the fourth quarter.

It was a different story for Tennessee, as the Titans produced 455 offensive yards and 332 rushing yards. There were three touchdown runs by RB LenDale White, including an 80-yard scoring run, and a 66-yard TD jaunt by rookie RB Chris Johnson.

The Titans struck first, taking possession at the Chiefs 20-yard line after a Kansas City punt. QB Kerry Collins drove Tennessee's offense 49 yards on 10 plays, but had to settle for a 49-yard FG from K Rob Bironas to give the Titans an early 3-0 lead. Tennessee later added to its lead on a six-play, 53-yard drive with White scoring on a six-yard run to make it 10-0 for the Titans.

As the second quarter began, the Chiefs offense finally started moving the football and pushed it to the Titans 21-yard line on a 17-yard completion from Croyle to WR Dwayne Bowe on third down. Unfortunately on the play, Croyle suffered a season-ending left knee injury. K Nick Novak tried a 39-yard field goal that sailed over the left upright but was ruled no good by the game officials.

Tennessee went three-and-out on its next possession. Huard came in to run the offense and immediately the Chiefs got a nice 19-yard run by RB Kolby Smith on first down. They later converted a fourth-and-one play thanks to a Titans offside penalty. Eventually, the Chiefs had to punt the ball away and the touchback gave Tennessee possession at its own 20-yard line.

From there Collins led the offense on a nine-play, 80-yard scoring drive, with all but 17 of those yards coming on the ground from Johnson and White. White punched in his second TD run of the day, this one from the Kansas City two-yard line to make the Titans advantage 17-0. The Chiefs offense put together a drive near the end of the half, but Novak's 50-yard FG attempt hit the right upright just before intermission.

The third quarter proved to be a battle for the punters, as neither offense was able to get anything going. Tennessee finally was able to pull together a third-quarter drive, after it took over at its own 41-yard line following a 57-yard punt by P Dustin Colquitt that came out of his own end zone. The Titans went 31 yards on eight plays, finishing up with a 46-yard FG by Bironas just before the end of the quarter.

In the fourth quarter, White added his third scoring play, when he cracked through the right side of the Titans offensive line and huffed and puffed his way 80 yards into the end zone. The Chiefs then finally got on the scoreboard with a 26-yard Novak FG, set up by a 59-yard kickoff return by RB Dantrell Savage.

On the next possession, Johnson broke loose through the left side of the Titans offensive line and ran 66 yards for a TD to make the count 34-3. Thigpen got the Chiefs first TD in the last eight quarters, when he ran in on a 14-yard scramble with 2:37 to play in the game.

N.Y. Jets 28, Chiefs 24

October 26, 2008 • Giants Stadium • 78,037

KANSAS CITY	0	14	3	7	—	24
N.Y. JETS	7	7	7	7	—	28

New York rallied for the winning score with 1:00 remaining to register a 28-24 win, spoiling the Chiefs upset bid. QB Tyler Thigpen was at the controls of a Chiefs offense that produced two TDs, 330 yards and did not have a turnover. The Chiefs defense picked off QB Brett Favre three times, including two by CB Brandon Flowers, who returned one for a 91-yard TD.

The Jets got the ball first and Favre promptly moved his offense 73 yards on 10 plays, ending the drive with an 18-yard TD pass to RB Leon Washington for an early 7-0 lead. After the Chiefs punted on their first possession, Favre took the Jets back into scoring territory, but the Chiefs defense stiffened and K Jay Feely missed a 36-yard FG try.

The Jets had the ball back as the first quarter was nearing an end, but Flowers picked off a Favre pass and returned the interception 27 yards to the Jets 38-yard line, setting up Kansas City's initial score. A 19-yard pass from Thigpen to TE Tony Gonzalez capped a four-play, 38-yard TD drive after the Flowers INT to tie the score at 7-7.

After trading punts, Thigpen continued his hot hand by completing his first 10 passes before throwing an incompleteness with 3:59 to play in the second period. Defensively, the Chiefs picked off another Favre pass, as S Jarrad Page pulled down the INT.

The Jets got a TD before the end of the quarter. Washington took a draw play 60 yards for his second TD of the day, making the score 14-7 in favor of the Jets. The Chiefs came right back and moved the ball into scoring position, thanks to a 30-yard run by RB Jamaal Charles and a 21-yard Thigpen-to-Gonzalez completion. Thigpen hit WR Mark Bradley in the end zone to tie the game at 14-14 as a replay review gave Kansas City the tying score.

Beginning the third quarter out of a no-huddle, shotgun scheme, the Chiefs offense moved 66 yards on 12 plays. Thigpen completed passes to five different receivers in the drive, moving the ball to the Jets nine-yard line before settling for a 30-yard K Connor Barth FG and a 17-14 lead.

Late in the quarter Favre moved the Jets 72 yards on 13 plays that ended on a one-yard TD run by RB Thomas Jones. Jones' TD gave the Jets a 21-17 lead as the third quarter came to a close.

But the Chiefs got a huge lift midway through the fourth quarter on the second INT of the game by Flowers. He grabbed a pass intended for WR Chansi Stuckey and returned the INT for a 91-yard TD to give the Chiefs a 24-21 lead with 7:48 to play in the game.

The Chiefs had a chance to salt away the victory, but couldn't get a first down. A nice punt return by Washington gave the Jets possession at the Chiefs 46-yard line. In six plays, Favre had New York in the end zone, throwing a 15-yard TD pass to WR Lavernae Coles to make the final count 28-24.

GAME NOTES

- TE Tony Gonzalez (853) moved into 11th on the NFL's all-time receptions chart ahead of WR Irving Fryar (851).
- CB Brandon Flowers' 91-yard INT return TD was the fifth-longest in Chiefs history and the longest since CB Kevin Ross had a 99-yard INT return at San Diego (9/6/92).
- Flowers' 118 INT return yards were the second-highest single-game total in team history.

Buccaneers 30, Chiefs 27 (OT)

November 2, 2008 • Arrowhead Stadium • 74,045

TAMPA BAY.....	0	13	0	14	3	—	30
KANSAS CITY.....	14	10	0	3	0	—	27

K Matt Bryant's 34-yard FG with 10:24 remaining in overtime provided the winning margin as Tampa Bay overcame a 21-point deficit to hand the the Chiefs a gut-wrenching 30-27 decision at Arrowhead.

QB Tyler Thigpen led Kansas City on a beautiful 12-play, 69-yard drive to open the game, capped by a seven-yard TD throw to WR Dwayne Bowe to give the Chiefs an early 7-0 lead. On Tampa Bay's first offensive play, RB Earnest Graham fumbled after he was hit by LB Derrick Johnson. The ball was recovered by DE Turk McBride, setting up the offense at the Bucs 41-yard line. This time it took Thigpen seven plays to drive the offense in for a score, as RB Kolby Smith dove over left guard from one yard out to give the Chiefs a 14-0 advantage.

The Buccaneers got the first points of the second quarter as Bryant hit a 25-yard FG to end a 13-play, 68-yard drive and make the score 14-3. The Chiefs came right back and offensive coordinator Chan Gailey reached deep into his playbook to get the TD. On a third-and-one, Charles took a direct snap from center and went over left tackle to gain 16 yards and a first down. Two plays later, Charles again took the direct snap, pitched to WR Mark Bradley on what looked like an end-around play. But Bradley threw on the run to a wide open Thigpen to make the score 21-3.

Later, CB Brandon Carr picked off a QB Jeff Garcia pass to set up a 39-yard K Connor Barth FG to extend the lead at 24-3. RB Clifton Smith then ran through the Chiefs kickoff coverage unit for a 97-yard return TD to pull the Bucs to within 14 points at 24-10 to change the game's momentum. Bryant added a 43-yard FG to cut the Chiefs lead to 24-13 at intermission.

The third quarter proved to be a scoreless defensive battle, as the Chiefs and Buccaneers did not allow each other to mount much of an offensive attack. The Chiefs entered the fourth quarter with an 11-point lead, but the Buccaneers drove to the Chiefs 22-yard line, when Garcia threw to Clifton Smith, who caught the ball and then lost possession. But RB Jamaal Charles returned the favor on the next play, as he lost control of the ball and Tampa Bay recovered at the Chiefs three-yard line. Garcia handed off to Graham who stopped and lofted a pass to TE Alex Smith in the end zone for a three-yard TD. Tampa Bay went for two points, but the play was stopped and the Chiefs lead was now at 24-19.

The Chiefs got three points back on a 28-yard Barth FG that made the count 27-19 with 7:38 remaining. Garcia then directed a long drive to the Kansas City seven-yard line. Graham ran left and lost the ball before he hit the goal line, with the ball recovered in the end zone by S Jarrad Page.

Holding the football with 3:24 remaining in regulation, the Chiefs offense needed a first down to help kill off the clock, but an offensive pass interference on TE Tony Gonzalez negated a first-down play and the Chiefs ended up punting the ball away.

P Steve Weatherford's kick went 41 yards and was returned 14 yards by Clifton Smith to midfield. Garcia again drove the Buccaneers offense into the scoring zone and got a TD on a 24-yard pass to WR Antonio Bryant in the corner. Tampa Bay had to go for two points and Garcia found Alex Smith in the end zone to tie the score and send the game into overtime. The Buccaneers won the extra coin toss and moved 58 yards before K Matt Bryant drove home the game winner.

Chargers 20, Chiefs 19

November 9, 2008 • Qualcomm Stadium • 67,510

KANSAS CITY.....	7	6	0	6	—	19
SAN DIEGO.....	0	6	7	7	—	20

For the third week in a row the Chiefs were positioned in the game's final five minutes to pull out a victory. Like the previous two weeks, they came up short, falling 20-19 at San Diego as a failed two-point try doomed Kansas City.

San Diego's offense got the ball first and kept it for over four minutes, but eventually the Chiefs defense stopped them and the Chargers were forced to punt. QB Tyler Thigpen then led the Chiefs offense on a 12-play, 95-yard drive for the game's first TD. Working out of the spread offense with no huddle on most plays, QB Tyler Thigpen hit seven of eight throws. The big one came when he beat the blitz and lofted a 30-yard TD pass into the right end zone to WR Mark Bradley to give the Chiefs a 7-0 lead.

San Diego's offense began its next drive at their own 20-yard line and QB Philip Rivers drove the Chargers into Chiefs territory with a first-and-10 at the Kansas City 21-yard line. But the Chiefs defense was again able to hold. K Nate Kaeding kicked a 34-yard FG and early in the second quarter the score was 7-3.

On its next offensive possession, San Diego again drove down the field and had a first-and-10 situation at the Chiefs 15-yard line. The Kansas City defense again was able to get the stop, as Kaeding kicked a 26-yard field goal and the Chiefs held a 7-6 lead with just under seven minutes to play in the half.

Thigpen came right back and directed a seven-play, 83-yard scoring drive where he was four for four throwing the ball, including the 34-yard scoring pass to TE Tony Gonzalez. The PAT was botched on a bad snap and would later haunt the Chiefs as Kansas City held a 13-6 lead with just over three minutes to play.

San Diego again drove into Chiefs territory, but this time S Bernard Pollard snuffed out the possession with an interception of Rivers in the end zone and the half ended with the Chiefs ahead 13-6.

After the teams traded punts to start the second half, San Diego finally got its offense moving after taking possession at its own 42-yard line. Rivers drove the Chargers 58 yards on eight plays finishing up with a five-yard TD pass to WR Malcom Floyd to tie the count at 13-13.

The Chiefs defense did force another turnover before the quarter was over when DT Tank Tyler pressured Rivers and the quarterback's fluttering throw was picked off by S Jon McGraw. San Diego then grabbed the lead with a drive that started on the final play of the third quarter. Rivers moved the offense down the field, converting three third downs and finally ending up in the end zone with an eight-yard TD pass to TE Antonio Gates. It was a 14-play 94-yard drive that took 8:28 off the clock and put the Chargers up 20-13.

The Chiefs eventually got the ball back on their own 40-yard line with 3:00 to play. Thigpen led them down the field, converting several third down plays and a big fourth down throw to Bradley that continued the possession. On third-and-three from the Chargers three-yard line with 0:29 to play, Thigpen threw a dart to Gonzalez in the end zone for the TD that gave the Chiefs a chance for victory. With the score at 20-19, head coach Herm Edwards decided to go for two points and the victory rather than the tie, but Thigpen's pass for Gonzalez in the end zone was broken up and the Chargers prevailed by a 20-19 margin.

Saints 30, Chiefs 20

November 16, 2008 • Arrowhead Stadium • 74,159

NEW ORLEANS	3	10	14	3	—	30
KANSAS CITY	7	3	3	7	—	20

The Chiefs offense had trouble scoring TDs in the Red Zone, while Kansas City's injury-riddled defense could not slow down the potent New Orleans offense in a 30-20 loss to the Saints at Arrowhead Stadium.

Both teams traded punts to start the game, but when the Saints got their second chance with the ball, the Chiefs defense forced a turnover. S Jarrad Page picked off a QB Drew Brees pass and gave Kansas City possession at the New Orleans 47-yard line.

QB Tyler Thigpen drove the offense nine plays to the end zone. RB Larry Johnson took a direct snap to convert a fourth-and-one play and picked up the first down on a four-yard run before Thigpen lofted a ball into the end zone where WR Dwayne Bowe out-jumped Saints CB Usama Young for a six-yard TD to give the Chiefs an early 7-0 lead.

New Orleans came right back with a 54-yard kickoff return by WR Courtney Roby that set up Brees and the Saints offense at the Chiefs 44-yard line. Nine plays later, the drive stalled and K Garrett Hartley hit a 30-yard FG to cut the Chiefs lead to 7-3.

Then Brees led the Saints on a seven-play TD drive. The big play was a third-down throw where Brees beat a Chiefs blitz with a 24-yard gain to uncovered RB Pierre Thomas. Four plays later, RB Deuce McAllister dove over the right side of the offensive line for the TD and the Saints had a 10-7 lead.

Thigpen brought the Chiefs right back and drove them to within inches of the end zone. Kansas City challenged a ruling that RB Larry Johnson was stopped short of the goal line, but the call was upheld. The Chiefs settled for a 20-yard K Connor Barth FG to end the 14-play, 78-yard drive that tied the score at 10-10. New Orleans regained the lead just as the half ended as Brees took the Saints offense on a 12-play, 62-yard drive. Hartley then kicked a 23-yard FG to give the Saints a 13-10 lead.

New Orleans began the third quarter scoring after Kansas City punted on its opening possession of the half. It was just two plays before Brees and WR Lance Moore hooked up on a 47-yard TD throw to give New Orleans a 20-10 lead.

The Chiefs came back and put together a 14-play drive, but once again could not get into the end zone, despite having a first-and-goal at the Saints three-yard line. Barth's 21-yard FG pulled the Chiefs closer, as they trailed 20-13. But the Saints roared right back down the field and put another TD on the board when Thomas scored on a one-yard run as the Saints surged ahead 27-13.

Kansas City's offense responded with a nine-play, 70-yard drive that finally finished in the end zone. Thigpen and Bowe hooked up for their second TD to make the score 27-20.

After the Chiefs defense forced the Saints to go three-and-out, Thigpen guided Kansas City to the Saints 40-yard line. After an incompletion on third-and-two, the Chiefs opted to punt, pinning the Saints at their own 12-yard line. This time, Kansas City couldn't stop the Saints as New Orleans was able to add a 35-yard FG by Hartley with 3:28 remaining that gave the Saints a 10-point lead to make the final count 30-20.

Bills 54, Chiefs 31

November 23, 2008 • Arrowhead Stadium • 73,584

BUFFALO	7	23	17	7	—	54
KANSAS CITY	7	10	7	7	—	31

The Chiefs turned the ball over five times, setting up 20 Buffalo points in a 54-31 Bills victory. The Chiefs took the ball on an impressive 80-yard TD drive to open the game. The score came on a 36-yard hookup between QB Tyler Thigpen and RB Jamaal Charles, who lined up as a wide receiver.

The Bills came right back as RB Marshawn Lynch punched the ball in on fourth-and-goal from the one to cap the nine-play, 61-yard drive. After a Chiefs punt, Buffalo again drove the ball inside the KC five-yard line, but the Bills were forced to settle for a 21-yard K Rian Lindell FG to take a 10-7 lead.

Kansas City answered three plays later with a go-ahead TD. A 63-yard run by RB Larry Johnson put the Chiefs at the two-yard line. Thigpen then hit a wide-open TE Tony Gonzalez to put Kansas City ahead 14-10. That lead would be short-lived as Charles fumbled on Kansas City's next possession. Bills S George Wilson scooped up the ball at the Chiefs 28-yard line to set up a 39-yard Lindell field goal to make the score 14-13.

The momentum of the game changed for good on Kansas City's next possession as CB Leodis McKelvin jumped a slant route and returned the INT for a 64-yard TD that gave Buffalo a 20-14 lead. A 45-yard K Connor Barth FG to pull within three points at 20-17, but Kansas City never got any closer.

QB Trent Edwards and WR Lee Evans hooked up on a 52-yard pass play that put Buffalo back into scoring territory. Lindell's 34-yard FG gave the Bills a 23-17 lead. They added to that before the end of the half thanks to another Chiefs turnover. Thigpen's pass for WR Will Franklin was picked off by McKelvin. A 15-yard TD scramble by Edwards gave Buffalo a 30-17 advantage at intermission.

McKelvin gave the Bills great field position on the opening kickoff of the third quarter. His 46-yard return, aided by a Chiefs facemask penalty, set up Buffalo on the KC 33. Edwards then only needed four plays before he dove into the end zone for his second TD run of the afternoon as Buffalo took a commanding 37-17 lead.

That margin grew by three more points after another Chiefs turnover. Thigpen scrambled away from pressure and was headed for a first down when he stumbled, fell to the ground and fumbled the ball. Lindell then tacked on a 38-yard FG to put the Bills up 40-17.

Thigpen and the Chiefs offense battled back, composing a five-play, 68-yard TD drive that featured a 45-yard TD to WR Mark Bradley. That score cut the Bills lead to 40-24 midway through the third quarter. But the Bills answered right back, driving 83 yards on nine plays before Edwards hooked up with WR Josh Reed for an eight-yard TD pass to put Buffalo ahead 47-24. A 17-yard TD toss to TE Derek Schouman eventually pushed that margin to 54-24. The Chiefs added a late TD pass to WR Dwayne Bowe as QB Quinn Gray replaced Thigpen at quarterback.

Chiefs 20, Raiders 13

November 30, 2008 • Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum • 61,379

KANSAS CITY.....	3	7	0	10	—	20
OAKLAND.....	3	0	7	3	—	13

The Chiefs saw three phases of their game contribute to a second victory of the season. A bizarre fake field goal attempt led to a go-ahead Chiefs touchdown as Kansas City beat the Raiders by a 20-13 margin in Oakland.

The teams traded field goals in the first quarter, as both defenses stiffened in the scoring zone. The Chiefs won the toss but were unable to mount a scoring drive on their first possession. On its first chance with the ball, Oakland was able to drive the ball 80 yards on eight plays. A 16-yard hook-and-ladder play from WR Ronald Curry to RB Darren McFadden set up a K Sebastian Janikowski 25-yard FG to give Oakland a 3-0 lead.

Starting at their own 25-yard line, the Chiefs offense was able to move down the field, going 55 yards on 11 plays, but the drive got bogged down and Kansas City had to settle for a 38-yard FG from K Connor Barth.

The game's first TD came on one of the most unusual plays of the Chiefs season. The Raiders were set up for a 43-yard FG attempt by Janikowski. But holder P Shane Lechler took the snap and then tried to lateral the ball to Janikowski, who had gone in motion to the left. Janikowski muffed the low lateral, CB Maurice Leggett roared in, picked up the loose football and ran it back 67 yards for the TD as the Chiefs had a most unusual 10-3 lead.

When it got the ball back, Oakland drove all the way to the Chiefs 22-yard line. The Raiders decided to go for it on fourth-and-three, rather than take what would have been a 40-yard Janikowski FG attempt. Russell's pass in the end zone for Curry was overthrown and the Chiefs took over on downs. The Chiefs would hold that 10-3 lead into intermission.

The Raiders offense opened the second half with a punt. After a nice 13-yard run by RB Larry Johnson, QB Tyler Thigpen took off on a bootleg left. On the run, with FB Mike Cox open as a short receiver, Thigpen decided to go downfield. His throw for TE Tony Gonzalez was high and picked off by Oakland CB Chris Johnson, who returned the ball 44 yards to the Kansas City one-yard line. RB Justin Fargas scored on the next play, diving over the middle of the Raiders offensive line to tie the score at 10-10 with more than 11 minutes to play in the quarter.

The teams traded the ball for the rest of the period. The Chiefs best possession was their last of the third quarter and it eventually produced a touchdown. Starting at its nine-yard line, Kansas City put together six first downs and moved the ball 91 yards on 16 plays. The score came on a two-yard run by Johnson on a first-and-goal play to give the Chiefs a 17-10 fourth-quarter lead.

On the next Oakland possession, the Chiefs defense got another takeaway. Fargas fumbled after he was hit by LB Rocky Boiman and CB Brandon Flowers recovered at the Raiders 39-yard line. Barth then nailed a 27-yard FG to give the Chiefs a 20-10 lead with 8:54 to play.

Oakland added a late 51-yard FG from Janikowski, but when the Chiefs got the ball back, they did not give it up, as they got a first-down run by Johnson and a third-down completion to WR Dwayne Bowe to move the chains and secure a 20-13 victory.

Broncos 24, Chiefs 17

December 7, 2008 • INVESCO Field at Mile High • 75,187

KANSAS CITY.....	10	7	0	0	—	17
DENVER.....	7	7	3	7	—	24

In a game that was typical during a disappointing 2008 campaign, the Chiefs lost in the waning moments by a 24-17 margin at INVESCO Field. The game was in doubt down to the final five minutes and they were one play or one stop by the defense away from victory, but the Chiefs couldn't find that game-turning play as Kansas City dropped its eighth straight game at Denver.

After the two teams traded possessions to open the game, the Chiefs offense drove 39 yards on six plays to set up a 26-yard FG by K Connor Barth for an early 3-0 lead. That margin would grow just a few plays later.

The Broncos had a third-and-four at their own 25-yard line when QB Jay Cutler looked to his right for WR Brandon Stokely. But rookie CB Maurice Leggett picked off the pass and returned it 27 yards to give the Chiefs a 10-0 lead.

Denver finally got its offense together just as the first period was ending. Rookie RB Peyton Hillis ran through the right side of the Kansas City defense untouched for an 18-yard TD to cut the Chiefs lead to 10-7.

The Chiefs came right back with a long, impressive scoring drive, as the offense kept the ball for 17 plays, moved 80 yards and chewed up 7:24 of the first-half clock. KC made a gutsy call on fourth-and-one at its own 41 and got just enough yardage on a QB sneak. QB Tyler Thigpen would also convert three third-down plays on the drive. He found TE Tony Gonzalez open at the goal line for a 13-yard TD to give the Chiefs a 17-7 lead. It would be Kansas City's final points of the afternoon.

Denver answered back with a long drive of its own, going 80 yards on 14 plays and using 6:57 of the second quarter. The Broncos picked up four first downs in the possession with the big play coming on a 21-yard throw from Cutler to WR Brandon Marshall on third down. The TD came from that same connection, on a third-and-goal play at the Chiefs 12-yard line, as Marshall got to back the corner of the end zone to slice the Chiefs lead to 17-14 at intermission.

Denver got the initial possession of the second half and put together another long drive, going 66 yards on 12 plays and using 6:43 off the clock. Cutler moved the sticks five times, setting up a first-and-10 at the Kansas City 17-yard line. But the Chiefs defense stiffened, giving up just two yards on three plays to force a 33-yard K Matt Prater FG that tied the score at 17-17.

After a Chiefs punt the Broncos again drove into Chiefs territory, but could not convert the trip into points as Prater's 48-yard FG went wide right. Late in the third quarter, the Broncos started a drive at their five-yard line after a 56-yard punt by P Dustin Colquitt. Cutler took his team 95 yards on 12 plays, holding the ball for over six minutes. Marshall capped off the drive with a six-yard TD on screen pass to the right side that gave Denver its first lead of the game at 24-17.

The Chiefs offense came right back with a drive deep into Denver territory, but faced fourth-and-goal from the five-yard line. Thigpen dropped back to pass, felt pressure on his outside and took off running up the middle. He was stopped inside the one-yard line and Denver took over on downs. The Broncos were then able to convert a pair of third downs to keep the ball and kill the clock, preserving the 24-17 victory.

GAME NOTES

- CB Maurice Leggett scored a TD for the second consecutive week, registering a 27-yard INT return. It was Kansas City's first defensive TD against the Broncos since DE Vaughn Booker had a 14-yard fumble return vs. Denver (12/17/95).

KC — Barth, 26-yard field goal (6-43, 3:39).

Chargers 22, Chiefs 21

December 14, 2008 • Arrowhead Stadium • 73,842

SAN DIEGO	0	3	7	12	— 22
KANSAS CITY	7	7	7	0	— 21

Despite trailing by 11 points with under five minutes to play, San Diego scored a late TD, recovered an onside kick, scored again and survived one final Chiefs FG attempt to leave Arrowhead with an improbable 22-21 victory, the 12th one-point game in the Chiefs-Chargers series.

The Chargers won the toss and picked up one first down before kicking the ball away to the Chiefs, who orchestrated a masterful opening drive. Taking over at their own four-yard line, the Chiefs offense moved down the field under the direction of QB Tyler Thigpen and chewed up 96 yards on 15 plays and used nearly eight minutes of the first-quarter clock. The Chiefs picked up seven first downs in the possession before RB Larry Johnson lofted a four-yard TD pass on a halfback option to TE Tony Gonzalez for a 7-0 lead.

The Chiefs opened the second quarter with another nice drive, but stalled in San Diego scoring territory and K Connor Barth missed a 34-yard FG attempt wide left, his first misfire of the season. On the Chargers next possession, the Kansas City defense registered a turnover as DE Tamba Hali registered a sack, strip and fumble recovery of QB Philip Rivers. But Thigpen turned the ball back over to San Diego when he threw an INT in the end zone four plays later.

The Chiefs defense got the ball back, however, by forcing another Chargers turnover. This time Rivers completed a pass to Jackson who fumbled at the end of the play and the ball was recovered by S Bernard Pollard. Thigpen then moved the offense on a 54-yard TD drive capped off with a one-yard TD pass from Thigpen to WR Dwayne Bowe to give the Chiefs a 14-0 lead.

RB Darren Sproles then set San Diego up with good field position with a 38-yard kickoff return, giving the Chargers the ball at their own 48-yard line. K Nate Kaeding would hit a 32-yard FG and the Chiefs lead was cut to 14-3 at halftime.

The Chiefs opened the second half with the football, but it was the Kansas City defense that made the first big play of the third quarter. The Chargers had a third-and-six play at the Chiefs 48-yard line, when CB Pat Surtain stepped in front of a Rivers throw and then ran the INT back 50 yards to the San Diego three-yard line. Thigpen scored on a quarterback draw on the next play, giving Kansas City a 21-3 lead. San Diego came right back with its first TD drive of the game. A six-yard TD run from RB LaDainian Tomlinson cut the Chiefs lead to 21-10 as the Chargers began a furious rally.

After the two teams traded seven possessions, San Diego got the ball back at its own 11-yard line with 4:55 left to play, setting up the game's frenetic finish. A 15-play, 89-yard drive ended with a four-yard scoring pass from Rivers to WR Malcolm Floyd. The Chargers went for two points, but could not convert, making the count 21-16 with 1:19 remaining. Chargers P Mike Scifres then tried an onside kick. The ball looked as if it was secured in the air by Bowe, but Chargers WR Kassim Osgood came out of the scrum with the football at the Chargers 39-yard line. Rivers drove the offense in just four plays for the winning points, a 10-yard TD pass to Jackson. The Chargers again went for two points, but failed and held a 22-21 lead with 0:36 to play.

With no timeouts remaining, the Chiefs were able to move the ball to the San Diego 32-yard line. After the Chargers were called for a delay of game penalty, the Chiefs were given one final attempt to register a win. But Barth's 50-yard FG attempt went wide left, allowing the Chargers to overcome an 18-point deficit for the victory.

Dolphins 38, Chiefs 31

December 21, 2008 • Arrowhead Stadium • 73,689

MIAMI	10	14	7	7	— 38
KANSAS CITY	7	21	3	0	— 31

On the second-coldest day in Arrowhead Stadium history based on kickoff wind chill, a pair of hot offenses combined for 895 yards, nine TDs and 69 points, but it was the Miami Dolphins who walked off the field with a 38-31 victory. The temperature was 10 degrees with a wind chill factor of -12.

Miami took the opening kickoff and RB Patrick Cobbs broke off a 60-yard return to the Kansas City 31-yard line. On the Dolphins first offensive play, WR Ted Ginn, Jr. took an end-around play and went untouched into the end zone, giving Miami a 7-0 lead with just 18 seconds off the clock. The Dolphins added three more points after CB Andre Goodman picked off a QB Tyler Thigpen pass intended for TE Tony Gonzalez and returned it 55 yards to the Chiefs 18-yard line. The Kansas City defense stiffened and eventually forced K Dan Carpenter to kick a 34-yard FG, giving the Dolphins a quick 10-0 lead.

Given their second chance with the football, the Chiefs offense put points on the board. After RB Larry Johnson ripped off a 25-yard run to the Miami 33-yard line, Thigpen faked a handoff to Johnson, then ran a bootleg to his right and threw the ball up in the end zone where WR Devard Darling out jumped two Miami defenders for the ball to slice Miami's lead to 10-7.

As the second quarter began, the Chiefs finished off a long scoring drive. Thigpen took the offense for 80 yards on 17 plays with six first downs, finishing up with an eight-yard TD pass to Gonzalez on a fourth-and-one play to give the Chiefs a 14-10 lead. Miami came right back and regained the lead on an 11-yard pass from QB Chad Pennington to TE David Martin to put Miami back on top at 17-14.

Again, the Chiefs replied, thanks to their longest pass play of the season. On first-and-10 at their own 23-yard line, Thigpen and RB Jamaal Charles connected on a bubble screen that went for 75 yards to the Dolphins two-yard line. Johnson's two-yard TD run on the next play put the Chiefs back on top at 21-17.

Pennington then led his team on a 66-yard drive in seven plays that was capped with a 14-yard pass to TE Anthony Fasano, giving Miami a 24-21 lead. The Chiefs would take a lead into halftime as Thigpen capped an eight-play, 95-yard drive with his legs on an eight-yard QB draw into the end zone for the score to give Kansas City a 28-24 advantage.

After not being forced to punt in the entire first half, the Chiefs opened the second half with another scoring drive. Thigpen drove the offense 69 yards on nine plays, picking up three first downs along the way, but the offense stalled in scoring territory and K Connor Barth hit a 27-yard FG to give the Chiefs a 31-24 lead with 9:11 left in the third period.

RB Ricky Williams answered on Miami's next drive and hit the end zone untouched for a four-yard TD run for a 31-31 tie. It looked like the Chiefs were again on the way to returning the fire, driving the ball down to the Dolphins 26-yard line. But Thigpen threw his second INT of the day at the Miami six-yard line. Both defenses forced punts, before Pennington methodically drove his offense down the field as the Dolphins ate 8:33 off the clock. A 14-yard pass from Pennington to Fasano gave the Dolphins a 38-31 lead with 4:08 left to play.

The Chiefs had their opportunity to answer back, but on a fourth-and-one play at his own 26-yard line, Thigpen slipped and fell on a bootleg run, turning the ball over on downs. Kansas City got one final opportunity when Williams fumbled at the Chiefs seven-yard line. But Thigpen threw his third INT of the game, allowing the Dolphins to run out the clock for a 38-31 road victory.

Bengals 16, Chiefs 6

December 28, 2008 • Paul Brown Stadium • 63,984

KANSAS CITY.....	0	0	0	6	—	6
CINCINNATI.....	3	10	0	3	—	16

The Kansas City offensive attack was held to just 220 yards against the Bengals as QB Tyler Thigpen completed 19 of 36 passes for 191 yards and the Chiefs running game produced just 31 yards in a 16-6 loss at Cincinnati to round out the 2008 campaign.

The Chiefs got the ball first and QB Tyler Thigpen hit his first two passes, but the drive stalled and P Dustin Colquitt booted the ball away. Cincinnati's first drive picked up three first downs, but the Chiefs defense stiffened and held on a fourth-and-six play when CB Brandon Flowers knocked down a pass from QB Ryan Fitzpatrick to WR Glenn Holt.

The next time Cincinnati got the ball, it moved 63 yards on 11 plays with four first downs. Again, the Chiefs defense stopped the march towards the end zone and K Shayne Graham hit a 38-yard FG to give the Bengals a 3-0 lead. The Bengals started a drive early in the second quarter that produced the game's first TD. Fitzpatrick led the Cincinnati offense on a six-play, 87-yard march with five first downs. RB Cedric Benson eventually scored on a two-yard run over right tackle, pushing the Cincinnati lead to 10-0.

The Chiefs offense couldn't get anything going in the second period, as they had the ball three times and twice went three and out. Cincinnati got the ball back and Fitzpatrick moved his group 81 yards on 16 plays, picking up five first downs. Facing first-and-goal at the 10-yard line, the Chiefs defense held the Bengals to a two-yard loss on three plays. Graham kicked a 30-yard FG and the Bengals held a 13-0 halftime lead.

After the teams traded three punts to begin the second half, the Chiefs moved into Cincinnati territory for the first time. They ended up turning the ball over on downs, when a Thigpen throw to Darling fell incomplete. The Bengals added three more points in the fourth quarter, set up by a fumbled exchange between Thigpen and RB Jamaal Charles. Graham turned the turnover into a 43-yard FG to put the Bengals ahead 16-0.

The Chiefs offense turned around and finally got something going, moving the ball down the field and picking up six first downs along the way. Head coach Herm Edwards challenged a ruling on the field that put WR Dwayne Bowe out of bounds short of the goal line, but the play was upheld, setting the Chiefs up with first-and-goal at the one with 4:00 remaining.

A TD pass from Thigpen to Bowe on fourth-and-goal from the one was then nullified by an offensive pass interference call against Bowe. The Chiefs were given new life on fourth-and-goal from the 10 when the Bengals were flagged for defensive pass interference against TE Tony Gonzalez.

On second-and-goal from the five, Gonzalez then hauled in a TD from Thigpen to make the count 16-6 in favor of the Bengals. Thigpen's two-point pass attempt fell incomplete. The Bengals recovered Kansas City's ensuring onside kick. Cincinnati then gained two first downs and was able to run out the clock for the Bengals third consecutive victory.

GAME NOTES

- The game marked the final contest of Carl Peterson's 20-year tenure with the Chiefs. During that span from '89-08, Kansas City amassed a 176-143-1 (.522) regular season record, made nine playoff appearances and won the AFC West four times.

QB LEN DAWSON

Pro Football Hall of Fame - Class of 1987

"I am the seventh son of a seventh son. Things happen to me. A man in Dallas, Texas by the name of Lamar Hunt had a dream. He wanted to get in professional football in a league called the AFL. And he had the good sense to hire Hank Stram as the coach. Had it not been for Hank Stram and knowing me there would not have been a seventh look for the seventh son of a seventh son."

- QB Len Dawson at his
Hall of Fame Induction

QB Len Dawson joined the Dallas Texans in '62 after languishing on the bench for five seasons in the NFL with Pittsburgh and Cleveland. But he'd lost the fundamental skills that had made him a prized first-round draft choice out of Purdue in '57. Under the tutelage of head coach Hank Stram – who had been an assistant at Purdue when Dawson was an All-America selection there – Dawson developed into a Hall of Fame quarterback, leading the team to three American Football League titles, two of the first four Super Bowls and a World Championship following the '69 campaign. Along the way, he developed a reputation as the consummate quarterback; a quiet leader, utterly unflappable, exhibiting rare grace under pressure. "He has those unusual qualities you look for in a quarterback," said Stram. "He never lost his poise and it rubbed off on other players. They knew that somehow, some way, Lenny would get it done."

AFL ORIGINS

1958 — Lamar Hunt's efforts to acquire an expansion NFL franchise for his hometown of Dallas were rebuked by the league. However, his desire to secure a professional football franchise was further heightened after watching the historic '58 NFL Championship Game between Baltimore and the N.Y. Giants.

1959 — After another attempt at landing an NFL expansion franchise for Dallas was spurned, NFL officials suggested that Hunt contact the Wolfner family, owners of the Chicago Cardinals franchise. Violet Bidwell Wolfner, mother of current Cardinals owner William Bidwell, and her husband Walter eventually agreed to sell Hunt 20 percent of the Cardinals franchise. Hunt declined the opportunity. He then conceived the concept of forming a second league. "Why wouldn't a second league work?" Hunt recalled. "There was an American and National League in baseball, why not football?" Hunt contacted several other individuals who had expressed interest in the Cardinals franchise — Bud Adams (Houston), Bob Howsam (Denver), Max Winter and Bill Boyer (Minneapolis) — and gauged their interest in forming a second league. Adams quickly signed on and the young league, albeit still very much in its infancy stages, already had its first rivalry.

With four teams in the ranks including Hunt's Dallas franchise, he sought franchises in New York and Los Angeles. Before ownership in those cities was secured, Hunt sought the NFL's blessing for his endeavor, hoping that NFL Commissioner Bert Bell would oversee both leagues. "I told myself I didn't want to go into this if it meant some kind of battle," Hunt remembered. "Of course, this was one of the more naive thoughts in the history of pro sports." Although the NFL wanted no part of Hunt's new league, Hunt gave his blessing for Bell to mention it in the course of his testimony before a Congressional committee on July 28th. "At that point, no one had put up a penny and I had no commitments from New York or Los Angeles," Hunt continued. "But Bert Bell had announced it. We were in business."

Within weeks, Barron Hilton (Los Angeles) and Harry Wismer (New York) agreed to enter the six-team league. On August 14th, the first meeting of the new league was held in Chicago. Charter memberships were issued to six original cities — Dallas, New York, Houston, Denver, Los Angeles and Minneapolis. The league was officially christened the American Football League on August 22nd. Ralph Wilson (Buffalo) was extended the league's seventh franchise on October 28th and William Sullivan (Boston) became the league's eighth owner on November 23rd, the date of the inaugural AFL draft, which lasted 33 rounds. All eight original owners agreed to contribute $25,000 and to post a performance bond of $100,000. "Before there was a player, coach or general manager in the league, there was Lamar Hunt," said Sullivan. "Hunt was the cornerstone, the integrity of the league. Without him, there would have been no AFL."

In November, the league nearly disbanded before it even played a single game. Winter announced that he was withdrawing from the league to accept an NFL franchise for Minneapolis. The NFL now envisioned an expansion franchise for Dallas, as well, but Hunt declined that offer. "It (the AFL) was so important to me," Hunt said. "I had a lot of money in it, a lot invested in it. Emotionally, I spent a lot of time, effort and energy on it. I felt an obligation. A guy like Billy Sullivan had everything he had in it. It wouldn't have been the right thing to do."

The AFL forged forward as former World War II hero and two-term South Dakota governor Joe Foss was named commissioner on November 30th. A second, 20-round AFL draft was held on December 2nd. Hunt pursued both legendary University of Oklahoma coach Bud Wilkinson and N.Y. Giants defensive assistant Tom Landry to lead his Texans franchise. Wilkinson opted to stay at Oklahoma, while Landry was destined to coach the NFL's franchise in Dallas. Hunt settled on a relatively unknown assistant coach from the University of Miami (Florida), Hank Stram. "One of the biggest reasons I hired Hank was that he really wanted the job," Hunt explained. "It turned out to be a very lucky selection on my part."

THE FOOLISH CLUB

The whole idea of the AFL seemed so far-fetched, the eight team owners were whimsically named "The Foolish Club." Lamar Hunt credited Wayne Valley of the Oakland ownership group for coining that moniker. "I was an amateur photographer and had taken some color pictures of the '64 season," Hunt explained. "I sent out a montage as Christmas gifts one year. At the top was the hand-lettered phrase, The Foolish Club." Both the name and the league would stick.

1960 — Hunt was elected President of the AFL on January 26th. Minneapolis officially withdrew from the AFL on January 27th. An ownership group from Dallas was awarded an expansion NFL franchise on January 28th to begin play that season in direct competition with the Texans. That same day, AFL owners approved the two-point conversion rule which was utilized for the AFL's 10-year existence, a rule that wouldn't resurface in the NFL for 34 more years. On January 30th, Oakland replaced Minneapolis as the eighth AFL outpost. In another ironic twist, the Chicago Cardinals franchise which Hunt had attempted to purchase a year earlier received permission from the NFL to transfer to St. Louis on March 13th. Perhaps the most important moment in the AFL's formative years came on June 9th when the league signed a five-year television contract with ABC that paid each club $112,000 during the '60 season.

The Texans set up offices in the Mercantile Securities Building, while Foss headquartered the AFL offices out of Dallas, as well. The Texans shared the Cotton Bowl for three seasons with the NFL's Cowboys. Reserved seats were $4, general admission $2 and high school students paid $.90 that initial season. Don Rossi served as the team's General Manager until November when he was succeeded by Jack Steadman. The Texans conducted their inaugural training camp at the New Mexico Military Institute in Roswell, NM. The club embarked on a whirlwind preseason barnstorming tour that featured road games in Oakland, Tulsa, Boston, Abilene and Little Rock. An announced crowd of 51,000 at the Cotton Bowl witnessed a 24-3 victory vs. Houston (9/2) as the club concluded a perfect 6-0 preseason record.

The initial regular season victory in team history came by a 34-16 count at Oakland (9/16) thanks to 88 rushing yards, a TD and two FGs from FB Jack Spikes (TCU). In addition to Spikes, the Texans also had a strong home-state identity with QB Cotton Davidson (Baylor), LB Sherrill Headrick (TCU) and RB Abner Haynes (North Texas State). Haynes led the league with 875 rushing yards and nine TDs, as well as combined net yards (2,100) and punt return average (15.4). Haynes' combined net yardage mark remained a franchise record until 2001. Thanks to Haynes, the Texans had a flashy, high-scoring club, which finished the year at 8-6 as three close losses kept the squad from challenging for the division title. The Texans averaged 24,500 for their home games, the highest average in the league.

1961 — Don Klosterman joined the franchise as Director of Player Personnel and a wealth of college talent was infused into the franchise's veins. The Texans and the NFL's Dallas Cowboys both drafted LB E.J. Holub (Texas Tech), described by many scouts as "the best football player in America." Holub decided to play for the Texans, joining three future Chiefs Hall of Famers — DT/DE Jerry Mays (SMU), TE Fred Arbanas (Michigan State) and T Jim Tyrer (Ohio State) — as part of the club's draft class. The club moved its training camp to Hunt's alma mater of SMU and started the regular season at 3-1 before hitting a six-game losing skid, the longest such streak of Stram's tenure with the franchise. One of those losses was a 28-21 decision in a Friday night contest at Boston (11/3) which featured a bizarre ending as a raincoat-clad fan knocked down a potential game-tying TD from Davidson to E Chris Burford on the game's final play. The team rebounded to claim wins in three of its final four contests to finish 6-8, marking the club's second straight finish behind the Chargers in the AFL West standings.

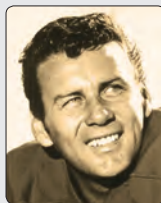

1962 — Stram was named Coach of the Year and RB Curtis McClinton (Kansas) was named the '62 AFL Rookie of the Year. Haynes became the franchise's first 1,000-yard rusher, concluding the season with 1,049 yards and an AFL-high 13 rushing TDs.

The Texans clinched their initial AFL Western Division Championship in November and finished with an 11-3 regular season record. Dallas won the '62 AFL Championship when K Tommy Brooker connected on a 25-yard field goal during the second overtime of the title game, giving the Texans a 20-17 victory at Houston (12/23). Spanning an elapsed time of 77:54, the game still stands as the second-longest contest in pro football history as the franchise claimed its first of three AFL titles.

Stram

LENNY THE COOL

A pivotal moment in franchise history took place on July 2, 1962 when Hank Stram signed free agent QB Len Dawson. Dawson entered the NFL as a first-round draft pick of Pittsburgh in '57, but was waived by Cleveland on June 12th. After spending five uneventful years in the NFL with the Steelers and Browns, Dawson received his final shot at pro football redemption from Stram. Convinced that Dawson was the man to lead the franchise on the field, the only trade personally orchestrated by Lamar Hunt in team history occurred after the season's first game when the Chiefs sent QB Cotton Davidson to Oakland in exchange for the Raiders first-round pick in '63, a pick that was used to select Hall of Fame DT Buck Buchanan with the first overall selection. As for Dawson he didn't disappoint in '62, throwing 29 TD passes to earn AFL Player of the Year honors.

GOIN' TO KANSAS CITY

1963 — Despite the Texans championship season in '62, the Dallas market simply could not sustain two professional football franchises. Kansas City Mayor H. Roe Bartle learned of Hunt's interest in a new home for the Texans and extended an invitation for Hunt and Jack Steadman to move the franchise to Mid-America. After the duo visited Kansas City on an incognito basis, an ambitious campaign took shape to deliver on Bartle's guarantee to Hunt of tripling the season-ticket base the Texans had enjoyed in Dallas. Kansas City's mayor, nicknamed "The Chief," also promised to add 3,000 permanent seats to Municipal Stadium, as well as 11,000 temporary bleacher seats. Along with Bartle, a number of other prominent Kansas Citians stepped forward to aid in the efforts, putting together more than 1,000 workers to sell season tickets. On May 22nd, Hunt announced he was moving the franchise to Kansas City. Hunt and Stram jested at one point about calling the relocated team the Kansas City Texans, but thanks to the insistence of Steadman and a "name-the-team" contest, the Chiefs were officially christened on May 26th, in part to honor the efforts of Bartle. During their inaugural season in Kansas City, the Chiefs charged $7 for box seats and $6 for reserved seats at Municipal Stadium.

Three highly-touted draft choices began their tenures with the club in '63. Hunt's trade of Davidson landed the number one overall selection in the AFL Draft which Kansas City used to select Hall of Fame DT Buck Buchanan (Grambling). Ironically, the Raiders would later draft Hall of Fame G Gene Upshaw in '67 for the express purpose of blocking Buchanan. The Chiefs tabbed G Ed Budde (Michigan State) with their own number one selection, while stealing another future Hall of Fame inductee, LB Bobby Bell (Minnesota) in the seventh round. Buchanan, Budde and Bell all became starters on their way to a combined 526 games with the team. The first appearance of the Chiefs in Municipal Stadium attracted just 5,721 fans for a 17-13 preseason victory vs. Buffalo (8/9). Tragedy struck the club when rookie RB Stone Johnson (Grambling), who was a sprinter in the '60 Olympics in Rome, suffered a fractured vertebra in his neck in a preseason game vs. Houston (8/30) in Wichita, KS. He died 10 days later on September 8th and his jersey number 33 was subsequently retired. Kansas City opened the regular season with a 59-7 victory at Denver (9/7), a contest that remains the highest-scoring effort in team history. On October 1st, the club moved into its new Swope Park practice facility located on East 63rd Street, where the team's headquarters remained until the opening of Arrowhead Stadium in '72. The Chiefs managed just one win and two ties in their next nine games before racking up three consecutive wins to close the year at 5-7-2.

1964 — On January 29th, the AFL and NBC signed a landmark five-year, $36-million television contract beginning with the '65 season. The Chiefs began the year with a 2-1 mark before dropping three consecutive games as several of the team's best players, including LB E.J. Holub, TE Fred Arbanas and S Johnny Robinson, missed numerous games with injuries. Arbanas missed the final two games of the year after undergoing surgery to his left eye, in which he suffered almost total loss of vision. RB Mack Lee Hill (Southern), who signed with the club as a rookie free agent and received a mere $300 signing bonus, muscled his way into the starting lineup and earned a spot in the AFL All-Star Game. The club rounded out the season with two consecutive wins to close the season at 7-7, finishing second in the AFL West behind San Diego (8-5-1). An average of just 18,126 fans attended each home game at Municipal Stadium, prompting discussion at the AFL owners' meeting about the future of the franchise in Kansas City.

BIDDING WARS, MERGER TALKS & GLORY DAYS

1965 — The AFL and NFL had been openly competing for talent for years, but that bidding war for players heated up for the Chiefs in '65. Kansas City made RB Gale Sayers (Kansas) their first-round draft pick, but Sayers eventually signed with the Chicago Bears.

The club suffered a devastating blow when RB Mack Lee Hill suffered torn ligaments in his right knee in the next-to-last regular season game of the year at Buffalo (12/12). Following what was expected to be a routine surgery on December 14th at Menorah Hospital in Kansas City, Hill died from what was termed "a sudden and massive embolism." Hunt called Hill's death "the worst shock possible." Beginning the following year, the club annually bestowed the Mack Lee Hill Award on its top rookie or first-year performer in honor of this fallen young star. Just days after Hill's unexpected death, the mourning Chiefs defeated Denver (12/19) to finish the year with a 7-5-2 record.

1966 — The escalation in player salaries paid by the two leagues eventually led to a series of clandestine meetings between Hunt and Tex Schramm of the Cowboys that began in April at Love Field in Dallas. While merger groundwork was being laid, the Chiefs engaged in more subterfuge during the '66 draft. DE Aaron Brown (Minnesota) was highly coveted by many clubs, including the NFL's Steelers. The Steelers couldn't locate Brown on draft day since he was already aboard a flight with Hunt, who carried out the first mid-air signing in team history. Despite being drafted in the 20th round of the AFL Draft, the Chiefs signed Heisman Trophy RB Mike Garrett (USC) who earned AFL Rookie of the Year honors. Plans for the AFL-NFL merger were officially announced by NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle on June 8th. The Chiefs started the season at 3-0, including a 32-10 win at Oakland (9/18) in the first contest played at the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum. A crowd of 43,885 attended the Chiefs home opener vs. defending AFC Champion Buffalo (10/2), the largest ever to witness a sports event in Kansas City at the time. The Chiefs dropped a 29-14 decision to the Bills, but after the contest, Stram and Buffalo head coach Joe Collier negotiated a trade in the middle of the field. Kansas City got K Mike Mercer for a fifth-round pick, solidifying one of the few weaknesses on the squad. Dawson led the league in passing, while Taylor became the first 1,000-yard receiver in franchise history, registering 1,297 yards. The Chiefs finished three games in front of Oakland to claim an AFL West title with an 11-2-1 record, setting the stage for the franchise's second trip to the AFL Championship Game.

1967 — Using a dazzling I-formation offense and a smothering defense, the Chiefs claimed a dominating 31-7 victory in the AFL title game at Buffalo (1/1) on the same day that future Chiefs star Derrick Vincent Thomas was born in Miami, Florida. That victory propelled Kansas City to the first AFL-NFL World Championship Game, later renamed Super Bowl I. The term "Super Bowl" was coined by Hunt during a committee meeting, inspired by a "Super Ball" owned by each of his three children. Although not officially adopted until the third such AFL-NFL World

THE OTIS ACQUISITION

One of the more colorful tales in franchise lore transpired days before the '65 draft. The Cowboys had WR Otis Taylor (Prairie View A&M) sequestered at the Continental Hotel in Dallas. Chiefs scout Lloyd Wells, who was instrumental in the signing of many key players during the '60s, thought he had Taylor's services secured for the Chiefs when he learned of the Cowboys chicanery. After ascertaining the receiver's location from Taylor's mother, Wells posed as a reporter from Ebony magazine and slipped his phone number to Taylor unbeknownst to a Cowboys "bodyguard" watching Taylor's hotel door. At 3:00 AM one of the greatest "escapes" in franchise history was consummated as the receiver climbed out a bathroom window and into an awaiting Cadillac. Taylor and Wells boarded a flight for Kansas City later that morning and Taylor, with a shiny new vehicle in his possession, was subsequently drafted by the Chiefs in the fourth round, beginning an illustrious Kansas City career.

31-7 victory in the AFL title game at Buffalo (1/1) on the same day that future Chiefs star Derrick Vincent Thomas was born in Miami, Florida. That victory propelled Kansas City to the first AFL-NFL World Championship Game, later renamed Super Bowl I. The term "Super Bowl" was coined by Hunt during a committee meeting, inspired by a "Super Ball" owned by each of his three children. Although not officially adopted until the third such AFL-NFL World Championship Game, the name Super Bowl was seized upon by the media and quickly became a part of the worldwide sports lexicon. At the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum, the Chiefs met Vince Lombardi's powerful Green Bay Packers (1/15). The Chiefs played the Packers close for a half, trailing 14-10, but Green Bay took control in the final two quarters, winning the game by a score of 35-10.

The club's special teams got a boost with the addition of K Jan Stenerud (Montana State), who originally enrolled in school on a skiing scholarship and KR Nolan "Super Gnat" Smith (Tennessee State). Interest in the team skyrocketed, forcing an increase in seating capacity at Municipal Stadium from 40,000 to 47,000. In June, Jackson County voters approved a $43 million bond issue for construction of The Truman Sports Complex. The first contest between AFL and NFL teams in Kansas City resulted in a commanding 66-24 Chiefs victory vs. Chicago at Municipal Stadium (8/23). Injuries again hit the club hard during the regular season as the Chiefs clawed their way to a 9-5 record.

LEGENDARY LINEBACKERS

just five snaps as a rookie in '68. However, Livingston engineered a five-game winning streak, while getting plenty of help from the club's defense. The team's home opener at Municipal Stadium was played in a daylong deluge referred to as a "frog-strangler" by Chiefs radio broadcaster Bill Grigsby. The Chiefs and Oilers combined for 14 fumbles in a 24-0 Kansas City victory (10/12). Dawson returned to the starting lineup in a 27-3 win vs. San Diego (11/9) and guided the club to three wins in the season's next four games. Broncos coach Lou Saban was infuriated following the Chiefs 31-17 win vs. Denver (11/27). Trailing 24-17 late in the game, Denver attempted an onside kick that was recovered by LB Bobby Bell, who promptly returned that kick for a 53-yard TD. Livingston started the following week vs. Buffalo (12/7) for an again-injured Dawson, who returned for the regular season finale at Oakland (12/13). A 10-6 loss vs. the Raiders gave the Chiefs an 11-3 record, good for second in the division behind Oakland (12-1-1). In an AFC Divisional Playoff Game at the N.Y. Jets (12/20), Kansas City rode its dominating defense which produced a crucial goal-line stand en route to a 13-6 win over the defending Super Bowl champions to set up a rematch with the Raiders in the final AFL Championship Game.

1968 — A debate raged in Kansas City whether the club's new stadium should be built downtown or at a "remote" location. A location in Eastern Jackson County was chosen as the site and groundbreaking ceremonies took place in July with plans calling for a unique "rolling roof" design. The '68 Chiefs boasted one of the finest defenses ever assembled by the club, allowing a franchise-low 170 points (12.1 ppg). The nucleus of the defensive unit was clearly in its prime, producing six AFL All-Stars, including all three of the squad's linebackers. Offensively, Dawson led the AFL in passing for the fourth time. The Chiefs began the season with a 7-1 record and rattled off five straight victories to close the regular season at 12-2, sharing the AFL West crown with the Raiders and setting up an AFL Western Division Playoff Game. Kansas City lost a 41-6 decision at Oakland (12/22) in the club's first postseason outing since Super Bowl I as the Raiders advanced to the AFL Championship Game against the N.Y. Jets.

1969 — The Chiefs continued the momentum they built during the '68 campaign by posting a perfect 6-0 record during preseason play. Kansas City began the regular season with four consecutive road games for the only time in team history. After a decisive 27-9 win at San Diego (9/14), the club posted a 31-0 shutout at Boston (9/21), but Dawson sustained a knee injury against the Patriots. The once-optimistic picture for the Chiefs went from bad to worse the following week when backup QB Jack Lee went down with a broken ankle in a 24-19 loss at Cincinnati (9/28). That injury left the team's most crucial position in the hands of second-year QB Mike Livingston, who took

1970 — In the final game in AFL history, the Chiefs became the league's only three-time champions, defeating the Raiders by a 17-7 count at Oakland (1/4). Making the victory even more satisfying for the Chiefs was the fact that the Raiders players had to sheepishly walk out of the stadium with the luggage they had packed for New Orleans and Super Bowl IV. During the days preceding Kansas City's clash with the heavily-favored Vikings, unsubstantiated media reports associating Dawson with a known gambler hounded the Chiefs quarterback. The night before the game, Ed Sabol of NFL Films approached Vikings coach Bud Grant about being miked for the game. Grant declined, but Stram accepted. As both the Chiefs

THREE-TIME AFL CHAMPIONS

With a 17-7 win over the Oakland Raiders in the '69 AFL Championship Game, Kansas City became the only team in AFL history to claim three league titles. The club also won AFL Championships in '62 and in '66. During the AFL's 10-year existence, the Chiefs compiled a league-best 87-48-5 (.639) regular season record under head coach Hank Stram.

Hunt and Stram

and the cameras rolled, Stram clamored for his team to run "65 toss power trap" and to "keep matriculating the ball down the field." The Chiefs used the game as a crusade for the American Football League and wore "AFL-10" patches which referred to the league's 10-year existence. The Chiefs used three Stenerud FGs and a Garrett TD run to take a 16-0 halftime lead. A dynamic 46-yard TD pass from Dawson to Taylor in the third quarter sealed the victory as Dawson was named the game's Most Valuable Player. Perhaps the grittiest performance of the day came from S Johnny Robinson, who registered two interceptions and a fumble recovery despite playing with three broken ribs. At approximately 5:20 PM, the final seconds ticked off the clock at Tulane Stadium as the biggest moment in Kansas City sports history came to a peak as the Chiefs were crowned World Champions by claiming a 23-7 victory in Super Bowl IV (1/11). A victory parade ensued upon the club's triumphant return to Kansas City the following day.

Replicating the success of '69 proved a difficult task for Stram and company. RB Mike Garrett, who was the club's all-time leading rusher at the time, was traded to San Diego and replaced in the lineup by RB Ed Podolak. Despite a 44-24 win at Baltimore (9/28) in just the second-ever telecast of ABC's Monday Night Football package, the Chiefs owned a 3-3-1 record at the season's midpoint. One of the season's pivotal junctures came in a 17-17 tie vs. Oakland (11/1). The Chiefs were ahead 17-14 when Dawson apparently sealed the win, running for a first down which would have allowed Kansas City to run out the clock. While on the ground, Dawson was speared by Raiders DE Ben Davidson in an infamous incident that cost the Chiefs a victory and further inflamed the already heated Chiefs-Raiders rivalry. WR Otis Taylor retaliated and a bench-clearing brawl ensued. Offsetting penalties were called, nullifying Dawson's first down. The Chiefs were forced to punt and Raiders K George Blanda eventually booted a game-tying FG with 0:08 remaining. That tie ultimately cost the Chiefs a tie with Oakland for the division crown as Kansas City finished the year with a 7-5-2 record, while the Raiders went 8-4-2.

1971 — The '71 Chiefs were regarded by many as the finest squad ever assembled by the franchise, including Lamar Hunt. "I always thought that was the peak of our best team, our '71 squad," Hunt recalled. The '71

Podolak

Chiefs fielded perhaps the most complete squad in franchise history, featuring a team-record 11 Pro Bowl performers. Offensively, WR Otis Taylor led the league with 1,110 receiving yards. The longstanding linebacking trio of Willie Lanier, Bobby Bell and Jim Lynch was the league's best. The offensive line was headlined by G Ed Budde and T Jim Tyrer, while the defensive front featured a pair of Pro Bowlers in DTs Buck Buchanan and Curley Culp. Both K Jan Stenerud and P Jerrel Wilson represented the squad in the Pro Bowl, as well. The '71 squad became the first in team annals to register two Monday Night Football wins. After bolting to a 5-1-1 start, the club went 5-2 during the second half of the season to finish the year at 10-3-1. A 16-14 home victory vs. Oakland (12/12) gave the franchise its initial AFC West title.

The great promise of the '71 campaign ended dramatically in the longest game in NFL history, an AFC Divisional Playoff Game played on Christmas Day. It took 82:40, but a 37-yard FG from Dolphins K Garo Yepremian finally ended this epic as Miami claimed a 27-24 double OT win in the final football contest played at Municipal Stadium. Podolak accounted for an incredible 350 combined net yards, a figure that remains an NFL postseason record. The baton of power in the AFC was officially passed to the Dolphins, who went on to appear in three consecutive Super Bowls. It would be the Chiefs last playoff appearance for 15 years, effectively signaling the conclusion of the franchise's original glory days.

FOND FAREWELLS

ARROWHEAD OPENS

After two different construction strikes and a myriad of other delays, Arrowhead Stadium was officially dedicated on August 12, 1972 when the Chiefs registered a 24-14 victory vs. the St. Louis Cardinals. RB Ed Podolak scored the first TD in the facility. "It was supposed to be finished on July 1st and it wasn't even close," recalled Jack Steadman.

In fact, seats weren't even installed yet in some areas of the stadium, including Hunt's private suite, where guests sat on folding chairs that inaugural year. Regular season ticket prices for the team's first season in Arrowhead were $8 for box seats and $7 for reserved seating. Mayor H. Roe Bartle is shown at right trying out the first seat installed in Arrowhead.

The Chiefs lost a 20-10 decision vs. Miami (9/17) on Opening Day at Arrowhead in front of a crowd of 79,829. Municipal Stadium hosted its final pro sporting event as the Royals defeated the Rangers by a 4-0 count (10/4). A standing-room-only crowd of 82,094 fans was in attendance for a 27-14 victory vs. Oakland (11/5), the largest "in-house" attendance total for an NFL contest in Arrowhead's history. After a 5-3 start, a three-game losing streak effectively eliminated the club from playoff contention. An 8-6 record was good enough for only a second-place finish in the AFC West behind Oakland. LB Willie Lanier became the first Chiefs player to receive the prestigious NFL Man of the Year Award.

1973 — The defense kept the club in virtually every game thanks to a nucleus that still included the bulk of the squad's Super Bowl IV starters. QB Mike Livingston started in a 23-13 Opening Day loss vs. Oakland (9/16), but Dawson returned to rally the club for three consecutive wins to get the club off to a 3-1 start for a third straight year. Inconsistency and injuries took their toll down the stretch, though. Dawson made his final start of the year in a 23-14 loss at Buffalo (10/29) and was replaced for the remainder of the year by Livingston, beginning a string of three straight seasons in which both players split time at the position. Livingston led the club to three straight wins, putting the team in first place in mid-November with a 6-3-1 record. A 1-2-1 ledger over the season's final month ended the club's postseason aspirations as the team finished the year in a second-place tie with Denver at 7-5-2. Dawson became the second Chiefs player in as many years to win the NFL Man of the Year Award.

1974 — The AFC-NFC Pro Bowl was held at Arrowhead on January 20th with the AFC claiming a 15-13 win thanks to five FGs from Miami K Garo Yepremian. While the club's sparkling new facility was drawing rave reviews, the Chiefs roster was beginning to show its age. The result was the team's first losing season in 11 years as the club was unable to string together consecutive victories during the year, a first in Chiefs franchise history. Many of the club's key players were entering the twilight of their careers: Dawson was 39, T Jim Tyrer was 35, LB Bobby Bell, DT Buck Buchanan and G Ed Budde were 34, T Dave Hill was 33 and WR Otis Taylor was 32. One of the year's few bright spots in the 5-9 season was CB Emmitt Thomas, who led the league with a franchise-record 12 INTs. The final game of the '74 campaign marked the final time all six of Kansas City's Pro Football Hall of Fame players from the club's Super Bowl era took the field together with Stram. Including Lamar Hunt and five future Vikings Hall of Famers, an amazing total of 13 Hall of Fame inductees were involved in that '74 game. That 35-15 loss vs. Minnesota (12/14) provided an anticlimactic conclusion to Stram's illustrious coaching career in Kansas City and was also the final game in a Chiefs uniform for eight-time All-Pro LB Bobby Bell. Three days later, the only head coach in franchise history was relieved of his duties on December 27th after compiling a 124-76-10 regular season record with the club.

1975 — San Francisco 49ers defensive coordinator Paul Wiggins was named the second head coach in franchise history on January 23rd. A former Pro Bowl defensive end for the Cleveland Browns, Wiggins inherited the unenviable task of rebuilding a squad whose pool of talent had been largely depleted due to age and a number of ill-fated trades that had left the club devoid of first-round draft choices in '73 and '75. After an 0-3 start to the season, Wiggins directed the Chiefs to three straight wins, beginning with a convincing 42-10 victory vs. Oakland (10/12). The highlight of the season was a 34-31 upset win at Dallas (11/10) on Monday Night Football. But the club could not maintain that success. Owning a 5-5 record heading into the homestretch of the season, injuries to a number of key players crippled the team. The team dropped its final four contests of the year to finish at 5-9 for the second consecutive season. The regular season finale at Oakland (12/21) marked the final games in the Hall of Fame careers of Dawson and Buchanan.

1976 — Buck Buchanan officially hung up his spikes in February, while Dawson announced his retirement on May 1st. Off the field, Jack Steadman was promoted to President and Jim Schaaf was named General Manager in August. On the field, Kansas City's fortunes didn't improve in the second year of the Wiggins regime. The club dropped three straight home games before suffering a 50-17 setback at Buffalo (10/3), opening the season at 0-4 for the first time in team history. The team registered a 3-1 record during a successful midseason stretch, but could not maintain that momentum. After lingering in Dawson's shadow for eight seasons, QB Mike Livingston was firmly entrenched as the team's starter, becoming the first signal-caller to start every regular season game since Dawson in '68. Even though he played well and rallied the squad for wins in two of the season's final three games, the Chiefs still ended the year with their third consecutive 5-9 record. RB Ed Podolak surpassed RB Abner Haynes as the all-time leading ground gainer in team history in the final game of the year vs. Cleveland (12/12). RB MacArthur Lane was another offensive threat, becoming the first player in franchise history to lead the league in receptions (66). One of the club's final ties to its glory days was severed when the dismantling of Municipal Stadium began on April 13th. A portion of the site was later developed into a community garden.

1977 — On the field, the Chiefs suffered their worst season to date, winning just twice and undergoing a midseason coaching change. An 0-5 start doomed the squad with a 44-7 loss at Cleveland (10/30) effectively sealing Wiggins' fate. Despite the club's record Wiggins was still a popular figure in Kansas City, but was nonetheless relieved of his duties on Halloween, marking the only in-season coaching switch in team history. Wiggins concluded his tenure with an 11-24 record. Defensive backs coach Tom Bettis was named interim coach and claimed a 20-10 victory vs. Green Bay (11/6) in the club's initial contest under his direction, but it was the only victory of his brief head coaching tenure. The team endured a six-game losing streak to conclude the season at 2-12. Bettis and the remainder of the coaching staff assembled by Wiggins were released on December 19th one day after a 21-20 loss at Oakland (12/18) in the regular season finale. Marv Levy, the former head coach of the CFL's Montreal Alouettes, was named the fourth head coach in franchise history on December 20th. The heart and soul of the Chiefs once-vaunted defense departed when roommates Lanier and Lynch, who both joined the club together as second-round draft picks in '67, retired following the '77 campaign. Baltimore later acquired Lanier's rights in a trade, but failed to lure him out of retirement.

THE LEVY ERA

1978 — Levy's systematic restocking of a relatively barren defensive roster began with a '78 draft class that included a pair of future Chiefs Hall of Fame enshrinees in DE Art Still (Kentucky) and LB Gary Spani (Kansas State). Another tie to the club's Super Bowl IV team was cut when RB Ed Podolak, who was the club's all-time leading rusher at the time, retired on June 15th. Perhaps Levy's most unconventional tactic in rebuilding the Chiefs was installing the Wing-T offense. "It was a situation where we took over a team that had the worst defensive record in the history of the National Football League," he later explained. "We wanted to keep that defense off the field, so we ran the ball 60 times a game." The '78 Chiefs ran and ran often, posting franchise records with 663 rushing attempts and 2,986 ground yards. Levy's squad ran the ball a staggering 69 times in a 24-23 Opening Day win at Cincinnati (9/3), the most rushing attempts in an NFL contest since '48. Five different players had 100-yard rushing games during the year, including RB Tony Reed who finished the season with 1,053 yards to become the team's first 1,000-yard back since '67. Despite the squad's Opening Day success, the club lost 10 of its next 11 games, including a pair of OT decisions. However, the team showed signs of improvement with the defense recording a 23-0 shutout vs. San Diego (11/26) as the club concluded its first 16-game schedule with a 4-12 mark.

1979 — Kansas City owned a pair of picks in the first round of the draft, selecting DE Mike Bell (Colorado State) and QB Steve Fuller (Clemson). By the season's third game, Fuller had supplanted QB Mike Livingston as the club's starter. With Fuller at the helm, the Chiefs owned a 4-2 record after six games, but a five-game midseason losing stretch sullied that effort. Despite finishing fifth in the AFC West for a second straight season, Kansas City's 7-9 record was a notable accomplishment considering the fact that the division's other four clubs all posted winning records for a second consecutive season. The Chiefs lost a 3-0 decision at Tampa Bay (12/16) in one of the most water-logged contests in franchise annals. As both clubs struggled to move the ball under monsoon-like conditions, a late, fourth-quarter FG by the Buccaneers averted the NFL's first scoreless tie since '43.

1980 — An infusion of new talent continued at Arrowhead. G Brad Budde (USC), the son of Chiefs Hall of Fame G Ed Budde, was selected as the club's first-round draft choice, making the Buddes the first father-son combination to become first-round draftees of the same team in NFL history. In a then-controversial move on August 26th, the Chiefs released K Jan Stenerud, who at the time was the club's all-time leading scorer. He was replaced by journeyman K Nick Lowery, who had been cut 11 times by eight different teams himself. He finished his career with the club in '93 as the franchise's all-time leading scorer with

1,466 points. After enduring an 0-4 start, the club rebounded to post a four-game victory streak. After Fuller was sidelined with a knee injury late in the season, former Miami 12th-round draft choice QB Bill Kenney entered the lineup. He was so anonymous that when he appeared in that contest, the name on the back of his jersey was inadvertently misspelled "Kenney." Kenney went on to lead the club to a 31-14 victory vs. Denver (12/7) in his initial NFL start. The defense continued to evolve as DE Art Still and S Gary Barbaro became the first Chiefs defensive players to be elected to the Pro Bowl in five seasons. The Chiefs finished the year at 8-8, the club's highest victory tally since '72.

1981 — Kenney supplanted Fuller as the club's starting quarterback and directed the Chiefs to a 6-2 start, including a 37-33 win over the defending Super Bowl champion Steelers at Pittsburgh (9/6) on Opening Day. Second-round draft choice RB Joe Delaney (NW Louisiana) electrified the club's offense by rushing for 1,121 yards, a team single-season record at the time. He was named the AFC's

Rookie of the Year and became the first running back to represent the franchise in the Pro Bowl. Delaney registered a 193-yard performance in a 23-10 win vs. Houston (11/15), the best single-game total ever amassed by a Kansas City rookie. "I've played against the best — O.J. Simpson, Gale Sayers, Walter Payton and (Delaney) ranks right up there with them," remarked Oilers Hall of Fame DE Elvin Bethea. "He is great with a capital G." Owning an 8-4 record with four games remaining, the Chiefs were poised to make the playoffs for the first time in 10 years before hitting a three-game losing skid. Kenney missed the club's final three contests due to injury. Fuller guided the club to a 10-6 win at Minnesota (12/20) in the final contest played at Metropolitan Stadium as Vikings fans began dismembering the stadium in the second half, taking seats, pieces of the scoreboard and even chunks of sod as souvenirs. The victory assured the Chiefs of a 9-7 record, the club's first winning mark since '73 as Levy increased the club's victory total for a third consecutive year. Inspired by Washington's "Hail to the Redskins," Levy penned a fight song for the Chiefs, but much like the Wing-T offense, the concept never really caught on.

1982 — RB Joe Delaney underwent surgery in May to repair a detached retina in his eye, a radical procedure at the time. Optimism abounded at Arrowhead thanks to the club's promising 9-7 record from '81, but swelling labor unrest spelled doom for both the Chiefs and Levy in '82. The Chiefs split their first two games of the year before a 57-day strike by the NFL Players Association began at midnight on September 20th. The strike concluded on November 17th after six games were cancelled and one was rescheduled, but the Chiefs would never recover,

"GIVE A CHEER FOR KANSAS CITY"

by Marv Levy

*Give a cheer for Kansas City,
Loud and clear for the Red and Gold,
As the Chiefs march on to victory
Like our mighty teams of old.*

(Refrain)

*Rah, Rah, Rah, for Kansas City
Rah, Rah, Rah for Red and Gold
As the Chiefs march on to victory
Like our mighty teams of old*

*Beat the drum, here they come
Warriors, brave and strong.
In the stands, loyal fans
Cheer our team along* dropping four straight games after their return to the field. C Jack Rudnay, who had been one of the franchise's most durable and decorated offensive performers over the past decade, announced on December 20th that the '82 campaign would be his last. Despite wins in two of the season's final three games, the Levy era concluded as the club finished the strike-shortened campaign at 3-6.

TRAGEDY, TRIUMPHS AND TRANSITIONS

1983 — Marv Levy was released as the club's head coach on January 4th. Dallas Cowboys QBs coach John Mackovic was named the fifth head coach in Kansas City history on February 2nd. The 39-year-old Mackovic became the youngest individual ever to hold that post for the club. The Chiefs held the seventh overall pick in the quarterback-laden '83 NFL Draft and selected QB Todd Blackledge (Penn State). The five other signal-callers selected in the first round that year included John Elway (1st — Baltimore), Jim Kelly (Buffalo — 14th), Tony Eason (New England — 15th), Ken O'Brien (N.Y. Jets — 24th) and Dan Marino (Miami — 27th). LB Bobby Bell became the first Chiefs player to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on July 30th, providing some solace to the franchise which was still mourning the death of RB Joe Delaney.

With Kenney and Blackledge both on the roster, QB Steve Fuller was traded to the L.A. Rams on August 19th. Kenney earned a Pro Bowl berth after racking up a franchise-record 4,348 passing yards, while WR Carlos Carson hauled in 80 passes for 1,351 yards. Despite the team's high-flying aerial game, Mackovic had trouble finding a suitable replacement for Delaney on the ground. The highest scoring contest in franchise history took place as the Chiefs and Seahawks combined for 99 points in a wild, 51-48 OT loss at Seattle (11/27). A meager crowd of 11,377 attended the club's season-ending 48-17 win vs. Denver (12/18), the smallest attendance ever for a Chiefs game at Arrowhead as the club finished at 6-10.

THE INTERCEPTORS

S Gary Barbaro's departure and the trade of Pro Bowl CB Gary Green in '84 began a youth movement that produced the most vaunted secondary in team history. CB Kevin Ross (#31), S Deron Cherry (#20), CB Albert Lewis (#29) and S Lloyd Burruss (#34) accounted for a combined 13 Pro Bowl appearances with the Chiefs.

1984 — Wayne Rudy, the only head trainer the team had ever known, retired and passed the reins to his assistant Dave Kendall in February. Pro Bowl S Gary Barbaro became the most notable Chiefs player to defect to the rival USFL, signing with the New Jersey Generals on February 2nd after sitting out the entire '83 campaign in a contract dispute. All-America NT Bill Maas (Pitt) and T John Alt (Iowa) were both tabbed in the first round of the draft. Maas was named NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year, while Alt eventually became the cornerstone of the club's offensive line later in the decade. Kansas City's defense registered a team-record 11.0 sacks in a 10-6 win vs. Cleveland (9/30), coming one sack shy of the NFL single-game record. Kenney suffered a broken thumb during the preseason and was sidelined until the season's seventh week. Blackledge opened the first six contests of the season and had the club at 3-3. Kenney returned to the starting lineup at the N.Y. Jets (10/21), but the club dropped four of its first five contests after his return. However, the team rattled off three consecutive wins to conclude the year at 8-8.

Tragedy struck the club on June 29, 1983 when Delaney drowned trying to save the lives of three youngsters in Monroe, Louisiana. An overflow crowd that included the Hunt family, prominent members of the Chiefs administration and head coach John Mackovic attended a memorial service held in Delaney's high school gymnasium in Haughton, Louisiana on July 4th. Delaney was posthumously awarded the Presidential Citizen's Medal by Ronald Reagan on July 13th.

1985 — The Chiefs got off to a flying start with a 47-27 win at New Orleans (9/8), while Cherry tied an NFL record by registering four interceptions in a 28-7 win vs. Seattle (9/29) as the club boasted a 3-1 record four games into the season. The club was then confronted with a seven-game losing streak that was not snapped until Blackledge was installed as the starter vs. Indianapolis (11/24). The team rebounded to win three of its final five contests of the season with Blackledge under center, further inflaming a quarterback controversy that continued into the '86 campaign.

One of the few remaining bright spots in a disappointing 6-10 season came in the regular season finale vs. San Diego (12/22) when WR Stephone Paige set an NFL record with 309 receiving yards in a 38-34 win, breaking the previous mark of 303 yards set by Jim Benton (Cleveland) in '45. Paige's mark was subsequently surpassed by a 336-yard effort by WR Willie Anderson (L.A. Rams) in '89.

1986 — LB Willie Lanier was enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame on August 2nd. On the field, the pieces started coming together for Mackovic. His offense displayed plenty of scoring punch, while the club's defense and special teams became increasingly effective. With the team sitting at 3-3, Kenney replaced Blackledge for the second half vs. San Diego (10/19), guiding the club to a 42-41 victory. That win was the first of four consecutive triumphs with Kenney at the helm, the club's longest winning streak since '80. Poised with a 7-3 record after 10 games, three straight losses in November put the Chiefs' playoff chances in jeopardy. Two December wins gave Kansas City a 9-6 mark, putting the Chiefs tantalizingly close to their first postseason berth in 15 years.

The defining moment of the '86 campaign came in the regular season finale at Pittsburgh (12/21). Despite being outgained in total yardage by a 515-to-171-yard margin, the Chiefs were able to notch a 24-19 victory as all of the team's points came via special teams on a blocked punt return, a FG, a kickoff return and a blocked FG return. With a 10-6 record the Chiefs earned an AFC Wild Card berth, winning a tiebreaker with Seattle. Kenney was injured in the fourth quarter of the Steelers contest, meaning Blackledge would draw the starting assignment for the club's first playoff contest since '71, a 35-15 loss at the N.Y. Jets (12/28). Little did anyone know at the time that it would be the final contest of the Mackovic era.

1987 — One of the most tumultuous weeks in franchise history took place following the club's playoff loss vs. the Jets. Assistant head coach and special teams coach Frank Ganzs, who had been an integral figure in the club's remarkable '86 campaign, resigned his position on January 7th in order to pursue opportunities as an NFL offensive coordinator. It was announced in an impromptu press conference that Mackovic was relieved of his duties on January 8th. A popular figure among Chiefs players, Ganzs was reinstated on January 10th and was named the sixth head coach in franchise history.

QB Len Dawson became the third Chiefs player inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on August 8th, while injuries forced the retirement of the club's all-time leading tackler LB Gary Spani. A duo of rookies made a splash in a 20-13 win on Opening Day vs. San Diego (9/13) as RB Paul Palmer returned a kickoff for a TD and RB Christian Okoye dashed for 105 yards. A 24-day NFLPA strike began on September 22nd. The club's contest vs. Minnesota (9/27) was cancelled before replacement games were conducted the next three weeks. Much like Marv Levy five years earlier, Ganzs's grip on the club's coaching reins was crippled by the labor unrest.

The Kansas City replacement squad was constructed primarily of players cut in training camp. One of the few bright spots among this motley crew was RB Jitter Fields, who remained on the active roster following the strike. The Chiefs strike squad received an ominous welcome in Los Angeles when in the early morning hours prior to a contest vs. the Raiders (10/4), an earthquake rattled Southern California. The visibly shaken Chiefs lost a 35-17 decision later that day. The low point of the year came the following week at Miami (10/11) in the first regular season game played at what then was known as Joe Robbie Stadium. Chiefs QB Matt Stevens was injured early in the contest, forcing into duty QB Alex Espinoza, a player who had never taken an NFL snap. The result was a 42-0 Dolphins victory, setting the stage for an 0-3 performance by Kansas City's replacement unit, giving the Chiefs a 1-4 record before the club's regular roster returned at San Diego (10/25). Five straight losses followed, giving the Chiefs a team-record nine-game losing skid. For the only time in team history, five different players started games at quarterback for the club. Behind Kenney, Kansas City won two of its last three games to conclude the strike-shortened 4-11 campaign.

1988 — The spring was marked by several notable trades as the club jockeyed to improve on its 4-11 finish in '87. Blackledge was traded to Pittsburgh on March 29th and 12-year veteran QB Steve DeBerg was acquired from Tampa Bay on March 31st. The Chiefs moved up one spot in the first round of the draft to select DE Neil Smith (Nebraska) with the third overall pick. Kenney opened the team's initial two games, but was replaced by DeBerg at halftime at Seattle (9/11). In his initial start as a member of the Chiefs, DeBerg guided the team to a 20-13 win vs. Denver (9/18). However, six losses and a tie ensued as Kenney and DeBerg jostled for the QB job. As the season drew to a close, it became apparent the winds of change were blowing across the organization. President Jack Steadman resigned on December 8th, while General Manager Jim Schaaf was relieved of his duties the same day. Steadman was later named Chairman of the Board. On the field, the Chiefs finished the year at 4-11-1 as questions swirled regarding Ganzs's future and who would fill the club's leadership void. Those winds of change became a full-fledged gale one day after the season's conclusion when former Philadelphia Eagles and USFL executive Carl Peterson was named the club's President/General Manager and Chief Operating Officer on December 19th.

A RETURN TO PROMINENCE: CARL PETERSON AND MARTYBALL

1989 — After compiling an 8-22-1 record in two seasons, Ganzs was relieved of his duties as head coach on January 5th. Peterson's selection as Ganzs's successor was former Cleveland head coach Marty Schottenheimer, who was named the seventh head coach in Chiefs history on January 24th. The first draft choice of the Peterson era set the tone for the next decade as the club selected Hall of Fame LB Derrick Thomas (Alabama) with the fourth overall selection. Thomas paired with Smith to form one of the most feared pass-rushing duos in NFL history, compiling a combined 212.5 sacks during their illustrious Chiefs careers.

The Peterson-Schottenheimer era got off to an inauspicious start in a 34-20 loss at Denver (9/10) as DeBerg's first pass attempt was intercepted and returned for a TD. The club won just four times in its next 10 games as former Eagles QB Ron Jaworski and QB Steve Pelluer, who was acquired in a trade from Dallas, each opened three games apiece during that span. DeBerg regained the starting job for the final five weeks of the season, generating four wins that put the Chiefs just out of postseason qualification at 8-7-1. A 34-0 shutout win vs. Houston (11/26) highlighted the club's stretch run. RB Christian Okoye became the first Chief to lead the NFL in rushing with 1,480 yards, while Thomas won consensus NFL Rookie of the Year honors.

1990 — The foundation for the club's formidable offensive line of the '90s gathered two key ingredients when C Tim Grunhard (Notre Dame) and G Dave Scott (Penn State) were acquired in the draft. Construction began on the club's indoor practice facility at the Truman

CARL & MARTY

Carl Peterson and Marty Schottenheimer formed one of the most successful GM/Head Coach duos in all of professional sports from '89-98, registering a 101-58-1 (.634) regular season record over that span. The Chiefs registered seven postseason appearances over those 10 seasons, including a club-record six straight playoff berths from '90-95.

Sports Complex, giving the Chiefs an 80-yard indoor field and weight room facilities upon its completion. DT Buck Buchanan was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on August 4th. The Chiefs made their initial overseas appearance, losing a 19-3 American Bowl decision vs. the L.A. Rams at Olympic Stadium in Berlin, Germany (8/11). Schottenheimer's club got out of the starting gate quickly, winning three of their first four games. The club then struggled, splitting its next six contests.

Word

Free agent RB Barry Word produced a 200-yard rushing outburst in a 43-24 victory vs. Detroit (10/14), becoming the first player in team history to top the 200-yard plateau. Kansas City led the NFL with a franchise-record 60.0 sacks, including a team-record 20.0 by LB Derrick Thomas. Thomas established an NFL single-game record with 7.0 sacks in an inspiring Veterans Day performance vs. Seattle (11/11), a game the Seahawks miraculously won, 17-16, on a last-second, 25-yard TD pass to WR Paul Skansi by future Chiefs QB Dave Krieg. That loss brought on the furious stretch run which saw the club record victories in six of its last seven outings. Behind DeBerg's offensive leadership (23 TD passes with just four INTs) Kansas City finished the year with a franchise-best +26 turnover differential. The Chiefs clinched their first postseason berth since '86 with a 24-21 win at San Diego (12/23) and finished the year at 11-5, marking the franchise's best finish since '69.

1991 — The Chiefs suffered a heart-breaking, 17-16 loss at Miami (1/5) in an AFC Wild Card Game as K Nick Lowery's potential game-winning 52-yard FG fell short with 0:56 remaining. On July 27th, K Jan Stenerud became the first pure placekicker to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The Chiefs became members of Wisconsin's "Cheese League," moving their training camp to the University of Wisconsin - River Falls after spending the previous 28 summers at William Jewell College in Liberty, MO. The club's 14-3 win vs. Atlanta (9/1) on Opening Day initiated the 141-game sellout streak at Arrowhead that carried into the 2008 campaign. The Chiefs were featured on Monday Night Football three times, including a 33-6 victory over the defending AFC Champion Buffalo Bills before a raucous crowd at Arrowhead (10/7), marking the club's first home MNF contest in eight years. The club finished the regular season at 10-6, marking the first time since '68-69 that the franchise had qualified for the playoffs in consecutive seasons. A 27-21 victory at the L.A. Raiders (12/22) in the regular season finale gave the Chiefs the right to host the Silver and Black just six days later in the inaugural postseason game in Arrowhead's history. Thanks to six takeaways, the Chiefs registered their first postseason victory since Super Bowl IV with a 10-6 win in an AFC Wild Card Game vs. the L.A. Raiders (12/28).

1992 — The Chiefs lost a 37-14 decision at Buffalo (1/5) in an AFC Divisional Playoff matchup as the Bills dynamic offense proved to be too much for the Chiefs. A longtime nemesis with Seattle, "Plan B" free agent QB Dave Krieg was signed as the club's starter on March 19th. A melancholy off-season awaited the Chiefs, who mourned the passing of Player Personnel Director Whitey Dovell on May 11th and Hall of Fame DT Buck Buchanan on July 16th. Both Dovell and Buchanan lost courageous battles with cancer. Six-time Pro Bowl S Deron Cherry who originally joined the club as a free agent punter, announced his retirement in July after registering 50 interceptions in 11 seasons with the franchise. The Chiefs retired the jerseys of Buchanan (86), LB Willie Lanier (63) and K Jan Stenerud (3) in a ceremony prior to a preseason contest vs. Buffalo (8/24).

Dovell

First-round draft pick CB Dale Carter (Tennessee) won the Bert Bell Trophy as the NFL's Rookie of the Year. The very first time Carter touched the ball in an NFL contest, he registered a 46-yard punt return TD in a 24-10 win at San Diego (9/6). RB Christian Okoye surpassed RB Ed Podolak as the all-time leading rusher in team history vs. Seattle (9/13). Injuries eventually made the '92 campaign Okoye's last with the Chiefs after he compiled 4,897 rushing yards with the franchise. The club got off to a 3-1 start, but was faced with a 4-4 record at the season's midpoint. Despite four consecutive victories, the club's postseason hopes still came down to the season's final contest. Owning a 9-6 record and needing one more victory to secure a playoff berth, the Chiefs defense tallied three TDs, while Krieg tossed a pair of scoring passes as Kansas City claimed a 42-20 win vs. Denver (12/27) to finish the season with a 10-6 record.

1993 — The Chiefs made a quick exit from the playoffs as Krieg was sacked 7.0 times in a 17-0 AFC Wild Card loss at San Diego (1/2). The Chiefs spent the off-season installing the "West Coast" offense under the direction of new offensive coordinator Paul Hackett, who at one time served as QBs coach to Joe Montana in San Francisco. On April 20th, the Chiefs traded for Montana, who directed the 49ers to four Super Bowl victories. G Will Shields (Nebraska) was selected with the club's third-round draft choice, rounding out the "law firm" of Grunhard, Szott and Shields which anchored the interior of Chiefs offensive line for most of the decade. On June 9th the club signed another future Canton enshrinee, inking unrestricted free agent RB Marcus Allen, who had spent 11 seasons tormenting the Chiefs as a member of the Raiders. Montana and Allen made their debuts in a 27-3 win at Tampa Bay (9/5), marking Montana's first Opening Day appearance since '90. Shields initiated a franchise-record streak of 223 consecutive starts the following week at Houston (9/12). Thanks to a pair of Monday Night Football wins at Arrowhead, the club owned a 6-2 midseason mark. Before taking the field in a Sunday night contest at Minnesota (12/26), the team learned it had clinched its first AFC West title since '71 thanks to a Raiders loss earlier in the day. The team finished the season with an 11-5 regular season record, marking the club's fourth consecutive year with a double-digit victory tally. LB Derrick Thomas was named the NFL's Man of the Year following the season. Thomas, who founded "The Third and Long Foundation," received the honor in large part due to his efforts in promoting children's literacy.

1994 — Kansas City got its first true taste of "Montana Magic" as the Hall of Fame passer engineered a brilliant comeback in a 27-24 OT win in an AFC Wild Card thriller vs. Pittsburgh (1/8). Next up was a red-hot Oilers squad that had won 11 straight games to conclude the regular season. Heavily-favored Houston opened up a 13-7 lead in the fourth quarter, but once again, Montana had a comeback in mind, guiding the club to a 28-20 victory at Houston (1/16). The Chiefs playoff journey ended as the club made its initial AFC Championship Game appearance at Buffalo (1/23). Montana was knocked out of the contest early in the second half as Buffalo claimed its fourth straight AFC title by a score of 30-13.

While the previous off-season saw the Chiefs stockpile several key free agents, a number of familiar faces departed following the '93 season, most notably CBs Albert Lewis (Raiders) and Kevin Ross (Falcons), as well as K Nick Lowery (Jets). QB Steve Bono was acquired in a trade with San Francisco on May 2nd to serve as Montana's backup. The most dramatic change in Arrowhead's appearance occurred as a grass playing field was also installed, replacing the previous AstroTurf surface. The club made its second American Bowl appearance, meeting Minnesota in Tokyo, Japan (8/7).

The Chiefs home opener was one of the most-ballyhooed regular season contests in team history as Montana made his only career appearance vs. San Francisco (9/11). The Chiefs prevailed over the 49ers and Montana's replacement, QB Steve Young, by a 24-17 count before a crowd of 79,907, the second-largest "in-house" attendance in Arrowhead history. After starting the season 3-0, the Chiefs dropped back-to-back games before snapping an 11-game losing streak at Denver's Mile High Stadium (10/17) in a memorable Monday night contest. Montana orchestrated a masterful comeback, connecting with WR Willie Davis for a five-yard TD with 0:08 remaining to give the Chiefs a 31-28 triumph. A late-season, three-game losing skid put the club's playoff hopes in jeopardy. The Chiefs found themselves at 8-7 faced with a do-or-die regular season finale vs. the L.A. Raiders (12/24) in the final NFL contest ever played at the L.A. Coliseum. Allen had his finest game in a Chiefs uniform, rushing 33 times for 132 yards en route to a 19-9 win. At 9-7, Kansas City qualified for the playoffs for a fifth straight season. However, the Chiefs made a rapid departure from the playoffs in Montana's final professional contest at Miami (12/31). Montana and Dolphins QB Dan Marino conducted a masterful first-half duel that ended deadlocked at 17-17, but Miami eventually prevailed by a 27-17 count.

1995 — Montana announced his retirement from football after 16 years in the NFL on April 18th and Bono was promoted to the starting job. Immediately, so-called media experts predicted much gloom and doom for the '95 Chiefs, leading Schottenheimer to quip during training camp that his club had been picked "sixth in a five-team division." Led by Bono, who merited a Pro Bowl berth, Kansas City posted an NFL-best 13-3 record with unblemished 8-0 marks in the AFC West and at Arrowhead. The Chiefs led the NFL in rushing offense (138.9 ypg), scoring defense (15.1 ppg) and turnover ratio (+12). A 24-3 win at Arizona (10/1) featured a surreal, 76-yard TD run on a bootleg by Bono as the Chiefs initiated a seven-game winning streak, the franchise's longest since '69. In a Monday Night Football classic vs. San Diego (10/9), WR Tamarick Vanover returned a punt for an 86-yard TD to provide the winning points in a 29-23 victory, the team's third straight home win in overtime. The club's defense began to flex its muscle, beginning with a 21-7 win at Denver (10/22). The contest, played in a Rocky Mountain snowstorm, featured the 100th rushing TD of Marcus Allen's career. The Chiefs won a home game for the third time on a last-second return score that concluded in Arrowhead's West end zone when CB Mark Collins scooped up a fumble for a 20-13 win vs. Houston (11/19). Kansas City clinched a division title with a 29-23 victory at Oakland (12/3) en route to a 13-3 regular season record and a team-record sixth consecutive postseason berth. The Chiefs were represented by seven players in the Pro Bowl, more than any other AFC team.

1996 — The Chiefs dropped an AFC Divisional Playoff Game vs. Indianapolis (1/7) on a blustery afternoon with the temperature at

HALLELUJAH CORNER

The term "Hallelujah Corner" was coined in '95 after Kansas City won three separate contests via return scores culminating in Arrowhead's West end zone. The first of those hallowed victories was a 23-17 OT decision vs. Oakland (9/17) that culminated when CB James Hasty returned an interception for a 64-yard TD, prompting head coach Marty Schottenheimer to plant a celebratory postgame kiss on the cornerback.

11 degrees and a wind chill of -9. Three INTs and a trio of missed FGs contributed to the 10-7 loss at Arrowhead. The Chiefs entered the '96 campaign with essentially the same lineup as the club boasted in '95 and were featured on the cover of Sports Illustrated along with Green Bay as preseason Super Bowl favorites. Kansas City made its third American Bowl appearance, this time vs. Dallas in Monterrey, Mexico (8/5). The club started the season with a 4-0 record for the first time in team history, but the season's lofty expectations came crashing down as the squad lost three of its next four games. A three-game winning streak, including a victory over the eventual Super Bowl champion Green Bay Packers, put the club back in postseason contention at 8-3.

That rosy picture quickly crumbled in a 28-14 loss vs. San Diego (11/24) as Bono was relieved in the second half by QB Rich Gannon. Gannon assumed the starting reins for a 28-24 win in a Thanksgiving Day game at Detroit (11/28) as Allen registered his 111th career rushing TD to surpass Walter Payton as the NFL's all-time leader in that department, a mark that was later broken by Emmitt Smith.

Needing just one more win to qualify for the playoffs, the Chiefs dropped their next two games as an injury-hampered Gannon was sidelined for good in the second quarter of a 24-19 loss vs. Indianapolis (12/15). Faced with a must-win situation in a frigid regular season finale at Buffalo (12/22), the club's postseason hopes hinged on Bono. Despite a 20-9 loss to the Bills, the Chiefs still had a shot to slip into the playoffs if Atlanta could secure a win at Jacksonville. However, Atlanta K Morten Andersen's 30-yard FG attempt went wide left with 0:04 remaining, preserving a 19-17 win and the AFC's final Wild Card spot for the Jaguars, who won a tiebreaker with Kansas City. The Chiefs finished with a 9-7 record, missing the postseason for the first time since '89.

1997 — Kansas City dramatically retooled its roster in '97, beginning with free agent QB Elvis Grbac, who signed with the club on March 17th. In addition to Grbac, the Chiefs lineup featured 11 new starters, including WR Andre Rison, who won team MVP honors after becoming the club's first Pro Bowl receiver in a decade. On defense, the club's top four picks from the '96 Draft, S Jerome Woods, S Reggie Tongue, DE John Browning and LB Donnie Edwards, all emerged as starters. T John Alt announced his retirement at training camp in River Falls, WI on July 21st. All the new faces quickly formed a cohesive unit as the Chiefs posted a 13-3 record, an 8-0 Arrowhead mark and their second AFC West title in three years. The club engineered several dramatic finishes, the first of which came in a Monday Night Football thriller at Oakland (9/8) when Grbac connected with Rison on an improbable 32-yard TD pass with just 0:03 remaining to cap a 28-27 win. Six days later, Kansas City's defense produced a remarkable goal-line stand to preserve a 22-16 victory at Arrowhead vs. Buffalo (9/14).

Stoyanovich

After posting a 6-2 record during the season's first half, Kansas City's good fortune appeared to run out vs. Pittsburgh (11/3) when Grbac suffered a broken clavicle. However, Gannon led the team to a 5-1 mark in their next six outings.

K Pete Stoyanovich provided one of the year's most memorable moments, connecting on a line-drive 54-yard FG as time expired to give Kansas City a 24-22 win vs. Denver (11/16). San Francisco entered Arrowhead boasting an 11-game winning streak and departed after suffering a 44-9 defeat (11/30), while the Chiefs vaunted defensive unit pitched a 30-0 shutout vs. Oakland (12/7). The Chiefs led the NFL in scoring defense, allowing a mere 14.5 points per game. The 232 total points permitted by the Chiefs in '97 were the lowest tally ever allowed in a 16-game season in team history. Kansas City also broke a 63-year-old mark owned by the '34 Detroit Lions by not permitting a second-half TD in 10 consecutive games. Grbac returned for the regular season finale vs. New Orleans (12/21) as the squad finished the year with six consecutive victories, a first in team history.

1998 — The two teams with the AFC's top records squared off when Denver (12-4) visited Kansas City (13-3) for an AFC Divisional Playoff Game (1/4). Grbac started the contest for Kansas City and despite holding an edge in total yardage, the Chiefs could not convert on several key scoring opportunities, dropping a 14-10 decision to their division foe. On April 9th, RB Marcus Allen announced his retirement, concluding a brilliant 16-year NFL career. A whirlwind preseason saw the Chiefs play another American Bowl contest, this time vs. Green Bay in Tokyo, Japan (8/1), as well as a preseason game vs. Tampa Bay in Norman, Oklahoma (8/8).

A '98 campaign which began with much promise had its high hopes dashed as the Chiefs suffered several major injuries beginning in a season-opening victory vs. Oakland (9/6) that featured 6.0 sacks from LB Derrick Thomas. Grbac was lost for four games due to a shoulder injury, while All-Pro G Dave Szott's year came to an end with a biceps tear. In total, 11 different starters missed a total of 45 games due to injuries. Gannon led the team to a 4-1 start that included a water-logged, 17-6 Sunday night win vs. Seattle (10/4), a contest that was delayed for 54 minutes due to torrential rains. However, the club would never recover from an ensuing six-game losing streak, the longest of Schottenheimer's tenure. The low point of that stretch came in a penalty-marred 30-7 loss vs. Denver (11/16) on Monday Night Football. The club was hampered by crucial penalties throughout the season, setting dubious NFL records for penalties (158) and penalty yardage (1,304). Despite registering wins in three of the season's final five games, the club finished the year at 7-9, snapping a string of nine consecutive winning seasons.

GUN'S RUN & A FALLEN HERO

1999 — On January 11th, head coach Marty Schottenheimer announced his retirement after 10 seasons. His 101-58-1 (.634) record gave him the best winning percentage of any coach in franchise history. During his tenure, the Chiefs captured three AFC West titles and qualified for the playoffs seven times. Schottenheimer also produced a remarkable 18-3 (.857) record against the Raiders. Gunther Cunningham was appointed the eighth head coach in franchise history on January 22nd. During his four seasons ('95-98) as the Chiefs defensive coordinator, Kansas City's defense allowed a league-low 16.4 points per game. Cunningham produced a 9-7 record, the best record of any rookie head coach in franchise history and the best mark of any first-year head coach in '99. The club became the sixth team in NFL history to record 100 regular season wins in a decade with a 16-10 triumph at Denver (12/5). Only Buffalo (103-57) finished the decade with a better record than Kansas City's 102-58 mark. Under Cunningham, Kansas City led the NFL with a +21 turnover ratio and won the NFL's turnover triple crown in the '90s with a remarkable +128 turnover ratio, a league-high 365 takeaways and an NFL-low 237 giveaways. The Chiefs also recorded 11 return TDs on the season, including a franchise-best nine on defense. The Chiefs ran the ball more times (521) than any other team in the league and ranked fourth in the NFL in rushing (130.1 ypg). After a three-game midseason losing streak put the club at 5-5 and on the brink of playoff elimination, the team rallied for a four-game winning string, setting up a make-or-break game in the regular season finale vs. Oakland.

DERRICK VINCENT THOMAS (1967-2000)

On January 23, 2000 nine-time Pro Bowl LB Derrick Thomas was seriously injured in a one-vehicle accident just east of the Kansas City International Airport on I-435. Ten other individuals were killed in a separate, 24-vehicle accident that same day just north of KCI on I-29. Thomas was moved to Jackson Memorial Hospital in his hometown of Miami the following day. Although confined to a wheelchair, Thomas had made substantial progress and was in good spirits when he was visited by Chiefs President Carl Peterson in Miami on February 7th. The next day, Thomas' condition took a shocking turn and at 10:10 AM (ET) on February 8th, he was pronounced dead after suffering cardiac arrest. February 11th was declared "Derrick Thomas Red Friday" in Kansas City and on February 14th nearly 23,000 mourners paid their final respects to their fallen hero at Arrowhead Stadium, where Thomas' body lay in state and a B-2 Stealth bomber from Whiteman Air Force Base flew over at 12:01 PM. On February 15th at Kemper Arena, over 6,000 individuals attended a public memorial service for Thomas. On February 19th, Derrick Vincent Thomas was buried in Miami following a memorial service at the Mt. Calvary Church. On March 4th, Peterson announced at the annual 101 Banquet that at the suggestion of Clark Hunt, the Chiefs Most Valuable Player Award would hence be known as the Derrick Thomas Award. Thomas was honored prior to the club's 2000 season opener vs. Indianapolis (9/3). A member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame's Class of 2009, Thomas also had his #58 officially retired by the Chiefs in 2009.

2000 — The Chiefs needed a win vs. Oakland at Arrowhead (1/2) in the regular season finale to seal the AFC West title, while a loss would mean postseason elimination. Kansas City leapt out to a 17-0 lead, but a blocked punt turned the momentum in the game which was eventually won by Oakland 41-38 in OT. That loss provided an ominous start to a year which turned tragic on January 23rd when nine-time Pro Bowl LB Derrick Thomas was seriously injured in an auto accident.

Despite an 0-2 start, Kansas City bounced back to win its next three contests. Despite trailing 22-14 midway through the fourth quarter, Cunningham's squad rallied for a 23-22 victory at Denver (9/24), giving the Chiefs a win in their final visit to Mile High Stadium. The Chiefs faced Seattle (10/2) in a Monday Night Football contest which was simulcast to 4,391 fans in Kauffman Stadium. The 82,893 fans assembled at Arrowhead and Kauffman Stadiums marked the largest on-site attendance figure in team history. The 24-17 win against the Seahawks marked Kansas City's third victory in a row.

The club's early-season success was also highlighted by a 54-34 win over the defending Super Bowl champion St. Louis (10/22), a contest which featured the most points ever scored at Arrowhead. Combined with a 24-19 victory at Seattle (10/29) in a game played at Husky Stadium, the Chiefs record stood at 5-3 at the season's midway point.

However, a stretch of five road games over a six-week span took its toll on the club as the Chiefs dropped five straight contests to fall out of playoff contention, finishing the year at 7-9.

THE VERMEIL YEARS

2001 — After compiling a 16-16 record in two seasons, Cunningham was relieved of his duties on January 5th. Dick Vermeil, who guided St. Louis to a win in Super Bowl XXXIV following the '99 season, was named the ninth head coach in franchise history on January 12th. On April 20th, the club acquired QB Trent Green in a trade with St. Louis and also signed unrestricted free agent RB Priest Holmes.

The initial regular season victory of the Vermeil era came in convincing fashion at Washington (9/30) when the Chiefs defeated their former head coach Marty Schottenheimer and the Redskins by a 45-13 margin. Although the club finished its initial campaign under Vermeil at 6-10, the team began to take shape down the stretch, winning three of its final four games. Holmes provided a spark to the offense, becoming just the second player in franchise history to lead the NFL in rushing, amassing 1,555 yards to break Christian Okoye's previous single-season record of 1,480.

2002 — The club initiated a season-long series to commemorate the franchise's 40th Anniversary Season in Kansas City in 2002. On April 15th, the Chiefs Honor Grove of over 40 stately Giant Redwoods was established in the Southeast corner of the Truman Sports Complex to epitomize the deep and lasting roots the organization has developed in Mid-America. Hunt's inspiration for the honor grove was a quote from Vikings QB Joe Kapp, who was knocked out of Super Bowl IV. "The Chiefs defensive line was very active and looked like a Redwood Forest," Kapp said after the game. On April 25th, members of the Chiefs coaches, players, staff and cheerleaders visited numerous locations throughout the greater Kansas City community, thanking them for their support of the franchise.

SEPTEMBER 11TH

On September 11, 2001 Americans watched with horror as terrorist attacks shocked the nation. Commissioner Paul Tagliabue suspended play for the weekend of September 16th. The Chiefs game at Seattle scheduled for that date was postponed until January 6th. The NFL made a patriotic return in Kansas City when the Chiefs hosted the N.Y. Giants (9/23). Tagliabue delivered a pregame address to the Arrowhead crowd, which greeted the Giants with a rousing ovation. Via a fireman's boot collection that was matched by the Chiefs and the Hunt family, a total donation of $451,413.88 was raised for relief efforts in New York City, an amount believed to be the largest single-day outpouring of spontaneous support by a group of fans and a pro sports team.

In a season filled with wild comebacks and fantastic finishes, the Chiefs pulled out a remarkable 40-39 Opening Day win at Cleveland (9/8). Starting with that contest, virtually every game was a nail-biter with all but one of the club's eight losses being decided by seven points or less. But despite leading the NFL in scoring for the first time in team history with 467 points and setting a franchise record with 6,000 yards of total offense, the club finished 8-8 to miss the postseason in Vermeil's second season. The team remained in playoff contention until the season's final game thanks to its explosive offense that broke nine team records. The Chiefs also set NFL records by fumbling just seven times and losing just two of those loose balls. Holmes continued the torrid pace he began in 2001, earning NFL Offensive Player of the Year honors from the AP and surpassing his own team record with 1,615 rushing yards. The club's special teams were bolstered by WR Dante Hall, who produced three kick returns for TDs and became the first Chiefs return man to earn a Pro Bowl berth since J.T. Smith following the '80 season.

2003 — Hank Stram and RB Marcus Allen were enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame on August 2nd. "Voice of the Chiefs" Mitch Holthus broadcast his 151st game as the club's play-by-play announcer at Houston (9/21), breaking Kevin Harlan's previous record (150). The Chiefs started the regular season with a 9-0 record for the first time in team history, becoming just the ninth team since the AFL-NFL merger to accomplish that feat. That hot start to the season was sparked by Hall, who tied an NFL single-season record by registering four kick return TDs over that span. Hall also became the first player in league annals to accomplish that feat in four consecutive games. The Chiefs overcame a 17-point fourth-quarter deficit for the first time in team history, pulling out an improbable 40-34 OT win at Green Bay (10/12). Kansas City's winning streak came to an end in a 24-19 loss at Cincinnati (11/16).

The Chiefs clinched their first AFC West title since '97 with a 45-17 win vs. Detroit (12/14) as QB Trent Green became the first player in team history to register a "perfect" 158.3 passer rating in a game. Kansas City concluded its 13-3 regular season with a 31-3 victory vs. Chicago (12/28), marking a perfect 8-0 record at home and the club's 13th consecutive regular season victory at Arrowhead Stadium. In that win, Holmes set a trio of TD records. He finished the season with 27 rushing scores, establishing NFL single-season records for both rushing TDs and total TDs. Holmes (61) also bypassed WR Otis Taylor

Holmes and Shields

(60) for the most career TDs scored by a player in Chiefs history. The Chiefs five-game improvement in the win column from the previous season tied as the best mark in franchise history. Kansas City became the first AFC team to lead the NFL in scoring in consecutive seasons since San Diego in '81-82 as the club produced a franchise-best 484 points. The team also led the NFL with a +19 turnover differential. Nine Chiefs players received Pro Bowl recognition, the third-highest total in team history, while the club's six offensive Pro Bowlers marked the most in club annals.

2004 — The Chiefs hosted an AFC Divisional Playoff Game vs. Indianapolis (1/11) in which neither team was forced to punt. Sensational performances by Holmes (176 rushing yards, two TDs) and Hall (208 kickoff return yards, 1 TD) weren't enough as the Colts recorded a 38-31 victory. Defensive coordinator Greg Robinson resigned on January 13th. Vermeil agreed to a two-year contract extension on January 16th. On January 20th, Vermeil hired Gunther Cunningham, who returned to Kansas City as the club's defensive coordinator. On January 30th, G Will Shields was named the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year.

The Chiefs got into the victory column with a 27-24 win on Monday Night Football at Baltimore (10/4) after an 0-3 start quickly dampened the club's high expectations. Kansas City's offensive line emerged as one of the NFL's finest units, producing a trio of Pro Bowl performers in Shields, T Willie Roaf and G Brian Waters. Thanks to that offensive front, the Chiefs registered an NFL-record eight rushing TDs in a 56-10 win vs. Atlanta (10/24). The following week Kansas City continued its offensive onslaught with a convincing 45-35 victory vs. Indianapolis (10/31), snapping a seven-game losing streak to the Colts. After surpassing RB Christian Okoye as the all-time leading rusher in franchise history vs. Houston (9/26), Holmes' year came to an abrupt halt when he suffered a season-ending knee injury at Tampa Bay (11/7).

A four-game winning streak in December included a wild 49-38 Monday Night Football road triumph at Tennessee (12/13). That late-season surge was sparked by second-year RB Larry Johnson who accounted for 11 TDs and produced three straight 100-yard rushing efforts in the season's final six contests. Offensively, the Chiefs established a league record with 398 first downs. Kansas City also led the NFL in total offense for the first time in franchise history, averaging 418.4 yards per game. That offense was triggered by Green, who set single-season team marks for passing yards (4,591) and 300-yard games (8). The Chiefs were also the first team in NFL history to have three different RBs boast a 150-yard rushing game in the same season — Holmes, Johnson and Derrick Blaylock. Defensively, fourth-round draft choice DE Jared Allen provided a bright spot with 9.0 sacks, the second-highest total by a rookie in team history.

2005 — TE Tony Gonzalez earned his sixth consecutive Pro Bowl berth and finished the season with a flourish, setting a single-game franchise record with a 14-catch performance in the regular season finale at San Diego

(1/2). Gonzalez led the league in receptions (102), the highest total ever amassed by a member of the Chiefs. Despite Gonzalez's record-setting performance, a 24-17 loss to the Chargers brought a disappointing 7-9 campaign to a close.

A daunting early-season 2005 schedule featured a pair of prime-time road contests in the season's first four weeks. Kansas City finished that stretch at 2-2 after claiming a 27-7 home win vs. the N.Y. Jets (9/11) and winning a 23-17 decision at Oakland (9/18). However, the club would suffer a 30-10 loss at Denver (10/26) and was handed a 37-31 loss vs. Philadelphia (10/2) as the Eagles erased an 18-point Chiefs lead.

Hurricane Wilma forced the Chiefs to play their first regular season Friday night game since '64 as a game originally slated for October 23rd was hastily rescheduled. Kansas City actually flew to Miami on the day of the game and defeated the Dolphins by a 30-20 margin. Two weeks later, trailing by three points with only five seconds left and the ball on the one-yard line, head coach Dick Vermeil eschewed a potential game-tying FG attempt and went for broke, putting the game in the hands of RB Larry Johnson vs. Oakland (11/6). Johnson burst into the end zone to give the Chiefs a memorable 27-23 win as Kansas City's record stood at 5-3 at the season's midway point.

The Raiders contest marked the initial start of the season for Johnson, who opened the final nine games of the year in place of RB Priest Holmes, who was lost for the year following a head/neck injury at San Diego (10/30). Johnson topped the 100-yard barrier in the season's final nine contests and finished the season with 1,750 rushing yards, a franchise record at the time.

Shields continued his assault on the record book, as well. The club's contest at Buffalo (11/13) marked the 200th consecutive start of Shields' career, making him just the fourth player since the AFL-NFL merger to accomplish such a feat. In addition to pushing his string of consecutive starts to 207 games by season's end, he was also rewarded with his 11th consecutive Pro Bowl berth, extending another franchise record.

Johnson

A three-game late-season winning streak boosted the club's postseason hopes, beginning with a 45-17 win at Houston (11/20). Johnson established a franchise record of his own with 211 rushing yards against the Texans en route to earning his initial Pro Bowl berth. Kansas City then registered convincing home victories against a pair of playoff-bound teams with wins vs. New England (11/27) vs. Denver (12/4), putting the club at 8-4 with four games remaining. However, a pair of road losses put the club's postseason hopes in peril. A 20-7 win in a Christmas Eve quagmire vs. San Diego (12/24) meant the club would need a win in its regular season finale and some help in order to qualify for the AFC playoff field.

A FAREWELL TO THE FOUNDER

2006 — After registering a convincing 37-3 win vs. Cincinnati in the club's first-ever regular season New Year's Day contest, the winds of change blew into Kansas City. Head coach Dick Vermeil publicly announced his retirement following the win over the Bengals, ending season-long speculation about his future. Kansas City finished the season at 10-6, becoming just fourth team since '90 to miss the postseason with a double-digit victory total.

Vermeil conducted a final farewell press conference on January 3rd. He concluded his five-year run as Kansas City's head coach with a 44-36 (.550) record, giving him the third-highest victory tally in team history. Under his guidance, the Chiefs established 34 single-season team records and 14 single-game team records, leading the NFL in total offense by averaging 380.9 yards per game from 2001-05.

On January 9th, Herm Edwards was appointed the 10th head coach in franchise history. Edwards returned to Kansas City after serving as both a scout and an assistant coach with the Chiefs during the '90s. He rejoined the Chiefs organization after a five-year stint as head coach of the N.Y. Jets, leading that franchise to five postseason game appearances. He initially left the Chiefs to serve with former Kansas City assistant coach Tony Dungy in Tampa Bay, where that duo helped restore the Buccaneers franchise to NFL prominence.

Edwards

On January 24th, the Chiefs and Royals both signed 25-year leases with Jackson County officials to keep both clubs at the Truman Sports Complex. On April 4th, Jackson County voters approved a 3/8 cent tax measure that was anticipated to raise $425 million in improvements to the Sports Complex, including $325 for Arrowhead. Those renovation plans also included a new practice facility and office complex for the Chiefs, thanks to contributions from the Hunt Family.

The Edwards era got off to an inauspicious start on Opening Day vs. Cincinnati (9/10). QB Trent Green suffered a severe head trauma in the third quarter when he scrambled and went into a hook slide. Bengals DE Robert Geathers delivered a blow to the Chiefs signal caller, whose head violently bounced off the turf. Green lay motionless on the field for several minutes before he was taken to a local hospital. The Chiefs would lose the contest by a 23-10 count.

For the first time since 2000, a quarterback other than Green started a contest for Kansas City as backup QB Damon Huard served as field general the following week at Denver (9/17). Kansas City would drop a tough 9-6 OT decision to the Broncos as the club fell to 0-2.

After an early bye week, Kansas City got its initial victory of the Edwards era in convincing fashion with a 41-0 win at Arrowhead vs. San Francisco (10/1). Huard guided the club to a 23-20 comeback win the following week at Arizona (10/8), but a 45-7 drubbing at Pittsburgh (10/15) left the club's record at 2-3 entering a pivotal two-game homestand.

K Lawrence Tynes drilled a game-winning 53-yard FG to give Kansas City a 30-27 victory vs. San Diego (10/22). That triumph sparked a three-game winning streak to put the club's record at 5-3 at the season's halfway point.

Huard compiled a 5-3 record as a starter in Green's absence, throwing 10 TDs and just one INT over that eight-game span. After several weeks of practice and countless medical tests, Green finally made his return to the lineup in a 17-13 home win vs. Oakland (11/19) in what would be the final game witnessed in person by Founder Lamar Hunt, who was admitted to Presbyterian Hospital in Dallas on November 22nd.

Hunt had long lobbied the NFL for a third game on Thanksgiving and those persistent efforts were rewarded as the fifth-largest paid crowd in Arrowhead history (79,484) packed the stadium for a holiday spectacle. Kansas City won its second contest at Arrowhead in five days as the Chiefs defense turned in a masterful performance in a 19-10 primetime win vs. Denver (11/23), a contest that also marked the initial live game telecast by the NFL Network.

Owning a 7-4 record, Kansas City appeared poised to make a serious run at the postseason, but a three-game losing streak that began with an unlikely 31-28 OT loss at Cleveland (12/3) put those hopes in serious jeopardy. The month of December proved particularly gloomy for the Chiefs as the health of the franchise's patriarch steadily declined.

After originally being diagnosed with prostrate cancer in '98, Hunt quietly and bravely underwent many treatments and surgeries in the ensuing years without complaint. On December 13th, he peacefully passed away in Dallas, surrounded by his family. Memorial services celebrating the life of Hunt were conducted on the SMU campus in Dallas on December 16th and at the Community of Christ Auditorium in Independence, Missouri on December 19th.

A mourning team would return to the field the following Sunday and capture a 20-9 win at Oakland (12/23) to keep the Chiefs playoff hopes afloat entering the regular season finale vs. Jacksonville (12/31). The Chiefs prevailed by a 35-30 count against the Jaguars as RB Larry Johnson established an NFL record with 416 rushing attempts on the season and broke his own franchise single-season record with 1,789 rushing yards. After Cincinnati and Tennessee lost earlier in the day, the Chiefs officially got their ticket to the postseason punched when San Francisco won an unlikely 26-23 OT decision at Denver (12/31).

2007 — The Chiefs made their first postseason appearance on the road since '94 in an AFC Wild Card Game at Indianapolis (1/6). Despite enjoying the support of a throng of Kansas City fans who made the trek to the RCA Dome and a valiant first-half performance from the Chiefs defense, Kansas City lost a 23-8 decision.

An artist's rendering for the club's new office complex and practice facility was unveiled in March, while design work and plans for Arrowhead's rehabilitation continued. On June 2nd, the club announced that it was partnering with HBO Sports and NFL Films to produce Hard Knocks:

REMEMBERING OUR FOUNDER

On December 19, 2006 over 2,500 individuals gathered at the Community of Christ Auditorium in Independence, Missouri to pay their final respects to Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt. Pastor Paul Brooks presided over a two-hour service that was attended by the entire Chiefs team and administrative staff, as well as countless dignitaries and fans. Three of the Hunt children — Clark (above), Daniel and Sharron Munson — shared remembrances of their father, while Lamar Hunt, Jr. paid a special musical tribute to the patriarch of the Chiefs family. Other eulogists included Carl Peterson, Rev. Emanuel Cleaver, Len Dawson, Bobby Bell, Willie Lanier, Trent Green and head coach Herm Edwards. Four former Chiefs head coaches were also in attendance — Dick Vermeil, Gunther Cunningham, Marty Schottenheimer and Paul Wiggins. A moving video tribute celebrating Hunt's vibrant life was also shown during the ceremony.

Training Camp with the Kansas City Chiefs - a five-hour documentary series. On June 6th, QB Trent Green was traded to Miami, ending months of speculation about his future. Green concluded his successful six-year run with the franchise owning a team-record 87.3 passer rating.

The summer months were highlighted by a pair of groundbreaking ceremonies at the Truman Sports Complex. A private, staff-only groundbreaking session for the Chiefs new office and practice headquarters was conducted by Clark Hunt on July 25th. In addition, the Hunt Family, Chiefs officials, Senator Kit Bond, Jackson County Executive Mike Sanders and other county legislators participated in a groundbreaking ceremony for the "New Arrowhead" on August 22nd.

On the field, Kansas City overcame an 0-2 start to register a 4-3 record at the bye week, securing sole possession of first place in the AFC West standings. That early-season turnaround was highlighted by a 30-16 comeback win at San Diego (9/30) that served as coming out party for WR Dwayne Bowe who set a Chiefs single-game rookie record with 164 receiving yards, including a 51-yard TD catch. Bowe would shatter the franchise's single-season rookie receiving records with 70 catches for 995 yards, figures that led all NFL rookies. Meanwhile, TE Tony Gonzalez became the NFL's all-time TD catch leader among tight ends in a 27-20 win vs. Cincinnati (10/14).

However, Kansas City could not maintain any of that positive momentum after the bye week. The downward spiral began when RB Larry Johnson suffered a season-ending right foot injury in a 33-22 loss vs. Green Bay (11/4). That setback began a nine-game losing streak to conclude the regular season. Second-year QB Brodie Croyle supplanted QB Damon Huard in the second half the following week vs. Denver (11/11).

Croyle enjoyed a solid debut in his initial NFL start in the club's next contest at Indianapolis (11/18). That game that would mark the final chapter in the illustrious career of RB Priest Holmes, who announced his retirement on November 21st. The all-time leading rusher in franchise history with 6,070 yards made a remarkable comeback after missing almost a season-and-a-half of action. He returned to play four games in 2007, including two starts, before eventually hanging up his cleats for good.

Despite the mounting losses, the defense continued its improvement. Kansas City led the NFL in third-down defense (31.3%), while ranking second in both Red Zone defense (37.2 TD %) and defensive TD efficiency (14.5%) by allowing just 28 offensive TDs on 193 opponent drives. DE Jared Allen led the league with 15.5 sacks and became the club's first Pro Bowl defensive end since '95.

After suffering a thumb injury at Detroit (12/23), Croyle returned for the season finale at the N.Y. Jets (12/30) as Kansas City suffered a 13-10 OT setback. Gonzalez recorded his 820th career reception in the game, the most catches of any tight end in NFL history. Gonzalez earned his ninth straight Pro Bowl berth and finished the year with 1,172 receiving yards.

2008 — Head coach Herm Edwards named Chan Gailey his offensive coordinator on January 16th. CB Emmitt Thomas was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame on February 2nd and was officially enshrined in Canton on August 3rd.

Kansas City and Minnesota orchestrated a major trade on April 23rd as the Chiefs sent Pro Bowl DE Jared Allen and a sixth-round pick to the Vikings. In exchange, Kansas City received a first-round selection, two third-round picks and a sixth-round selection. Upon the team's return from training camp in August, the club's football operations moved into the organization's new practice facility. The rest of the franchise's administrative staff completed the move from Arrowhead by season's end.

On the field, the Chiefs owned the dubious distinction of becoming just the fourth team since the AFL-NFL merger to start three different quarterbacks in the season's first three weeks in a non-strike season. TE Tony Gonzalez surpassed TE Shannon Sharpe (10,060) for the most receiving yards by a tight end in NFL history at Carolina (10/5).

After QBs Brodie Croyle and Damon Huard both suffered season-ending injuries vs. Tennessee (10/19), the club eventually turned to QB Tyler Thigpen for good for the season's final nine games. The Coastal Carolina product showed flashes of promise and set a single-season franchise record for QBs with 386 rushing yards. Thigpen outplayed QB Brett Favre, but the Jets signal caller rallied his club as the Chiefs dropped a 28-24 decision at the N.Y. Jets (10/26).

That Jets contest marked the first in a series of excruciating losses. Kansas City squandered a 21-point lead in a 30-27 OT loss vs. Tampa Bay (11/2) and lost a 20-19 decision at San Diego (11/9) as a botched PAT and a failed two-point try doomed the club.

Thigpen's lone victory of the season was a 20-13 win at Oakland (11/30), but the losses continued to mount, including a second one-point setback vs. San Diego (12/14) as the Chargers overcame an 18-point deficit, scoring the game's final 19 points.

On December 15th, President/General Manager and CEO Carl Peterson announced his resignation, effective at the end of the season. The Chiefs dropped a 38-31 decision vs. Miami (12/21). Based on wind chill of -12 at kickoff, it was second-coldest contest in Arrowhead history. A four-game losing streak to end the season closed out with a 16-6 loss at Cincinnati (12/28) as the Chiefs finished the year at 2-14.

A NEW ERA AT ARROWHEAD

2009 — Peterson officially concluded his 20-year tenure with the franchise on January 6th with a farewell press conference. Under Peterson's tenure, Kansas City amassed a 176-143-1 (.552) regular season record, made nine playoff appearances, won the AFC West four times and reached the AFC Championship Game in '93.

On January 13th, longtime New England Patriots executive Scott Pioli was named by Chairman of the Board Clark Hunt as the fifth General Manager in franchise history. During his tenure in New England, the Patriots won Super Bowls XXXVI, XXXVIII and XXXIX, claimed the Lamar Hunt Trophy four times as the AFC Champion and won six AFC East titles. During Pioli's tenure from 2000-08, the Patriots compiled an NFL-best 102-42 (.708) regular season record.

On January 13th, Herm Edwards was relieved of his duties as head coach. He produced a 15-33 regular season record in three seasons guiding the franchise. The late LB Derrick Thomas was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame's Class of 2009 on January 31st. Thomas became the 10th member of the Chiefs to be enshrined in Canton. He joined LBs Bobby Bell (Class of '82) and Willie Lanier (Class of '86) as the third linebacker in that esteemed group.

Hunt, Haley and Pioli

Hunt and Pioli introduced former Arizona Cardinals offensive coordinator Todd Haley as the 11th head coach in franchise history on February 6th. He helped the Cardinals reach Super Bowl XLIII, marking the franchise's first NFL title game since '47. The son of longtime NFL personnel executive Dick Haley, the younger Haley oversaw an Arizona offense that registered a franchise-record 427 points in 2008. The Cardinals ranked fourth in the NFL total offense, averaging 365.8 yards per game. The first major move of the Chiefs new leadership team came on February 28th when the club acquired QB Matt Cassel and LB Mike Vrabel in a trade with New England.

The club unveiled its 50th anniversary logo on April 14th as the team began a year-long commemoration of the franchise's 50th season, as well as the 50th anniversary of the creation of the American Football League by Lamar Hunt. On April 23rd, the Chiefs traded 10-time Pro Bowl TE Tony Gonzalez to Atlanta. Gonzalez finished his Chiefs career with the most receptions (916), receiving yards (10,940) and TD catches (76) in franchise history. On May 8th, Hunt named Denny Thum as the fourth President of the Chiefs. Thum is just three employees in team history to serve with the team during the tenure of every head coach in franchise history.

CHIEFS UNIFORM HISTORY

1959 — At one of the initial organizational meetings of the American Football League in late '59 — before the teams even had any players or coaches — the AFL owners choose their team colors. Lamar Hunt desires Columbia Blue and Orange for his Dallas Texans franchise. But before Hunt or any other owner can make a selection, Houston's Bud Adams claims Columbia Blue for his Oilers franchise. Hunt reverts to Red and Gold for the Texans, which remains the primary color scheme for the Chiefs to this day.

Lamar Hunt greets Bud Adams — sporting a "Columbia Blue" blazer — prior to the '62 AFL Championship Game. Hunt would lose the battle for "Columbia Blue," but his Texans would beat the Oilers in double OT for the '62 AFL title.

1960-62 — The Texans take the field for the AFL's inaugural season in '60 sporting red helmets with gray facemasks. The helmet features the state of Texas in white with a gold star situated on Dallas. Home jerseys are solid red featuring white numerals, white "TV" numerals on the sleeves and white lettering, all trimmed in gold. Road jerseys are white with red numerals, red "TV" numerals on the sleeves and red lettering, all of which are bordered by thin gold trim. Both jerseys are a cloth design, featuring three-quarter sleeves with stitched "tackle twill" numerals and letters. The team wears white pants featuring vertical stripes of red, gold and red. Socks are red on top, white on the bottom with alternating stripes at the calf of white, red, gold, red and white. Although several minor changes are made to the stripe width over the years, the primary sock design remains relatively consistent to the present day.

Texans Helmet

1963-67 — The Texans move to Kansas City in '63. Hunt and head coach Hank Stram initially plan on calling the relocated team the "Kansas City Texans." However, general manager Jack Steadman wisely convinces the duo to change the franchise's nickname to "Chiefs." The club's uniform remains virtually unchanged, with the exception of the helmet logo. The state of Texas is replaced on the headgear by a design originally sketched by Hunt on a napkin. Hunt's inspiration for the interlocking "KC" design was the "SF" inside of an oval on San Francisco's helmets. Kansas City's overlapping initials appear inside a white arrowhead instead of an oval and are surrounded by a thin black outline. The result is one of the most distinctive helmets in all of football.

1968 — The most dramatic changes to the Chiefs uniform come in '68. Head coach Hank Stram prefers more red in the club's road attire and orders red pants to go with the team's white road jerseys. Stram asserts that the red pants will match the red numerals on the white road jerseys. While Stram's fashion sense is never in question, some in the organization theorize that the superstitious Stram really wants to part ways the white pants because the club lost Super Bowl I while wearing them. No matter the logic, the white pants are not seen again during the Stram era. The club's new red pants feature alternating vertical stripes of white, red, gold, red and white and are paired with predominantly white socks that feature striping of red, gold and red at the calf. Alterations are also made to the club's jerseys at this time. Sleeves are shortened from three-quarter length to their present-day short-sleeve status. Stripes are also introduced on the bottom of the sleeves, where they still reside. Red jerseys feature white, gold and white stripes on the sleeves, while the club's white jerseys receive red, gold and red stripes.

Texans DT Jerry Mays (75) and QB Len Dawson (16) pose along with head coach Hank Stram in '65 sporting the home jerseys the club wore from '60-67. Note the rolled-up sleeves and the barely visible gold trim.

1969 — Following a victory in the AFL Championship Game, Stram orders new red jerseys to be worn in Super Bowl IV and they are delivered just days before the game. Stram also directs equipment manager Bobby Yarborough to have all the helmets repainted before the Super Bowl, but relents after players insist on wearing their "battle-scarred" headgear. The "AFL-10" patch worn on the left shoulder of Kansas City's jerseys in Super Bowl IV is the collaborative effort of AFL President Milt Woodard and longtime AFL fan Angelo Coniglio. During the entire '69 season, all NFL teams wear an "NFL-50" patch which commemorates the NFL's 50th Anniversary season. At the suggestion of Coniglio, Woodard counters by designing and implementing a patch of his own to celebrate the 10-year existence of the AFL, which is proudly worn by the Chiefs on behalf of the entire AFL in their 23-7 victory vs. Minnesota (1/11/70).

AFL-10 Patch

1970 — Following Super Bowl IV, the team's cloth jerseys dating back to the franchise's days in Dallas give way to a more breathable mesh fabric. Heat-transfer numerals and letters replace sewn-on "tackle twill" characters. The style of the numerals and letters changes slightly. The characters decrease in size, while the gold trim around both the numerals and letters expands to become more visible. Jersey numerals remain this size before eventually returning to larger proportions in the early '80s.

DT Buck Buchanan displays the club's road uniform of the '70s. Note the white facemask, red pants and heat-transfer numerals.

1974 — The club's facemask changes from gray to white. A change in manufacturers results in a slightly smaller arrowhead logo on the helmet with a thicker black border compared to the design of the '60s.

1979-80 — During the Marv Levy era, the club experiments with white jerseys and red pants at home. Several other NFL teams — most notably Dallas — had adopted the practice of wearing white at home. The fact that Lamar Hunt's hometown team had popularized the practice may have led the Chiefs Founder to depart from the club's traditional home uniform configuration. However, the trial is short-lived and by '81, the club reverts back to its traditional red jersey, white pants arrangement at Arrowhead.

QB Steve Fuller was part of a Chiefs squad that wore white jerseys at home for a brief stretch during the Marv Levy era.

Silver Anniversary Patch

1984 — The original eight American Football League teams all wear circular "Silver Anniversary" patches on the upper left chest of their jerseys commemorating the 25th anniversary of the AFL and their respective franchises. Kansas City's patch features the Chiefs helmet and the AFL logo.

1989 — The arrival of head coach Marty Schottenheimer signals the club's most dramatic uniform change in over 20 years. Schottenheimer asks and receives permission from Hunt to revert back to white pants on the road, a "white-on-white" look that had not been utilized by the Chiefs since '67. White belts also return to the club's pants after using red belts at various periods of the '70s and '80s. Kansas City reintroduces the white pants at Denver (9/10/89) and maintains this look on the road through the '99 season.

RB Marcus Allen in white-on-white.

1991 — A sticker bearing the American Flag adorns the back of all NFL helmets to honor troops fighting in the Gulf War. The NFL Shield becomes a standard part of all NFL uniforms, appearing on the back of helmets, on the "v" of jerseys and on the left hip of pants.

1992 — The club wears a black panel with the white initials "WWD" on the upper left chest of its jersey in memory

35th Anniversary Patch

1994 — Solid fabric jerseys complete with "tackle twill" numerals and letters return, taking the place of mesh jerseys and heat-transfer characters. All NFL teams wear "NFL Diamond Anniversary" patches on their left upper chest in honor of the league's 75th season. The Chiefs also wear a "35th Anniversary" patch on their right upper chest in celebration of the franchise's 35th season. The patch features the AFL, Texans and Chiefs logos. It marks the only time in team history the club has worn two different patches in the same season. Kansas City also wears "Throwback" uniforms — replicas of the club's '63 attire — for games at Atlanta (9/18/94) and vs. St. Louis (9/25/94).

RB Marcus Allen (32), DE Neil Smith (90), T John Alt (76), QB Joe Montana (19) and LB Derrick Thomas (58) represented the Chiefs in the Pro Bowl following the '93 season. These '94 jerseys were the only uniforms in team history to feature a pair of commemorative patches. Note that Smith, Alt and Thomas have made their own "fashion statements" by rolling up their sleeves. Two members of this quartet (Allen and Montana) are in the Pro Football Hall of Fame, while Alt, Thomas and Smith are all enshrined in the Chiefs Hall of Fame.

1999 — The club wears a "40th Anniversary" patch in honor of the franchise's 40th season. The patch features the AFL and Chiefs logos.

40th Anniversary Patch

2000 — The Chiefs wear a circular sticker bearing the number "58" on the back of their helmets in memory of LB Derrick Thomas, who passed away on February 8, 2000. Ever mindful of Stram's legacy and the franchise's glory days, head coach Gunther Cunningham receives Hunt's blessing to revert back to the red pants on the road. The resurrected red pants debut in a 23-22 win at Denver (9/24/00) and remain a fixture of the club's road attire.

58 Sticker

2001 — A sticker bearing the American Flag returns to the back of all NFL helmets following the terrorist attacks of September 11th. The flag reappears on Chiefs helmets vs. the N.Y. Giants (9/23/01) and remains there to this day.

U.S. Flag Sticker

40th Anniversary in KC Patch

2004 — The Chiefs wear a "40" decal on their helmets vs. Carolina (9/19/04) in honor of former Arizona Cardinals S Pat Tillman. Tillman left the Cardinals prior to the 2002 season and became a member of the elite Army Ranger unit. He was killed in the line of duty serving his country in Afghanistan on April 22, 2004.

Hank Stram Sticker

Super Bowl IV. One of the most distinguished gentlemen and unique personalities in pro football history, Stram's legacy was remembered all season with the "HS" decal. All NFL teams wear a "Fútbol Americano" decal on their helmets on the weekend of October 2nd to mark the NFL's first regular season game played outside of the United States. Arizona defeated San Francisco by a 31-14 margin in that contest played at Mexico City's Estadio Azteca.

Fútbol Americano Sticker

2006 — The Chiefs wear white jerseys and white pants on Opening Day vs. Cincinnati (9/10) in an effort to make the Bengals wear their dark uniforms on a potentially hot and muggy day. It marks the first time that even Founder Lamar Hunt can recall the club wearing the white-on-white uniform combination at home. The most recent time the club had dressed in such attire was in a road contest at Seattle (12/26/99). It was also the first time that the Chiefs had donned white jerseys at home since '80. While the premise is sound, the weather conditions aren't a factor in the contest with a kickoff temperature of 67 degrees under cloudy skies.

After the passing of Hunt on December 13th, the Chiefs utilize a helmet decal for the remainder of the season bearing the initials "LH" to honor the franchise's Founder. Kansas City first wears the helmet decal at San Diego (12/17). The club also reverts to the white jersey/white pants combination for its final two regular season road games and its postseason contest at Indianapolis (1/6/07). The move is in part to honor Hunt, who appreciated the "classic" look of that uniform combination.

Lamar Hunt Sticker

Lamar Hunt Patch

2007 — Clark Hunt commissions a patch that the Chiefs wore on their uniforms in 2007 to honor his father's memory. The design of the patch is historically significant. The patch prominently features the American Football League logo to serve as a reminder of Hunt's formation of the AFL and the lasting impact the American Football League has made on the game of professional football. True to Hunt's humble spirit, the letters "LH" are subtly displayed on the patch, symbolizing the fact that the Chiefs Founder always put the best interests of the league ahead of his own. The patch is affixed on the left chest of both Kansas City's home and away jerseys, meaning this piece of woven symbolism will always be over the heart of every Chiefs player. Beginning with a game vs. San Diego (12/2/07), the Chiefs and other NFL teams wear a #21 decal on their helmets for the final five games of the season to honor Washington Redskins S Sean Taylor. Taylor, who was coming off a Pro Bowl season in 2006 was killed in his home in Miami on November 26th.

Sean Taylor Sticker

Gene Upshaw Sticker

2008 — On January 31st, Clark Hunt announces that the Lamar Hunt patch will become a permanent part of the Chiefs uniform, beginning with the 2008 NFL season. All NFL teams wear a patch to honor the late Hall of Fame G Gene Upshaw on Kickoff Weekend. The former Executive Director of the NFL Players Association passed away on August 20th. Beginning with the Chiefs contest the following week vs. Oakland (9/14), a decal bearing Upshaw's initials is worn on all helmets for the remainder of the season.

2009 — On April 14th, the Chiefs unveiled their "50th Anniversary" patch that will be worn on the club's jerseys for 13 games in 2009. The patch features a gold 50, as well as a Chiefs logo and an outline of the State of Texas, representing the only two logos that have ever appeared on the franchise's helmets. Kansas City announces it will wear replicas of the club's '62 Dallas Texans attire for AFL Legacy Games vs. Dallas (10/11), vs. San Diego (10/25) and at Oakland (11/15). The look is completed with replica Texans helmets that feature gray facemasks and a Texas-shaped decal with a gold star on Dallas. Jerseys for these three AFL Rivalry games feature a special "AFL 50th Anniversary" patch, featuring the original American Football League logo.

An Inspiration

Texans Helmet

During the team's three-year stint as the American Football League's Dallas Texans from 1960-62, the club's helmet logo featured the state of Texas in white with a gold star situated on the club's home base in Dallas. Founder Lamar Hunt "borrowed" that concept from the '52 Dallas Texans, a totally-unrelated NFL franchise that spent one undistinguished season playing in the Lone Star State before resurfacing as the Baltimore Colts in '53.

Prior to the inaugural AFL season in '60, Hunt's Texans were represented by a whirling, spur-clad, 10-gallon-hat-wearing character that was featured on various promotional items. That logo eventually gave way to a more polished football-toting gunslinger set over the state of Texas, a design created by Bob Taylor, a cartoonist for the now-defunct Dallas Times-Herald. Although never part of the club's uniform, Taylor's updated Texans logo adorned everything from the club's stationery to the billboard outside the team's offices.

When the franchise moved to Kansas City in '63, Taylor was commissioned to produce a new logo that remained strikingly similar to his original incarnation. Taylor's new rendition featured a Native American figure running with the same stride and holding the pigskin in the same manner as the gunslinger with the states of Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Iowa and Arkansas serving as his backdrop. This logo was utilized prominently during the '60s and was affixed to the club's Swope Park headquarters on 63rd Street before the club moved to Arrowhead in '72.

A new design for the Chiefs helmet logo was also in order upon the franchise's move to Mid-America. Hunt went back to the drawing board, seeking to give his franchise a logo that would once again provide an easily-recognizable link to its home locale. Hunt's initial sketches, some of which were done on a napkin on a flight from Dallas to Kansas City, began with an interlocking "KC" inside a circle or an oval. That look was eventually refined to feature those intertwined letters inside an arrowhead. The resulting finished product remains one of the most distinctive logos in all of sports and has been proudly utilized by the team for over 40 years.

1962 DALLAS TEXANS UNIFORMS

The Chiefs will participate in three "AFL Legacy Games" as part of the 50th anniversary celebration of the American Football League in 2009. The club will wear replicas of its uniforms from the franchise's '62 AFL Championship season as the Dallas Texans for those three games vs. Dallas (10/11), vs. San Diego (10/25) and at Oakland (11/15). Those games will mark the first time that the Dallas Texans uniform has been worn in a professional football contest since the '62 AFL Championship Game when the Texans claimed a thrilling 20-17 double-overtime vs. the Houston Oilers (12/23/62). Fittingly, Kansas City's first "AFL Legacy Game" will come against the Dallas Cowboys. The Texans and Cowboys both shared the Cotton Bowl for three seasons from '60-62, but never met on the field. The Chiefs will use their current solid red headgear for their three "AFL Legacy Games," with a Texans decal replacing the familiar interlocking KC logo. Gray facemasks will also be utilized on these classic helmets. The most noticeable differences in the Texans jerseys are their lack of stripes on the sleeves. In addition, the gold trim around the numerals and letters is more narrow than on traditional Chiefs jerseys. While the game pants for the Texans home and road uniforms will remain almost identical to the current Chiefs uniform, the striping on the socks has been altered to recreate the club's '62 look.

CHIEFS ON MONDAY NIGHT FOOTBALL RECORD: 20-15 (.571)

The second-ever regular season telecast of ABC's Monday Night Football featured the defending World Champion Kansas City Chiefs at Baltimore (9/28/70). While Don McCafferty's Colts eventually go on to defeat the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl V, the Chiefs would get a convincing 44-24 win in this prime-time showdown. Four of QB Len Dawson's 12 pass attempts on the night went for TDs, but it was Kansas City's defense which stole the show. The Chiefs forced seven Baltimore turnovers including three interceptions by S Johnny Richardson and two by CB Emmitt Thomas, allowing RB Ed Podolak (left) to grind out the game on the ground in the fourth quarter.

GOVERNOR'S CUP SERIES

Dating back to the '68 preseason, the Chiefs have faced their in-state rivals from St. Louis in 40 "Governor's Cup" contests. From '68-87, Kansas City faced the St. Louis Cardinals every preseason and also met the Cardinals in regular season play four times while that franchise was stationed on Missouri's "Eastern Shore" before it moved to Arizona for the start of the '88 campaign. After the Rams moved to St. Louis in '95, the "Governor's Cup" series was renewed during the '96 preseason. Since the Rams relocation to the "Show-Me State," Kansas City owns a perfect 4-0 regular season record against their in-state, I-70 foes.

THANKSGIVING DAY GAMES

Lamar Hunt's longtime efforts to secure a Thanksgiving Day game at Arrowhead Stadium became a reality when the club defeated Denver 19-10 in Arrowhead's first-ever Thanksgiving contest (11/23/06). The holiday match-up between two longtime AFC West rivals marked the NFL Network's first live regular season game broadcast and drew a paid attendance of 79,484, the fifth-largest crowd in Arrowhead history. Kansas City hosted a trio of Thanksgiving Day games at Municipal Stadium, including a 31-17 victory vs. Denver (11/27/69) that included a 53-yard return of an onside kick for a TD by LB Bobby Bell. On Thanksgiving Day at Detroit (11/28/96), Hall of Fame RB Marcus Allen became the NFL's all-time leader in rushing TDs, registering his 111th ground score on a one-yard run to bypass RB Walter Payton's previous record, a mark that was later bypassed by RB Emmitt Smith.

HOMES OF THE CHIEFS

ARROWHEAD STADIUM 1972-PRESENT

Arrowhead Stadium, present home of the Kansas City Chiefs, is the fourth-oldest stadium in the NFL that has not undergone major renovations. It is part of the Harry S Truman Sports Complex, which also includes 42,000-seat Kauffman Stadium, home of the Kansas City Royals baseball club. Since its dedication on August 12, 1972, for a preseason game vs. the St. Louis Cardinals, 22,329,907 spectators have passed through Arrowhead's turnstiles. After 23 seasons of artificial turf, Arrowhead sported a grass playing surface for the first time in '94.

Municipal Stadium served as the Chiefs original home in Kansas City after previously housing two short-lived NFL franchises, the Kansas City Blues (1924) and the Kansas City Cowboys (1925-26). The Chiefs and the Kansas City Athletics baseball club shared the facility until the A's departed for Oakland following the '67 season. Kansas City went undefeated (7-0) at home during the '71 regular season, but the final contest (and only playoff game) in Municipal Stadium's history will live in infamy for Chiefs fans, a devastating double overtime 27-24 playoff loss to the Miami Dolphins on Christmas Day of '71, a contest which remains the NFL's longest game at 82 minutes, 40 seconds.

The Cotton Bowl served as the home of the American Football League's Dallas Texans from 1960-62 before the franchise moved to Kansas City in '63 and became known as the Chiefs. The Texans shared the stadium with the NFL's expansion Dallas Cowboys. The facility served until '99 as a home field for SMU, the alma mater of Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt. The Texans final contest in the Cotton Bowl was a 26-17 win over the San Diego Chargers on December 16, 1962, before a sparse crowd of 18,384 fans. The Texans would win a 20-17 double-overtime thriller the next week at Houston to capture the first of three AFL titles.

THE ARROWHEAD STADIUM STORY

The Kansas City Chiefs and St. Louis Cardinals played the inaugural game at Arrowhead Stadium on August 12, 1972. Since that initial contest, much has changed at the Truman Sports Complex. On April 4, 2006 Jackson County, Missouri taxpayers approved a 3/8 cent sales tax that is expected to raise $425 million for improvements to the Sports Complex, including $325 million for Arrowhead. In addition, the Chiefs are contributing $125 million to the project which officially commenced with a groundbreaking ceremony on August 22, 2007. These improvements are expected to help maintain Arrowhead's longstanding status as one of the nation's top venues for fans to experience the excitement of collegiate or NFL football.

While other venues of a similar vintage have long since been termed obsolete, thanks to the foresight and vision of the leadership of Jackson County, the Chiefs staff led by Jack Steadman who helped develop the complex, and the taxpayers who made it a reality, Arrowhead has indeed, stood the test of time.

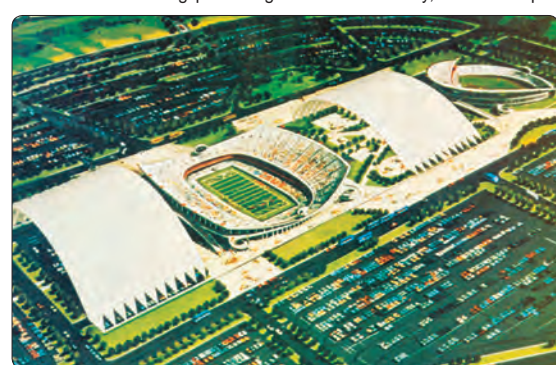

At the time of its dedication in '72, the legendary founder of the Chicago Bears, George Halas called Arrowhead, "the most revolutionary, futuristic, sports complex I have ever seen." Hal Lebowitz, Sports Editor of the Cleveland Plain Dealer added, "It took courage to sell the citizens of Kansas City on the twin park plan. But they bought it because they want the best."

In the late '60s, after design and seating capacity concerns caused plans for a single, multi-purpose domed stadium to be scrapped, Kansas City opted to construct two separate stadiums, one for football and one for baseball. Voters approved the Sports Complex bond issue in '67, which included plans for a revolutionary concept - the world's first rolling stadium roof (pictured below). Construction cost overruns and project delays caused by a lengthy strike eventually forced the roof concept to be put on hold, but Arrowhead was completed in time for the '72 season.

In '84, the Jackson County Sports Authority again investigated the feasibility of a dome - this time made of fabric - but that concept too was shelved as being unnecessary and financially impractical.

A decade later, in '94, under Arrowhead's continued open-air arrangement, a natural playing surface was installed in the facility for the first time, just one of numerous improvements which have been made under the direction of Chiefs President, General Manager and CEO Carl Peterson. In '99 all 33,975 seats in the upper level of the stadium were replaced, while all 35,277 lower level seats and all 10,199 club level seats were replaced for the 2000 season.

Undoubtedly one of the finest facilities in the NFL, Arrowhead and the fans who consistently fill it (149 consecutive sellouts) have helped produce a distinct homefield advantage for the Chiefs. Dating back to '90, only Denver (110-42-.724) Pittsburgh (109-42-1 .720) and Green Bay (106-46 .697) own a better regular season home winning percentage than Kansas City, which has produced a 105-47 (.691) record over that span. It's been 40 years since the first plans were being devised for Kansas City's two stadium setup, which is now the norm for professional football and baseball venues across the country.

Original plans for the Truman Sports Complex called for a rolling roof which could cover Arrowhead or its baseball counterpart, Kauffman Stadium - a revolutionary concept at the time.

During the 30th Anniversary season of Arrowhead in 2001, Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt, expressed the organization's thanks to Colorado-based architect, the late Charles Deaton, who conceived the two-stadium concept. Hunt praised the governmental bodies who took the initiative, and the workers who built Arrowhead, as well as the support of the Jackson County taxpayers who financed this futuristic venture. Hunt also wished to extend on behalf of the entire the Chiefs organization a hearty salute to all who have unquestionably made Arrowhead Stadium - The Home of the ... CHIEFS!

ARROWHEAD'S FOOTBALL TRADITION

Arrowhead Stadium has been a destination for football aficionados since it opened in '72. In addition to serving as the "Home of the Chiefs," Arrowhead has hosted or is scheduled to host 24 different college football contests. The first college game played at the facility was a SWAC contest on October 14, 1972 in which Grambling defeated Mississippi Valley State in front of a crowd of 9,833. The Dr Pepper Big 12 Championship, the annual Missouri vs. Kansas "Border Showdown," a contest between Kansas State vs. Iowa State and "The Fall Classic" between Division II powers Northwest Missouri State and Pittsburg State are regular events. The facility also served as the site of the '74 AFC-NFC Pro Bowl.

In conditions that were described as cold, but humid, coaches Tom Landry of Dallas (NFC) and John Madden of Oakland (AFC) watched their teams combine for 15 fumbles and four interceptions in the 1974 Pro Bowl at Arrowhead Stadium.

K Garo Yepremian of the Dolphins kicked a Pro Bowl-record five field goals, accounting for all 15 of the AFC's points en route to earning MVP honors. Yepremian's fourth field goal gave the AFC a 12-10 fourth-quarter lead, but RB O.J. Simpson's fumble minutes later would set up a 21-yard field goal for a 13-12 NFC lead with less than two minutes to play. Miami QB Bob Griese answered by driving the AFC into position for the winning score. Yepremian would split the uprights with just 0:21 remaining to give the AFC a 15-13 win.

THE DR PEPPER BIG 12 CHAMPIONSHIP

Since 2000, Arrowhead Stadium has played host to the Dr Pepper Big 12 Football Championship Game five times. Oklahoma has claimed four of the five contests played in Kansas City, including a 62-21 win over Missouri in the most recent affair on 12/6/08.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL AT ARROWHEAD

THE BORDER SHOWDOWN Missouri vs. Kansas

The Missouri-Kansas football series is the second-most-played rivalry in college football history and has recently returned to Kansas City, where it all began. This football rivalry originated in Kansas City on October 31, 1891 with a 22-10 Kansas win. The all-time series between the two schools is knotted at 54-54-9. A total of 23 contests in this 118-year rivalry have been played in Kansas City, including 19 of the first 20 games. In 2007, the clash once again called Kansas City home as Arrowhead Stadium played host to the storied traditions of MU and KU. The two schools have an agreement to play the series at Arrowhead through 2012.

11/22/08	NWMS 35 - PSU 10	21,316	Schools meet again in NCAA Division II Playoffs.

KANSAS STATE VS. IOWA STATE

Kansas State University and Iowa State University reached an agreement to play regular season Big 12 Conference contests between the two schools at Arrowhead Stadium in 2009 and 2010. The Big 12 match-ups between the Wildcats and Cyclones will take place on October 3, 2009 and October 9, 2010. This year's contest marks K-State's first trip to Arrowhead since the 2003 Dr Pepper Big 12 Championship (12/6/03) and Iowa State's first visit to Kansas City since a 2002 contest vs. Florida State (8/24/02).

CHIEFS IN THE AMERICAN BOWL

1990 American Bowl

Rams 19, Chiefs 3

Olympic Stadium • Berlin, West Germany

L.A. RAMS.....	7	3	0	9	—	19

Kansas City's initial American Bowl expedition featured heavy doses of culture, but little offense as the Rams prevailed by a 19-3 margin. RB Barry Word made his first appearance in a Kansas City uniform, pairing with the league's leading rusher in '89, RB Christian Okoye to form the quintessential "Martyball" backfield. However, the Chiefs only points would come on a 19-yard FG by K Bjorn Nittmo.

RB James Saxon (21) and TE Jonathan Hayes (85) are on hand as the Berlin Wall begins crumbling down in Berlin, West Germany.

1994 American Bowl

Tokyo Dome • Tokyo, Japan

MINNESOTA.....	7	10	0	0	—	17

Kansas City's first appearance on Japanese soil was a rematch of Super Bowl IV, but Minnesota prevailed in this contest thanks to a pair of interceptions. Chiefs QB Matt Blundin accounted for the club's only TD when he connected with rookie WR Lake Dawson for a 40-yard score. Kansas City then attempted a two-point conversion for the first time since '69 as the NFL finally implemented the old AFL two-point rule in '94.

1996 American Bowl

Chiefs 32, Cowboys 6

August 5, 1996 • 45,128

Estadio Universitario • Monterrey, Mexico

KANSAS CITY.....	3	10	6	13	—	32
DALLAS.....	3	0	3	0	—	6

The Chiefs defense stifles the defending Super Bowl champions, allowing the Cowboys just five first downs. Kansas City's offense piles up 514 yards of total offense, including 173 rushing yards, while Dallas manages 214 total yards on the day as the Chiefs convert the partisan crowd of Cowboy fans into supporters of the "Jefes de Kansas City" or Kansas City Chiefs.

DE Neil Smith does his best matador impersonation and tries his hand at "bull-fighting" while in Monterrey, Mexico.

1998 American Bowl

Packers 27, Chiefs 24 OT

Tokyo Dome • Tokyo, Japan

GREEN BAY.....	0	14	7	3	3	—	27
KANSAS CITY.....	14	0	10	0	0	—	24

Green Bay K Ryan Longwell misses a potential game-winning 45-yard FG attempt at the end of regulation, while both Green Bay K Brett Conway and Kansas City K Pete Stoyanovich miss field goals in OT before Longwell makes the 27-yard game winner with 5:03 left in the extra session. Kansas City's roster features Japanese national players TE Nachi Abe and WR Masato "The Magnet" Itai.

WR Masato "The Magnet" Itai (13) and TE Nachi Abe (47) join Chiefs President Carl Peterson in pregame ceremonies at the Tokyo Dome.

CHIEFS HALL OF HONOR

Beginning in 2010, Chiefs fans will be able to relive the most exciting moments in franchise history at the all new Chiefs Hall of Honor. Over 50 years of franchise history will fill this themed area in the lower level concourse of the New Arrowhead, enabling fans to revisit football memories dating back to the franchise's first days of existence. Exhibits will include the team's Super Bowl IV trophy and the original AFL Championship trophy, original seats and artifacts from Municipal Stadium, a journey through Lamar Hunt's creation of the AFL, a virtual locker room featuring Chiefs Hall of Famers, a re-creation of the Hunt Family Gold Suite and much more. Video and interactive displays will allow fans to relive the team's most amazing moments and allow visitors the feel the energy and passion that has made Arrowhead Stadium the home of the best football experience in the NFL.

1962 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Texans 20, Oilers 17 (2 OT)

December 23, 1962 • Jeppesen Stadium • 37,981

DALLAS..... 3 14 0 0 0 3 — 20
HOUSTON..... 0 0 7 10 0 0 — 17

A contest that moved the infant American Football League into the national consciousness proved to be the first of three AFL titles for Hank Stram's charges as the Dallas Texans claimed a 20-17 double-overtime victory over the Houston Oilers. The game still ranks as the second-longest pro contest ever played, coming in at a lengthy 77:54, but is best remembered for RB Abner Haynes' choice to "kick to the clock" at the beginning of the initial overtime session.

Following second-place finishes in each of the league's first two seasons, the Texans ran away with the AFL West title in '62. Dallas (11-3) was then matched in this title bout with Houston (11-3), which had won the first two AFL titles in '60 and '61 over the Chargers.

The Texans grabbed the game's first break when LB E.J. Holub picked off QB/K George Blanda at the goal line and returned the ball 43 yards, sparking a drive that resulted in a 16-yard FG by K Tommy Brooker. Blanda would miss a 47-yard kick on the Oilers next possession and Haynes scored on a 28-yard pass from QB Len Dawson. An INT by CB Dave Grayson would set up Haynes' second TD of the half, this time on a two-yard run to give the Texans a 17-0 halftime advantage.

But the momentum quickly shifted to the Oilers in the second half. George Blanda — then a "young" 35 years old — passed 15 yards to TE Willard Dewveall for a touchdown and kicked a 31-yard field goal before RB Charley Tolar burst over from the one to tie the game at 17-17 in the fourth quarter. Houston had a shot to win the game late in regulation, but LB Sherrill Headrick blocked a 42-yard Blanda field goal to leave the score deadlocked.

The two teams then went into the first sudden death overtime in AFL annals. The Texans won the toss and Stram elected to kick off, maintaining his defense could hold the Oilers long enough for Dawson to get the ball in good field position. Herein came the famous "kick-to-the-clock" episode in which Texans captain Haynes inadvertently elected for his team to kick into the wind instead of having it as the consolation for not receiving the football.

Neither club mounted a serious challenge in the early stages of overtime, but as the fifth quarter was drawing to a close, DE Bill Hull intercepted a Blanda pass and returned it to midfield. Dawson passed to RB Jack Spikes for 10 yards. Spikes — the game's Most Valuable Player — then ran for 19 yards and the Texans were in field goal range.

At the 2:54 mark of the sixth quarter, Brooker kicked a 25-yard field goal to give the Texans a 20-17 victory and the American Football League championship. The game lasted 77 minutes and 54 seconds and would be the longest in pro football history until the Chiefs and Dolphins played over 82 minutes nearly a decade later in '71.

1966 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Chiefs 31, Bills 7

January 1, 1967 • War Memorial Stadium • 42,080

KANSAS CITY.....	7	10	0	14	—	31
BUFFALO.....	7	0	0	0	—	7

With a berth in Super Bowl I as the prize, the Chiefs visited ancient War Memorial Stadium for a New Year's Day clash with the defending AFL champion Buffalo Bills. Kansas City's defense had stifled opponents all season long and didn't disappoint in this contest, forcing four turnovers, while limiting Buffalo to just nine first downs and 40 rushing yards as the Chiefs rolled to a 31-7 victory and their second AFL title.

The game, played in frigid, sub-freezing temperatures, produced its first break on the opening kickoff when P Jerrel Wilson recovered a fumble by DE Dudley Meredith on the Buffalo 31-yard line. Three plays later, QB Len Dawson found TE Fred Arbanas for a 29-yard touchdown, giving Kansas City an early 7-0 lead.

After the two teams exchanged punts, Buffalo tied the game in the opening period when All-Star QB Jack Kemp hit WR Elbert Dubenion on a 69-yard pass play to tie the score at 7-7. Few thought it would be the Bills last score of the day, but Kansas City would eventually outscore Buffalo 24-0 in the final three quarters.

While the Chiefs defense clamped down on the Bills, Dawson led the Kansas City offense to 10 second-quarter points. A 28-yard punt return by RB Mike Garrett set the Chiefs up at the Buffalo 45-yard line and six plays later the KC signal-caller found WR Otis Taylor for a 29-yard touchdown pass.

The game's decisive play then came just before halftime. Kemp had marched the Bills to the Chiefs eight-yard line, but was picked off at the goal line by S Johnny Robinson, who raced 72 yards with the interception before being brought down at the Buffalo 28-yard line. K Mike Mercer then hit a 32-yard FG with 0:03 left in the half to give the Chiefs a 17-7 lead heading into the locker room.

The third quarter proved to be a defensive tussle as the two teams each exchanged a pair of punts. Kansas City would get to the Buffalo 42-yard line late in the period, but a 49-yard kick by Mercer fell short leaving the score at 17-7 with 15 minutes remaining.

Kansas City then broke the game wide open as Garrett applied the coup de grace for the Chiefs, scoring on runs of one and 18 yards to make the count 31-7. A 47-yard Dawson pass to E Chris Burford set up Garrett's first TD which came on fourth-and-goal. Buffalo fumbled on its next offensive snap and S Bobby Hunt fell on the loose ball at the Bills 21. Three plays later Garrett started left and then reversed his field to get into the end zone for a second time.

Kemp couldn't move the Bills on their next possession and was picked off by CB Emmitt Thomas on Buffalo's final drive of the day as Kansas City won its second AFL title in four years and awaited the Green Bay Packers in Super Bowl I.

SUPER BOWL I

Packers 35, Chiefs 10

January 15, 1967 • Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum • 63,038

KANSAS CITY.....	0	10	0	0	—	10
GREEN BAY	7	7	14	7	—	35

Representing themselves and the American Football League in the first championship match with the National Football League, the Chiefs played well for one half before bowing to the supremacy of the Green Bay Packers. Vince Lombardi's Packers — one of the great pro football teams of all time — won Super Bowl I by a 35-10 score. The Packers held a slim 14-10 advantage at the half before the game turned on one play in the third quarter.

Green Bay opened the scoring on its second possession when the game's Most Valuable Player, QB Bart Starr, passed 37 yards to TE Max McGee, who made a remarkable one-handed catch for a touchdown. McGee, who had caught just four passes during the regular season, became an unlikely hero for the Packers after starter Boyd Dowler was injured on the game's opening series. McGee finished the game with seven catches for 138 yards and two TDs.

Behind QB Len Dawson, the Chiefs marched into Green Bay territory on their next drive, but K Mike Mercer misfired on a 40-yard FG to leave the score 7-0 after one quarter. However, Kansas City would tie the game on its next possession after a 31-yard completion to WR Otis Taylor set up a seven-yard scoring pass to RB Curtis McClinton.

Green Bay would go right back on top when RB Jim Taylor scored from 14 yards out on the Packers vaunted sweep. Kansas City's next drive featured a 27-yard completion to E Chris Burford and culminated with a 31-yard Mercer FG as the Chiefs narrowed Green Bay's lead to a 14-10 margin.

The Chiefs momentum carried over to the third quarter as Kansas City moved to a first down on its initial possession. But then the game's key play — one that doomed the underdog Chiefs — unfolded when S Willie Wood intercepted a Dawson pass intended for TE Fred Arbanas at midfield. Wood returned it all the way to the Chiefs five-yard line, where RB Elijah Pitts ran for the first of his two touchdowns as Green Bay would establish a 21-10 lead.

The Packers defense forced Kansas City to punt on its next two possessions, setting up another Starr-to-McGee touchdown pass. That duo would connect on completions of 11 and 16 yards on a 10-play, 56-yard drive before McGee hauled in a 13-yard score to up the Packer advantage to 28-10.

Kansas City dodged a scoring threat when CB Willie Mitchell picked off a Starr pass at the Chiefs 11-yard line in the fourth quarter, but it would be Green Bay's only miscue of the day. The Packers defense would stifle the AFL Champions for the remainder of the game as the Chiefs crossed midfield just once in the fourth quarter.

A 37-yard pass to McGee would set up the Packers final score, a one-yard Pitts TD run. That score put the finishing touch on a 35-10 victory as Green Bay claimed the first of two straight Super Bowl titles, while Kansas City would have to wait until Super Bowl IV for redemption on football's biggest stage.

1968 AFL DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

December 22, 1968 • Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum • 54,444

OAKLAND.....	21	7	0	13	—	41

Oakland jumped out to an early 21-0 lead and picked off QB Len Dawson four times, posting a convincing 41-6 victory in the initial postseason meeting between the Chiefs and Raiders. The two teams had both finished 12-2 and split a pair of regular season contests, setting up this playoff meeting for the right to advance to the AFL Championship Game.

The Chiefs defense had allowed a franchise-record 170 points during the regular season, but QB Daryle Lamonica and WR Fred Biletnikoff made play after play against Kansas City. Lamonica finished the day with 345 passing yards and five TD passes, the highest postseason totals ever amassed against Kansas City. Biletnikoff also had a record-setting day, registering 180 receiving yards and three scores, the best individual receiving day produced versus the Chiefs in the playoffs.

The Lamonica-Biletnikoff connection clicked early and often, accounting for three plays and 60 yards on Oakland's opening possession, including a 24-yard TD pass to put the Raiders ahead 7-0.

With the Chiefs backed up at their own two-yard line, P Jerrel Wilson's punt would go off the side of his foot, giving the Raiders the ball at the Kansas City 25-yard line. Three plays later, a 23-yard scoring grab by WR Warren Wells made the score 14-0. The two teams would exchange punts before Lamonica lofted a 44-yard aerial to Biletnikoff to make the score 21-0 at the end of the first quarter.

Kansas City's offense showed some life to open the second quarter. Dawson hit WR Otis Taylor for a 55-yard gain to put the Chiefs in scoring position, but KC could not crack the end zone on three tries from inside the five-yard line as the club would settle for a 10-yard K Jan Stenerud FG to make the count 21-3.

Two possessions later, the Chiefs got excellent field position at the Oakland 38. A 31-yard pass to WR Ron Pitts moved KC to the seven-yard line, but again the offense couldn't cross the goal line, resulting in an eight-yard Stenerud FG. The Raiders responded with a 54-yard Lamonica-to-Biletnikoff TD to close the first half, giving Oakland a commanding 28-6 lead.

The Chiefs defense forced a punt on Oakland's first drive of the second half and then held the Raiders out of the end zone on fourth-and-goal from the one on their next possession to keep the contest within reach. But Kansas City's offense couldn't put points on the board despite getting deep into Oakland territory twice as a missed 37-yard FG and an interception halted those drives.

The Raiders slammed the door shut in the fourth quarter as Wells caught his second TD of the day and K George Blanda tacked on a pair of FGs to up the Oakland lead to 41-6. Dawson was unable to rally the Chiefs as each of the club's final three possessions ended with interceptions and Oakland advanced to its second straight AFL Championship Game.

Chiefs 13, Jets 6

December 20, 1969 • Shea Stadium • 62,977

KANSAS CITY.....	0	3	3	7	—	13
NEW YORK.....	3	0	0	3	—	6

Kansas City had throttled the Jets in the regular season, but getting a playoff victory against the reigning World Champions would prove much more difficult. The Chiefs defense would rise up for a monumental goal line stand, while the offense would get into the end zone when it mattered most as Kansas City claimed a 13-6 victory.

New York was led by QB Joe Namath, but throwing the ball accurately in the swirling winds of Shea Stadium would prove difficult for the charismatic MVP of Super Bowl III. The Jets passer connected on just 14 of 40 attempts for 164 yards and was picked off three times.

New York got on the board first with a 27-yard K Jim Turner field goal to go up 3-0. QB Len Dawson then started KC's next drive with a 13-yard pass to WR Otis Taylor, a 12-yard connection to TE Fred Arbanas and a 17-yard screen to RB Wendell Hayes. After missing a 47-yard FG on KC's first drive, this time K Jan Stenerud connected on a 23-yard FG to knot the score at 3-3.

Neither club could muster much offense for the remainder of the first half. Stenerud would misfire on a 44-yard kick on KC's only other legitimate scoring shot, leaving the score deadlocked at intermission.

Kansas City's defense would turn up the pressure in the third quarter. CB Emmitt Thomas would register the Chiefs first INT of the day, setting up a 47-yard FG attempt that sailed wide left in the blustery conditions. New York's next possession would be terminated by the first of two interceptions on the day by CB Jim Marsalis. After the Jets were penalized for running into P Jerrel Wilson, a 27-yard pass to Arbanas put KC in New York territory. A 25-yard Stenerud FG then gave the Chiefs a slim, 6-3 advantage.

Namath responded by moving the Jets into scoring position early in the fourth quarter. A pass interference call in the end zone would give the home squad first-and-goal at the one, setting the stage for the biggest goal-line stand in Chiefs history.

RB Matt Snell gained half a yard off right tackle on first down before S Johnny Robinson arrived on the scene, while RB Bill Mathis was stuffed for no gain by LB Willie Lanier on second down. Namath attempted a bootleg on third down, but was hit by LB Jim Lynch and threw the ball away, forcing the Jets to settle for a seven-yard Turner field goal to tie the contest at 6-6.

Dawson and the Chiefs would immediately strike back. A 61-yard bomb to Taylor would set up the game's only TD. WR Gloster Richardson made the biggest grab of his career, hauling in a 19-yard scoring strike from Dawson on the next play. Marsalis would then record his second INT of Namath on the Jets final possession to ensure a tightly-contested 13-6 playoff win, sending Kansas City to the AFL's final title game at Oakland.

Chiefs 17, Raiders 7

January 4, 1970 • Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum • 54,444

KANSAS CITY.....	0	7	7	3	—	17
OAKLAND.....	7	0	0	0	—	7

On the day the American Football League played the final game of its 10-year history, the Kansas City Chiefs became the AFL's only three-time champion. The Chiefs, through a curious playoff system, played Oakland for the league's last title. The Raiders had won the AFL West and owned a pair of regular season wins over the Chiefs, including a slim 10-6 victory in the regular season finale.

The Raiders, who arrived at the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum already packed for a potential trip to Super Bowl IV, suffered the indignity of carrying those suitcases out of the stadium past the Chiefs busses after a 17-7 defeat.

The two clubs managed one first-half touchdown apiece with Oakland's coming on a three-yard run by RB Charlie Smith. Kansas City responded with a one-yard plunge by RB Wendell Hayes after QB Len Dawson had hit on passes of 14 yards to WR Otis Taylor and 41 yards to WR Frank Pitts.

In the third quarter, QB/K George Blanda was wide right on field goals of 39 and 40 yards, attempts that would have moved Oakland in front. Midway through the period, Kansas City began its second TD drive from its own six-yard line. A potential disaster was averted when the Chiefs fell on a fumble at their own two-yard line. On the next play, Dawson and Taylor pulled Kansas City out of the hole with a 35-yard pass play. FB Robert Holmes added 23 more on a flare pass, while a 25-yard pass interference call gave the Chiefs first-and-goal at the three. Holmes plowed in for the go-ahead TD from five yards out on third down, giving the Chiefs a 14-7 advantage.

The game then became a defensive struggle, which played right into Kansas City's hand. Led by defensive charges from the entire front four of DEs Aaron Brown and Jerry Mays and DTs Buck Buchanan and Curley Culp, the Chiefs continually harassed Raiders QB Daryle Lamonica, forcing the Oakland signal caller to throw a trifecta of fourth-quarter interceptions.

K Jan Stenerud came up short on a 52-yard FG to begin the final frame, which would be marked by a myriad of turnovers. S Jim Kearney registered KC's first INT of Lamonica at the Chiefs 18-yard line. Two plays later a Chiefs fumble would put the ball back in the hands of the "Mad Bomber," who was subsequently picked off by CB Jim Marsalis on Oakland's very next snap.

Inexplicably, Kansas City would fumble again two plays later, setting Lamonica up deep in Chiefs territory. But three snaps later CB Emmitt Thomas recorded his second pickoff of the day, ending a third straight Oakland possession with an INT. Thomas returned the ball 62 yards to the Oakland 18-yard line, setting up a 22-yard field goal that provided a 17-7 lead with 4:48 remaining.

Kansas City would actually fumble one more time, but the Silver and Black could not capitalize as the victorious Chiefs would return home to pack bags of their own for New Orleans and Super Bowl IV.

SUPER BOWL IV

Chiefs 23, Vikings 7

January 11, 1970 • Tulane Stadium • 80,562

MINNESOTA	0	0	7	0	—	7
KANSAS CITY.....	3	13	7	0	—	23

Kansas City's finest sports hour concluded at 5:20 in the afternoon of Sunday, January 11, 1970, when the Chiefs defeated the Minnesota Vikings, 23-7, for the World Championship of pro football.

The Chiefs, who finished 11-3 on the season and defeated the N.Y. Jets and Oakland Raiders in the playoffs, closed out their first decade as the winningest team in the American Football League, which, with Super Bowl IV, came to an end. Beginning in '70, the two leagues merged, with the AFL becoming the American Football Conference of the NFL.

Minnesota, a prohibitive favorite, was 12-2 during the regular season and at one point had won 12 games in succession behind a fearsome defense that had allowed an average of just 9.5 points per game. But behind QB Len Dawson — who would earn the game's Most Valuable Player Award — the Chiefs would amass more than enough offense to carry the day.

The Chiefs took an early lead when K Jan Stenerud booted a 48-yard first quarter field goal, a kick that remains as the longest field goal in Chiefs postseason history. He would later follow with field goals of 32 and 25 yards to give Kansas City a 9-0 lead.

Kansas City received the first break in the game when Vikings S Charlie West fumbled a kickoff and G Remi Prudhomme recovered at the Minnesota 19-yard line. After an eight-yard loss, Dawson handed off to RB Wendell Hayes, who rambed for 13 yards up the middle on a draw play. A 10-yard pass to WR Otis Taylor gave the Chiefs a first down at the four. Three plays later, RB Mike Garrett burst off-tackle for a five-yard touchdown, giving Kansas City a 16-0 halftime lead and stunning the Vikings and a nationwide television audience.

Minnesota mounted a mild third-quarter comeback when RB Dave Osborn scored from four yards out to cut the margin to 16-7. But any hopes the Vikings had of getting closer were dashed by Taylor, who lived up to his big-play reputation repeatedly through that season. Dawson hit the Chiefs wideout on a short hitch pattern, and when CB Earsell Mackbee missed the initial tackle, Taylor was loose down the right sideline, high-stepping his way to a 46-yard TD to give the Chiefs a 23-7 lead after three quarters.

As was so often the case in '69, the defense came to the fore. Minnesota had the ball three times in the final period and, as in the Oakland game the previous week, the Chiefs snuffed out all three chances with interceptions. LB Willie Lanier picked off a QB Joe Kapp pass to halt a rally at the Chiefs 34-yard line. Later on, S Johnny Robinson, playing with what turned out to be three broken ribs, grabbed another errant Kapp throw. Following the game, Kapp would pay tribute to Kansas City's massive defensive front: "The Chiefs defensive line was very active and looked like a Redwood Forest."

QB Gary Cuozzo would replace Kapp, but suffered similar results. In the game's closing minutes, CB Emmitt Thomas intercepted his fourth pass of the playoffs. The Chiefs then ran out the clock to capture the AFL's second consecutive Super Bowl triumph.

1971 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

Dolphins 27, Chiefs 24 (2 OT)

December 25, 1971 • Municipal Stadium • 50,374

MIAMI..... 0 10 7 7 0 3 — 27
KANSAS CITY..... 10 0 7 7 0 0 — 24

The longest game in NFL history signaled the end of a glorious era in Chiefs history as Kansas City and Miami dueled for 82:40 in a double-overtime epic on Christmas Day '71. The final game ever played at Municipal Stadium featured 11 future Hall of Fame players, Hall of Fame head coaches Hank Stram and Don Shula, as well as one of the greatest individual efforts in NFL postseason annals by RB Ed Podolak. But in the end it was the Dolphins who prevailed when K Garo Yepremian's 37-yard FG at 7:40 of the second OT gave Miami a 27-24 victory.

Widely regarded as the finest Chiefs team ever assembled — the '69 Super Bowl IV squad included — Kansas City took a 10-0 lead after the first quarter thanks to a 24-yard FG and a seven-yard TD catch by Podolak. But Miami countered with 10 unanswered points to leave the score deadlocked at halftime.

The unquestioned star of the contest was Podolak, who accounted for an NFL-playoff record 350 combined net yards (85 rushing yards, 110 receiving yards and 153 on kick returns). With the score knotted at 17-17 after three quarters, Podolak capped a 91-yard drive with a three-yard TD run to give the Chiefs a 24-17 lead with 6:46 left in regulation. However, a five-yard pass from QB Bob Griese to TE Marv Fleming put the count at 24-24 with 1:25 remaining in regulation.

Podolak almost ended the game with a 78-yard return on the ensuing kickoff, but Miami CB Curtis Johnson maintained his angle to make a touchdown-saving tackle at the 22-yard line. With 35 seconds left, K Jan Stenerud's would-be, game-winning 31-yard FG attempt sailed wide right. Miami could not move the ball on its final possession of regulation, sending the game to its first overtime session.

Kansas City won the toss and after taking a lateral from DT Buck Buchanan, Podolak returned the kickoff to the Chiefs 46-yard line. Four plays later, KC was at the Miami 35-yard line as Stenerud lined up for another attempt at a game-winning kick, this time from 42 yards out. But Stenerud's attempt was blocked by LB Nick Buoniconti, giving the Dolphins new life.

Both teams would exchange punts before a 52-yard FG attempt by Yepremian came up short. The first overtime session would come to a close when Dawson was intercepted by Miami S Jake Scott. The Dolphins took over at their own 46 to start overtime number two, but were smothered by Kansas City's fierce defense.

Miami's defense forced the Chiefs to punt, setting up Griese and the Dolphins for one final drive. RB Jim Csonka broke off a 29-yard run to move Miami into KC territory. Four plays later Yepremian ended the NFL's longest day with his 37-yard game-winner. The Dolphins would eventually advance to Super Bowl VI, while the Chiefs would have to wait 15 years before their next postseason appearance after falling in one of the most storied battles in pro football history.

1986 AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME

Jets 35, Chiefs 15

December 28, 1986 • Giants Stadium • 69,307

KANSAS CITY..... 6 0 0 9 — 15
NEW YORK..... 7 14 7 7 — 35

Kansas City finished the regular season with a 10-6 record to earn the club's first playoff berth in 15 years, but that adulation would be short-lived. After taking an early lead against the N.Y. Jets, three KC turnovers combined with 135 rushing yards and two scores from New York RB Freeman McNeil led to 28 unanswered points and a 35-15 Jets victory.

The Chiefs only offensive scoring drive of the day came on Kansas City's initial possession when QB Todd Blackledge led Kansas City to paydirt. A pass interference call in the end zone set the stage for a one-yard scoring plunge by RB Jeff Smith. But a missed PAT would begin a downward spiral for the Chiefs, who took a brief 6-0 lead.

Jets head coach Joe Walton then made the biggest call of the game on New York's next drive. Facing fourth-and-six at the Chiefs 33-yard line, Walton kept his offense on the field. QB Pat Ryan faked a pitch to McNeil and took the ball up the gut for a 24-yard gain. Two plays later, McNeil was in the end zone, giving the Jets a lead they would not relinquish.

Disaster would strike on Kansas City's next offensive snap when RB Larry Moriarity had the ball jarred loose after catching a swing pass. LB Kyle Clifton recovered for the Jets. Twelve plays later, a one-yard TD toss to McNeil put the Jets ahead 14-6.

After Kansas City failed to gain a first down on its next two possessions, a 30-yard pass to WR Al Toon put New York in Chiefs territory. Ryan then found Toon kneeling in the end zone for an 11-yard TD on third down to give the Jets a commanding 21-6 advantage with 0:59 left in the second quarter.

New York outgained the Chiefs 191 to 58 after 30 minutes and Kansas City's situation would go from bad to worse on the opening snap of the second half. Blackledge was intercepted by LB Kevin McArthur, who raced down the sideline for a 21-yard score, putting the Jets ahead 28-6 just 13 seconds into the third quarter.

Blackledge would guide the Chiefs to the Jets 15-yard line on Kansas City's next possession, but the club's comeback hopes were effectively over when RB Boyce Green was stuffed on fourth-and-one in the third quarter, turning the ball back over to the Jets.

Kansas City's special teams would account for the club's only touchdown of the second half as CB Albert Lewis blocked a Dave Jennings punt and recovered it in the end zone to close the gap to 28-13. A six-yard Ryan TD pass to TE Billy Griggs made it 35-13 before QB Bill Kenney replaced Blackledge in the fourth quarter. Kenney guided Kansas City inside the Jets 10-yard line twice to no avail.

The Chiefs final points of the afternoon came when Jennings stepped out of the end zone for a self-imposed safety to make the final score 35-15 as Kansas City's hopes expired.

Dolphins 17, Chiefs 16

January 5, 1991 • Joe Robbie Stadium • 67,276

KANSAS CITY..... 3 7 6 0 — 16
MIAMI..... 0 3 0 14 — 17

The Chiefs were in control for the majority of their first playoff game since '86, but could not answer a late comeback bid by QB Dan Marino as the Dolphins pulled out a 17-16 victory. Chiefs QB Steve DeBerg — who had guided KC to an 11-5 regular season record — had the club in scoring position, but a 52-yard FG attempt by K Nick Lowery fell just inches short with 0:56 remaining.

Had Kansas City fully capitalized on a number of scoring opportunities earlier in the game, the outcome may have been different. CB Charles Washington blocked a punt on Miami's first possession, setting the Chiefs up at the Dolphins 37-yard line. However, Kansas City would be forced to settle for a 27-yard FG. Miami would answer on its next possession as K Pete Stoyanovich nailed an NFL postseason-record 58-yard FG to even to count at 3-3.

However, Stoyanovich would come up short on a 57-yard attempt later in the second quarter, setting the Chiefs up with good field position. KC capitalized as DeBerg floated a 26-yard scoring aerial to WR Stephone Paige putting the Chiefs ahead 10-7 with 1:54 left in the half. Paige would finish the day with 142 receiving yards, the highest postseason total in team history. Meanwhile, DE Neil Smith — who had 1.5 sacks on the day — preserved the lead by stripping Marino on Miami's next possession.

Kansas City dominated the third quarter, but only managed to extend its lead to 16-3. Poised with second-and-goal at the Miami three-yard line, DeBerg was flagged for intentional grounding and the club settled for a 25-yard FG. S Deron Cherry blasted the ball loose from WR Mark Duper on Miami's next play, giving KC the ball at the Dolphins 29-yard line. But once again, the Chiefs could not strike paydirt and would leave Miami territory with only a 38-yard Lowery FG to show for their efforts.

Marino then began his comeback bid. A 10-play, 66-yard march culminated with a one-yard TD toss to FB Tony Paige as the Dolphins moved the count to 16-10. After a 33-yard connection between DeBerg and WR Emile Harry moved KC back into Miami territory, the Chiefs were forced to punt, setting up the Dolphins go-ahead drive which began with a key, 37-yard pass over the middle to TE Ferrell Edmunds. Marino then capped the march with a six-yard TD pass to WR Mark Clayton that was nearly intercepted by CB Albert Lewis as the Dolphins took their first lead of the game at 17-16 with 3:28 remaining in the fourth quarter.

A 20-yard pass to Paige and a 26-yard run by RB Christian Okoye helped put the Chiefs at the Miami 26-yard at the 2:00 warning. A controversial holding call on G Dave Scott nullified a 12-yard Okoye run on the next play, halting the club's momentum and setting the stage for Lowery's final field goal attempt, which came tantalizingly close to the crossbar.

December 28, 1991 • Arrowhead Stadium • 75,827

LOS ANGELES	0	3	3	0	—	6
KANSAS CITY	0	7	0	3	—	10

It took 19 years, but the Chiefs finally had an opportunity to officially christen Arrowhead Stadium with a playoff game. And fittingly, that contest came against Kansas City's most heated rival, the Raiders. The Chiefs had defeated the Raiders 27-21 just six days earlier at the L.A. Coliseum in the season's final regular season game for the right to play at home in the first week of the postseason. Kansas City made the most of that opportunity by recording a 10-6 win over the Raiders, marking the club's first playoff victory since Super Bowl IV.

The Chiefs imparted a familiar recipe for success — solid defense and a bruising ground game. Kansas City's defense forced six turnovers and limited the Silver and Black to just two field goals, while RB Barry Word pummeled the Raiders with 33 carries for a team postseason-record 130 yards.

Word pounded away at the Raiders all day, a trend that began early. Kansas City won the toss and consumed 11:56 off the clock, thanks to a drive that featured 12 runs by Word. The Chiefs drove as deep as the 15-yard line, but K Nick Lowery's 33-yard FG was wide left, leaving the scoreboard empty.

S Deron Cherry registered the first of his two INTs on the game on the Raiders first possession. QB Todd Marinovich would be picked off four times by the KC defense and his first errant throw would give Kansas City possession at the Raiders 24-yard line. But again, Lowery would misfire, this time on a 47-yard FG attempt.

A wild barrage of turnovers then ensued. Chiefs LB Derrick Thomas stripped Marinovich, but QB Steve DeBerg promptly threw an INT on KC's next possession. After a Raiders punt, RB Harvey Williams put the ball on the ground for Kansas City, but Cherry registered another INT which he returned to the 11-yard line. DeBerg would hit WR Fred Jones for the game's only touchdown on the next play as the Chiefs took a 7-0 lead.

Raiders RB Nick Bell finished the game with 107 ground yards and was the club's primary weapon on a 10-play, 65-yard drive that ended with a 32-yard K Jeff Jaeger FG that closed the gap to 7-3 just before intermission.

The first half passing numbers for both squads were equally unimpressive. Marinovich completed just three passes for 47 yards, while DeBerg hit on seven passes for 71 yards. Wisely, both clubs turned to the ground game in the second half. The Raiders gave the ball to Bell eight times on their initial possession of the third quarter, but would have to settle for a 26-yard FG to close the gap to 7-6.

Kansas City then capitalized on a Raiders fumble by handing the ball to Word nine times on a 13-play drive that netted an 18-yard FG to make the score 10-6 early in the fourth quarter. The Chiefs would pick off Marinovich on each of the Raiders final two drives to seal the franchise's first-ever home playoff victory.

Bills 37, Chiefs 14

January 5, 1992 • Rich Stadium • 80,182

KANSAS CITY	0	0	7	7	—	14
BUFFALO	7	10	7	13	—	37

Kansas City was coming off its first postseason victory since Super Bowl IV, but that triumph proved quite irrelevant as Buffalo pounded the Chiefs into submission early in a 37-14 win. The Bills raced out to a 17-0 halftime lead and salted the game away behind RBs Thurman Thomas and Kenneth Davis who combined for 41 carries and 175 rushing yards. Defensively, Buffalo picked off back-up QB Marc Vlasic four times and held the Chiefs to just 213 yards of total offense as the Bills marched to their second straight AFC Championship Game.

After both teams traded a pair of punts to open the game, QB Jim Kelly hit a pair of completions to WR Don Beebe to put the Bills in scoring position and then fired a 25-yard pass to WR Andre Reed to give Buffalo a 7-0 advantage. Kansas City caught the game's first break when CB Eric Everett picked off Kelly early in the second quarter. But the Chiefs offense would go three-and-out. Four plays later, Kelly found Reed for a 53-yard scoring strike to make the count 14-0. Despite throwing three INTs himself, Kelly would finish the contest with 273 passing yards and three TDs.

S Deron Cherry picked off Kelly on Buffalo's next possession, but again, the Chiefs could not capitalize. The Bills would tack on a 33-yard K Scott Norwood field goal to end the first half with a 17-0 lead.

The second half wouldn't start much better for Kansas City. RB Harvey Williams fumbled on the club's first snap of the third quarter, but TE Jonathan Hayes would recover. The Chiefs wouldn't be as fortunate on the next play as Vlasic — who entered the game in the second quarter when starting QB Steve DeBerg was knocked out of the game with a hand injury — suffered the first of four second-half interceptions. Buffalo took over on the Chiefs 36-yard line and six plays later Kelly had the Bills ahead 24-0 after finding WR James Lofton for a 10-yard TD.

Vlasic would be picked off again on the Chiefs next drive, but LB Lonnie Marts returned the favor with an interception of his own to give Kansas City a ray of hope late in the third quarter. This time the Chiefs would get on the board as RB Barry Word bulled into the end zone from three yards out to cut the Buffalo margin to 24-7.

Thomas and Davis took it from there as the Bills methodically began grinding down the clock. After a Buffalo FG made it 27-7, Vlasic was picked off twice on his next three attempts. The Bills would turn those two miscues into 10 points as Buffalo took a commanding 37-7 lead with 4:57 left in the game.

Vlasic would hit WR Fred Jones on a 20-yard TD with 2:07 remaining to make it 37-14, but it was too little, too late as Buffalo recovered KC's onside kick attempt and ran out the clock, ending the Chiefs postseason aspirations.

Chargers 17, Chiefs 0

January 2, 1993 • Jack Murphy Stadium • 58,278

SAN DIEGO	0	0	10	7	—	17

Kansas City had defeated San Diego twice during the '92 regular season. However, that mattered little to the Chargers, who promptly dispatched the Chiefs from the playoffs by a 17-0 margin, marking the only shutout KC has ever suffered in postseason play.

The two sides bludgeoned one another throughout a scoreless first half, but early on it appeared the game may feature its share of offensive fireworks. San Diego QB Stan Humphries hit WR Nate Lewis for a 39-yard gain on the game's first play from scrimmage. Then, after a pair of penalties, the Chargers were knocking on the door. But DE Neil Smith fell on a San Diego fumble at the 13-yard line to halt the scoring threat.

The Chiefs couldn't mount a serious scoring threat in the first half and couldn't move past the San Diego 40-yard line on their first five possessions. The Chargers didn't fare much better with only a fumble, a punt and a missed 52-yard FG to show on three trips into Kansas City territory. Still, San Diego did hold a slight 130-to-122 edge in total yardage heading into the locker room.

Kansas City's offensive struggles continued in the second half, as the club punted on its first two possessions. San Diego then broke the stalemate midway through the third quarter when the team's battering ram — RB Marion Butts — burst into the secondary en route to a 54-yard score, giving the Chargers a 7-0 lead. Butts finished the game with 15 carries for 119 yards.

Things went downhill from there for the Chiefs. On Kansas City's next offensive play, QB Dave Krieg had a pass tipped by DE Blaise Winter. Fellow DE Leslie O'Neal picked off the ball at the Kansas City 29-yard line, setting up a 34-yard FG from K John Carney to give San Diego a 10-0 advantage with 3:33 left in the third quarter.

While Kansas City's defense was good, forcing 5.0 sacks — including 1.5 by LB Derrick Thomas — San Diego's defense was even better, harassing Krieg all day and finishing the game with 7.0 sacks. Krieg got the Chiefs into Chargers territory on each of the next two drives, but was sacked 3.0 times on those two series, stifling any scoring possibilities.

San Diego then delivered an offensive blow on its next possession. Behind a steady diet of RB Eric Bieniemy, the Chargers mounted an 11-play, 91-yard drive that ate 5:32 off the clock. H-back Steve Hendrickson got a rare carry and bulled his way into the end zone from five yards out to give the home team a 17-0 lead with 4:57 left in the fourth quarter.

The knockout punch quickly followed when Chargers DT Shawn Lee stripped Krieg on Kansas City's next possession. San Diego recovered and took over with 3:52 remaining. The Chiefs would get the ball back one last time, but the results were the same as they had been all day as San Diego sacked Krieg one last time and secured a 17-0 victory.

Chiefs 27, Steelers 24 (OT)

January 8, 1994 • Arrowhead Stadium • 74,515

PITTSBURGH	7	10	0	7	0	—	24
KANSAS CITY	7	0	3	14	3	—	27

It took an extra session to settle the score in the initial postseason match-up between Kansas City and Pittsburgh, but the Chiefs would eventually prevail, 27-24. A blocked punt and the last-minute heroics of QB Joe Montana — who was making his first playoff appearance with Kansas City — helped the Chiefs send the game to overtime where K Nick Lowery's 32-yard FG was the difference in the franchise's first OT playoff contest since the '62 AFL Championship Game.

Pittsburgh head coach Bill Cowher had previously served as both a player and assistant coach under Marty Schottenheimer before taking over the fortunes of the Steelers. Early on, the pupil appeared to have the upper hand as Pittsburgh held a 17-7 halftime lead thanks to a pair of TD passes from QB Neil O'Donnell. WR Andre Cooper hauled one in from 10 yards out and WR Ernie Mills caught a 26-yarder with just 0:18 left in the first half.

Kansas City's lone score of the first half came when QB Dave Krieg — who made a brief appearance for an injured Montana — delivered a 23-yard TD completion to WR J.J. Birden in the first quarter. A 23-yard FG in the third quarter would cut the Pittsburgh lead to 17-10, setting the stage for a fantastic finish.

Montana guided the squad on a nine-play, 80-yard drive to open the quarter, culminating with a two-yard TD trot by RB Marcus Allen, who was also making his initial postseason appearance with the Red and Gold. With the score tied at 17-17, O'Donnell answered with a nine-play, 74-yard drive, hitting TE Eric Green for a 22-yard score to put Pittsburgh back ahead with 4:11 left in regulation.

After KC went three-and-out on its next possession, the Steelers had a chance to run out the clock when they got the ball back with 3:00 remaining. However, the Chiefs defense would hold, setting the stage for Kansas City's special teams to swing the momentum back in favor of the home squad. TE Keith Cash swatted down P Mark Royals' punt, which was recovered by WR Fred Jones who returned the ball to the Pittsburgh nine-yard line.

Facing fourth-and-goal from the seven with 1:48 left, the ever-cool Montana found WR Tim Barnett in the back of the end zone to even the count at 24-24. KC's defense would force Pittsburgh three-and-out once again, giving Montana and the Chiefs one final shot in regulation, but a 43-yard FG attempt from Lowery sailed wide right with 0:13 remaining, sending the game to overtime.

Kansas City won the toss, but was unable to move the ball. Pittsburgh got to midfield before it was forced to punt, setting up one final drive by Montana. After starting on their own 20-yard line, KC moved to midfield and was deep in Pittsburgh territory after Montana hit Cash on an 18-yard strike. Five plays later, Lowery took the field on third down and drove the game-winning 32-yard FG through the uprights with 3:57 showing on the clock.

Chiefs 28, Oilers 20

January 16, 1994 • Astrodome • 64,011

KANSAS CITY.....	0	0	7	21	—	28
HOUSTON.....	10	0	0	10	—	20

Kansas City pulled a huge upset over heavily-favored Houston to advance to its first-ever AFC Championship Game with a 28-20 victory at the Astrodome. The contest marked the Chiefs first road playoff win since claiming a 17-7 triumph at Oakland in the '69 AFL Championship Game.

Houston was the NFL's hottest team heading into the playoffs, owning 11 consecutive wins to close the regular season and showed no signs of cooling down after jumping out to a 10-0 lead in the first quarter over the Chiefs. An interception by CB Steve Jackson on KC's first drive set up a 49-yard FG by K Al Del Greco, while an 11-play, 80-yard Oilers scoring march was capped by a two-yard RB Gary Brown TD run.

Houston's defense had proclaimed the Astrodome as "The House of Pain," but it was Kansas City's defense which began to inflict some damage, registering three sacks and forcing three fumbles in the second quarter alone. While the Chiefs offense couldn't capitalize, it would be a sign of things to come. Kansas City finished the game with a team playoff-record 9.0 sacks and seven forced fumbles, including a pair of sacks apiece by CB Albert Lewis, LB Derrick Thomas, S Bennie Thompson and DT Joe Phillips. Thomas and DE Neil Smith each had two forced fumbles, as well.

The Chiefs finally got on the board in the third quarter when QB Joe Montana threw a seven-yard TD pass to TE Keith Cash, who emphatically spiked the ball into a banner bestowed with the likeness of Oilers defensive coordinator Buddy Ryan. But Cash's exclamation point was nothing compared to the mayhem that would ensue in the fourth quarter.

Another interception by Houston led to a 43-yard FG that put the Oilers ahead 13-7. But the Chiefs grabbed their first lead of the day just three plays later with an 11-yard TD catch by WR J.J. Birden. On the Oilers next play from scrimmage, Thomas unleashed his patented sack-and-strip maneuver on Moon with Chiefs DT Dan Saleaumua scooping up the loose ball at the Houston 20-yard line. This time Montana — who finished the contest with 299 yards — found WR Willie Davis for an 18-yard TD to push the Chiefs advantage to 21-13.

But the Oilers wouldn't go away. Moon — who compiled 306 yards on the day — promptly responded with a seven-yard scoring strike to WR Ernest Givins to pull Houston to within 21-20. Kansas City would produce a one-two knockout combination on its next drive. Cash snared a 41-yard pass from Montana on a third-and-one situation from the KC 30-yard line. Then faced with third-and-two at the Houston 21-yard line, RB Marcus Allen burst through the middle of the line for a 21-yard TD dash to make the score 28-20.

A final sack from Thomas would all but seal the Oilers fate as the Chiefs turned "The House of Pain" into a house of horrors for Houston in the final NFL postseason game ever played in the Astrodome.

1993 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Bills 30, Chiefs 13

January 23, 1994 • Rich Stadium • 76,642

KANSAS CITY.....	6	0	7	0	—	13
BUFFALO.....	7	13	0	10	—	30

The Chiefs knew that they had to stop the run in order to dethrone the reigning three-time AFC Champion Buffalo Bills on their home turf. Unfortunately, the 229 rushing yards amassed by the Bills provided all that was necessary in a 30-13 AFC Championship Game setback at Rich Stadium. Although the Chiefs were outgained by just 51 yards (389 to 338), they allowed RB Thurman Thomas to gain 186 of Buffalo's 229 rushing yards.

Kansas City was in uncharted territory as the club was playing in its first-ever AFC title game and vying for its first Super Bowl appearance since '69, while the Bills were playing in an unprecedented fourth straight AFC Championship Game.

Neither team's offense was able to move the ball effectively at the start of the first quarter. Midway through the frame, though, Thomas would start to get on track as his easy 12-yard TD scamper gave the Bills a 7-0 lead.

But Kansas City would answer. QB Joe Montana orchestrated a 10-play, 52-yard drive that culminated with a 31-yard FG by K Nick Lowery. S Bennie Thompson then forced Bills WR Russell Copeland to fumble on the ensuing kickoff. WR Fred Jones scooped up the loose ball, setting the stage for another 31-yard FG to cut Buffalo's lead to one as the first quarter came to a close.

The second quarter was all Buffalo as the club scored on three straight possessions, getting a three-yard TD run from Thomas and FGs of 23 and 25 yards from K Steve Christie. The Chiefs had a chance to cut into the lead as the half ended, but a pass by Montana slipped through the hands of FB Kimble Anders, stationed in the end zone, and into the waiting arms of Buffalo S Henry Jones. The Bills took a 20-6 lead into the half as Thomas had already amassed 129 yards on the ground.

The Chiefs got the ball to open the second half, but three plays into the third quarter Montana was slammed to the turf by S Matt Darby and LB Darryl Talley, suffering a concussion on the play. Montana was sidelined for the remainder of a very chilly afternoon as QB Dave Krieg came off the bench.

With 2:58 left in the third quarter, Kansas City shaved the Bills lead to seven points with a 14-play, 90-yard drive that culminated in a one-yard plunge by RB Marcus Allen. But Buffalo countered with an 18-yard FG and a three-yard TD run by Thomas to make the count 30-13.

Kansas City's last legitimate comeback hope evaporated when Krieg was picked off at the goal line by CB James Williams with 3:23 left. Krieg would get the club as close as the Buffalo one-yard line on the Chiefs final drive, but it would not matter as time expired on Kansas City and its Super Bowl aspirations.

December 31, 1994 • Joe Robbie Stadium • 67,487

KANSAS CITY..... 14 3 0 0 — 17
MIAMI..... 7 10 10 0 — 27

In a game that proved to be the final contest of QB Joe Montana's legendary career, the Chiefs signal-caller provided a dramatic first-half showdown with fellow Western Pennsylvania native, Dolphins QB Dan Marino. But after these two legendary passers dueled to a 17-17 halftime tie, Miami pulled away in the second half behind Marino for a 27-17 victory.

The Chiefs outgained Miami by a 414-to-381 margin in total yardage, but a pair of second-half turnovers and a staunch Dolphins defense was too much to overcome. Neither club was able to mount a substantial pass rush as Chiefs LB Derrick Thomas recorded the game's only sack in his return to his South Florida hometown.

Both quarterbacks were nearly flawless in the first 30 minutes as Montana completed 12 of 15 passes for 178 yards and two TDs, while Marino hit on 14 of 16 attempts for 162 yards and one score as the two squads each scored on their first three possessions.

Montana started the shootout by guiding an exquisite 11-play, 80-yard drive that was capped with a one-yard play-action TD toss to TE Derrick Walker. Marino immediately answered with a nearly-identical, 10-play, 72-yard march that ended with a one-yard plunge by RB Bernie Parmalee to tie the score at 7-7.

KC struck quickly on its next possession as Montana found FB Kimble Anders on a 67-yard screen pass that hit paydirt. The two clubs then traded field goals before Marino produced a monster, 13-play, 80-yard drive that consumed 5:50 off the clock. A one-yard TD pass to TE Ronnie Williams with 0:22 remaining in the second quarter ended an exquisite half of football with the score deadlocked at 17-17.

Marino picked up right where he left off on the opening possession of the second half, putting the Dolphins ahead 24-17 on a seven-yard scoring strike to WR Irving Fryar. But this time the Chiefs and Montana could not answer, going three-and-out on their next two drives. Meanwhile, Miami tacked on a 40-yard FG from K Pete Stoyanovich to go up 27-17.

The Dolphins defense then clamped down in the fourth quarter. CB J.B. Brown picked off a Montana pass in the end zone to thwart a golden scoring opportunity, while S Michael Stewart forced a rare fumble by RB Marcus Allen as KC crossed into Miami territory on its next possession.

Miami was then content to grind it out on the ground, consuming over five minutes off the clock before the Chiefs could regain possession. Montana managed to get Kansas City as close as the Dolphins 19-yard line before his final professional pass fell incomplete on fourth down as he attempted to find WR Willie Davis. He finished the game with 314 yards on 26-of-37 passing with two TDs and one INT, while Marino ended the day by completing 22 of 29 attempts for 257 yards with two TD passes and no INTs.

Colts 10, Chiefs 7

January 7, 1996 • Arrowhead Stadium • 77,594

INDIANAPOLIS..... 0 7 3 0 — 10
KANSAS CITY..... 7 0 0 0 — 7

Frigid conditions, four turnovers and three missed field goals contributed to one of the most shocking upsets in Chiefs history as Kansas City (13-3) suffered a 10-7 loss to Indianapolis (9-7) at Arrowhead.

A kickoff temperature of 11 degrees and a wind chill of -9 seemingly did little to faze the dome-dwelling Colts. Indianapolis didn't lose any of its four fumbles and despite missing two field goals, it still made one when it counted as Kansas City squandered a solid effort from its league-leading scoring defense and 94 rushing yards from Marcus Allen, the fourth-best total in KC playoff history.

The Chiefs got off to a promising start, putting together a five-play, 62-yard TD drive on their third possession of the game. That march culminated with a 20-yard scoring pass from QB Steve Bono to WR Lake Dawson to give Kansas City its only score of the day and a 7-0 lead.

Colts QB Jim Harbaugh then made arguably the biggest play of the game on Indianapolis' next possession. Facing third-and-11 at his own 22-yard line, Harbaugh scrambled for an 18-yard gain. The Colts would convert six times on either third or fourth down on the drive, including a five-yard TD catch by WR Floyd Turner on third down which capped an 18-play, 77-yard drive that ate 8:40 off the clock and tied the count at 7-7.

Indianapolis K Cary Blanchard was short on a 47-yard FG after a KC fumble. Chiefs K Lin Elliott had a shot to put his team ahead with 0:12 left in the first half, but he was wide right from 35 yards out as the contest remained tied at halftime.

Kansas City boasted an NFL-best +12 turnover differential during the regular season and forced its only takeaway of the day when CB Mark Collins picked off Harbaugh. But just two plays later, Bono was intercepted by CB Ashley Ambrose, setting up a 30-yard Blanchard FG to put Indianapolis ahead 10-7 with 2:48 left in the third quarter.

KC's defense kept it close in the final 15 minutes, but it was not enough. Elliott was wide right on a 39-yard FG to open the fourth quarter and Bono was picked off by LB Quentin Coryatt on the Chiefs next possession. KC still appeared to have a shot when Blanchard's 49-yard FG fell short with 5:44 left in the game, but three plays later Bono was picked off by CB Eugene Daniel. However, the Chiefs defense held once again, setting the stage for one final drive with 4:12 remaining in the contest.

QB Rich Gannon came on in relief of Bono and took over at the Chiefs 18-yard line. He methodically moved the club downfield, converting three third downs, including a 14-yard scramble that put Kansas City at the Colts 25-yard line with 0:56 left. Gannon narrowly missed WR Lake Dawson in the end zone on third down, setting the stage for a final field goal attempt by Elliott from 42 yards out. But the kick sailed wide left as Indianapolis claimed a 10-7 victory and advanced to the AFC Championship Game.

CHIEFS — Dawson, 20-yard pass from Bono (Elliott kick) (5-62, 2:28).
COLTS — Turner, 5-yard pass from Harbaugh (Blanchard kick) (18-77, 8:40).
COLTS — Blanchard, 30-yard FG (9-35, 4:35).

1997 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

Broncos 14, Chiefs 10

January 4, 1998 • Arrowhead Stadium • 76,965

DENVER.....	0	7	0	7	—	14
KANSAS CITY.....	0	0	10	0	—	10

The two teams with the AFC's best regular season records squared off as Kansas City (13-3) and Denver (12-4) met for the first time in postseason play. The Chiefs boasted the NFL's top scoring defense (14.5 ppg), while the Broncos owned the league's number one scoring offense (29.5 ppg). But it was Denver that claimed a 14-10 victory in what would be the final contest of RB Marcus Allen's storied Hall of Fame career.

Kansas City outgained Denver by 303 to 272 total yards and held a +2 edge in the turnover column, but an inability to put points on the board in several key situations cost the Chiefs a chance to host the AFC Championship Game. After the two teams battled through a scoreless first quarter, KC appeared to get on the board first, but was flagged for holding on a 34-yard FG by K Pete Stoyanovich, who had missed just one FG during the regular season. However, Stoyanovich's ensuing 44-yard attempt went wide left to leave the count at 0-0.

Denver QB John Elway then marched the Broncos on an eight-play, 65-yard scoring drive that culminated with a one-yard TD run by RB Terrell Davis, who would finish the game with 25 carries for 101 yards. KC could not get back into scoring range, as the Broncos took a 7-0 lead into the intermission.

Chiefs QB Elvis Grbac opened the second half with a 34-yard pass to WR Andre Rison, who finished the day with 110 receiving yards, the third-highest total in Chiefs postseason history. The game's most pivotal sequence would follow. Facing third-and-goal at the Denver three, Grbac connected with rookie TE Tony Gonzalez, who appeared to be forced out of the end zone by Broncos CB Darrien Gordon. However, the play was ruled an incompleteness, forcing the Chiefs to settle for a 20-yard FG to cut the gap to 7-3.

With Denver poised at the Kansas City 11-yard line on its next drive, Chiefs DE John Brownning forced a fumble by RB Derek Loville to thwart a Broncos scoring opportunity. After both squads exchanged punts, Grbac found WR Joe Horn on a 50-yard strike to set up a 12-yard TD pass to Gonzalez, giving the Chiefs a short-lived 10-7 advantage. However, Davis found paydirt from one-yard out on the Broncos ensuing drive to retake the lead at 14-10.

KC got as deep as the Denver 31-yard line on its next possession and lined up in field goal formation on fourth-and-six, but holder P Louie Aguiar ran with the ball and was tackled three yards short of a first down. Kansas City began its last possession with 4:04 left. Grbac found Rison for a 23-yard gain to move KC to the Broncos 28 with 1:51 left as the Chiefs used their final time out. Facing fourth-and-two at the Denver 20-yard line with 0:19 remaining, Grbac's final pass into the end zone was batted down by Gordon as Denver held on to claim the 14-10 victory.

BRONCOS — T. Davis, 1-yard run (Elam kick) (8-65, 4:51).
CHIEFS — Stoyanovich, 20-yard FG (11-67, 5:18).
CHIEFS — Gonzalez, 12-yard pass from Grbac (Stoyanovich kick) (4-65, 1:35).

2003 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

Colts 38, Chiefs 31

January 11, 2004 • Arrowhead Stadium • 79,159

INDIANAPOLIS.....	14	7	10	7	—	38
KANSAS CITY.....	3	7	14	7	—	31

The NFL's top two scoring offenses and two of the game's brightest stars battled in an offensive shootout at Arrowhead in which Indianapolis prevailed by a 38-31 margin. RB Priest Holmes finished the game with a Chiefs single-game postseason record 176 rushing yards and tied a club playoff record with two rushing TDs. Colts QB Peyton Manning was just as good, throwing for 304 yards with three scores and posting an impeccable 138.8 rating.

In a game that featured no punts, just one turnover and only five total penalties, Manning's nearly-perfect performance kept the Colts one step ahead of Kansas City all afternoon. It marked just the third time in NFL postseason history that neither team was forced to punt and was the first time it had occurred since the '82 NFL Playoffs. Kansas City would draw within seven points three times in the second half, but Manning always had an answer.

Manning, the NFL's Co-MVP, opened the game with a 29-yard TD pass to WR Brandon Stokley. Kansas City would answer with a 22-yard field goal from Morten Andersen when Holmes was stopped on third-and-goal from the three. However, Manning and company kept the pressure on with an 11-yard TD run from RB Edgerrin James for a 14-3 lead.

The Chiefs rallied back as Green found WR Dante Hall on a nine-yard TD, cutting the deficit to 14-10. However, the Colts put together another impressive march, as Manning again capped it with a two-yard TD strike to FB Tom Lopienski for a 21-10 lead.

The scoring torrent finally abated as the Chiefs failed to score on their final first-half possession, thanks to a 31-yard touchdown that was called back on an offensive pass interference call on TE Tony Gonzalez and a missed 31-yard field goal.

Holmes ripped off a 48-yard dash on the second play of the third quarter, but had the ball ripped loose by CB David Macklin who recovered the fumble at the Colts 22-yard line. Indianapolis would cash the turnover in with a 45-yard FG from K Mike Vanderjagt for a 24-10 lead.

Holmes would exact revenge on the Chiefs next drive as he accounted for 44 yards rushing and a one-yard TD dive. After a Manning-to-Reggie Wayne TD pass boosted the Colts margin to 31-17 late in the third quarter, WR Dante Hall responded by returning the ensuing kickoff 92 yards for his second TD of the game. Hall's 208 kickoff return yards on the day set a Chiefs single-game postseason record and were the third-highest total in NFL postseason history.

Indianapolis would answer with a one-yard TD from James, building an insurmountable 38-24 lead. The Chiefs made it interesting though as Holmes scored on a one-yard TD run with 4:22 remaining to make the score 38-31. But Kansas City's defense couldn't get the ball back until just 0:08 remained on the clock, leaving the Chiefs out of time for a comeback.

Colts 23, Chiefs 8

January 6, 2007 • RCA Dome • 57,215

KANSAS CITY 0 0 8 0 — 8
INDIANAPOLIS 6 3 7 7 — 23

The Chiefs fell behind 16-0 in an AFC Wild Card contest at Indianapolis and never could find the offensive rhythm to get back into the game, falling by a score of 23-8 at the RCA Dome. The Colts outgained the Chiefs by a 435-to-126 margin in total yards and limited Kansas City to just one-of-11 on third downs.

Despite a valiant defensive effort by Kansas City that held the Colts third-ranked offense out of the end zone for over 40 minutes, Indy shut down the Chiefs offensive attack. The Colts dominated nearly every category of the first half, but KC's defense kept them in the game by forcing three QB Peyton Manning INTs and relinquishing three first-half FGs, instead of TDs.

The Chiefs went three plays and out on each of their six first-half possessions and the Colts capitalized on three of their ensuing drives. On Indianapolis' first drive rookie RB Joseph Addai ripped off runs of 10 and nine yards to set up a 48-yard field goal.

On the Colts second drive Manning and WR Marvin Harrison converted on third-and-eight with a 42-yard pass to the Chiefs 25-yard line. Indianapolis would reach the KC one-yard line, but like they did on the first drive the Chiefs defense forced them to settle for a 19-yard K Adam Vinatieri field goal and a 6-0 lead.

The Chiefs squandered a golden opportunity to take the lead in the second quarter. CB Ty Law — who is no stranger to the playoffs with 13 postseason starts — intercepted Manning for his fifth postseason INT and returned it to the Colts nine-yard line. RB Larry Johnson ran the ball to the two, setting up third-and-goal. However QB Trent Green fell on third down after being stepped on as he pulled from center. Things got worse for Kansas City when K Lawrence Tynes' 23-yard field goal try hit the left upright, leaving the score at 6-0.

Kansas City dodged another bullet when rookie S Jarrad Page picked off Manning at the KC two-yard line with 1:50 left in the first half. However, once again the Chiefs offense couldn't move the ball and the Colts were able to sneak in a third field goal, this time from 50 yards out, to make it 9-0 at intermission.

Manning would throw his third INT of the game on the opening possession of the second half, as Law snared his sixth postseason INT, his fifth career playoff pickoff of Manning. The Chiefs couldn't convert the turnover into points and instead watched Indianapolis rattle off a 12-play, 89-yard TD drive. Manning completed four passes before Addai scored on a six-yard TD run to increase the Colts lead to 16-0.

With 3:38 remaining in the third quarter, the Chiefs finally notched their initial first down of the game on a six-yard pass from Green to TE Tony Gonzalez. That jumpstarted the offense as they would rattle off 60 yards en route to a Green-to-Gonzalez six-yard TD. A successful two-point conversion from Green to TE Kris Wilson cut the Colts lead to 16-8 after three quarters.

The one-possession deficit would not last long however as the Colts engineered a back-breaking, nine-play, 71-yard scoring drive that finished with a Manning-to-WR Reggie Wayne five-yard TD and moved Indianapolis ahead by a 23-8 margin.

The Chiefs still had hope with 4:00 left when they moved the ball to the Indy 26-yard line, but Green was sacked and stripped by DE Robert Mathis. Indianapolis would register its third turnover of the game on Kansas City's final possession, clinching the Colts 23-8 win.

IND — Vinatieri, 48-yard field goal (10-39, 4:51).
IND — Vinatieri, 19-yard field goal (10-68, 4:57).

*Only includes starts dating back to '68.

Regular kicker or punter during that period.

Notes: The Chiefs All-Time Roster includes all players who were on the active roster for at least one regular season game or playoff contest. It also includes players who accrued at least one season as a member of a reserve or injury list. The one exception to this criteria is RB Stone Johnson, who had his number 33 retired after suffering a fatal injury in a '63 preseason contest. Jersey numbers refer to those numbers worn only in regular season or postseason play.

ALL-TIME ROSTER BY COLLEGES

Notes: No assistant coaches were designated as coordinators during Hank Stram's tenure as head coach from '60-'74. The first assistants in Chiefs history to hold the title of coordinator or special teams coach came under head coach Paul Wiggin in '75. Although subsequent staffs did not always specifically denote coordinators, every attempt has been made to indicate the offensive and defensive play-callers if it was an individual other than the head coach. Beginning with Frank Gansz's staff in '87, three separate individuals have carried the titles of offensive and defensive coordinator, as well as special teams coach each subsequent season.

DT BUCK BUCHANAN

Pro Football Hall of Fame - Class of 1990

DT BUCK BUCHANAN

Pro Football Hall of Fame - Class of 1990

"I'd like to thank Lamar Hunt for his foresight in establishing the AFL, as well as 'The Mentor,' Hank Stram for the chance to contribute to the success of the AFL's winningest team. It was such a privilege to wear the 10-year (AFL) patch in the Super Bowl win over the Vikings that gave the AFL its final victory against the other league."

- Buchanan at his
Hall of Fame Induction

Measuring in at 6-7 and 280 pounds, DT Junious "Buck" Buchanan had a mythic presence, even among football people. The legendary Eddie Robinson, his college coach at Grambling, called him "the finest lineman I've ever seen." Chiefs scout Don Klosterman raved, "he can run a 220 in 20 seconds flat with a goat under each arm." The first player selected in the '63 AFL Draft – thanks to a trade orchestrated by Lamar Hunt that sent QB Cotton Davidson to Oakland – Buchanan became the first overall number one choice from a historically black college. Buchanan earned the starting defensive tackle job by the end of his rookie season and began a string of eight consecutive AFL All-Star or Pro Bowl appearances the following year. He was the anchor of the Chiefs defense that held three playoff opponents to single-digit scoring during the club's '69 World Championship run. In '71, Buchanan's dramatic sack of QB George Blanda clinched Kansas City's 16-14 win vs. Oakland (12/12/71), giving the Chiefs their last division title under head coach Hank Stram. "He revolutionized the game," Hall of Fame coach John Madden said. "Guys that tall usually played on the outside, but Buck was the first tall guy to play inside. When a tall guy with his type of speed is rushing, he takes a couple of steps and then, boom, he would be on the quarterback." Buchanan passed away on July 16, 1992.

Lamar
HUNT
Founder • 1960-2006

Southern Methodist Foolish Club (1959)

Chiefs Hall of Fame (1970)
Pro Football Hall of Fame (1972)

Founded the American Football League in '59 and served as the league's first President ... Was the first AFL figure to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on July 29, 1972 ... Described as the "architect, designer and builder of an impossible dream" by his Hall of Fame presenter, William Sullivan ... His Dallas Texans took the field as one of the AFL's charter franchises in '60 and became the Kansas City Chiefs in '63 ... Served as a principal figure in the negotiations that resulted in the AFL-NFL merger which was announced in '66 and fully completed in '70 ... Played a pivotal role in designing the league's current playoff format, as well as the adoption of the old AFL two-point conversion rule into NFL play in '94 ... Held the post of President of the American Football Conference ... Since '84, the AFC Championship Game trophy has carried his name ... Saw the Chiefs win three AFL titles ('62, '66 and '69), as well as a Lombardi Trophy from Super Bowl IV ... Was credited with accidentally putting the name "Super Bowl" on the NFL's championship game ... Graduated from Southern Methodist University in '56 with a B.S. in Geology ... Was a reserve end on SMU's football team ... He is survived by his wife, Norma and their four children, Lamar Jr., Sharron Munson, Clark and Daniel, as well as 14 grandchildren ... Born August 2, 1932 in El Dorado, Arkansas ... Died December 13, 2006 in Dallas, Texas.

THE LAMAR HUNT TROPHY

The Lamar Hunt Trophy is presented annually to the winner of the American Football Conference Championship Game. The trophy, which was designed by Don Weller, features a bas-relief action frieze developed by Merv Corning. It has a black walnut wood base with an engraved bronze faceplate. The AFC monogram is cast in bronze with a high-gloss front and back and a soft satin finish on the top and sides. The frieze is a classic football action cast in heavy silver plate. The trophy was authorized by NFL club presidents in '83 and was first presented to Miami following the '84 season.

Minnesota
Draft (No. 7 - 1963) Chiefs Hall of Fame (1980)
Pro Football Hall of Fame (1983)

Considered by many as the greatest outside linebacker to ever play the game ... Became the first Chiefs player to be enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame when he was presented by Hank Stram on July 30, 1983 ... Was just the fifth American Football League performer to be immortalized in Canton ... Superb athlete began his pro career as a defensive end because the Chiefs needed help at that position when he joined the club as a seventh-round draft choice in '63 ... Was moved to linebacker in '65, where he earned a spot in the AFL All-Star game or the Pro Bowl each of the next nine years ...

... Was named to the AFL's All-Time Team by the Pro Football Hall of Fame ... Starred on two AFL Championship teams, playing in Super Bowls I and IV ... Did not miss a contest during his 12-year career, playing in 168 consecutive games ... Intercepted 26 passes and recovered 15 fumbles ... Scored nine career TDs, including a 53-yard kickoff return ... His eight defensive touchdowns are the most of any player in franchise annals ... Versatile performer handled deep snapping on punts and kicks for the Chiefs ... Began his collegiate career as a quarterback at Minnesota ... Switched to defensive tackle as a sophomore and earned All-America honors at that position as both a junior and senior ... Received the Outland Trophy as college football's outstanding lineman in '62 ... Played on the College All-Star team that defeated the Green Bay Packers in '63 ... Is enshrined in the College Football (1991) and Missouri Sports Halls of Fame (1995) ... Was an all-state QB at Cleveland High School in Shelby, North Carolina ... Resides in Kansas City where he does marketing for Factory Motor Parts ... Born June 17, 1940 in Shelby, North Carolina.

Quarterback • 1962-75

Purdue
Free Agent (1962)

Pro Football Hall of Fame (1987)

Heart and soul of the Texans/Chiefs franchise during his illustrious career ... Presented by Hank Stram during Canton enshrinement ceremonies on August 8, 1987 ... During his tenure as the team's field general, he helped make the Chiefs one of pro football's premier teams and wound up among the elite passers in the game's history ... Under his guidance, the Chiefs were perennial contenders and won the AFL Championships in '62, '66 and '69 ... Was MVP of Super Bowl IV when he directed Kansas City to a 23-7 win over the heavily-favored Minnesota Vikings ... Won the AFL passing title four times and still holds Chiefs career marks for pass attempts (3,696), completions (2,115), passing yards (28,507) and touchdowns (237) ... Started his pro career as a first-round draft pick of Pittsburgh in '57, then landed with Cleveland before being cut by the Browns on June 12, 1962 ... Was signed by the Texans as a free agent on July 2, 1962 ... Named to six AFL All-Star teams and one Pro Bowl squad ('72) ... Named AFL Player of the Year in '62 ... Started 158 regular season games for Kansas City, by far the most of any signal-caller in franchise history ... Led the AFL in passing four different seasons ('62, '64, '66 and '68) ... Paced the AFL in completion percentage eight times, including a string of six straight seasons from '64-69, the longest streak in NFL history ... Named the '73 NFL Man of the Year as pro football's outstanding player-citizen ... Retired on May 1, 1976 ... Was enshrined in the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in '94 ... Buck BUCHANAN

Defensive Tackle • 1963-75

Grambling
Draft (No. 1 - 1963)

Chiefs Hall of Fame (1981)
Pro Football Hall of Fame (1990)

Became the third member of the Chiefs feared defense of the '60s and '70s to enter the Pro Football Hall of Fame when he was presented by Hank Stram on August 4, 1990 ... The first overall selection in the '63 AFL Draft, the pick utilized to select Buchanan was acquired in the only trade ever personally orchestrated by Lamar Hunt as the Texans sent QB Cotton Davidson to Oakland ...

The Raiders later drafted Hall of Fame G Gene Upshaw in '67 with the expressed purpose of blocking Buchanan, who became the prototype for future pro defensive linemen ... Combined perfect size (6-7, 270) with outstanding strength and deceptive speed (10.2 in the 100) ... Worked briefly as a defensive end during his rookie campaign before becoming a fixture at right defensive tackle ... Helped Kansas City win two AFL crowns and their only Super Bowl following the '69 season ... Had an eight-year stretch where he either went to the AFL All-Star game or the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl ... Was a unanimous All-AFL pick from '66-69 ... His teammates named him Chiefs MVP in '65 and '67 ... In '67 alone he batted down 16 passes at or behind the line of scrimmage ... Played in 182 career regular season games, including a stretch of 166 in a row ... Eddie Robinson, the legendary coach at Grambling where Buchanan was an NAIA All-America choice in '62, called him "the finest lineman I've ever seen." ... Played both offensive and defensive tackle at Grambling ... Enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame in '96 ... Owned All-Pro Construction Company and All-Pro Advertising in Kansas City ... Was captain of both the football and basketball squads at Parker High School in Birmingham, Alabama ... Given name was "Junious," but was known as "Buck" ... Born September 10, 1940 in Gainesville, Alabama and died July 16, 1992 in Kansas City.

"The first time I met him, I was impressed with his awesome size, speed and agility, but underneath it all, you came away impressed with a tremendous person, a great competitor and a terrific leader. He loved what he represented, his family and the Chiefs."

- Hank Stram • July 1992

Pro Football Hall of Fame (2009)

Pass rusher extraordinaire became the third Chiefs linebacker to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame ... Served as the heart and soul of the Chiefs franchise for 11 glorious seasons ('89-99) ... Was not only a bona fide star in terms of his contributions on the field, but also illuminated countless lives through his charitable efforts ... Received the '93 NFL Man of the Year Award, the '95 Byron "Whizzer" White Award and was named former President George H. W. Bush's "832nd Point of Light" ... On the field, was one of the most dominant defensive players of his day thanks to his patented sack-and-strip maneuver ... Established Chiefs career records for sacks (126.5), safeties (3), fumble recoveries (19) and forced fumbles (45) ... Only two players in NFL history own more safeties or fumble return TDs (4) ... His 126.5 sacks were the fourth-highest total ever by a linebacker at the time of his death and still rank 11th overall in NFL history ... Produced a club-record 20.0 sacks in '90, including an NFL-record 7.0 sacks vs. Seattle (11/11/90) ... A member of the Hall of Fame's All-Decade Team of the '90s, no player could top his 116.5 sacks during that decade ... The lone player in Chiefs history to see action in three different decades with his final contest coming vs. Oakland (1/2/00) ... Saw duty in 169 games (157 starts) and owns a share of another franchise mark with 10 career playoff appearances ... Won the Mack Lee Hill Award as a rookie in '89 ... Produced nine consecutive Pro Bowl berths following the '89-97 seasons, the second-highest total recorded by a player in Chiefs history ... Was the initial two-time winner ('91, '94) of the club's MVP trophy which now bears his name ... Known simply as "D.T." ... Was born January 1, 1967 in Miami, Florida, the same day the Chiefs won the '66 AFL Championship to advance to Super Bowl I. Died on February 8, 2000 in Miami, Florida following a serious auto accident on January 23, 2000 in Kansas City, Missouri.

OTHER PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAMERS

Enshrined Pro Football Hall of Fame 1997

Concluded his storied 17-year NFL career with two seasons in Kansas City ('89-90), but will be remembered by most for his 15 seasons ('74-88) with the Pittsburgh Steelers ... Regarded by many as the greatest center to ever play the game ... Noted for not only his strength, toughness, and durability, but also his character ... A fifth-round draft pick of the Pittsburgh Steelers out of the University of Wisconsin in '74, went on to become one of the most dominating and durable offensive linemen of his era ... Played in 245 career games (207 starts), tying the NFL record for most contests ever played by a center ... Only five other players in league history have seen action in more games ... A member of Pittsburgh's teams which claimed wins in Super Bowls IX, X, XIII and XIV ...

Enshrined Pro Football Hall of Fame 2000

Perhaps the finest quarterback ever to step under center in pro football history ... Concluded his masterful 16-year NFL tenure with two playoff seasons in Kansas City ('93-94) ... Spent 14 seasons ('79-92) in San Francisco and guided the 49ers to wins in Super Bowls XVI, XIX, XXIII and XXIV, earning game MVP honors three times (XVI, XIX and XXIV) ... The NFL's Most Valuable Player in '89 ... Earned eight Pro Bowl bids and led the league in passing in both '87 and '89 ... The king of the late-game heroics, exhibited his "Montana Magic" with 31 career fourth-quarter comebacks ... In '93, guided the Chiefs to their first AFC West title since '71 with an 11-5 mark ... Led Kansas City on a remarkable playoff run in '93 which concluded in Kansas City's first-ever trip to the AFC Championship Game ... Also took the Chiefs to the playoffs in '94, throwing for 314 yards in his final NFL game, a 27-17 postseason loss at Miami ... Played in 192 regular season NFL games with 164 starts and started 23 career playoff games ... Retired April 18, 1995, and at that time ranked fourth in NFL history in passing yards (40,551), attempts (5,391) and TD passes (273) ... Named to NFL's 75th Anniversary All-Time Team ... Born in New Eagle, Pennsylvania on June 11, 1956.

Marv Levy, Head Coach, 1978-82
Enshrined Pro Football Hall of Fame 2001

Just the 11th modern-era head coach to be elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame ... The only coach in NFL history to guide his squad to four consecutive Super Bowls ... Spent 16½ seasons as NFL head coach, compiling a 143-112 regular season record with the Chiefs and Bills ... Produced a 31-42 record with Kansas City from '78-82 ... Joined the Chiefs after serving a five-year stint as the head coach of the CFL's Montreal Alouettes ... After inheriting a team that was coming off a 2-12 season in '77, he installed a Wing-T offense with the Chiefs in '78 ... The club made steady improvement under his guidance, posting records of 4-12 in '78, 7-9 in '79 and 8-8 in '80 ... In '81, the Chiefs finished 9-7, marking the team's first winning campaign since '73 ... His final year in Kansas City was a strike-shortened 3-6 campaign in '82 ... A veteran of three professional leagues, served one year as head coach of the USFL's Chicago Blitz in '84 ... Took over the Buffalo Bills midway through the '86 season and produced a franchise-best 112-70 regular season record and an 11-8 postseason mark over the '86-97 campaigns ... Under his guidance, the Bills won six AFC East titles, claimed AFC Championships and represented the AFC in Super Bowls XXV, XXVI, XXVII and XXVIII ... Born in Chicago, Illinois on August 3, 1925.

Warren Moon, Quarterback, 1999-00
Enshrined Pro Football Hall of Fame 2006

Finished his 23-year career in the CFL and NFL as the most prolific passer in pro football history ... Competed in four decades of pro competition after beginning his career with the Edmonton Eskimos in '78, leading that club to an unprecedented five consecutive Grey Cup titles from '78-82 ... Made his NFL debut with Houston in '84 and went on to spend 17 seasons in the NFL ranks, seeing duty with Houston ('84-93), Minnesota ('94-96), Seattle ('97-98) and Kansas City ('99-00) ... Registered nine Pro Bowl berths during his illustrious career ... Earned All-Pro honors with the Oilers in '90, leading the league in completions (362), attempts (584), passing yards (4,689) and TDs (33) ... Including his regular and postseason totals in both the CFL and NFL, saw duty in an incredible 324 meaningful professional games, starting 263 of those contests, producing 5,754 completions, 9,880 attempts, 73,561 yards, 464 TDs and 331 INTs ... Unquestionably the most powerful runner ever to wear the Red and Gold ... Nicknamed "The Nigerian Nightmare" ... Doled out plenty of punishment during his six seasons with Kansas City ... His 1,246 rushing attempts rank second in franchise annals, while his 4,897 rushing yards rank as the third-highest total in Chiefs history ... Still holds the second-highest marks in club annals for rushing attempts in a season (370 in '89) and attempts in a game (38) ... Is third in team history with 14 career 100-yard games ... Racked up those numbers in just 79 games (65 starts) ... Became just the second Chief ever to lead the league in rushing, gaining an NFL-best 1,480 yards in '89 ... His 40 career rushing TDs rank fourth in Kansas City history ... Just the second Chiefs player ever to earn the club's Mack Lee Hill Award ('87), team MVP honors ('89) and be enshrined in the Chiefs Hall of Fame ... Was a Pro Bowl pick following the '89 and '91 seasons ... Originally came to the United States in '82 to compete in track and field at Azusa Pacific ... Joined the Azusa football squad in '84 and after just three seasons of organized football was a second-round draft choice of Kansas City in '87 ... Enshrined in the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in 2003 ... The name Okoye in Nigerian means "Blessed on Sundays" ... Born August 16, 1961 in Enugu, Nigeria.

Inducted 2002

Monumental Minnesotan anchored Kansas City's offensive line for 13 seasons from his left tackle post ... The stoic standard-bearer by which all future Kansas City left tackles will be judged ... Played a prodigious part in the resurgence of the Chiefs franchise in the '90s ... Will Shields (208) and Jim Tyrer (180) are the only offensive linemen in team history to play in more games than Alt (179) ... Started 149 of those games and owns a share of a franchise record by making 10 career playoff appearances, including the '93 AFC Championship Game ... Earned back-to-back Pro Bowl trips following the '92 and '93 seasons ... An All-Pro pick in '90-91 ... A prolific pass protector, also helped Kansas City perennially produce some of the best rushing numbers in the '90s ... The Chiefs led the NFL in rushing for the first time in team history in '95 and produced five top 10 finishes during his tenure ... Former collegiate tight end claims to have "eaten his way" out of that position before moving to tackle at the University of Iowa ... Was a first-round draft choice in '84, the third offensive lineman selected overall ... Born May 30, 1962 in Stuttgart, Germany.

Inducted 2003

The all-time leading tackler in Chiefs history with 999 career stops ... Played his inside linebacker post with tenacity and toughness for nine stellar seasons ... Led the club in tackles for four straight years ('78-81) and posted five 100-tackle campaigns ... His single-season record of 157 tackles in '79 stood until 2002 ... Played in 124 regular season contests (108 starts), averaging an impressive 8.1 tackles per game ... Accumulated 9.5 sacks, nine fumble recoveries and scored two TDs ... Was voted the Miller/NFL "Man of the Year" in '83 and O'Grady's "Crunchman of the Year" in '84 ... Helped guide the club to its first playoff berth in 15 years in '86 ... Joined the Chiefs as a third-round draft choice in '78 ... Was the first-ever consensus All-America performer at Kansas State ... Was enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame in 2003 ... Inducted into the Kansas Sports Hall of Fame in 2004 and the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in 2006 ... Has served as a member of the Chiefs front office since '89 and currently serves as the club's Director of Special Events ... Joe Delaney, Running Back, 1981-82

Electrifying runner whose promising career was tragically cut short after just two NFL seasons ... Unassuming and humble off the field, was simply amazing once he stepped between the stripes ... Burst onto the NFL scene as the AFC Rookie of the Year in '81 when he earned a trip to the Pro Bowl and was named Chiefs MVP after establishing a then-franchise record with 1,121 rushing yards ... Helped propel the '81 Chiefs to a 9-7 record, the club's first winning season since '73 ... After coming off the bench to record 101 rushing yards in his initial NFL action at New England (10/4/81), ran for 106 yards and registered 104 receiving yards in his initial pro start vs. Oakland (10/11/81) ... His 193-yard outing vs. Houston (11/15/81) remains the sixth-highest single-game rushing output in franchise history ... In just 23 career games, amassed 329 carries for 1,501 yards with three TDs, as well as 33 receptions for 299 yards ... Joined the Chiefs as a second-round draft choice out of Northwestern Louisiana where was a part of the school's NCAA Division I champion 4x100 meter relay team ... Born October 30, 1958 in Henderson, Texas ... Drowned on June 29, 1983 attempting to save the lives of three youngsters in Monroe, Louisiana and was buried on July 4, 1983 in Haughton, Louisiana ... Posthumously awarded the Presidential Citizen's Medal by Ronald Reagan on July 13, 1983 ... Received the NCAA Award of Valor in '84 and was enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame in '97.

The only individual other than Lamar Hunt who was involved with the Texans/Chiefs franchise every year from '60 until the time of Hunt's passing ... Joins Hunt as the only individual other than a player or coach to be inducted in the Chiefs Hall of Fame ... "Jack's contributions to the American Football League, Arrowhead Stadium and the Chiefs franchise have helped positively define the sport in Mid-America," Hunt remarked ... Served in the club's top management position for 29 years as both General Manager from November of '60 to '76 and President from '77 to '88 ... Was instrumental in the franchise's move from Dallas to Kansas City in '63 ... His lobbying efforts for a dual-stadium concept eventually evolved into the Truman Sports Complex, a lasting reminder of his foresight and a project whose design, development and construction he oversaw ... The Chiefs captured three AFL titles as he and head coach Hank Stram guided the franchise's fortunes with the club's finest hour coming with a victory in Super Bowl IV ... Noted for his many charitable and philanthropic efforts, was honored as the "Kansas Citian of the Year" in '88 by the Chamber of Commerce of Greater Kansas City ... Recognized as an innovative and successful businessman, held the post of Chairman of the Board for the franchise from '89-04 and served as Vice Chairman of the Board from 2005-07.

Neil Smith, Defensive End 1988-96

Inducted 2006

Was one of the bedrocks upon which the Chiefs defensive dominance of the '90s was built ... Paired with LB Derrick Thomas to forge one of the most feared pass rushing duos in NFL history ... Served as a foundation for a franchise-record string of six straight postseason appearances from '90-96, making nine playoff starts over that span ... Possessed an imposing seven-foot wingspan that helped wreck havoc on opponents and allowed him to make a myriad of momentum-changing plays ... Accumulated 86.5 sacks and 29 forced fumbles in Kansas City - totals that both rank second in Chiefs history behind only Thomas - in addition to blocking five FGs ... Will forever be intrinsically linked with his "little buddy" Thomas, but his individual accomplishments clearly stand on their own merit ... Registered double-digit sacks for four straight seasons from '92-95, leading the team or tying for the team lead with Thomas each of those years ... Voted team MVP following the '92 campaign when he had 14.5 sacks and followed up that performance with a career-high 15.0 sacks in '93 ... Played in 138 regular season games for Kansas City, accumulating 546 tackles (403 solo), three INTs with one TD, 13 fumble recoveries with one TD and 22 passes defended ... Departed Kansas City following the '96 campaign and won a pair of Super Bowl rings with Denver, but it was in Kansas City where his legacy as one of the NFL's most dominant defensive performers of the '90s was clearly solidified ... The Chiefs traded up with Detroit to select Smith with the second overall pick in the '88 NFL Draft ... Was an All-America performer at the University of Nebraska ... Born April 10, 1966 in New Orleans, Louisiana.

Inducted 2007

Vaunted cover man was a lynchpin for the league's most decorated secondary unit for over a decade ... Picked off 20 passes during his first four professional campaigns before opponents finally decided it wasn't a good idea to test him ... Four-time Pro Bowl cornerback concluded his Chiefs tenure with 38 career interceptions, the fifth-highest total in franchise history ... In addition to his exemplary coverage skills, possessed tremendous speed off the edge and owned an uncanny ability to stretch out his body on special teams ... Utilized those rare traits to become the most adept kick blocker in franchise history, swatting down a team-record 10 punts, four of which were returned by the Chiefs for a TD ... Named Kansas City's MVP following the '86 season when he accounted for 69 tackles (61 solo), four INTs, two fumble recoveries, a sack and a blocked punt ... Also earned a spot on the Chiefs 25-Year All-Time Team in '87 ... Helped lead the club to five playoff berths and was a member of the '93 squad that reached the AFC Championship Game ... Saw duty in 150 games (128 starts) for the Red and Gold, accumulating 555 tackles (450 solo), 38 INTs, 11 fumble recoveries and 4.5 sacks ... Spent the final five years of his professional career with "another" AFC West squad, but it was in a Chiefs uniform where he built his reputation as one of the most respected cornerbacks of his era ... Joined the club as a third-round selection in the '83 NFL Draft out of Grambling ... Born October 6, 1960 in Mansfield, Louisiana.

NFL MAN OF THE YEAR AWARD

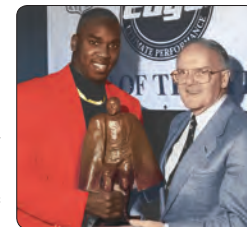

The Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award is the only NFL award that recognizes a player's off-the-field community service, as well as his playing excellence. Four Chiefs players have won this prestigious accolade since its inception in '70, a total matched only by the Chicago Bears. Every year, the accomplishments of the 32 finalists for the Walter Payton Man of the Year award – one from each NFL team – are reviewed by a blue-ribbon panel that includes Commissioner Roger Goodell, former NFL greats, the previous season's Man of the Year winner, as well as Connie Payton, widow of Walter Payton, whose honor the award was renamed after in '99. G Will Shields became the latest member of the Chiefs to earn this honor in 2003. His "Will to Succeed Foundation" was presented with a $25,000 impact grant from the NFL for his efforts. Man of the Year honorees receive the distinctive Gladiator statue, an original art creation by the noted sculptor, Daniel Schwartz. All four Chiefs winners are pictured being presented with the Gladiator statue by Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt.

Willie Lanier (1972) – Following his selection as the '72 Man of the Year, five $4,000 college scholarships were presented in Lanier's name ... Was actively involved in a campaign to prevent drug abuse and attended the President's Drug Abuse Council in Washington, D.C. in '71 ... "Drugs are one of the worst things that could happen to a potential genius or a mind of someone who could offer a lot to society," Lanier said in '72 ... Played a prominent role with the American Cancer Society in Kansas City and was Chairman of a $100,000 capital campaign for the Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Kansas City ... Has awarded $420,000 in scholarships to Morgan State University and public school students in Richmond, Virginia dating back to '86.

Len Dawson (1973) – Selected by a vote of NFL fans as the '73 Man of the Year ... Said Dawson at the time, "If we have the opportunity, we can't turn our backs on people. We can do two things with children – help them or hinder them. I want to help." ... Was actively involved in numerous charitable endeavors, including the March of Dimes and the Missouri Driving Safety Program ... Served as the '72 Missouri Chairman for the "I Quit" anti-smoking campaign sponsored by the American Cancer Society ... Was also a longtime chairman of the Chiefs Huddle Club which sponsored various youth activities ... Every year since '77 he has awarded the "Len Dawson Scholarship" to a Kansas City area high school senior.

Derrick Thomas (1993) – Through his "Third and Long Foundation" helped promote children's literacy in Kansas City ... Started an inner-city reading program and read to children at local libraries each Saturday prior to home games ... Was designated by President George H.W. Bush as the "832nd point of light" ... Also selected as the winner of the Byron "Whizzer" White Humanitarian Award in '95 by the NFL Players Association ... Thomas' father Air Force Captain Robert Thomas was shot down on a B-52 mission in Vietnam, leading Thomas to become an avid supporter of veterans and military personnel. He was the recipient of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Hall of Fame Award in '99.

Will Shields (2003) – Formed the "Will to Succeed Foundation" with his wife Senia in '93. To date, the foundation has benefited more than 100,000 individuals ... Primary foundation benefactors include children's agencies, centers for abused and neglected women and children ... The foundation also promotes literacy and creativity initiatives ... Was the inaugural winner of Pro Football Weekly's Arthur S. Arkush Humanitarian Award in '99 and was named the 2001 NFL Good Guy of the Year by The Sporting News ... The Shields are also members of the Mid-America Education Hall of Fame and were the first NFL couple recognized for their charitable efforts by The Citizenship Through Sports Alliance.

USA Today All-Joe Team

The USA Today All-Joe Team takes its name from former Chiefs DT Joe Phillips who played 14 seasons for Kansas City, San Diego, St. Louis and Minnesota before retiring following the '99 season. According to USA Today's Larry Weisman, the All-Joe Team is represented by "hard-working, overlooked, underappreciated players who do the dirty work simply because that's their lot in life."

MACK LEE HILL & DERRICK THOMAS AWARDS

Each year since '66, Chiefs players have selected a recipient for the Mack Lee Hill Award. It is a tribute to the late Mack Lee Hill, an outstanding running back who played for the Chiefs in '64 and '65. He was described as a man who played as much with his heart as he did with his driving legs in the early days of the American Football League.

In memory and tribute to Hill, the award is presented annually to the Chiefs rookie or first-year player who, as the inscription on the trophy reads - "best exemplifies the spirit of the late Mack Lee Hill ... the man with the giant heart and the quiet way." In selecting the recipient, the Chiefs veterans look for a first-year player who has displayed the spirit and attitude of Mack Lee Hill.

CB Maurice Leggett was 2008 recipient of the Mack Lee Hill Award. He recovered a fumble on a fake field goal at Oakland (11/30) and raced for a 67-yard TD in a 20-13 win vs. the Raiders to earn AFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors. He also returned an interception for a 27-yard TD at Denver (12/7). In total, he recorded 32 tackles (29 solo), one interception, four pass defensed, five special teams tackles and five kickoffs returns for 103 yards.

RB Mack Lee Hill bursts forward for yardage against the Chargers during his memorable two-year pro career with the Chiefs.

For the past 28 years the Chiefs have upheld a tradition of selecting the club's Most Valuable Player. Named in honor of the late Derrick Thomas, this Chiefs custom is especially meaningful for its recipients not only because of the man that it is named in honor of, but also because it is selected by a vote of their peers. Thomas was the heart and soul of the Kansas City defense from '89-99.

One of the most popular figures in Chiefs history, Thomas was enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2009. A member of the Hall of Fame's NFL All-Decade Team of the '90s, Thomas was the cornerstone around whom the Chiefs franchise was rebuilt.

Thomas owns franchise career records for sacks (126.5), safeties (3), fumble recoveries (19) and forced fumbles (45). Thomas recorded an NFL single-game record 7.0 sacks vs. Seattle (11/11/90). During the '90s, no other NFL player recorded more sacks than Thomas' total of 116.5, including a franchise-record 20.0 sacks for the Chiefs in '90.

TE Tony Gonzalez was the 2008 winner of the Derrick Thomas Award. Gonzalez turned in one of his finest seasons to date, overcoming quarterback changes and shrugging off injuries to lead all NFL tight ends with 96 catches for 1,058 yards and 10 TDs.

Gonzalez continued his assault on the NFL record books in 2008, finishing the year with more receptions (916), more receiving yards (10,940), more TD receptions (76) and more 100-yard games (26) than any other tight end in NFL history. The 12-year NFL veteran earned his 10th consecutive Pro Bowl berth.

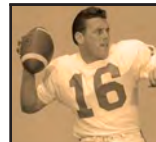

LB Derrick Thomas was one of the most brilliant performers and brightest personalities ever to wear a Kansas City Chiefs uniform.

K JAN STENERUD

Pro Football Hall of Fame - Class of 1991

"Everyone in the Hall of Fame was a great player, but only a few are the best ever at their position. Jan is the total Hall of Fame package; productive, consistent and enduring, he was a great competitor. And no one was better when the game was on the line than Jan ... With all the accomplishments, recognition, statistics and records, the best thing about Jan was Jan the person. He never changed."

- Hank Stram at Stenerud's Hall of Fame Induction

This lanky Norwegian came to America on a skiing scholarship at Montana State University in '63. Two years later, he kicked a then-NCAA record 59-yard FG and became a focus of the Chiefs fabled scouting department. Stenerud was not the first soccer-style kicker in pro football, but he was the first truly dominant kicker of the modern era. He converted nearly 70 percent of his field goals at a time when the league average was barely 50 percent. Stenerud's three field goals staked the Chiefs to a 9-0 lead in Super Bowl IV and his 48-yard kick that opened the scoring in the game stood as a Super Bowl record for nearly a quarter century. "Jan was awesome," said RB Mike Garrett. "We knew if we could get the ball to midfield, we could score." In '91, Stenerud was the first pure kicker inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Three years later, he was selected as the kicker on the NFL's 75th Anniversary Team.

AFL CHAMPIONSHIP TROPHY

The Kansas City Chiefs retained possession of the AFL Championship Trophy as the winners of the final American Football League title in '69. The trophy remains proudly displayed in the atrium of the Chiefs Practice Facility to this day. The trophy features 16 shields around its base, 10 of which are enscribed with the names of the league's champions from '60-69. Eight birds in flight add a decorative touch to this unique piece of championship hardware which is topped with a replica of an official Spalding AFL football. Fittingly, the trophy was graciously donated to the league by A.G. Spalding & Bros., the founders of the Spalding Sporting Goods Company.

FROM DREAM TO REALITY

What began with Lamar Hunt's attempt to secure an expansion NFL franchise in '58 and then an attempt to purchase the Chicago Cardinals franchise in '59, eventually led Hunt to conceive of the idea to form a second major professional football league. Fifty years later, Hunt's vision which spawned the American Football League is clearly viewed as one of the watershed moments in professional football history. The National Football League now enjoys a worldwide following with two regular season contests scheduled to be played outside the United States in 2009. New England and Tampa Bay will meet in London (10/25), while Buffalo will host the N.Y. Jets in Toronto (12/3). The legacy of Hunt and the seven other original NFL owners – whimsically known as "The Foolish Club" – will be honored this season as the Chiefs and the other original seven AFL clubs will participate in AFL "Legacy Games," and will wear a commemorative "AFL 50th Anniversary" patches in those contests.

THE EARLY DAYS

Today's NFL Owners Meetings are annual events that take over an entire hotel and are covered by countless writers and reporters. Times were much simpler in the mid-1960s when this photo was taken of an AFL Owners Meeting. In fact, all of the participants could fit around a single table. Seven of the eight principle owners of the original AFL eight are pictured here, with only Boston's Billy Sullivan being absent. From left to right: Sonny Werblin (New York), Dan Marr (Boston), Cal Kunz (Denver), Bud Adams (Houston), Wayne Valley (Oakland), Ralph Wilson (Buffalo) and Barron Hilton (San Diego).

THE "NOT-SO-FOOLISH" CLUB

It was Oakland Raiders owner Wayne Valley who coined the phrase "The Foolish Club," in reference to the original eight American Football League owners. However, thanks to the vision of Lamar Hunt, he and his fellow AFL leaders would help transform the rival league from a potential folly into a force that forever changed the American sports landscape. In the top photo, Hunt is joined by Ralph Wilson (Buffalo), Wayne Valley (Oakland) and Billy Sullivan (New England). In the lower photo, Max Winter (Minnesota) joins Wilson, Hunt and Sullivan. Winter was originally awarded the eighth AFL franchise for Minnesota, but eventually accepted an invitation to join the NFL, paving the way for Oakland to become the league's final charter member.

CB EMMITT THOMAS

Pro Football Hall of Fame - Class of 2008

"Every time I stepped on the field at Municipal Stadium and later at Arrowhead Stadium, I did it with the knowledge that I was representing the Kansas City Chiefs and I knew what it meant to millions and millions of Americans across the world. I did play the game with passion. And I played it with a lot of heart. But perhaps the most important reason I'm here, I played the game with a lot of respect and honor that the game so very much deserved from everyone who has ever had the privilege of strapping on a shoulder pad or buckling up a chin strap."

- Thomas at his
Hall of Fame Induction

The Chiefs signed CB Emmitt Thomas as an undrafted free agent out of tiny Bishop College in '66, an institution in Dallas that no longer even exists. "We knew about Emmitt and we were excited to sign him," said head coach Hank Stram. "But we never anticipated him making an impact on the team." At 6-2, 192 pounds, Thomas possessed an uncanny knack for staying locked in man-to-man coverage with the best receivers in the game. His presence helped turn a good Chiefs secondary into a great one. Thomas led the league twice in interceptions, registering an AFL-best nine INTs in '69 and an NFL-high 12 INTs in '74, earning him a spot in the final AFL All-Star Game and four trips to the Pro Bowl. He was particularly outstanding during the club's Super Bowl run in '69 when he made key interceptions in all three playoff games. None were bigger than in the fourth quarter of the '69 AFL Championship Game as the Chiefs were clinging to a seven-point lead. Thomas picked off a QB Daryle Lamonica pass at the Kansas City 20 and returned it all the way to the Oakland 18-yard line, setting up the K Jan Stenerud FG that sealed the 17-7 victory and a trip to Super Bowl IV.

GAME-WINNING FIELD GOALS

Of the 37 game-winning field goals in franchise annals, the biggest was a 25-yard kick by K Tommy Brooker that ended the second-longest game in pro football history. Brooker's FG concluded the '62 AFL Championship Game with an elapsed time of 77:54 as the Dallas Texans claimed a 20-17 win at Houston (12/13/62). Brooker received a celebratory postgame escort off the field from TE Fred Arbanas (#84) and DB Bobby Hunt (#20). Among the seven other kickers to hit a game-winning kick for Kansas City, K Nick Lowery booted a team-record 14 game-winning FGs, while K Pete Stoyanovich owns the longest kick to ever win a game for the Chiefs, a 54-yard effort vs. Denver (11/16/97).

LB DERRICK THOMAS

Pro Football Hall of Fame - Class of 2009

"In my over 35-year association with professional football, I have witnessed many memorable performances. But I have not witnessed a more dominating defensive performer than Derrick Thomas. It is on rare occasion when a defensive player dictates that his opponent know where he is aligned on every snap of every game. During the 10 years that I coached Derrick, he was everything a coach or teammate could ask for. He was a fiercely competitive player who gave his team the opportunity to win by his individual performance down after down."

- Former Chiefs head coach
Marty Schottenheimer

With his blinding first step, legendary speed off the edge and a patented sack-and-strip maneuver that led to many of his franchise-record 45 forced fumbles, LB Derrick Thomas wasn't merely the NFL sack leader in the '90s, he was the face of a revived Chiefs franchise that awoke from its dormancy to a new era of hope and prosperity. "Derrick was a player who could dominate a game," said Broncos Hall of Fame QB John Elway. "His explosive talents were so great that he could dictate to an offense pass and run-blocking schemes, as well as the plays that were called." Thomas compiled a franchise-high 126.5 career sacks, earned a spot on the NFL's All-Decade Team of the '90s and set the NFL single-game sack record with 7.0 QB takedowns vs. Seattle (11/11/90). The highest praise for Thomas may have come from his hero, legendary N.Y. Giants LB Lawrence Taylor. "Derrick is a great linebacker," said Taylor. "He is a game breaker, the guy an opposing quarterback always has to be aware of. He's going to be considered one of the best when his playing days are over." Those days ended too soon. Thomas was severely injured in a car accident on January 23, 2000. Thomas died in his hometown of Miami, Florida on February 8, 2000.

ORIGIN OF THE TERM "SUPER BOWL"

Lamar Hunt left an indelible mark on professional football. While Hunt made many lasting contributions to the game, part of his legacy will be his "accidental" naming of pro football's most important contest, the Super Bowl. As the story has been told and retold over the years, some of the facts have gotten lost along the way. Here are some of the most important elements of the tale in how the Super Bowl got its name...

- After the AFL-NFL merger was announced in June of 1966, Commissioner Pete Rozelle appointed a committee consisting of himself, Lamar Hunt (Kansas City), Tex Schramm (Dallas) and two other owners from each league (AFL & NFL) to firm up the details of the merger agreement.

Pete Rozelle and Lamar Hunt both played pivotal roles in shaping professional football.

- At one of those initial merger meetings, there was a discussion about the date of the game. As the committee discussed the championship game (which ultimately became referenced as the Super Bowl), there was some confusion on whether the parties were discussing the respective AFL and NFL title games or the game between the two leagues. It was then that Hunt first recalled saying, "You know, the last game, the final game . . . the Super Bowl."
- The "inspiration" for Hunt's whimsical suggestion was the high-bouncing "Super Ball" produced by the Wham-O company. Lamar's wife, Norma, had previously purchased one for each of the Hunt children (Lamar, Jr., Clark and Sharron) and the toy had become somewhat of a craze in the Hunt household and many other homes across the country.
- Hunt was later quoted as saying, "Nobody ever said let's make that the name of the game. Far from it, we all agreed it was far too corny to be the name of the new title game."
- In a letter from Hunt to Rozelle on July 25, 1966, Hunt urged the commissioner to "coin a phrase" for the title game between the two leagues. In the letter, Hunt said, "I have kiddingly called it the Super Bowl, which can obviously be improved upon."

book, "super" was the equivalent of "gee whiz" or "neat." He believed that the term "Super Bowl" had no sophistication whatsoever.

- Rozelle was initially inclined to call the game the "Pro Bowl," but that moniker was already assigned to the NFL's annual all-star contest.
- In the years leading up to the merger, many members of the media had billed a possible championship match-up between the two rival leagues as a "World Series of Football," but Rozelle clearly did not want to have his game associated with baseball.
- After much consternation and debate, Rozelle eventually dubbed the title contest between the two leagues as "The AFL-NFL World Championship Game." However, Hunt's whimsical, off-the-cuff comment had taken root. In the weeks leading up to the game, headline writers had already adapted Hunt's two-word title over the much more verbose official moniker for the game. The TV networks billed the game as "Super Sunday" and even NFL Films tagged their film reels as being designated for the "Super Bowl."
- After the first two "AFL-NFL World Championship Games," the term "Super Bowl" was officially adopted by Commissioner Rozelle and the NFL. The first game to officially be designated as the Super Bowl at the time it was played was Super Bowl III between the AFL's Jets and the NFL's Colts. The first two championship games were retroactively named Super Bowls I & II.

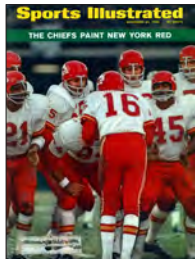

Hank Stram and Vince Lombardi exchange pleasantries prior to Super Bowl I.

CHIEFS ON SPORTS ILLUSTRATED COVERS

The Chiefs have been featured prominently on the cover of Sports Illustrated on 10 different occasions in franchise history. Three of those SI cover appearances came courtesy of Hall of Fame QB Joe Montana, who was acquired in a trade with San Francisco in '93 and eventually guided the Chiefs to an AFC Championship Game appearance that season. Here are some of the highlights of Kansas City's Sports Illustrated cover appearances . . .

Chiefs Paint New York Red (November 24, 1969): Kansas City's initial Sports Illustrated cover shot came during the club's Super Bowl IV season in '69 following a 34-16 win at the N.Y. Jets (11/16/69). While the Jets were defending Super Bowl III champions, New York could not overcome three TD passes from QB Len Dawson to WR Otis Taylor in that contest. The Chiefs later defeated QB Joe Namath and company in the '69 AFL Playoffs in a game that featured a storied goal-line stand by Kansas City's defense.

Len Dawson Engineers Superchief Upset

(January 19, 1970): After claiming their third American Football League title, the Chiefs made one final stand for the AFL with a 23-7 victory over the heavily-favored Vikings in Super Bowl IV. Minnesota's "Purple People Eaters" had lost just two games all season, but Chiefs head coach Hank Stram devised the perfect plan to "matriculate the ball down the field." QB Len Dawson – who was named the game's MVP – led an offense which executed the famed "64 Toss Power Trap" to perfection, while the Chiefs defense limited the Vikings to just one score as Kansas City claimed the Lombardi Trophy.

Cool, Joe – Montana Magic Strikes Again (January 24, 1994): QB Joe Montana made his third appearance on the cover of Sports Illustrated as a member of the Chiefs following the club's 28-20 upset win in an AFC Divisional Playoff Game at Houston (1/16/94). Fresh off of a 27-24 OT victory in an AFC Wild Card Game vs. Pittsburgh (1/8/94), the Chiefs earned a berth in their first-ever AFC Championship Game thanks to Montana, who rallied the Chiefs from an early 10-0 deficit against the Oilers. While the Chiefs offense posted 21 points in the fourth quarter, Kansas City's defense registered 7.0 sacks.

Super Bowl XXXI – It's Going to be Kansas City vs. Green Bay

(September 2, 1996): The prognosticators at Sports Illustrated were half right when they picked the Chiefs to meet the Packers in Super Bowl XXXI in the publication's '96 preseason issue that featured a fold-out cover. One side featured Chiefs QB Steve Bono, DE Neil Smith and RB Marcus Allen, while the other side depicted Packers WR Robert Brooks, DE Reggie White and QB Brett Favre. Although the Chiefs were coming off a 13-3 campaign in '95, they couldn't replicate that success in '96, finishing the year with a 9-7 record. One of those victories was a 27-20 win vs. Green Bay (11/10/96), but it would be the Packers who would go on to claim the Lombardi Trophy with a triumph in Super Bowl XXXI over New England.

The Chiefs Perfect (So Far) (November 17, 2003): QB Trent Green became the fourth Chiefs signal caller to earn a spot on the cover of Sports Illustrated thanks to Kansas City's 9-0 start to open the 2003 campaign. That nine-game winning streak featured a remarkable run by WR Dante Hall, who produced a kickoff return or punt return for a touchdown in four consecutive games. That victory stretch also was highlighted by Green's performance in a 40-34 OT win at Green Bay (10/12/03). Green led the Chiefs back from a 17-point deficit in the fourth quarter and found WR Eddie Kennison on a 51-yard TD pass in the extra period to provide the game-winning points.

CHIEFS TELEVISION NETWORK

The Chiefs Television Network is set to broadcast all four Chiefs preseason games to 10 different markets in a five-state region that includes Missouri, Kansas, Iowa, Nebraska and Oklahoma. Anchored by KCTV5 in Kansas City, the Chiefs Television Network will broadcast the club's first three preseason games in HD, while Kansas City's final preseason contest will be telecast in a 16x9 format in SD.

CBS Sports NFL play-by-play announcer Kevin Harlan will officially join the Chiefs Television Network to call a pair of preseason games for Kansas City in 2009. Harlan will be in the booth for the club's games at Minnesota (8/21) and vs. Seattle (8/29).

FOX Sports NFL analyst Jayce Pearson returns to the Chiefs Television Network for a seventh season in 2009. A cornerback for the Chiefs from '86-92, Pearson will join Harlan in the broadcast booth for the first time this season. Former Chiefs T Rich Baldinger also returns to handle sideline reports.

Veteran broadcaster Dave Armstrong will cover the play-by-play duties for two games on the Chiefs Television Network. Owning a litany of national and local broadcasting credits, Armstrong has previously broadcast Kansas City Royals and Seattle Seahawks games, in addition to Big 8, Big Ten and Big 12 basketball. Former Chiefs and longtime NFL offensive lineman Rich Baldinger will once again report from the sidelines.

CHIEFS MEDIA POLICIES

Credential Requests: All home credential requests must be made online at chiefsmedia.com a minimum of one week in advance of the game, including preseason contests. Credentials will be confirmed on Thursdays preceding Sunday games. Brad Gee is the club's credential contact. Road credential requests must be submitted to Director of Public Relations Bob Moore no later than one game previous to a road contest.

Press Will Call: Photographers, TV crews and field-only media should pick up credentials and enter through the tunnel located in the SE corner of Lower Lot E. Working Press, TV talent and Radio members having access to the Loge and Press areas should pick up credentials at Gate E. Two forms of ID will be required.

Practice: During the regular season, media are permitted to attend practice for stretching and individual drills Wednesday through Friday.

Interview Requests: Associate Director of Public Relations Pete Moris coordinates all network TV and national media requests. Brad Kuhbander handles print interviews and Josh Looney of the Chiefs PR staff handles radio requests. Radio requests must be made via email, including names of producers and talent, studio numbers and show times.

Head Coach Availability: Head coach Todd Haley is available for a media after practice on Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays, in addition to his weekly press conference.

Locker Room Policy: During the regular season players are available to the media after the conclusion of practice. The Chiefs locker room is open to the media for a maximum of 45 minutes following the conclusion of practice each day. Any additional interviews should be coordinated through Chiefs PR.

U.S. ARMY ALL-AMERICAN BOWL

The U.S. Army All-American Bowl annually showcases the top high school football players from the United States in an East vs. West contest at San Antonio's Alamodome. Three current Kansas City Chiefs participated in the All-America Bowl prior to embarking on their collegiate careers. LB Derrick Johnson played in 2001 and K Connor Barth participated in 2004, while RB Jamaal Charles made his appearance in 2005. Barth was named the Best Kicker in the Army Combine during the 2005 festivities. Through the American Bowl, the U.S. Army helps shape these future leaders by providing a national forum for these student-athletes to showcase their extraordinary talents.

UNDER CONSTRUCTION

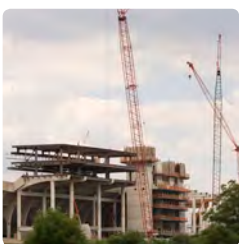

Construction is continuing on the New Arrowhead, which is slated for completion in 2010. Major excavation work began all around the stadium in 2008 that will dramatically increase the footprint of the facility. On the South side of Arrowhead at Gate E, tons of earth were moved to create room for the massive elevator shafts and reinforced concrete supports that will be one of the most noticeable exterior additions to "The Home of the Chiefs." By June of 2009, the rising elevator columns, as well as structural elements for the new press box and Horizon Level can be seen taking shape. While work will continue throughout the 2009 season, by 2010, Chiefs fans will be able to enjoy the fully-enclosed and climate-controlled concourse on the club level, as well as a host of other amenities and new spaces throughout the stadium.
